

Undefeated Arrows Tri-River Champions

Lowell completed its 1964 football season on Friday night against Sparta with a 32-7 win to give this year's team a 5-0-1 season, its first undefeated season since 1937.

Since the Tri-River Conference began 4 years ago Lowell has ended the three previous years in second place. This year by going undefeated, they grabbed the prize long sought by Coach Charles Pierce. The only setback of the season was a 13-13 tie with powerful Grand-Valley Champion Grandville who had a 6-1-1 season in Class A competition.

This year Lowell had the same backfield and one end that played in 1963. This year's line was somewhat smaller than last year's, but made up in spirit what it lacked in size, fighting its way to an undefeated season.

Outstanding performer for the year and possible "All State" choice is 6 ft. 5 in., 202 lb. senior, Duane McIver who led the team in scoring. He caught 35 passes for 716 yards and 13 touchdowns. Caught passes for 5 extra points, and scored a safety. He scored 83 points.

Close behind McIver and top yard gainer for the Arrows is 6 ft., 192 lb. senior Mike McMahon who carried the ball 80 times for 726 net yards, an average of 9.1 yards per carry. He caught 5 passes for 112 yds., returned 7 kick-offs for 258 yds., total offensive yardage 1239 yds. Mike scored 11 touchdowns and 7 extra points for a total of 73 points.

The third outstanding performer for the 1964 team was 6 ft. 2 in., 205 lb. senior Paul Kropf who carried the ball 102 times for 451 net yards, an average of 4.4 yards per carry. He caught 6 passes for 140 yards, returned 6 kick-offs for 103 yards, returned 2 punts for 10 yards. Total offensive yardage 704 yards. Paul was the team's punter. He scored 7 touchdowns and 8 extra points for a total of 50 points.

Defensive Leaders
Kurt Beimers, 6 ft. 2 in., 170 lb. senior was great as defensive end. He was especially adept at rushing the passer. Because of the rush he and McIver put on the passer, our defensive backs were able to intercept 11 passes during the season. He blocked 2 punts and ran one 30 yards for a touchdown. He also scored a safety.

Outstanding as linebacker was Chris VanDyke, 5 ft. 11 in., 186 lb. senior. He led the team in tackles. His alert play stopped many gains inside our tackles. Besides playing the middle linebacker spot he also won a spot as regular offensive tackle.

Another fine blocking lineman was Tony Myers, 5 ft. 8 in., senior tackle. He was an excellent blocker on the interior line. He pulled on all sweeps and had the speed to keep in front of our ball carriers. He threw the key block on many long runs. This was his first year as a lineman as he shifted from fullback.

These are just a few of the boys who played hard, tough football to give Lowell the championship. Every member of the team gave every effort to make this an outstanding season, reported Coach Pierce.

Defeat Sparta 32-7
Sparta kicked off to Lowell to open the game. The Arrows moved to a first down on the Sparta 41 only to have an Elzinga pass intercepted. After holding Sparta, Lowell took over on their 22, a pass on 3rd down to Kropf moved the ball to the Arrow 46. On the first play of this series McMahon started around his left side, cut back to the right side of the field with some beautiful blocking and scored the first TD. Kropf went in for the point.

Early in the second period McIver blocked a Sparta punt on the 38, and Beimers picked up the ball and ran to the Spartan 10. Elzinga passed to McIver in the endzone for the TD. Kropf's attempt for point failed. Later in this period Lowell got the ball on their 30 and in 3 plays went in to score, McIver taking a pass from Elzinga. Kropf plunged over for the point. Lowell led at the half 20-0.

Sparta got the ball on the second play Gary Kropf submerging into the Sparta backfield stole the ball from the quarterback, laterated it off to McIver who ran 26 yards for the TD. Vidian's try for point failed.

Early in the final period Kropf ran 44 yards for a touchdown only to have the ball called back on a penalty. Six plays later after McMahon, Kropf and Finkler had moved the ball to the Sparta 13, Elzinga passed to McMahon for the touchdown. Jerry Dykstra try for point failed.

Sparta scored its only touchdown late in the 4th period against Lowell's reserves on a long pass. They kicked the extra point.

Elzinga, senior quarterback, passed 103 times for 53 completions and a total of 1033 yds. Vidian was tops on interceptions with 5 out of a team total of 15 for the season.

Plans for new class rooms are up for discussion on Nov. 30

Lowell Area School Board discussed at length the needs and plans for additional classroom space in the elementary school at the meeting Monday night. A special meeting devoted exclusively to this discussion will be held on November 30.

Superintendent Nisbet produced the fifth Friday figures which found 600 high school students; 343 junior high students and 1157 in the elementary schools. Alto has 205 students in grades Kindergarten through 5th which are included in the previous figures. Nisbet said that a record breaking 214 freshmen will enter the high school next year. The elementary school is short four classrooms this year and this is expected to be the same next fall.

Several plans have been discussed for obtaining more classroom space, most recently building an upper elementary (5th and 6th grades) on the west side near the new high school. A survey of the junior high school building is underway and building additional rooms at the east side school site has also been considered.

Refuse Gas Easement
The request of Consumers Power Co. to construct a 4-inch gas main across the playground at the elementary school was turned down by the board. Plans to build in the area and safety reasons are behind this refusal.

A request to hold a summer hand camp in late August next year for the Lowell High School band was discussed and the director Orval Jessup was requested to bring in more information. The board agreed generally that this was an idea worth considering.

Child Study Club will view slides

The Lowell Child Study Club will hold its meeting in the home of Mrs. C. Oren Balcom, 13756 Oberley Dr. on Thursday November 19, 1964, at 8 p. m. Co-hostess for the evening will be Mrs. Orson Abel.

Mr. Hahn of Blodgett Home will show slides of "Is It Well with the Child." Mr. Hahn has been with the Blodgett Home for six years. He has worked in the Florida Hospital for five years. He is a graduate of Calvin College and the University of Michigan. He is also Field man for Michigan State University.

There will also be a Queen's Way Fashion Show, demonstrator Marilyn Keim.

This is also guest night, so let's do our best to make this a real big turnout.

Steven Fritz undergoes pre-teaching training

More than 500 Western Michigan University seniors are preparing to become teachers by taking part in the student teaching programs in classrooms throughout southwestern Michigan.

Steven Fritz, the son of Mrs. Iva Fritz, Route 2, Lowell, is teaching the sixth grade at Dawson School in Allegan.

He is a 1969 graduate of Lowell High School, attended the Grand Rapids Junior College and is now a senior at Western Michigan University.

Marking one of the final steps in pre-teaching training, the students spend one semester of their senior year in their subject fields working with experienced teachers.

Windbreaks aid Lowell farmers

We have assisted Robert E. Connor, Solon Twp. with a revision of his soil and water conservation plan. Glenn Converse first assisted with this, the 30th plan made in the Northeast District in 1948.

Most of the planned conservation practices have been applied. Three fine field windbreaks have made good growth as has the six acre pine plantation. One hundred acres of cropland have been farmed as modified wind field strips by a neighbor, Wayne Hagenah. Wayne is also a District cooperater. He has 40 acres of field strips on his own farm. He is cooperater number 31 in this district.

"Wind field strips have been a benefit in our neighborhood," says Hagenah. "Wind erosion, now is much less of a problem and we do a better job of farming! I plan to add more strips on the home farm," says Wayne.

Howard Piccard, Alpine Twp. has installed 3000 feet of tile. George Rodgers, Caledonia added 2600 feet to a tile system begun last year.

James Squires, Soil Conservation Service technician reports that he has assisted District land owners with the completion of sixteen ponds thus far in 1964. Of these, four are for wildlife, six were made for irrigation use and six are for livestock watering use. The sixteen were completed out of a total of 40 requests for cost sharing under the ASC program. Twenty-four sites were found unsuitable as practical locations because of unfavorable soil conditions or insufficient available water sources.

School library has books on exhibit

The Lowell Runciman Elementary library has again secured "Books on Exhibit" as an added service to our school.

The exhibit originated in Mt. Kisco, New York. It is a collection of approximately 500 of the current releases of library books from over 50 publishers. These 500 books are divided into divisions of Kindergarten through 5th grades.

"Books on Exhibit" does not sell books. They only wish to acquaint parents with the availability of these books to our school system.

For the convenience and interest of the parents in these grades, you are cordially invited to come in and browse around on November 12, 13, 16, and 17, during the school hours of the Parent-Teacher conferences.

Mrs. Eileen McLaughlin will be on hand to answer any questions you might have pertaining to this exhibit.

Co-weds to hear local astronomer, study stars

Co-Weds will be held this Saturday evening, November 14, in the Congregational church dining room. Starting time will be promptly at 7:30 p. m. Darrol and Eileen McLaughlin, chairmen for this month's program, have picked Autumn as their theme, and for the program they have procured James Marron, a local astronomer. Mr. Marron will begin with a film, "The Universe", relating to our galaxy and solar system, and how astronomers work. He will follow this with a talk and a question period.

Please, Co-Weds, try to make this most interesting program, and bring a guest.

Soil Conservation Service personnel who showed slides or films and discussed soil and water conservation at the following locations recently are: Lester Mark to the Izaak Walton League at the Grand Rapids YMCA. The "America the Beautiful" slide series was used to show conservation applied in the 50 states.

James Squires showed the Michigan Conservation Department's film, "The Michigan Deer Story" to the Courtland Grange. He discussed wildlife conservation questions.

We showed slides of our trip to Mexico on people, places and land use in that country to the Alpine-Walker Farmers' Club at the Earl Stoll residence.

A large number of new district cooperators plan farm building windbreaks to be planted next spring. Three staggered rows of adapted pine, planted 10' x 12' are more effective than closely spaced pine where inner branches are killed by shading.

Eric Strand, Lowell Twp., notes the increased effectiveness of their pine and spruce farmstead windbreak now nearly twenty feet high.

District Director Harold Williams reports extensive red oak and soft maple selective timber harvesting from the 28 acre woodlot in Oakfield Twp. Harold was pleased with the good re-growth made since the last harvest in 1949.

Soft maple once thought of as a weed tree is now in demand. Sixty to 80 percent of this maple shows worm damage. This grade can only be used as "hidden stock" by the furniture industry.

Christmas draws near as Moose mends toys

Christmas is only 43 days away, and members of the Moose Civic Affairs Committee are busy repairing used toys and clothing for their annual Operation Santa Claus project.

Old toys are mended and repainted by members of the lodge, and given to less fortunate area youngsters on December 25. The lodge has been boosting Santa Claus' load in this area for the last 13 years. Over 100 families per year have benefited from this project.

If you have any cast-off toys or outgrown clothing that would make another youngster happy, donations to this project can be made at Roth's LP Gas on West Main Street or at Lewis Electric on East Main Street.

Any donation, big or small, will put smiles on the faces of little ones at Christmas time. Besides the Civic Affairs Committee, the project is being supported by the Women of the Moose, the Kent County Welfare Department, and local police authorities.

Junior Varsity is undefeated; wins over Sparta 32-7

The Lowell Junior Varsity team ended the season Thursday night beating Sparta's Junior Varsity 32 to 7 at the loser's field. This ended an undefeated season for the Junior Varsity.

Coach Smith had real high praise for his team that showed improvement in every game this year with a lot of good spirit, desire, and sportsmanship throughout the season.

Sparta won the toss and elected to receive. On their first series of downs, and along with costly penalties, Sparta scored on a dive play good for one yard.

Lowell scored later in the first quarter on an off tackle play good for 30 yards by Hillis Kauffman. The extra point was good.

This made the score 7 to 6 at the end of the first quarter. Lowell scored again in the second period on a 10 yard pass play from quarterback Steve Collins to end Paul Haywood. This time the extra point was good on an end run by Craig Thurtell, making the half time score 13 to 7.

During the third period Lowell scored on a 35 yard run by Kauffman that was right straight up the middle. The extra point was good on a run by Steve Thaler.

Lowell scored twice during the 4th quarter on a run by Thaler that covered 40 yards and a run by Pete Manigold that was good for 20 yards. Both extra points were missed.

Summarizing up the season, Coach Smith felt that the defensive team of ends Paul Haywood and Chuck Grudzinskas; tackles Jim Nauta and Rick Briggs; Guards Mike Hall and Mark Craig; Linebackers Denny Vidian, Mike Olson and Hillis Kauffman; and safeties Craig Thurtell and Steve Collins forced our opponents to make numerous mistakes which in turn enabled the offense to score.

Twice during the year the defensive team accounted for 2 safeties. Once against Ionia and once against Belding. Four games this year were played in the rain with the defensive team giving up only 14 points. Also, four teams were held scoreless this year. It is felt a good defensive team will produce the offensive team which was surely noticeable this year on the Junior Varsity team.

Reconstruction of Fallsburg set at dinner meeting

Ladies of the Vergennes Co-operative Club held a dinner meeting at the Vergennes Town Hall on Saturday to open their drive to interest the entire county in establishing a reconstructed Early American community at Fallsburg. Civic leaders of Kent County, Lowell, and other communities were invited to join with the club in hearing of plans to reconstruct the town of Fallsburg. This thriving community of the 1860's, rebuilt, could be an outstanding West Michigan tourist attraction and a real credit to Kent County.

Norton Avery, member of the historical committee working on this project showed colored slides of the landmarks and surviving buildings and pictures of other like projects in other parts of the United States.

George Mueller, Kent County Parks, spoke of the interest of the Park Commission who have purchased additional land on the east side of Flat River at the park and took over the former Fallsburg School. The school is the first project to get underway and the ladies of the club are working to find the original type furnishings for the school museum.

It was pointed out that with the covered bridge and the school to start with, the project has a wonderful start. The cooperation of everyone in the entire county is being solicited to develop this Early American community into an outstanding attraction.

LHS cast prepares for Girls in 509

"The Girls in 509" to be presented by the senior class on November 20 and 21, is a comedy for Republicans, Democrats, Independents—in fact, any voter who wants to laugh. When a not-now fashionable hotel in New York is being remodelled, a pair of hermit ladies (Pat Mullen, Sharon Jones) are discovered in one of the back suites. They have been there ever since that black night in November 1932, when Herbert Hoover lost the election.

Deliberately cutting themselves off from the outside world, they have vowed to remain secluded until "That Man" is out of the White House and a Republican is elected.

Led by a professor of journalism (Dennis Potter, whose name was inadvertently left out of the main character list last week) from a small Mid-Western college who is under the impression he is working for the New York Times, the press descends upon the two ladies. Close on the heels of the press is the National Chairman of the Republican Party, and another visitor is the National Chairman of the Democratic Party.

As members of one of the country's oldest and once richest families, (They even papered their suite with shares of General Motors stock!) the two ladies defy both politicians and are faced with eviction and disgrace. They retain their independence and privacy, however, when unheard of wealth pours down upon them and they move in the glittering, bejeweled triumph of the past, to a new hermitage in the Waldorf-Astoria.

The cast includes: Mimsy, Sharon Jones; Aunt Hettie, Pat Mullen; Old Jim, Gary Swift; Miss Ryan, of the Daily News, Kathy Tapley; Pusey, Dennis Potter; Miss Allen, Freud, Sue Doyle; Winthrop Allen, Terry Ladner; Miss Summers of the Herald Tribune, Tonya Knight; Johnson of the Daily Mirror, Mike Green; Francis X. Nella, Terry Ladner; Aubrey McKittrick, Noel Christoff; and Rosenthal, of the Post, Rick Maloney.

"The Girls in 509" should not be missed! Be sure and see it November 20 and 21—You'll get a chuckle out of it!

Vickie Austin brought her birthday treat. Her birthday is on November 7. Another girl has joined our group, Lisa Siciliano. No meeting on November 12. There is no school for the 3rd grade of the Runciman Elementary school.

Shades of sound. Painters are loners, says U-M authority
The painter is a lonely man, says Michael P. Church, assistant director for cultural activities of the University of Michigan Extension Service.
"Musicians, by their very nature, are a gregarious lot," says Church. "They are at their best when they find themselves in duets, trios, quartets, octets, choirs, symphonies and other sundry assemblies," he notes.
"And as you might expect, the music teachers of the state, as well as performers, are impressively well organized," he states.
"The lonely painter, on the other hand, likes to do solo flights in his creative excursions," says Church.
"Maybe this, in part, explains why artists do not like to be organized."
"And it may also explain, in part, why school boards, in trimming lamp budgets, find it easy to eliminate art programs and art teachers."
Next time you feel wistful about your lost youth, just think about algebra.

Buck Hunting Success in 1963

Where was buck hunting best in 1963? The answer to that depends on what you count as best. Individual hunters in the Upper Peninsula were the most successful, but kill per square mile was highest in the northern Lower Peninsula where gun pressure was over three times as great. In the southern third of the state, a few spots measured up to some of the better northern areas with buck kill per square mile. All told, about one of every four Michigan hunters got a deer last year. Approximately 15 percent of the 502,000 hunters killed a buck, while nearly 10 percent took an antlerless deer.

KNOW YOUR MICHIGAN LAW
by Attorney General FRANK S. KELLEY

(This is a public service article explaining in general terms a provision of Michigan law. Individuals who wish to determine the effect of any law upon their private legal affairs should consult a private attorney.)

Can you put a sign on your property barring entry and enforcement against everyone? Contrary to popular belief, landowners in this State do not have absolute right over the access to their property.

Many people are unaware that highway personnel, who are making surveys, can encroach on private property without violating the law.

The State Legislature enacted a law in 1957 which authorizes state and county highway personnel to enter any land and waters in Michigan to make necessary surveys, soundings and borings for the planning, construction and maintenance of state trunkline highways and county roads.

The act, however, makes the state and county authorities fully liable for any actual damage done to the premises by the surveyors. Fences, trees and shrubbery cannot be removed for survey purposes without the written consent of the property owner.

Thus, the property owner is amply protected by the law and is guaranteed against financial loss, while the state is permitted to perform its service to the public.

Here are three kinds of tigers. We sell two.
(Have you priced a tiger lately?)
The quick ones are ours. The agile ones. That's a Pontiac Le Mans, top left. Fierce. You can get it with 250 hp like most people. Or 285 hp like some. That's a Pontiac GTO, above. Ferocious. Comes complete with 335-hp Trophy V-8. Bucket seats. Hurst floor shifter. Dual exhausts. Heavy-duty springs. Redline tires. Even a rest walnut dash. The whole package. Litho. Lean. Nimble. That other tiger? A puzzled cat. He checked out a "sporty" kind of car, learned it doesn't come with fangs at that stripped-down price. You look around. You'll see.

Susan Keck will become bride of William L. Smith

Mr. and Mrs. Karl G. Keck, 7024 Wakefield, Dallas, Texas, formerly of Cascade, announce the engagement of their daughter, Susan, to William L. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Smith, 1421 Winton, Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Susan is a member of Alpha Phi Sorority, Senior Mary Arden, National Biological Honor Society, and Top Coed on Campus. She is presently employed as medical researcher at the Southwestern Medical School in Dallas, Texas.

The bridegroom-elect graduated from Kalamazoo Central High School of Kalamazoo. He received his Bachelor's degree in English and Business from North Texas State University, and received his Master's degree from North Texas State University in English.

William is a member of Kappa Sigma Fraternity, Talons, Blue Key, Student Government, and Infraternity Council. Rock 'n Roll overpowering

Beatlemania and Rock and Roll spewing forth from our transistors are a cultural world away from real musical creativity, according to John Flower, associate dean of The University of Michigan School of Music.

"They differ, both in substance and cultural function, from the music sung by woodsmen working in the forest, soldiers marching along the roadway, or families gathered about a hearth not yet adorned by a television set," Flower says.

"Because of mass communications we tend to be musical pacifists. There is no lack of sound about us, on the contrary, there exists a surfeit of it. But musical sound pouring in upon us because of technological achievement is a world apart from music pouring out from us because of our own creativity.

"However, music, ancient or modern, possesses an intrinsic meaning so akin to man's nature that no amount of technology will overwhelm it," says Flower. "Just as electricity or atomic power can be used for good or for bad, so can mass communications achieve both good or bad for art. Cheap and corny music emanating from broadcasting studios will depress our culture. Great music coming from the same sources will elevate us.

"Where we are going musically is not yet clear," he warns. "One thing is certain. Mass culture is not what the term implies. It is impossible to create, for example, an American Music, which expresses the musical characteristics of a diverse population pushing two hundred millions.

"We can talk about American music but only in the abstract. What we have is American music."

"We are large enough so there is ample room for all of our various musical cultures. As time goes on they will interact more than in the past, they will flourish and they will grow."

Find nutrition in your snacks

Americans are "snacking" their way to obesity.

Snacks in themselves are not harmful, say dietitians at The University of Michigan Medical Center—if you choose nutritious foods to nibble on.

The danger lies in filling-up on things that do not give you proper nutrition.

The U-M food specialists make a careful distinction between foods which are health-producing and those which are merely fat-producing. High calorie foods are not all nutritious. They may give you a sudden spurt of energy, but most lack an abundance of protein, vitamins and minerals, which help the body to grow and function properly.

Examples are carbonated beverages, candy and potato chips. These are filling and fattening, but have little nutritional value. The U-M dietitians urge selection of between-meal foods which make a worthwhile contribution to health. Milk drinks, fruit, cheese or meat are nutritious snacks for morning, afternoon and evening.

Barbara Powers, Lewis Manley exchange vows

Miss Barbara Fay Powers and Lewis Patrick Manley were united in marriage last Saturday afternoon in Cascade Christian Church with the Rev. Raymond Gaylord officiating.

The parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Roger Powers of Lowell and the bridegroom's parents are Mrs. Lewis Manley of Snow Avenue, and the late Mr. Manley.

Miss Shirley Rood was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Lynn Kohlbeck, Rose Prankalitis and Betty McDaniel.

Dennis Seeley was the bridegroom's best man, Paul Manley, brother of the groom, Bruce Ehle and Clifford Kohlbeck seated the guests.

Following a reception in Rooker Hall in Ada, the couple left for a wedding trip to Northern Michigan. They plan to make their home on Timpon Ave.

Just take a look at your wife's purse sometime, if you want the proof that money isn't everything.
