Area churches to sponsor course of study on New Testament

The Lowell Methodist and Congregational Churches are joining hands to offer the community a rare opportunity to study the New Testament under the instruction of an outstanding, nationally known teacher and scholar, Dr. Edward W. Bauman, a member of the faculty of Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, D. C., will be the lecturer for a thirteen session study of the New Testament which gets underway at the Methodist Church Education Building on Thursday, October 6, at 8 p. m.

Dr. Bauman received his A.B. degree at DePauw University (Phi Beta Kappa); his S.T.B. degree at Boston University School of Theology (Magna cum laude); and his Ph.D. degree at Boston University Graduate School.

He is the author of numerous books and articles including "An Introduction to the New Testament," which will serve as the textbook for the course. Dr. Bauman's lectures on the New Testament will be on 16 mm motion picture film which have been especially produced to study via local churches and on educational television. Dr. Bauman's courses have won many awards, including the Emmy Award of the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences for the "best locally produced educational program or series presented in cooperation with an educational institution."

John Fisher, Editor of Harper's Magazine has said of Dr. Bauman: "He has been presenting of all things, a weekly course on the Bible which is both scholarly and intensely interesting... the program has evoked an overwhelmingly enthusiastic response."

A special study guide, especially prepared by Dr. Bauman for use with the filmed lectures, will correlate the textbook material with the lectures.

Rev. Charles Davis and Rev. Robert Webber, of the Congregational and Methodist Churches respectively, will lead discussion sections on the material covered during the course.

The thirteen sessions of Dr. Bauman's New Testament Course will run on an approximately "three a month" basis concluding in February.

The class dates are: October 6, 13, 20; November 3, 10, and 17; December 1 and 8; January 5, 12, and 19; and February 2 and 9.

All classes meet on Thursday evenings and run from 8 to 9:30 p. m. Cost for the entire course will be $5.50 per person or $7.50 per couple providing that the couple share the same textbook and study guide.

For further information and registration please contact either the Lowell Methodist or Lowell Congregational Church.

John Hartley, aged 73, dies in hospital

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon under the auspices of the Highland Park Lodge No. 649 F&AM, at the Roth Funeral Home for John (Jack) Hartley.

The Rev. Robert Webber of the Lowell Methodist Church was the officiating clergyman, and interment was made in Oakwood Cemetery.

Mr. Hartley, aged 73, of 121 North Jackson Street, Lowell, passed away Saturday evening, September 17, at Butterworth Hospital in Grand Rapids.

Formerly of Detroit, Michigan, Mr. Hartley had lived for the past several years in the Lowell area. He was born May 8, 1893.

He is survived by his wife, Pearl; one sister, Mrs. Winnie Haven of Lowell; several nieces and nephews; and a host of friends.

Elmer G. Schaefer is seeking election to Road Commission Board

Elmer G. Schaefer, Lowell City's representative on the Kent County Board of Supervisors & a member of the 3-man finance committee, announced Tuesday that he will seek election to the Kent County Road Commission.

Schaefer, who has served as a city council member and chairman of the charter commission, has been one of the two city members of the Board of Supervisors since 1960.

In a letter to members of the Board, who will vote in October to elect a member of the 3-man commission, Schaefer asked the Board to consider the need for a representative on the commission from the small cities of the county.

Growth to smaller cities definitely increases their interest in services of the Road Commission, Schaefer said. Also the fact that the Department of Public Works is the same 3-man group, indicates a further reason to have the small cities represented on the Board.

The Kent County Road Commission presently has two rural members and one from the City of Grand Rapids. They are elected for six-year terms and receive remuneration of $4,500 per year.

Lowell Police Chief Avery

Block has been spending hours for the past two weeks and all the officers have been spending much of their off duty hours investigating the robbery of a safe and several thousand dollars from Azzarello Chevrolet and Buick on West Main St.

With little or no help from other police agencies, the local police have just about wrapped up this case, and have two suspects that may be arrested at any time.

An intersection accident occurred Friday evening, police said, when a car driven by Patricia Enkay, 19, of Lake Michigan, struck Paul Smith, 53, 214 N. Hudson Street, at the intersection of M-91 and M-21.

Miss Enkay was given a summons for failure to observe the traffic signal.

Ken Fletcher caught three teenagers coming out of the Congregational Church early Sunday morning, about eight hours too early to be coming to church.

The boys turned out to be the youths who had been involved in a hit and run accident, 5 miles west of Lowell on M-21, and were sought by County Police.

Three local boys are aware of the alertness of local police as they paid $54 in fines and costs in Justice Rittenger's Court for being minors in possession.

The boys, one under 17, were stopped for careless driving and found to have beer in the car.

Firemen were called to a grass fire on the I-96 freeway Sunday evening.

No damage was reported to any buildings.

Someone in the community must be checking doors ahead of the police department. The Zephyr station on West Main Street reported that a case of oil and a case of anti-freeze were stolen from the station Thursday.

The thief made his entry through the back door, which was left unlocked.

Postal employees recognized for safe driving

The National Safety Council Safe Driver Award was awarded to three present and one former employee of the Lowell Post Office this week.

Postmaster Charles Doyle made the presentations, and the following names and award years given were as follows: William Dawson, 4-year award; Paul Kerekes, 4-year award; Jack Fonger, 5-year award; and Lew Morse, 7-year award.

The National Safety Council Safe Driver Award is the recognized trademark of professional drivers who have proved their skill in avoiding traffic accidents. The more than two million drivers who have earned the award since 1930 have made it the highest award for professional safe driving performance.

The Safe Driver Award emblem is a gold-plated metal shield bearing the words "National Safety Council Safe Drivers Award" in gold on a hard fired, blue enamel background that borders the familiar figure of the man behind the wheel. A wallet sized certificate accompanies each award. This certificate indicates the number of safe driving years, the date earned, and the registered serial number of the award.

The total miles driven during this period is over 300,000 and all were driven within a radius of seven miles from the Lowell Post Office.

Two Lowell accountants attend dinner meeting

The American Society of Women Accountants, Grand Rapids Chapter No. 10, held their dinner meeting, September 20, at Park Congregational Church.

The speaker was Walker Ferris, Asst. Professor of Accounting at Ferris State College. His subject was "Change in Price Level and Its Effect on Financial Statements."

The invocation was given by Miss Eileen Fischer. Mrs. Ruth Torrey introduced the speaker.

Members from Lowell who attended were Miss Donna Jean Ford and Mrs. Esther Newell.

Junior High plans parents' night Sept. 26

Has seat shortage

In the opening days of a new school term many unexpected obstacles arise that irritate parents, upset teachers and drive the administration crazy. As an example of just one such problem, it was estimated one week before school opened that the elementary classrooms would be short approximately 60 desks.

A seating company was contacted about the problem and representatives of the company assured local school officials that they had a warehouse full of desks in Grand Rapids and could give the school the furniture shipment in two days. The promised delivery date was satisfactory so the order was placed—and then began the long wait.

Since the furniture did not arrive as promised, telephone calls were made to find out what happened... phone calls were made every day and the following are some of the excuses and answers given by the company and in the order in which they were given: "The furniture has been loaded in a truck and will be there tomorrow;" "the furniture is in transit;" "possibly by mule train;" "the furniture cannot be shipped until the order is run thru the computer;" "you know how the help situation is today;" "it's in transit but we don't know which company is going to deliver it;" "everybody is having trouble."

Fifteen days after the 60 desks were ordered, the delivery was finally made, BUT, only 20 of the desks had seats and it will be at least one other week before the seats for the other 40 desks will be shipped.

So, every day at least one irate mother calls the school office to protest, "Do you know that my child doesn't have his own desk yet?" Yes, lady, they know, believe us, they know.

Mail box vandals are sought here

There have been over 50 mail boxes damaged and destroyed on Lowell rural routes over the last 30 days, Postmaster Chas. Doyle revealed this week.

One case, Doyle mentions, is Gerald Troske, 11451 Vergennes Street, who has had 5 mail boxes destroyed or damaged. Others on Lincoln Lake, Bailey Drive and Grand River Drive have had two boxes wrecked.

The postmaster urges residents to be on the alert and try and spot the vandals. One resident of Vergennes caught three youths who were fined $25 each for vandalism in Lowell's Justice Court. If there had been mail in the box when it was damaged the vandals could have received a year in federal prison.

Keep your eyes open and report any suspicious cars to the postmaster or police. The vandals usually operate on weekends.

Lowell Baptist church news

The Child Evangelism Fellowship of Kent County is sponsoring a Teacher Training Class to begin Wednesday, September 28th.

The class will meet from 9:30 to 11:00 p. m. at the First Baptist Church.

Persons interested in learning methods and the "how to" of teaching children are welcome to attend. There is no charge for the course.

Mrs. David A. Smith, Director of the Kent County Fellowship will teach the class.

The Kent County Fellowship had a Chapel on Wheels at the Lowell 4-H Fair. 1,098 children came into the Chapel and heard a story or saw a film.

A unique opportunity for you to improve on or learn more about 'Teaching Techniques.' Her approach is Christ centered and is extremely interesting.

Mrs. David Smith is considered by many as one of the best in this field. Child Evangelism Fellowship is interdenominational, therefore we welcome people from all denominations.

Junior varsity starts season on losing note

Lowell's Junior Varsity opened its 1966 football season Friday on a losing note, against the Ionia Bulldogs, 27 to 13.

Coach Charles Smith stated that although the afternoon was cheerless in general, there were several bright spots.

Coach Smith felt that this was the best Ionia team he has faced in his seven years with Lowell's Junior Varsity. His record against Ionia is now 5 wins and 2 losses.

Lowell took an early lead on a 45-yard pass from quarterback Cla Avery to end Curt Fonger in the first period. However, Ionia scored immediately following on a 60-yard drive.

The half ended with the teams deadlocked at 7 and 7.

The third quarter told the game's story as Ionia scored twice, taking a 20 to 7 lead.

Lowell came back in the 4th quarter cutting the margin to one touchdown as Avery again passed to Fonger for the score. However, Ionia scored a final touchdown and the game ended Ionia 27, Lowell 13.

The following is Lowell's junior varsity starting offense: Ends, Curt Fonger and Bill Phillips; tackles, Richard Rosenberger and Ben Hall; guards, center, Steve Johnson; quarterback, Cla Avery; half-backs, Steve Thurlert and Bill Bennett; full back, Mel Brown.

Steve Lessens and Bob Van Dyke started on the defensive team.

Coach Smith stated that Dan Berrington, Steve Foss, Jack Thomet and Bill Wright had impressed him and could win themselves a starting assignment before the Cedar Springs game Thursday night, September 22. This game will begin at 7 p. m. and will be played at Recreation Park.

Because of the big turnout in junior varsity football, Coach Smith has received assistance from Mike VanderVelde, physical education instructor in the junior high.

Mr. VanderVelde started in this capacity last week, and will help Coach Smith for the remainder of the season.

The game, here, with Cedar Springs, will be a night game, Thursday night at 7:30. A fee of 25 cents will be made to help pay the cost of the lights.

Future junior varsity games are planned for nights, with some games being played in the afternoon.

Three quick touchdowns defeat Ionia, as Lowell opens season

Lowell's Red Arrows hit 3 times in the first 5 minutes and 54 seconds of the football game with Ionia Friday night to score 20 points.

Ionia was kept at bay for the remainder of the game, with Lowell winning 24-15.

The Arrow's passing attack overwhelmed the Bulldogs, as Collins hit Thurlert on a 29-yard pass touchdown, after Lowell recovered an Ionia fumble on the first play of the game. Powers went over for the extra point.

Ionia took Lowell's kick and promptly fumbled again, on the second play. Videaun caught the ball in the air and got to the Ionia 20-yard line before being stopped. On the second play, Collins passed to Thurlert for a 23-yard touchdown, with only three minutes and 11 seconds of the game gone. Powers' try for the extra point failed.

Ionia was held to a fourth-down situation, and was forced to kick. Pat McCormick received, and brought the punt back to the Lowell 44-yard line. A pass to Kauffman gave Lowell a first down on the Ionia 40-yard line.

Manigold got 7-yards through tackle, and Collins came back to him with a long pass, which he took in for the touchdown. Collins then passed to Osborne for the extra point, and Lowell led 20-0.

The Lowell fans were brought to their feet again, a minute later, when Lowell took over the ball on the Ionia 42-yard line and another pass from Collins to Thurlert, went for a touchdown; the play was called back because of a clipping penalty.

TO BE CLOSED

Due to illness, Betty Ruth's Beauty Shop, West Main Street, Lowell, will be closed until further notice.

DEFENSE LEAKS

In the second quarter, Ionia recovered from the shock of the opening stanza and began

Council orders ballot on rezoning petition November 8

The Lowell City Council Monday night authorized a vote by the citizens of the community, on November 8, on the referendum petition presented September 6, to rezone 7 1/2 acres commercial on West Main St.

The City Manager, Bernard Olson, had told Council that under the city charter they had two choices, after the referendum petition was presented:

1. To vote to rezone the 7 1/2 acres without a vote of the people; and
2. To order the proposition on the ballot in the next general election, which would be November 8.

The wording for the ballot will be taken from the referendum petitions which have asked to have the 7 1/2 acres, just west of Calvary Church changed from residential to C-3 for general business.

Lowell Development Company has an option signed with L. V. Eberhard, to purchase this land for $50,000 if the zoning is changed. At a meeting, earlier this year, Eberhard told citizens he planned to build a super market to replace the one he presently operates on East Main St.

The store he said, would have 18,000 square feet and greatly expand the selection available to the community. Eberhard estimated he would be investing nearly a half million dollars in the shopping center.

A new look in home economic extension groups

Would you like to be a member of a Home Economics Extension Group? It's easier than you think. The Kent County Extension Council is sponsoring two meetings to inform members as well as prospective new members regarding the program for the coming year.

The North county meeting is to be September 22, 7:30 p. m. at Fairview School, corner Alpine Avenue and Hillside Dr., NW. The South county meeting will be held September 23, 1:30 p. m. at the Cascade Christian Church.

Mrs. Loa Whitfield, Assistant Extension Director, Family Living Education, Michigan State University, will explain the possibilities of better living through learning at both meetings.

Father Hugh Beahan, popular radio and television personality will explain the needs of family education today at the meeting in Fairview School.

The same topic will be covered by Rev. Robert Lignell of Faith Lutheran Church at the second meeting in the Cascade Christian Church.

There will be door prizes and refreshments. Everyone is cordially invited. Come and bring your friends.

Rotary hears Stewart Katz

Guest speaker at the Lowell Rotary Club meeting on September 14, was Stewart Katz, Assistant Regional Manager of the American Arbitration Association, with offices in Detroit, Michigan.

Mr. Katz gave an interesting presentation outlining the role of the American Arbitration Association as a non-profit, private organization whose authority to administer arbitration to disputants is derived from the prior agreement by both parties to recognize the Arbitration Association when such matters arise.

Dedicate railroad spur at Amway

Guests at the spur line dedication at Amway Thursday had a train ride through the M-21 crossing for the driving of the final spike. This was accomplished by the two-pany founders, accompanied by much kibitzing by the guests. They found it hardy to hit the spike with those big railroad sledges than it looks.

Mr. Martin Peterson and son, Carl, were Wednesday dinner guests at the Francis Shaffer home in honor of Martin's 84th birthday.

Mr. Francis Seese was able to come home from Butterworth Hospital Tuesday. Several relatives, friends and neighbors were callers the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fox and Lois visited Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fox near Freeport Sunday afternoon. They also called on their mother, Mrs. Earl Fox.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stahl were recent visitors of their aunt, Mrs. Susie Bean at Grand Rapids.

On hand was a band and several residents from the area. After the brief ceremony indicating the completion of the spur, the guests were returned to the plant for a buffet luncheon and talks by company officials and Richard Lynch, Ada Township Supervisor.

Lynch presented the members of the executive staff with memento golden spikes in honor of the occasion. At the same time he said that on this occasion he wanted to publicly thank the Amway Corp. for its interest and help in the work of the township government.

Among the many helps that the Amway Corp. has given the Township and probably greatest is the leasing of 30 acres of land for the lagoons of the sewage treatment plant. This land was purchased by Amway only a few months before turning it over to the township for $1,500 an acre.

Besides this Amway has purchased land and given the township the necessary right-of-way to allow improvements at no cost to the local government. The township dump is operated with the help of Amway, who pays $30 a month to provide necessary supervision and service. Many other assists include free fire hydrants & every day help with the many problems of township operation.

Highlights of Day First on hand Thursday was Charles Vandenberg of Ada Drive, former Ada businessman and resident for many years. He has been on hand at almost every event at the Amway Corp. since its founding, in an unofficial way.

Also in attendance at the dedication was Gary P. Sill of Dogwood Avenue, who has the record of riding on more railroads in the United States and Canada than any other person in the area. He had been regularly checking the progress of the railroad crew who built the line.

Among the guest were several Cuban refugees who were in the American Railroad Construction crew. They were given recognition for their hard work and willingness to leave their native country for a life of freedom.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hoffman and daughters of Wayne were Sunday dinner guests at the Hoffman-Miller home in honor of Alice's birthday.

Mrs. Kenneth Stahl and Mrs. Freeman Hoffman were among the ladies that attended a miscellaneous Bridal Shower for Miss Carol Braten of Freeport at the Calvary Brethren Church last week Monday evening.

Neighbors and friends were shocked to hear of the death of John (Mary) Krebs Wednesday. Synyula is extended to family and relatives.

Kazoo ends with Championship

The Kalamazoo Speedway racing season came to a climax Sunday night as Bob Senneker of Grand Rapids walked off with the lion's share of the pot for the semi-late model stock cars.

Senneker won by two car lengths in the 50-lap season championship over Bob Carnes of Kalamazoo, Gail Cobb of Ada, and Dick Hurlburt of Shelbyville.

All cars in the first five spots were bumper to bumper, the greater part of the race, until Senneker finally broke loose from the pack and took a commanding lead.

Senneker raced into the lead on the 13th lap on the seven-eighths high-banked paved oval. Gail Cobb of Ada was second, and was chased across the finish line by Dick Duchose of Kalamazoo, Bob Carnes of Kalamazoo, Dick Hurlburt of Shelbyville and Max Hiseock of Battle Creek.

Senneker maintained his commanding lead until the checkerboard flag lap, when Gordie Vander Beek of Kalamazoo, driving a 1960 Comet, passed him at the finish line.

In heat competition, Cobb, Dave Thwaites of Grand Rapids, Bob Sensha of Middleville and Hurlburt emerged victorious.

This Saturday night at the Berlin track, the top 20 drivers in the semi-late model division will be awarded trophies and prize money for the 1966 season.

Also on the evening's two-line card will be the running of the super stocks and the super modifieds, with time trials at 8:30 and the first race at 8:45.

Senior Junior Terpstra, aged 37 of Holland, Michigan, semi-late model stock car owner and sponsor, passed away Sunday evening, September 18, of a sudden heart attack at his home.

Besides being a racing enthusiast, Mr. Terpstra was the owner of the Windmill Service Station in Holland for the past 12 years and was a member of the Park Township Fire Department & the Civil Defense Corps.

Mr. Terpstra owned the car being driven at the Berlin Raceway by Larry Lawrence of Lowell, and formerly sponsored the car driven by Ralph Baker of Saugatuck.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Mulder Funeral Home in Holland, with burial being made there.

He is survived by his wife, Virginia, one son, Rick, one daughter, Sally, both at home; and his mother, Mrs. Vernon Cook of Ganges.

For the Sunday morning worship service held at the Brethren In-Christ Church September 18th, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Peake of Hastings were guests.

The action was just as close in the semi-feature, as Bill McClure of Edmalde edged Dick Filkins in a battle for the checkerboard flag.

Heats in the super modified division were won by Dick Filkins, Gene Bell and Johnny Loggan.

Senneker won by two car lengths in the 50-lap season championship over Bob Carnes of Kalamazoo, Gail Cobb of Ada, and Dick Hurlburt of Shelbyville.

All cars in the first five spots were bumper to bumper, the greater part of the race, until Senneker finally broke loose from the pack and took a commanding lead.

Senneker raced into the lead on the 13th lap on the seven-eighths high-banked paved oval. Gail Cobb of Ada was second, and was chased across the finish line by Dick Duchose of Kalamazoo, Bob Carnes of Kalamazoo, Dick Hurlburt of Shelbyville and Max Hiseock of Battle Creek.

Vacation time is not over with yet

Did you think that Labor Day signaled the end of vacation time and all is over? Not so. There's plenty of joy coming from the old weather man and fall has a lot to offer for one-day or weekend traveling. Accommodations are sometimes cheaper, certainly more available. Camping sites will be less crowded allowing you to see more of Mother Nature's scenery and fewer of her humans. This color show has the added advantage of no commercials.

Activities abound within one or two day trips and for those who have students in school, there will be a respite on October 20th and 21st for MEA Day. It's not too early to plan. Surrounding states as well as Michigan offer opportunities for the travel-minded. Here are some facts with which to start your dreaming.

Michigan

September 27 through October Grand Rapids Camera Club Print Exhibit, Grand Rapids Public Museum, October 1, Open House, Grand Rapids Museum, 7-9 p. m. Many special events. People in costume in Gas Light Village. Have your picture taken in costume by a Bellows camera.

September 24-October 2, Midwest Space Fair, Jackson. September 25-October 1, County Agricultural Fair, Hillsdale.

September 30-October 1, The Small Aircraft Annual Race, Alpena. September 30-October 2, Fall Festival, White Cloud.

October 1-2, Wilderness Trail Jamboree, Kalkaska. October 7 to 8 Civic Festival, Marshall. October 7-9, Antiques Fair, Kalamazoo.

October 7-9, Michigan Travel Trailer Rally, Alpena. October 15, Red Flannel Day, Cedar Springs. October 16, Turkey Shoot, Howard City. October 28 to 30, Winter Vacation Show, Grand Rapids.

Elsewhere

September 30-October, Swiss Festival, Sugar Creek, Ohio. October 8-9, Holmes County Antique Show, Millersburg, Ohio. September 22-25, Buck-wheat Festival, Kingswood, W. Virginia.

September 24-25, River Regatta, New Martinsville, Indiana. October 1-16, The Ozark Crafts Festival, Marvel, Mo. Missouri. October 5-9, Oktoberfest, La Cross, Wisconsin.

October 13-15, Black Walnut Festival, Spencer, West Virginia. October 19-22, Pumpkin Show, Circleville, Ohio.

Fall Colors in Various Areas

Pennsylvania color is usually at its height around October 12, with the maples colorful a week earlier. You might stop at Pennsylvania's Grand Canyon, sometimes called Pipe Creek Gorge. Just off Route 6 between Kane & Wellsboro. Camping and motels there. Or Johnstown's Inclined Plane. Or see the only operating coal mine open to the public.

Mid-October brings vivid colors along the Skyline Drive in Virginia. Williamsburg relives the past. Concerts each Thursday evening through October. Militia musters on Tuesdays & Thursdays, through October 11, and costumed fife and drums on Saturday mornings through October 8.

Minnesota—Early October is best for color for most of the state with the Hiawatha Valley following a week later. The peak of color is reached in Massachusetts and in southern New Hampshire and Vermont in mid-October. Maryland is at its colorful best in mid-October as well. The Ozark mountains' fall display begins normally in the second week in October in Missouri, northern Arkansas & western Oklahoma with the peak generally reached during the last of the month. In Tennessee and North Carolina fall color arrives the last week in October. Color lasts in the Piedmont area well into November.

Although we can't all dash off to these events created by man and nature, it's pleasing to know that someday we may be passing through these areas on business or vacation and that if we only look around, we will discover something for our own travel-logs.

Life, leadership school courses start Sept. 26

The Grand Rapids Area Council of Churches' annual "Life and Leadership School" begins a series of enrichment courses September 26, at 7 p. m. at the Central Reformed Church, College Street at Fulton.

Jones-Douglas speak vows in Saturday rites

A Saturday morning ceremony in St. Mary's Church solemnized the wedding vows of Miss Katherine Ann Jones and Thomas W. Douglas.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Glen Jones of Lowell and Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Douglas, Lake Dr., SE, Grand Rapids.

The bride's gown was of silk organza, accented with lace, scalloped neckline and tapered wrist-length sleeves. A miniature crown secured her bridal veil and she carried a bridal arrangement of pompons.

Miss Patricia Jones, maid of honor, wore an empire yellow brocade gown with matching headpiece. The bridesmaids, the Misses Sally Kwokei of Cascade and Nancy Collins of Lowell, wore nylon chiffon gowns in shades of blue and green and they carried carnations. Claudia Jones was flower girl.

Attending as best man was James Douglas, Jay Allen Jones of Lowell and Charles Bost of Rockford seated the guests. A reception followed the ceremony in Reuther Hall.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I, the widow of the late Fred Cox, just recently learned that the friends and neighbors of Fred had taken a collection for me at the time of his death. My sons and I deeply regret that we were unaware of this collection and so were unable to thank the people who contributed. We would like at this time to express our thanks and appreciation.

Mrs. Fred Cox
