Deadline is Friday to sign up for YMCA

This Friday is the last day for Lowell youngsters to sign up for the first annual Lowell YMCA City Championship Swim-ming Meet, which will be held on Saturday, July 1.

This big event of the summer at the pool is free to all who attend Lowell Schools (includes Alto and St. Mary's).

There will be races for all ages, from 5-years-old up thru June high school graduates, with colorful city championship ribbons being awarded to the first four finishers in each event.

Nearly 490 ribbons will be awarded to local swimmers during the course of the meet.

It is not necessary that a child have any competitive swimming experience in order to enter this meet. By scheduling a large number of races and age categories, the YMCA hopes that each young swimmer will be able to win a ribbon for his efforts. Therefore, a large number of participants is hoped for in order that this first City Meet will be a suc-
