McPherson shows Lowell fourth grand champion

A grand champion milking shorthorn was exhibited by Bill McPherson, 1276 Parnell Avenue, Lowell, at the State 4-H Club Show in Lansing last week.

McPherson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. McPherson of Route 1, Lowell, was selected to participate in the state show, following his performance at the Kent County 4-H Fair held in August.

The grand champion, shown by McPherson, was also the senior champion in this divi-

Lynn and Carol Witteenbach of Lowell presented an action exhibit in "Exploring Foods" at the 4-H state show, August 23-26 at Michigan State University

The exhibit consisted of new horizons in freeze-dried foods in the areas of camping and space. The girls were two of nearly 200 action exhibitors at the state

Over 3,500 4-H Club members from all parts of the state attended the annual event, sponsored by the Cooperative Extension Service at MSU. State show represents the culmination of a year's work in the member's 4-H project.

Carol used this topic for her entry in the state demonstration contest. She placed first in her division and won a 5day education trip to Chicago. She is in Chicago this week.
