One-Car Accident Disburse Results in Fine For Lowell Man

Two law-enforcement agencies, the Kent County Sheriff's Department and Lowell police, were called out last Thursday tht to police an auto accident at Bailey and Lincoln Lake

At the scene, officers found Robert Steven Schultz, 23, of 824 Lincoln Lake Rd., severe ly bleeding from head in-juries suffered when his car went off the road and side-swiped a telephone pole, then bounced some 30 feet and careened against a tree,

Despite his condition, Schultz refused to be taken by ambulance to a hospital.

Lowell police rushed Schultz to the office of Dr. Marilyn Hunter, where again he resisted efforts of first aid.

He was then taken to jail, but along about 2:15 a. m. Friday, the police talked him into ing to a hospital, where he was given first aid.

Sheriff's deputies report that Schultz admitted to speeding 80 to 70 m.p.h. at the time of the mishar, and also confess-ed to having been drinking beer earlier in the evening.

Ticketed on a charge of being disorderly, Schultz was taken before Justice Howard J. Rittenger Friday and, following a plea of guilty, he was fined $50 and $10 cost.

Lowell police were given cre-dit today for breaking up a Grand Rapids-area trio of juvenile car thieves.

But it took a two-hour grilling by the officers to uncover a three-months long series of carstealing capers by the gang.

An assist from several alert Lowell citizens led to apprehension of the juvenile gang.

According to the police, the citizens charved the gang acting suspiciously at a local parking lot and telephoned headquarters.

Officers then took the young boys to the station for questioning. For more than 90 minutes, youths refused to admit to

As a result, Lowell police were able to assist in retrieving a stolen car in Flint, and also two stolen vehicles in the Grand Rapids area.

The trio was then turned over to Kent County Juvenile authorities.

Drama Class Presents Miller Classic Mar. 9

The Lowell Senior High School Drama class, under the direction of Ivan Haney and student teacher, Miss Barbara Hile. will present Arthur Miller's "The Crucible" on March 9, at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium

The setting of the play is 1692, the time of the Salem witch trials. The male leads are played by Curt Fonger and Bill Wright. Lake and Cheryl Fish play the major female roles. The drama class is new this year in the school's curriculum and this will be their first pub-

Members present and voting chairman Ralph Town-send, Phil Johnson, James Pace, Bill Doyle, John Troy and City Manager Bernard C. Olson.

City planning consultant Walt-er Bagby told the assembled home owners that projected use of the property for apartments was "not necessarily compatible" with the master plan, but added that he felt the land would be of little other value.

"Traffic density caused by the proximity of schools has made the property less desirable for single-family construction," he explained.

Several home owners noted that they were opposed to the master plan amendment because it would cause a sharp decline in property values in the area.

The commission also held a lengthy discussion regarding possible changes in the mas ter pian for the proposed Civle Center area.

The talks were prompted by a report from Dovle that it did not appear feasible at this time to consider the North Island fill project, which would create new recreational facilities as well as provide space for a new city hall and a proposed new ampitheater for the Lowell Showboat.

"I don't believe that the project can be handled now or in immediate future with funds available," said Doyle, "so I would suggest that we start considering other means of improving the area."

Doyle, who serves as president for Showboat, Inc., favors a plan that would close off a portion of Lafavette St., thus permitting construction of permanent seats on the Showhoat site.

"And," he added, "such an ampitheater could be used for many functions ... such as school exercises, concerts and so on.'

Superintendent of Schools James Pace explained that Lowell Area Schools have begun a long-range study of school plans and said that any change in plans for the area should be given consideration by the Board of Education.

"The board has some definite ideas on what it can do to help improve the area and It is possible that what action it takes may reflect on changes in the master plan," he said.

"But." Pace added "it's too early for us to disclose exact O'son read a letter from con-

The engineers noted that sewers located in the area would have to be placed at a greater depth than originally planned and that the change would result in greater costs. After some discussion on the subject, it was tabled for further study by the city manager.

'Y' Membership Drive Kick-Off Next Wednesday

Plans for the YMCA annual membership drive are being completed, according to co-chairmen Mrs. Orlo Gwatkin and Stanley Gardner, Workers participating in the drive will meet for a kickoff dinner at the senior high school cafeteria at 6:30 p. m. next Wednesday (March 6). The YMCA program in Lowell has been very successful and current membership of nearly 2.300 speaks well of the efforts of previous membership workers as well as the activity programs filling many of the needs of local people

It is only through the continued spiritual and financial support of the Y by the Lowell people that the Y activities can be maintained and expanded to meet more needs. All area residents are therefore urged to give every consideration to supporting the YMCA and its work when invited to do so by one of the membership drive workers.

"From the Author"

A little girl had prayed about what gift would be best for a Christmas present for her father, and she felt led to buy a Bible. She wondered what to write on the flyleaf. "From Margie" seemed too cold. "From your little daughter" would not do either, for her father had said she was getting to be Finally she went to her father's library. She found that one of the books had this on the flyleaf: "FROM THE AUTHOR." When her father opened his gift Bible, he saw the words "FROM THE AUTHOR" and realized that he was not acquainted with the author of the Bible. He studied his Bible, and was converted.

We too confess that the Bible came "FROM THE AU-THOR," namely God. Though there are 66 books in the Bible, 39 in the Old Testament and 27 in the New Testament, we still speak of the Holy Scriptures or Holy Writings as THE BOOK. The word BIBLE means THE BOOK. We confess with Paul that "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness." 2 Timothy 3:16. We confess with Peter that "no prophecy ever came by the will of man; but men spake from God, being moved by the Holy Spirit." 2 Peter 1:21. Is the author of the Bible your God through Christ Jesus? Be sure that you know the author of the Bible!

Lent, a religious season ob-served in the spring by Chris-tian churches throughout the world, began this week on Ash

The term Lent comes from the Old English word "lencten" which meant springtime. The word used in church liturgy is Lent is part of the regular church year in the Roman Catholic, Anglican, Eastern Ortho-dox and Protestant Episcopal churches. Other protestant churches hold religious services, meetings, or preaching missions to honor the Lenten season.

Some churches prescribe a special book of devotions for Lent. In the Roman Catholic Church each day of Lent has its special mass. Clergymen wear purple vestments at the Many Christians observe Lent by fasting, performing penance, giving alms, abstaining from amusements or not solemnizing marriages.

The season originated as one of spiritual preparation for Eas-ter in remembrance of the passion, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.
