City accepts garden club landscape offer

The City Council on Monday evening accepted the offer of the Lowell Garden Club to provide landscaping at the library building at no cost to the city; if it would be properly maintained

The council volunteered to do an adequate job of maintaining the shrubbery if it was planted

Present from the Garden Club was Mrs. Edward Kiel, Mrs. Ron Holst and Mrs. Jake Callier, along with Frank Godfrey, who provided plans for the planting. This includes evergreens and other shrubs estimated to cost $350.

Objects to Ordinance

A. B. Howard, who operates a teen-age spot was present at the meeting to object to the city ordinance, which does not allow youths under 17 to play pool

He told the council that pool is a family recreation and is not objectionable.

The council examined the 1933 ordinance and were told by the City Manager that the city law follows a state prohibition. If there are local objections to young people playing pool, the police must follow the city and state laws.

Approve Zoning Ordinance

The city council approved a new city zoning law that covers many new phases of build-ing and area use in the city. The new ordinance will replace the old city zoning laws which were not so restrictive.

The manager discussed the problems in getting the last new well into operation and said that the well was being pumped to waste because of caving which was making cloudy wat-A report on the total cost of the new water wells and installation revealed that the city had spent $41,262.40 to date. Plans were made to provide new street signs throughout the city in the next year. The old signs on untreated wood posts are starting to rot and fall ov-

Historical Society to see unique film strip on Michigan's history

There will be a meeting of the West Central Historical Society Tuesday, October 12, at the Fallasburg Park Pavillion at 7:30 p. m.

The business meeting will be called promptly at 7:30. The program arranged by Dr. Robert C. Kyser, will follow. "A History of Michigan in Painting," from Michigan Bell Telephone Lecture and Film. Service with Emory Houk as lecture, will provide a very interesting evening. The history of Michigan is portrayed with paintings from the era of glaciers and mastodons through the times of Indians, explorers, war and industrial change. Visitors and potential mem-

Wyoming youth jailed after two accidents on Main St. Saturday

Jerry L. Knoll, 20 of Wyoming was arrested on Tuesday morning and paid fine and cost of $105 plus 30 days in jail for leaving the scene of two accidents, reckless driving and improper license plates. The ac-cidents occured on Saturday afternoon at 4 p. m.

Knoll driving east on Main Street on Saturday hit a car driven by Mrs. Richard Dyks-tra in the 200 block of East Main and then drove away and struck the car of Karey Hill parked in front of the bank. After hitting the Hill car Knoll drove off and abandoned his car at the dead-end of Hillside Court. Police found the car but the driver had run off into the woods; plates on the car were listed as stolen. Work on the part of the local police discovered his idenity on Monday afternoon and he was brought into Justice Rittenger's court on Tuesday morning,

Which girl's dream will come true for 1965 homecoming?

This year's homecoming, October 15 with Rockford, is following the theme "Dreamland." Anticipation is mounting as preparations are made for the class floats and the announcement of the Homecoming King and Queen draws near.

Other candidates running for the queen's court are: Juniors: Kathy Koster and Beverly Roth; Sophomores: Janice Beimers and Gloria Blough. Wendy Craig and Sally Myers are competing for Freshmen representatives. This truly promises to be a great Homecoming at Lowell High School.

Arrows meet Forest Hills Friday

Lowell will go against a tough neighboring Forest Hills' team on Friday night at the Rangers' field at 7:30 p. m. This field is located off Ada Drive with entrance at the Junior High or from Hall Street, at the Senior High. This is the first meeting of the two schools. The Rangers are coached by Bob Dangl Forest Hills has sut-out their last two opponents and lost their opening game against Rockford, the power-house of the Tri-River Conference, by only three points. Lowell moved swiftly last Friday night against Belding to score the first time they got the ball Taking a short punt on the Belding 35, Lowell moved on nice gains by Manigold and Collins to Malcolm pass to the one;Steve Collins went in for the touchdown, A pass for the point failed.

The score was tied late in the opening quarter when Lowell pass was intercepted and ran back to the Arrow 27 Sam Bird of Belding scored or a break up the center, good for 11 yards. The try for point fail

Lowell pulled ahead to a 12-6 lead with just 2:24 left in the half, when Hillis Kauffman plunged over from the 6. Lowell's defensive team had forced Belding back to their 5. They were only able to punt to their 32.

Manigold and Kauffman along with a Collins-Malcolm pass moved the ball into the Belding Lowell's attempt to run for the point failed.

The Arrow eleven moved the ball well in the 3rd quarter and were down to the Belding 13 as the period ended. On the second play in the final quar-ter Pat Hoag carried the ball in from the 10-yard stripe to make the score 18-6. A pass for the point failed. In the final period, Belding staged a drive that took them to the Lowell 11, where the defensive unit held them.

Belding downed the Lowell JV team Thursday afternoon, 12-6 on a sodden field, in intermittent rain,

A few brave spectators sat huddled under umbrellas and blankets to watch the game. Lowell scored in the second ouarter, McCormick carrying the ball over from about the twenty. The team failed to score the extra point, The Lowell JV's ran 2 more TD's that were called back for clipping penaltics.

Belding scored late in the second quarter, on a pass interception, running all the way from their own 40 yard line. They also failed to make the point and the score read at half time 6-6.

The Belding JV's scored again in the third quarter to lead 12-6. Due to penalties, the team tried three times for the The kick was wide and the score remained 12-6.

Neither team was able to score in the fourth quarter, although there were numerous pass interceptions by both of the teams, the rest of the game was played between the two 40
