Mrs. Jennie Winegar Schneider, wife of Lowell benefactor, dies in Akron, O.

Mrs. Philip H. (Jennie Winegar) Schneider, 96, died in Akron, Ohio, on Friday, at her home. Services were held in Grand Rapids on Monday afternoon with the Rev. Charles Davis of the Lowell Congregational Church officiating. Mrs. Schneider will be interred next to her husband in Graceland Mausoleum.

Her husband, Philip H. Schneider, who died 29 years ago, October 7, 1935, remembered his boyhood home in his will and set up a trust fund of a major portion of his estate valued at that time of over a million dollars for the "Alleviation of human suffering" in Lowell and Lowell Township.

The trust known as the Philip H. and Jennie Winegar Schneider Memorial Fund would be set up after Mrs. Schneider's death.

At the time of Mr. Schneider's death it was generally thought the money would be used for a hospital, but since that time this idea is not thought to be practical. The fund left to Lowell and Lowell Township will be administered by a representative of each plus one from the Eight eager license plate purchasers were lined up waiting for Carl Smith to open the license bureau on Monday morning, and put the new blue and yellow plates on sale.

The next line-up will come February 27, the last day to purchase new plates.

Fifty-five Lowell City voters got a head start on the voting Tuesday and obtained absentee voter's ballots from the City Clerk, Mrs. Laura Shepard.

In Ada where there was a Township contest, over 100 absentee voter's ballots were used.

Construction started this week on a new professional building for Dr. Herbert Mueller, local optometrist, at 1125 West Main Street. The building permit calls for a 47x25 building, estimated at a cost of $30,000.

George R. Cook, attorney, will occupy a portion of the new building, when it is completed, next year.

Allen Fredricks, 22, 403 N. Monroe St., was fined $50 and costs and a week end in jail for driving on a suspended driver's license.

He was fined and sentenced in Justice Howard J. Rittenberger's court.

William H. Kietzman, 28, of Clarksville admitted leaving the scene of a property damage accident when he ran into the Jackson Street bridge, over Grand River last week.

He was fined $50 and costs by Justice Rittenberger and was ordered to pay $75 for damage to the bridge.

Halloween was uneventful in Lowell, Police Chief Avery Block reported. Egg throwing was the only serious complaint that the police had to contend with.

The Moose party at the 4-H fairgrounds was a great success.

The fire department was called to a grass fire on Sunday afternoon to the Bruce McMahon home on Reservoir Hill.

The fire was quickly brought under control.

Ten years ago this week...

Hugh Linkfield was in critical condition in Blodgett Hospital from injuries incurred when the car he was driving crashed into Lowell's west gateway pillar... Polly Doran, Maureen Rankin, Lila Lee Green and Frances Brown were competing for the homecoming queen at LHS... A heavy sweep carried the entire Democratic party, headed by Governor Williams, into office in the state...

Gail McMahon, 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. Vada McMahon, was listed as an all A student in the honor roll and also was the teen of the week...

Walter Gumser on school study group

Named as one of the county at-large members to the 18-member committee to study reorganization of Kent County School districts is Walter W. Gumser, former Lowell school superintendent.

The committee will have the last word in reorganizing the school districts of Kent County. They will determine the boundaries and which districts must join other K-12 county districts. Another member of the committee from this area is Neil Weathers, a Grand Rapids attorney, living near Ada. He is also a member of the Forest Hill School Board.

Future Nurses Club elects 1964-65 officers

On Tuesday, October 27, the Future Nurses Club of Lowell High School held its first meeting of the year.

Officers elected for the school year were Linda Byrne, president; Sally Kwekel, vice-president; Lois Wisner, secretary; treasurer and Tonya Knight, reporter.

The purpose of the Future Nurses Club is to teach the girls what nursing includes. This is accomplished through various films and projects conducted through the year.

The highlight of the year is a field trip taken each spring to a hospital, medical laboratory, or other places relating to the field of medicine.

Moose Lodge to serve turkey dinner Sunday

An old fashioned turkey dinner will be served Sunday, November 8, by the Moose Civic Affairs Committee.

The Moose dining hall will be buzzing with activities when serving starts at 12:30, and ends at 6 p. m.

The menu will read Turkey Dinner—turkey, dressing, mashed potatoes, gravy, relish tray, vegetables, minced or pumpkin pie, coffee or milk.

A special addition to this year's dinner is the family ticket—a family with children under 14 can purchase their ticket for only five dollars.

Lynch wins by 50 votes

Richard Lynch, Ada Township Supervisor, challenged by James Boylon on the Democratic ticket, won by 50 votes, 630-580. Neal VandePeerle had a much larger margin over his opponent Bettie Beahan in the treasurer's race, winning by 314 votes, 740-426. Ada voted for Goldwater by a margin of only 7 votes. In Cascade Township Precinct 2 voted for Johnson over Goldwater 459-415; the total township vote was in favor of Goldwater by 889-770.

The vote on Tuesday was the largest vote in both townships and the Democratic President received a greater percentage than Kennedy. Across the country Johnson led Goldwater by 15 million votes; in Michigan over a million voters split their tickets and Romney won by over 300,000 votes.

Eagles, Redskins Tie

On Saturday with the championship game on the line, the Eagles dropped their game to the Redskins to cause a two-way tie.

The Redskins won by a score of 24-13. The Redskins scores were made by Mark Nisbet who ran 60 yards, Bill Condon who ran 30 yards after intercepting a pass, Jake Callier who scored on a 30 yard pass play, and Dennis Dewitt who ran 90 yards to score the last and final touchdown.

The Eagles scored twice on runs of 20 yards each by Joe Rinard. Congratulations are in order for these two teams who tied for the championship.

The Giants, who have come on strong the past two weeks, continued their fine all-around team play in defeating the Cowboys 31-6. The lone Cowboy score was made on a 35 yard pass play from Doug Abel to Joey Ellis.

The Giants scored in every quarter while scoring the most points in one game. It was Blake Johnson who scored all the touchdowns. The first was a run of 60 yards, then after Ken Kropf intercepted a pass, Blake ran 30 yards for the score. His next score came after Dan Pierce ran 40 yards to the 5. From there Blake ran in for the score with Dave Avery making the point after the touchdown. Blake's last two scores were made on runs of 40 and 15 yards, respectively.

The Packers ended up second in the standings with a lopsided win over the Lions 54-6. Dan Kline and Gord Lind led the scoring for the Packers who played their best game of the year.

The lone touchdown came at the end of the first half. Jim Fedowicz intercepted a pass, and ran 20 yards to the 2 where Pat McMahon ran the ball over for the score. Here is the Packer's scoring:

Bears	4	1
Packers	3	2
Colts	2	3
Lions	1	4

Arrow J. V.'s down Scotties

Lowell Junior Varsity defeated Caledonia's JV's last Thursday evening 14-0 on the looser's field.

It was the first loss for the Caledonia team. Coach Gerald Smith rated the Scotties JV team as the best Lowell has faced all season; this even includes Class A. Grandville's JV team.

Lowell scored its first TD on a dive play by Steve Thaler from the 5-yard stripe. Craig Thurtell ran in for the point.

At halftime the Arrows were inside the Caledonia 10.

The final two periods were a good defensive game with Lowell scoring its second TD on a 10 yard off tackle play run by Hillis Kauffman behind some excellent blocking. Collins passed to Grudzinskas for the extra point.

The defense of Grudzinskas, Haywood, Nauta, Briggs, Hall, Graig, Vidian, Olson, Kauffman, Thurtell and Collins was the best of the season.

Lowell will play at Sparta on Thursday at 7 p. m. for the final game of the season.

Champs decided in Y's junior flag football

The Bears won the Championship Saturday morning, October 31, by defeating the Colts 20-18. The Bears scored once each in the first three quarters on the running of Steve Thurtell. He made all the Bear's touchdowns on runs of 70, 15, and 50 yards. Congratulations to all the Bears for their fine work in winning the championship.

The Colts also scored three touchdowns, but failed to make the points after touchdown.

Tom Kwoers scored first on a 10-yard run in the first quarter. In the second quarter Jerry Thompson returned a kickoff 60 yards for the score. The final touchdown was made by Jerry also. This was a 10-yard pass play thrown by Mitch McMahon.

Reynolds was born in Lowell 47 years ago, graduated from Lowell High School in 1935 and University of Minnesota School of Mortuary Science. He served in the European Theatre with the 1st Army in World War II and left the service a captain.

Reynolds operated his own funeral home in Columbiaville, Michigan, for 18 years before coming to Lowell, last year. He currently is remodeling a home at 604 North Hudson St, where he will reside with his wife, Marjory and three children, Elizabeth, Herb, jr., and Margaret.

He is a past president of the Columbiaville Rotary Club and served on the Village Planning Commission. He is a member of the Lowell Methodist Church.

He will serve out the term of Ralph Townsend, who resigned.

Purchase New Truck

The City Council on Monday night approved the low bid of Jackson Motor Sales for a new street department truck to cost $3,362.00.

The council also acted to hold a hearing on the extension of water service to the east city limits on Main Street.

City Manager Olson reported that Lowell's 9.2 points were not sufficient to obtain a Federal grant for construction of a sewage treatment plant this year. He advised selling the bonds next year and placing the money in time certificates until the Federal funds are available.

The Council accepted the bid of the Davey Tree Company to trim trees but rejected their bid for removing 8 trees. New bids will be taken on the tree removal.

Toys, clothing being sought for Christmas project

Cast-off toys and out-grown clothing is being sought by the Moose Civic Affairs Committee for Operation Santa Claus.

As they have done for the past 13 years, the local lodge will give Santa Claus a helping hand this December 25, and help to make Christmas happier for the area youngsters who might be passed by in this area.

Toys, food and articles of clothing are gathered and supplied to families which otherwise would not have such a happy holiday season. This is done in cooperation with the Kent County Welfare Department, the local police department, and the Women of the Moose, Chapter 1388.

Check your child's toy box— if he has toys that have been unplayed with because they are broken, give them to the Civic Affairs Committee who will repair them for another youngster to enjoy at Christmas time.

Laverne Baker, chairman of the Civic Affairs Committee, stated Monday that all contributions will be appreciated, both by the Moose and by those children whose Christmas stockings will be fuller, because of the kindness of those who remembered.

At the October meeting of the Snow Farm Bureau the following members were elected to office for the ensuing year.

Al Heemstra, chairman; Mrs. L. Antonides, vice-chairman; Mrs. Clare Carey, secretary-treasurer; and Francis Campau, discussion leader.

Arrows meet Sparta in contest here for Tri-River Conference title

The Lowell High School football team will meet Sparta in the final game of the season to determine the Tri-River title holder.

Sparta has lost one conference game to Rockford, while Lowell is undefeated.

The big job for Coach Charles Pierce will be to keep his team in a competitive spirit. The easy time the Arrow have had with their last two opponents, Cedar and Caledonia, has failed to keep them fired up. Sparta is pointing for this game and remembers how they dropped Lowell from the undefeated basketball teams last winter.

Romp Over Caledonia 40-14 Lowell played a good first half against Caledonia last Friday piling up a 34-0 lead in the first half.

McIver scored the first TD on a 18 yard pass; McMahon set up the score with a 35 yard scamper on a pitch-out. McMahon skirted end for the point.

McMahon ran 30 yards around right end for the second score. They playfully passed Elzinga to Kropf to McMahon for the point.

McMahon intercepted a Scottie pass in the second period

Amway zooms from basement to bonanza!

Present plaque to Amway founders

Randy Preston, personnel manager of Amway Corporation is pictured here as he presented a plaque from the employees to the founders, Jay VanAndel, Chairman of the Board and Richard DeVos, President of Amway, on the occasion of the 5th anniversary of the company.

Five years ago, 1959, Amway was operating out of the basements of its founders, Jay VanAndel and Dick DeVos. The view above shows, facing the camera: Kay Evans, Ada Deuka and Echo St. John, the beginning of what has grown into a staff of 400 employees and 75,000 distributors in 48 states.

Today it takes an airview to show all the facilities on the 254 acre site at Ada. Amway is one of the top direct selling companies in the United States and is heading for the peak. The company produces products ranging from spray shoe polish and car care products to washing machine powders and was removed. Currently Amway has 78 products and new products are being introduced at the rate of two per month.

The vision, faith in the American way, was required to build all this in five short years. The company now has $25,000,000 in sales at the current rate. Leading products of Amway that are creating national attention are LDC, biodegradable general purpose liquid detergent, and SA-3, biodegradable, concentrated washing machine powder.

Something new is being added at Amway—this has been going on for the past five years. Dan Vos, Ada contractor who has built most of the Amway buildings has under construction a two story, 120,000 office building. When finished in 1965 it will house many of the offices now scattered through several buildings. It is designed for top efficiency of operation.

Little towns need big plans

Almost daily we see evidence of the dangerous trend toward retail monopoly. Small merchants and small towns are being squeezed out of existence by so-called discount houses and the attractive shopping centers. But this is not a new trend, it is simply accelerating. Many small towns and their merchants can fix part of the blame on themselves. There is no use of elaborating on this here because if they do not little use dwelling on it. But it is said to see this frightening trend.

Little towns in this area were born because of the railroad stations and grating mills. Villages grew to serve surrounding farms. In horse and buggy days it was an hour by team to these towns; today an hour can put the farmer on the other side of the state. Since the advent of the automobile, the small town has been in a decline. With the small town merchant no longer having a "captive" trade territory, retail sales went into a gradual decline. On the other hand, the aggressive small town businessman with vision, energy and imagination, found that the highways run both ways and he has been able to prosper.

But make no mistake—the auto and farm revolution rendered most small towns obsolete. Thousands already belong to history and thousands more will join them tomorrow. No formula can save them, none should be attempted because too many weak communities threaten all.

Senior play cast is announced. Pictured above are the Lowell High School seniors who will be taking the lead parts in the Senior Play, "The Girls in 509" which will be presented in the high school auditorium on the evenings of November 20 and 21. Pat Mullen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Mullen of Lowell, will play the part of Aunt Hetty, a queer old woman who sits here and her niece to live their lives in seclusion, beginning with that black night in November of 1932 when Herbert Hoover lost the election. She vowed to remain secluded until that man was out of the White House, and a Republican was elected. Aunt Hetty is over-protective with her niece and her proud, domineering nature is plainly evident. Mimsy played by Sharon Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Jones of Lowell, is an ugly old maid of 40 who, due to the fact that she has been shut up in their hotel rooms since she was 19, is very starved for companionship, especially of the male species. Noel Christoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Christoff of Lowell, plays the part of Aubrey McKittrick, a lawyer. McKittrick is not only dishonest, but stupid. He tries all sorts of ways to bilk the girls of their money as he and his father have done in the past. He is extremely humorous, as most of the characters are, and it is a must that everyone see this political satire, "The Girls in 509," to be presented by the Senior Class on November 20 and 21.

Keep poisons in safe place. Keep poisons away from children, warns a Michigan State University extension safety specialist. Each year 600,000 children under 5 years of age swallow poisonous substances found in their homes, says Richard Pfister. About 450 of these cases are fatal. Children about a year old are most likely to get into cleaning and polishing materials. rodent and insect poisons, solvents and kerosene, he says. All these materials are often stored close to the floor, under sinks, or on low shelves. They are a prime target for the youngster whose hands move faster than his feet. The National Safety Council's theme for Farm Safety Week this year is, "Safer American Families Everywhere," says Pfister. They recognize the seriousness of poisoning by medicines and common household cleaning agents by the more than 10 deaths per month these preparations. Modern labeling laws require that hazardous products be marked to indicate their degree of danger. However, the small child can't read and is prone to eat anything despite irritating fumes or obnoxious taste or smell. He urges parents not to tell children that medicine is candy to induce them to take pills without fussing. They may later take a dangerous overdose in the container handy so you can tell the doctor the brand name and contents so that he can determine the best remedy.

Word Of Promise

When General MacArthur left the Philippines in the early months of World War II because of the Japanese advance, his first words on reaching Australian soil were: "I shall return." The General kept his promise, and three years later, wading ashore in a battle area, he said, "I have returned."

Just before His departure from earth the Lord Jesus gave His promise to His disciples: "I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again..." (John 14:2, 3). That word of promise can never be broken. And the believer now awaits the fulfillment of that word. We rest assured that "the Lord Himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God" (1 Thess. 4:16). Indeed, that word of promise is as good as fulfilled, only there is "yet a little while, and He that shall come will come." (Hebrews 10:37).

Fainting believer, look up, for your redemption draweth nigh.

From The Counselor's Desk

Grand Rapids Junior College recently notified the high school that some 52 Lowell area residents are enrolled in full-time or part-time study at the college.

Recent college acceptances for the 1965-66 school year have been received by Suzanne Thaler, MSU; Laurel Hobbs, Sue Doyle and Diane Francisco, all to Central Michigan Universities.

Students are being surveyed this week in preparation to setting up the 2nd annual Career Night program for Tuesday, December 1.

The careers and colleges receiving the largest number of student responses will receive first consideration.

Many seniors made good use of one of their days off during the recent MEA Institute and visited their potential college.

Three senior girls wrote a pre-nursing examination for practical nursing at Junior College. They were Nancy Collins, Tonya Knight and Pat Thompkins—and all three have been notified that they passed.

Several high school staff members had the opportunity to preview a very excellent film entitled "Worth Waiting For." It dealt with teenage engagements and marriages.

Most startling among the facts presented was that of the 50 percent divorce rate that exists with couples married by the age of 18 and before they reach the age of 20.

The film is being considered for student viewing in the near future.

If you haven't already done so, please circle the date of December 1, 1964, on your calendar and then plan to attend a most informative evening with your high school age son and/or daughter. The program, "Career Night" is presently being planned by the students.

The Michigan State Highway Department urges all of us to make courtesy our code of the road.

Alice Murray and Donald Sleeman wed Saturday

Saint Paul's Lutheran Church, Calofonia, was the scene of a wedding Saturday afternoon, October 31, uniting Miss Alice Inge Murray and Donald Dwayne Sleeman.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a floor-length gown of embroidered organza over satin. The gown was fashioned with a croup neckline and a fitted bodice accented with a back bow of satin. A crown of pearls and sequins secured her floor-length veil of illusion trimmed with lace. She carried a single white rose.

Mrs. Harold Everett of Clarksville, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. Bride's maid was Miss Sherry Johnson of Alto. They were identical street-length gowns of blue organza accented with a sequin neckline, long sleeves and a bell-shaped skirt. The honor attendant carried arrangements of blue hydrangea and carnations.

Robert Connor of Alto was the best man. Raymond Murray of Alto, brother of the bride, William and Terry Sleeman of Grand Rapids, brothers of the groom, seated the guests. Florence Dutton of Grand Rapids sang the "Wedding Prayer" and the "Lord's Prayer" accompanied by the organist, Nancy Erickson of Grand Rapids.
