For Fathers

An infatuated mother may be excused for cooing and bubbling over her sweet angelic babe. But it behooves father to face up to what his offspring really is. And the Minnesota Crime Commission has come to this frightening and factual

Every baby starts life as a little savage. He is completely selfish and selfcentered. He wants what he wants when he wants it: his bottle, his mother's attention, his playmate's toy, his uncle's watch. Deny him those wants, and he seethes with rage and aggressiveness which would be murderous were he not so helpless. He is dirty. He has no morals, no knowledge, no skills. This means that all children, not just certain children, are born delinquent.

If permitted to continue in the selfcentered world of his infancy, given free rein to his impulsive actions to satisfy his wants, every child would grow up a criminal, a thief, killer, rapist,

It would almost seem as though some members of this Crime Commission are Christians Of course the self-applauding parents will never accept such an unmasking of themselves and their innocent youngsters. Yet it is all-important that we Christians return to this Bible-based doctrine of total depravity. Thereby can we understand the source and cause of all this modern lawlessness and delinquency. Only as we reconsider the state of man, the need of man, and the danger of man, can we properly and fearlessly preach the Gospel cure.

Come on, father. You are the head of the home. Assume your position, Shoulder your responsibility. Bring up that youngster in "the nurture and discipline of the Lord."
