"Spring is just around the corner" was the theme of a breakfast meeting that the Root-Lowell Corporation held recently in honor of the sales staff of its West Michigan Distributor, Morley Brothers Hardware Division of Grand Rapids. The meeting place was the Pantlind Hotel in downtown Grand Rapids. The time was approximately 7:30 a. m., Monday, November 29, just after the season's first snowfall. Following breakfast Paul Dederich, R-L Sales Manager spoke reminding his listeners of the fact that Spring is indeed "just around the corner" and that the need for sprayers, would soon be in demand first by the retailer, and shortly thereafter, by home gardeners.

George Appleyard, Marketing Manager, introduced Root-Lowell's newly appointed Public Relations Director, Harry Symes of Symes Advertising and Public Relations Agency in Grand Rapids and then reviewed briefly the R-L point-of-purchase & advertising program for the coming year.

Each Morley Brothers representative was presented with a typical R-L compressed air sprayer made in Lowell as a reminder that spring is indeed "just around the corner" in terms of sales opportunities.

Will dial 411 for information

Telephone users in Lowell will dial 411 instead of 4-113 for information, starting at 8 p. m. Friday, December 17, the Michigan Bell Telephone Company Berle D. Slack, area manager for Michigan Bell, said the change is being made to free the numeral "1" for future use in reaching the Direct Distance Dialing network.

The number change for in-formation will coincide with the delivery of the 1966 telephone
