Manager recommends increased rates for water and sewer service at the City Council meeting on Monday. The city manager's recommendation called for a slight increase in water costs for the average resident, but a greater increase for large users of water.

Major increase in rates will come from raising the sewer service charge from 50 percent of the water bill to 120 percent under the proposed rate. This increase is necessary to pay off the bonded indebtnes, and the greatly increased costs of operating the sewage treatment plant to be built in 1966.

Under the old rates a householder paid a minimum of $6.25 per quarter for 10,000 gals, of water including the 50 percent sewer service charge. Under the proposed rates the average householder would pay $10.56 for the same quantity of water under the new sewer service charge. The proposal does drop the minimum amount of water to 6,000 gals, a quarter, which would allow a few customers to pay only $8.80 under the new rate structure.

As City Manager Bernard Olson pointed out the monthly cost of water-sewer service is very modest. Even under the new rates, the charge would only be $3.52 a month at 10,-000 gals. a quarter. Many families spend more than this each month just to operate a water

Only 69 Large Meters

The study of the 750 customers of the Lowell Water Department reveals there are only 69 with meters over 1 inch. The other 681 customers have meters of % and % inch size. Only 22 water customers use the city.

To make the rates more equitable for the small water user a meter service charge will become a part of the proposed water rate. Most famil-

One inch service minimum is $10 per quarter; 14 inch, $20: 2 inch, $50, and the single 6 inch service to the Runciman Elementary School would pay $150 per quarter.

The new water rate is being studied by the council members and action will be taken at the next meeting on January The new rate is planned to take effect with the April bill-

Ask Bids on Property

The council voted 3-1 to put the 51 ft. strip of property on Reservoir Hill up for sale on bids. Whoever buys the property will have to repair the damage to the bank caused by bulldozing out several hundred vds. of dirt and put in a suitable road and give the city an easement to use the road to reach other city property.

Bid announcement will be made after the city attorney has reviewed the proposed sale. The council reviewed the 1964-65 audit of city financial affairs with auditor, John Abra-

Thursday night's and Friday morning's snowfall, light as it was, produced slippery driving conditions which resulted in an accident on M-21 east of Pettis Avenue, near Ada.

Mrs. Pearl A. Baker, 45, of Ionia, a nurse en route to work at Blodgett Memorial Hospital tried to pass a King Milling Co. truck driven by Vernon L. Strouse, 47, of Lowell.

Deputies said that Mrs. Baker lost control of her car on the ice and snow and the auto collided with the truck. The truck tipped over and slid 25 to 30 feet after the collision.

Fortunately, neither driver suffered serious injury: Mrs. Baker sustaining lip lacerations and minor knee bumps, and Strouse had a minor skin injury to his head.

A wrecker righted the truck, after seven tons of flour in sacks was removed to lighten

John Richardson back in states

Airman John D. Richardson, USN, son of Mrs. Ethel M. Richardson of 11512 Ware Road Lowell, returned to San Diego, California, today aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Oriskany, which has completed a record-breaking deployment with the Seventh Fleet in the South

Oriskany's aircraft flew 12,070 combat sorties in six and onehalf months off the coast of Viet Nam. This is more than any carrier has launched in a single combat employment, including World War II and Korea. Her aircraft dropped 8,473 tons of ordnance on communist Oriskany's Carrier Air Wing 16 became the Navy's most dec orated, bringing home 1,118 awards and nominations for me dals. These decorations include the Navy Cross, Silver Star Medal, the Distinguished Flying Cross, and Navy Commendation Purple Heart and Air Medals.

The carrier was deployed 257 days, spent 211 of these at sea, and steamed more than 100,000 miles. This is about four times around the earth's equator.

Christmas in the churches

Calvary Christian Reformed

This weekend will be a busy one at Calvary Christian Reformed Church in Lowell. On Thursday evening at 8 p. m. the Sunday School will render its Christmas program, Following the children's exercises, there will be the showing of slides of the Holy Land by one of the Sunday School teachers who recently made a tour of this Bible country. On Christmas morning at 10 a. m. there will be the regular Christmas Service with singing of Christmas Carols & a message by Pastor Buikema. On Sunday morning at 10:00 a. m. and on Sunday evening at 7:00 p. m., the regular services will be held, both centered around the Christ of Christ-

Everyone is invited to all of the services.

Lowell Methodist Church

The First Methodist Church of Lowell will hold a candle light service Christmas eve beginning at 7:30. Special Christmas music by both the junior and senior choirs will highlight the service.

There will be a special offering plate in the narthex of the church to receive contributions for the "white gift" for the Methodist's Childrens Home near Detroit.

St. Marys's

Worshippers at St. Mary's Catholic Church will begin the Christmas observance with a caroling service at 11:30, singing the traditional Christmas hymns. The full choir will participate in the mid-night mass service as they will at the 10:00 mass sung Christmas Day. There will also be an 8:00 mass on Christmas.

Special Christmas services were held last Sunday, at both morning and evening services. No special Christmas Eve service will be held, regular church service will be held Sunday.

First Baptist Church

Members and friends of the First Baptist Church of Lowell will celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ Christmas Day at a special service consisting mainly of traditional Christmas carols and hymns. The special service will be held at 10:00 a. m. Christmas morning.

New Year's Eve they will hold a Watch Nite Service. Rev. Larry Mattis will be the guest speaker, showing slides and giving a devotional talk. Following the showing of the slides, a social hour will be held with coffee and a light luncheon. The church will provide special music for the evening as well.

Lowell Congregational

A Christmas Eve candlelight service will be held at the First Congregational Church of Lowell on Friday evening, December 24, beginning at 11 p. m. There will be singing of Christ-mas hymns, followed by the service of communion. Everyone is invited to attend this quiet hour of devotion.

Alto-Bowne Methodists

A Christmas cantata will be presented at the Alto Methodist Church this Thur ay evening, December 23, at 8:15. Well known Christmas carols will be rendered by the joint choirs of the Alto and Bowne Center Methodist Churches. Mrs. Pauline Bowman will be the accompanist. The combined choir is under the direction of Mrs. Jane Graham.

LHS grapplers down Rockford on home mat

Last Wednesday night on their home mat, Lowell's grapplers downed Rockford by a score of 34 to 13. This is their biggest win of the year. Lowell was paced with pins by Steve Robertson at 95-lbs. in 2:55; Leo Taylor at 127-lbs. in 3:52; Gene Deitz at 145-lbs. in 5:51, and Larry Powers at 180-lbs.

Chuck Grudzinskas battled to a 1 to 1 draw for 2 team points in the 154-lb. division. Decisions went to John Dawson at 103-lbs., Mike Ortowski at 120-lbs., Chris Wittenbach in the 133-lb. division and Jim Potter at 165-lbs. for 3 team points for each match.

Hillis Kaufman was outweighed by Bill Tidey by about 70-lbs. in the heavyweight division and did a fine job by holding out with only 19 seconds to go when Tidey pinned him.

Rockford won only two decisions: one at 112-lbs. when Jim Huver was beaten 6 to 0 and in the most exciting match of the night. Jim Nauta lost a 15 to 13 decision to Piermon.

JV's Win 43 to 13

The JV's remain unbeaten by another big win over Rockford. Lowell picked up wins by for-feits from Scot Jefferies at 95lbs., Vezino at 112-lbs., Van Dyke at 120-lbs., Huver at 127lbs., and McPherson at 145-lbs. Most of these boys did wrestle their overweight opponents how-ever and gained some valuable experience. Decisions went to Herb Revnolds at 133-lbs., and Tony Or-towski at 138-lbs. Pins went to Steve Thaler at 154-lbs. and George Harwood at 165-lbs. Wasinski at 180-lbs. won on a default. Losing were Magee at 103-lbs., and Mike Hall in the heavyweight division. The wrestlers next dual meet after Christmas vacation will be with Comstock Park, January 5, at Comstock, and then the big one on January 12, with Cedar Springs. It looks like Cedar is the team to beat again this year, with Belding and Sparta also making a good race of it.

Lowell, of course, will be in the thick of it, and if the boys can pull off a win over Cedar, they definitely will be in contention for the title.

Quadrangular Meet During the Christmas break,

there will be a quadangular meet at Lakewood, with Lakewood, Wyoming, Spring Lake and Lakewood. This meet will be held on Tuesday December 28, with two sessions. One beginning at 3 p. m. and the finals at 7 p. m.

This should be a very fine meet with some good wrestlers from all the schools that are participating.

The Cascade Pharmacy now has more protection, and it is hoped by Chuck Weston, that the new remodeling that has been going on, necessary after the September incident of an auto going through the front window, will stay intact.

The new guardrail is an 84 foot steel band on 28th Street approaching Cascade Road. Gerald C. Stiles, traffic engineer for the Kent County Road Commission said "If somebody can hop both the 9 inch divider and the 2 foot high guardrail he'll really be going".

Mr. Weston has completely

The window that the car traveled through has been replaced with wood paneling with carriage lights and deacons benches flanked by two pine trees in black wooden barrels. The remaining large window is now all paned and makes a very charming setting. The interior has also been remodeled. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Miller of Saranac at the Belding Community Hos-pital on December 12. The new arrival weighed 7% pounds.

CARD OF THANKS

To all our many friends. We want to thank all of you for the understanding cards, the lovely flowers and the many other acts of kindness shown us at the recent loss of our son and brother, Jeff. Just knowing so many people care makes CET sorrow easier to bear. Thanks again from the bottom of our hearts.

Exchange vows Saturday, Dec. 18

Late Saturday afternoon, De-cember 18, Elizabeth Nell Mc-Pherson became the bride of Donald Edward Knox of East Lansing. The couple exchanged their vows at the First Metho-dist Church of Lowell.

Parents of the bridal couple are Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. McPherson of Lowell and Mr. and Mrs. Edward N. Knox of Bellerose, Long Island, New

The former Miss McPherson who lived in India for 5 months for the Experiment of International Living, wore a sari wedding gown of hand loomed silk embroidered with gold thread. The family with whom she lived in Bangalore, India, obtained the sari and matching gold kid sandals for her. Fresh stephanotis in her hair and a bouquet of stephanotis, white poinsettias and holly leaved completed her costume.

Miss Marilyn Torina of Grosse Pointe Park, maid of honor, and the bride's twin sisters, Misses Marjory and Mary McPherson, bridesmaids, wore gold kid Indian sandals. They carried bouquets of red poinsettias, holly and pine.

Carmen Sue Smith and Jenifer Patrick, nieces of the bride were flower girls. They were white wool A line dresses trimmed in gold. Two nephews. Kent Smith and Timothy Patrick were ringbearers.

Martin Gal of East Lansing was best man. Seating the guests were the bride's brothers, William G. and Donald A. McPherson, jr., Robert E Bell of Salt Lake City, Utah, and Christopher Gaffield of Plymouth.

Presiding at the reception in the church parlor were Mr. and Mrs. Duane Patrick and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Smith, brothers-in-law and sisters of the bride.

Following a wedding trip to Williamsburg, Virginia, the couple will be at home in East

Albus, Pelon nuptials read

Wedding vows were exchanged Saturday evening in the First Congregational Church of Whitehall by Miss Carrie Ella Albus and Lawrence Pelon, son of Mr. Lawrence Pelon of Whitehall, and the late Mrs. Pelon. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard R. Webb of Lowell, wore a silk organza and face gown and a sequined petal crown. She carried white carnations and yellow mums.

Miss Gail Powell of Allen

Park, maid of honor, chose a pale blue crepe sheath and a natural floral headpiece matching her bouquet of yellow mums and bronze daisies. Bridesmaids were the Misses

Lauren Torbico of Farmington & Barbara Whitaker of Bronx, New York. Their gowns were identical with Miss Powell's. Debbie Albus of Fraser, and Patricia and Catherine Halcomb of Radeliff, Kentucky, were the flower girls. Craig Lowe of Muskegon was ringbearer. C. M. Nichols of Muskegon was best man. Attendants were Thomas A. Reed and Daniel Mier of Muskegon, James Albus of Fraser, brother of the bride, Jon Dodson of Shelby Mark M. Moog of Whitehall and Edward Bartlett.

A reception followed in the church parlors with Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Bassett of Whitehall presiding.
