Lowell Lodge No. 809, Loyal Order of Moose, will enjoy one of its greatest moments this Sunday, February 26, when the members will honor their lodge secretary and club manager, Stephen J. Pattok.

A class enrollment, the largest in the history of the local lodge will be held in the Runciman Elementary Building, and will be held in honor of Mr.

Steve joined the local lodge in June of 1952, and was employed as head steward, bring-ing into the lodge new ideas and a tremendous amount of enthusiasm; this is evidenced by the programs both the lodge and Steve have enjoyed.

"Steve"

Mr. Pattok has earned the Legion Degree (2), the Fellowship Degree (3rd), and was re-cently awarded his 25 Club membership pin by Mooseheart. In August of 1962, Steve was appointed secretary of the Lowell Lodge. Here again, he started to learn a new facet of the Lodge's activities. Since then, he has become one of the out-standing Moose lodge secretar-ies in the State of Michigan.

Each year for efficiency and promptness in completing reports to Mooseheart, the outstanding secretaries are awarded a star plaque. Mr. Pattok is now one of the few "five" star secretaries in the state. It is well to know a man today with Steve's qualities, but what is more important, is to have the opportunity to pay tribute to him, as the local lodge members will be doing this Sunday. Steve and his wife, Frances, former Lowell area residents, are now residing at 157 Dia-mond Avenue, NE, Grand Rapids. They have a daughter, Rita, living in North Carolina, and a son, Paul, of Grand Rap-

Wrestlers share championship in Tri-River Last Saturday at Sparta Lowell's matmen ended up in a tie with Belding for the Tri-River wrestling championship.

Belding finished first in the dual meet season with 8 wins, 1 tie and 1 loss; while Lowell riad 8 wins and 2 losses. The conference championship is fig-ared on a combination of the dual meet finish and the conference meet finish. A team is awarded 5 points for a first place finish in both the dual and conference meet, 4 points for a second place in both the dual and conference meet, 3 points for third, 2 for fourth and 1 for a fifth place finish.

Therefore, Belding received 5 points for a first place finish in the dual meet season, and 4 points for a second place finish in the conference meet giving them a total of 9 points toward the championship. Likewise, Lowell received 4 points for a second place finish in the dual meet season, and 5 points for a first place finish in the conference meet giving them points also.

The grapplers are to be con-gratulated on their co-championship as they had some real tough competition at the con-ference meet from Belding and Sparta and some other fine individual wrestlers from Cedar, Rockford and Comstock Park The standings in the conference meet were as follows: Lowell 90 points, Belding 77, Sparta 73, Rockford 40, Comstock Park 38, and Cedar Springs 35. Lowell had 4 individual champions in Leo Taylor at 120 lbs., Chris Wittenbach at 127 lbs., Dean Richards at 138 lbs., and Larry Powers at 180 lbs. Finsecond for Lowell were Carl Rasch at 95 lbs. and John Dawson at 103 lbs. Third place finishers were Jim Nauta at 133 lbs., Steve Thaler at 154 lbs., and Steve Foss in the heavyweight division. Finishing in fourth place were Bob VanDyke at 112 lbs. and Ron Olson at 165 lbs. Congratulations also go to the coaches, Gary Rivers and Don Kelly for the fine job they did with the boys this year in both the Varsity and the JV's who went undefeated. The Grapplers were overjoyed with championship. In fact, so much so, that both coaches were picked up and put in the shower with all their clothes on. And if you don't think this is quite task, just take a look at those 2 coaches standing side by side sometime. At least a quarter of a ton!

Girl Scouts

Mrs. Mabel Whitaker of the Lowell Beauty Box spoke before the first patrol of Girl Scout Troop 511 Tuesday night. She stressed the importance of healthy hair care and told the scouts several interesting facts such as the dangers of "ironing" hair to make it straight and which shampoos and rinses are good or bad for hair.

The entire troop will be taken on a conducted tour of the Pantlind Hotel in Grand Rapids Friday afternoon. Scouts will be shown how the hotel's kitchens operate in connection with their cooking badge.

Early in March the troop will camp out for two nights at the Boy Scout cabin.

Lori Courser, Troop Scribe

The Lion's Club travelogue series continues Saturday night February 25, as they present Curt Matson who will speak on "Switzerlard." The travelogue will be held in the High School Auditorium at 8:15 p. m. Mr. Matson is a resident of Hollywood, California, and has spent most of his life in California or traveling to foreign countries and making lecture tours. #### J. Rosenberger, G. Faunce wed

Miss Jo Ann Rosenberger be-came the bride of George A. Faunce on Saturday evening, February 4, in the Clarksville Wesleyan Methodist Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Alwyn N. Rosenber-ger of Alto and Mr. and Mrs. George A. Faunce, sr., of Free-

George A. Faunce, sr., of Freeport.

Rev. Gerald Hephner performed the double ring ceremony by candlelight, before an altar decorated with double candelabras and yellow and white snapdragons.

The organist, Mrs. Carl Noffke, accompanied Mrs. Lester Yonkers as she sang "Because," "Each for The Other,"
and "The Lord's Prayer."

and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a gown of crepe organza and chantilly lace with a court cha-pel-length train. A jeweled pet-al headpiece secured her veil. She carried a white lace covered Bible with red rosebuds.

The honor attendant, Mrs. Forrest Price, wore a green and beige empire gown and a matching headpiece. Brides-maids, Mrs. Lyle Blough and Miss Bonnie Rosenberger, sister of the bride, wore identical gowns. Linda BeMent, cousin the bride, was flower girl. She also was dressed in a matching gown. Gordon Mc-

Best man was Forrest Price of Hastings. Lyle Blough of Freeport and Gary Hetchler of Norfolk, Virginia, were ushers. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cecil of Belmont, uncle and aunt of the bride, acted as master and mistress of ceremonies

Caul was ring bearer.

After a short wedding trip the newlyweds will temporarily make their home near Norfolk Virginia, where Mr. Faunce is stationed with the Navy. Guests attending were from Clarksville, Alto, Freeport, Lake Odessa, Hastings, Middleville, Vermontville, Portland, Grand Rapids, Greenville, Bentley, Ontario, Fremont, and Brecken-

Evangelism-What Is It?

"Evangelism is the proclamation of the Gospel of the crucified and risen Christ, the only Redeemer of men, according to the Scriptures, with the purpose of persuading condemned and lost sinners to put their trust in God by receiving and accepting Christ as Saviour through the power of the Holy Spirit, and to serve Christ as Lord in every calling of life and in the fellowship of His Church, looking toward the day of His coming in glory."—From the World Congress on Evangelism statement, Barlin, 1966.

Great! That is what evangelism is! That is what the church is to be busy with! Is your church really involved in evangelism? Thank God if it is!
