

OK New Planner for City

The City of Lowell will have a new planner if the recommendation of the planning commission is accepted by city council.

The city's planners Monday night forwarded a recommendation to the council that the city retain the services of John Paul Jones and Associates for future planning needs.

Jones would replace Scott Bagby and Associates, which will complete work started on updating the city's zoning ordinances and zoning maps.

The planner also took into consideration a request by Root-Lowell Mfg. Co. that a north-south street be situated on a right-of-way farther west than the master plan now calls for.

Developer Doug Dok of Lowell Development Corporation was in attendance and pointed out to the planners that such a move would seriously jeopardize plans for residential development in the area.

In an interview Tuesday, Dok pointed out that 73 residential lots would be affected. According to Dok, this would leave the development corporation with about 125 lots for future residential needs... enough for about three years at the present rate of growth.

As originally outlined in the master plan, the proposed roadway would bisect the property now under development by Root-Lowell for its new plant on Foreman Road.

Prior to the planning commission session, a public hearing was scheduled by the Zoning Board of Appeals to determine the feasibility of a request to permit construction of a gas station at Valley Vista Drive and M-21.

Only two of the six board members appeared at the hearing along with petitioner Henry Peschka of H. & H. Development Company. There were no objectors present.

Upon the advice of city attorney Richard VanderVeen, the meeting has been adjourned until next Monday at 7 p. m. at city hall at which time a quorum is expected to be present.

Attending Monday's hearing were chairman Ralph Townsend and Dr. Clark Vredenberg. Board members Mrs. Virginia Myers and Dr. Robert Reagan had requested to be excused. Absent were Richard Schlemminger and Dr. H. R. Mueller.

Not Guilty, Says Driver to Justice

Ralph C. Hansma, 36, of 914 E. Main, Lowell, was arrested Friday for driving while under the influence of liquor and pleaded not guilty before Justice Howard Rittenger the next morning. Trial date will be set in the future.

Arthur W. LaVine, 20, of 212 Irish, Lyons, was ticketed early Sunday morning on a careless driving charge. At the time of the ticketing, LaVine reportedly became disorderly, using immoral and obscene language, and was arrested.

He allegedly resisted arrest when taken to the police station and again while enroute to Kent County jail, where a second charge of disorderly was placed on him.

LaVine appeared before Justice Rittenger Monday and pleaded guilty to one charge of careless driving and two charges of disorderly. He was sentenced to either 75 days in the county jail or a fine of $150 including court costs. He paid the fine.

The Village Smithy
 BY FRAN SMITH

Have you ever awakened on a Monday morning, looked in the mirror and said to yourself: "Man, it's great just to be alive!"

Then, before the day is barely in its infancy, you receive some rather staggering news.

This was how the week started out for the Smithy. Now you no doubt have noticed that I am somewhat fond of the game of golf... to the point that Good Friend Wife classifies herself as a "golf widow." A fate, I might add, that she shares with others whose menfolk have the bug.

At any rate, the newspaper sponsored a golf tournament over the weekend at Arrowhead Golf Course and, naturally, I entered the dad-blamed affair.

It was a handicap event and drew a nice turnout of some pretty fair-to-middling golfers.

You probably have already guessed what happened. I had a red-hot putter... sank three birdies... and shot an acutal 78, which was my best 18-hole round of the year!

After Gene and Vince Kaye got done calculating the handicaps, whose name occupied the No. 1 spot? That's right... the Smithy's.

Naturally, I decline to accept the trophy. There were other golfers just as deserving... and far more qualified than I who should be able to place it on their mantle.

But just so that it would not have been a wasted effort, I might possibly be inclined to accept a couple of golf balls. And, gentlemen, make certain they are Titleists.

It was nice to perform fairly well at one of the two games that I truly enjoy... the other being euchre. On that note, I must admit that I ran into some tough competition in a recent journey to Parnell, where George Malone and Jim Heather proceeded to completely (well, almost) overwhelm partner Chuck Burns and the Smithy.

Oh, well... you can't win 'em all!

To things much more serious. It's amazing how many people have come along since the Lowell Area School millage went down to defeat on August 26 to report that they either 1) failed to register; 2) failed to vote; or 3) voted "no"... much to their chagrin.

One guy who shall remain anonymous made this caustic comment: "If I had known the school was in that tough a shape, I certainly would have voted."

To which I say that this bears out a long-standing contention that people will read only that which most directly affects them and shun that which does not.

Because this newspaper... plus other media... made it a definite point to educate the voters on the issues at hand. It would seem that we failed somewhere along the line to get through a few thick skulls!

Let us hope... no, pray would be a better word... that these thick heads get the message about the upcoming general election lest the entire country go to hell in a basket.

If you haven't registered, remember that the final date for doing so is FRIDAY, OCTOBER 4. If you are registered, remember that the election is TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 5.

No matter what other seemingly more important items are on your agenda, be sure that you perform your duty on those dates.

And don't go around, like thick head mentioned above, saying that you weren't made aware of the facts.

Lowell Board Returns to Voters in New Bid to Wipe Out Deficit

Cascade Planners in Study

BY SHIRLEY DYBERT

Lowell Area School District officials have decided to return to the voters to resolve their financial difficulties.

The Board of Education passed a motion Monday night to call for a special election on Monday, November 25, in which voters will be asked to approve a seven-mill operating tax for a one-year period.

It was approved by a 5-1 vote with board member Harold Metternick opposing the election at this early date.

"I am not opposed to asking for the millage," explained Metternick, "but I do feel we should hold off until March when we should have a better idea of just how we stand."

At the insistence of board member Gould Rivette, the board adopted wordage in the motion that will call for levying only that portion of the proposed millage required to bring about a balanced budget for 1968-69 and 1969-70.

Inasmuch as the tax could not be collected before January, 1970, the board concurred with Rivette.

"It is entirely possible... in fact, probable... that we would not need all of the seven mills," board president Dr. Robert Reagan explained to the 43 residents in attendance.

"What we are trying to do is to make certain the district doesn't get into this kind of situation again," he added.

Several residents questioned the need for seeking more money, suggesting instead that

FH Sets Record in Budget

Education in the Forest Hills School District will cost a record $2,144,317 during the present fiscal year.

This was the budget adopted by the Board of Education for 1968-69 and marked the first time that the district has surpassed $2-million in anticipated expenditures.

The outlay represents an increase of $336,317 over last year.

A total of $1,500,000 has been allocated for instruction, of which approximately 90 percent will go toward teacher's salaries, according to Superintendent Robert G. Masten.

Operating costs have been pegged at $227,000 with $122,000 allocated for transportation and $65,000 for summer school costs.

"Much of the operating and transportation costs also will go into salaries," explained Masten.

The district expects to derive $1,042,000 from collection of local taxes with another $1,018,000 scheduled to be received in state aid.

Pending receipt of state aid money, the board authorized a loan of $325,000 at 3.4 percent interest from Old Kent Bank and Trust.

Masten also has been working with Ada Township Supervisor Fred Clancy and plans discussions with Kent County Highway Department officials to seek a solution to the student pedestrian problem in the area of the new Ada Elementary School.

The primary road, Ada Dr., is heavily-travelled during the morning hours when students who reside within a mile of the building are walking to class.

"The board is keenly aware that the stretch between Ada village and the school is hazardous to pedestrians," explains Masten, "and we hope to be able to work out something to relieve the situation."

In other action, the board

Looking to the future as Cascade Township continues its phenomenal expansion of residential and industrial areas, the township planning commission has appointed an investigative committee to study the feasibility of setting aside land for park development.

Last month, an informal discussion was held among the members of the commission regarding the possibility of eventually obtaining land for parks and playgrounds. This week, chairman Peter Price appointed Donn Palmer, Bob Martin, and Archie Warner to make a preliminary study. They expect to report their findings at the November meeting.

In other action, a number of plats were discussed. Bernice VanderVeen presented for approval plans for the Cascade Commons Plat (the old Taylor property) on Cascade Springs Road.

The commission questioned the effectiveness of septic tanks and drain fields along the river, pointing out that the Kent County Health Department has not given its approval. The planning commission also asked that the owner return with an engineer's seal on the size of the lot that must conform with the township's minimum requirements.

William Hitchcock presented plans for Forest Ridge Estates, a plat next to Whispering Brook, containing 48 wooded lots. Approval was given since each lot is at least 100 feet wide at the building line and has a minimum of 15,000 square feet.

Robert Martin asked to extend the Whispering Brook Plat and his plans were approved by the commission. All lots are over minimum requirements.

Action was tabled regarding the Patterson Industrial Plat until screening, previously required by the commission and promised by the owner, is made.

This plat is on Patterson Avenue between Burton and 28th Street. The landscaping was to have provided a buffer zone between it and Creekside.

In addition, the industrial plat, as presented, did not conform in size of lots or in width of set-backs to present zoning laws.

The commission also passed a resolution to take the property in Zone 6, now a transshipment zone, and convert it to industrial-use zoning, contiguous to special businesses.

RELIC REMNANTS of a long-ago wagon are examined by Jack Schipper. Believed to have been used back in the logging days near Ada, the wagon was uncovered when backwaters of the Ada Dam were lowered last week to permit inspection of the dam.

Ada Backwater Surrenders Mystery Statue, Wagon

BY JERRY HANES

When county officials, representatives of the Thornapple River Association and Consumers Power decided to lower the Ada Dam backwaters last week, none could have expected that it would uncover a veritable treasure cove.

The backwaters were lowered to permit inspection of the dam, which is scheduled to be taken over in October by the county, which in turn will maintain the facility through special assessment funds provided by owners of abutting property.

Hundreds of area residents and other curious onlookers turned out to watch the water recede... and four area youths suddenly found themselves involved in treasure-hunting projects.

The two biggest items discovered were a "mystery statue" by Chris North and Scott Eggebeen and remains of an old wagon by Jack Schipper and Tom Nordon.

Chris and Scott discovered their treasure near the camel hump bridge on their way home from school. They also found a safe, but when they went back the next day it was gone. The boys made sure there was no money in it before they left.

The statue could very easily be of Moses with a tablet raised over his head. It is a most interesting piece of work and the boys have already been offered $50 to sell it.

Mrs. Eggebeen's help was required since neither of the boys drive. Chris is 15 and Scott just 16. Both are juniors at Forest Hills High School. Mrs. Eggebeen helped the boys haul out the statue which weighs about 40 or 50 pounds. They returned it to the Eggebeens and proceeded to clean it up with a scrub brush and plenty of water.

So much interest was created from the find that the boys thought it would be only fair for others to see this unusual treasure. Chuck Weston of Cascade Pharmacy allowed them to display it in the front of his store.

The boys are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Eggebeen, 2400 Thornapple River Dr., and Mr. and Mrs. Phillip North, 7148 Windcrest Dr., SE.

The other find was the old wagon at the very backwater of the Ada Dam. Tom Nordon and Jack Schipper, both of Fase St. Ada, dug for two hours to retrieve their interesting treasure.

Stan Osmolinski had discovered a tip of a wagon wheel and thought it might be an interesting addition to his yard. When he discovered just how far down it might be, he abandoned the wheel.

Jack and Tom took over and it was even a bigger job than they anticipated. Pat the spirit of adventure spurred them on... plus many interested onlookers. With water steadily creeping up to their excavation, they managed to get the one wheel and axle out before the hole filled up.

The wagon appears to be quite old, possibly an old logging wagon since its axle is wood. There was a large metal rod from one wheel to where the other should have been with a heavy logging chain attached to it. They retrieved some of the fittings, which appear to have been hand forged.

Last week's lowering of the dam sent chills down the spines of property owners along the riverfront. The value of property and the beauty of the community would be greatly decreased if the dam should be abandoned. A hearing is scheduled for Oct. 7 on whether a special assessment district can be set up to maintain the water level, either by transfer of title to Kent County or to the Thornapple River Association.

Letters to the Editor

Appreciates Paper's Coverage of Show

To the Editor:
I wish to express a thank you to you and your staff for such excellent coverage of the Showboat and Miss Shore. I enjoyed reading the articles and was amazed at the length of time that the Showboat has been in existence.

I was in Grand Rapids at the time of the Showboat and did get to see the performance on the first three nights. I wish that I could have stayed longer but I had made previous arrangements for the rest of my vacation.

Again, many thanks for the coverage.

Sincerely,
Roberta E. Purl

Feels School Board Should Hold Line

To the Editor:
Having been to the two latest School Board meetings, I am much more appreciative of the tremendous task facing the School Board in trying to approve a budget. It seems as if they are honestly trying to eliminate most everything that is not absolutely necessary and getting very little thanks and appreciation for their efforts.

However, the outcome of the latest millage vote would seem to indicate the voters (property owners, that is) are not as generous as they should be in their support of the school system.

There are still some of us left who do not enjoy quite such "raw" material.

Very truly,
Mr. & Mrs. J. E. Shanko

Presidential Electors Don't Follow Form

To date, the only state for all its history to consistently vote for one political party in the selection of a President is Hawaii, our 50th state, admitted to the Union in 1959. In 1960 Hawaii cast three Electoral votes for the Democratic candidate; in 1964, with four Electoral votes, it voted for President Johnson. No other state has a 100 percent record.

Indeed, as never before, it appears to us that all of the states are "up for grabs" and the impact of the so-called "independent voter" has quickened the interest of all.

Our attention is fixed on the Electoral College, that ancient institution which our country Congress sincerely hoped would provide a peaceful, efficient and representative manner for the selection of the President.

The 12th Amendment, which changed Article II of the U.S. Constitution, directs the presidential electors to make a direct choice for president and for vice president and provides that the House of Representatives should choose in the event of a tie.

As early in our history as 1800 the time for taking office (from March 4th to noon of January 20), and the 22nd (1861), limiting the office to two elected terms, are the only changes ever constitutionally made in the whole procedure.

Custom and practice have brought many other changes. The advent of the political party led inevitably to the result: the stronger party would pick up the entire electoral vote for all the states it had won by popular vote.

Gone was the deliberate and quiet expression of the electoral college, and given after careful consideration of any number of men of character and competency, each state's electoral college, having been fully "committed," was expected to vote the party ticket. Fact is, never in the past and not now, need they do so.

As recently as 1964 an Alabama elector pledged to Adlai Stevenson voted instead for Walter B. Jones. In 1960, an Oklahomaan pledged to Richard M. Nixon cast his electoral vote for Harry F. Byrd.

Four nationally distinguished authors: Stephen Birmingham, Vera Caspary, Max Connolly and Donald Hall will highlight the opening event at a Book & Author Dinner at 7 p. m., October 8 at the Paradise Hotel.

Also appearing as masters of ceremonies or panel discussion members are three well-known personalities connected with the literary world: William I. Nichols, Roger L. Stevens and Peter S. Johnston.

Key Club Schedules Wash, Candy Sale

Members of the newly-organized Key Club at Forest Hills High School are eagerly awaiting the weekend when they will work on their first cooperative project... a car wash and Halloween candy sale Saturday at Woolco Auto Center.

The local Key Club joins approximately thirteen others in the city of Grand Rapids which all belong to the International Key Clubs. Forest Hills' club is sponsored by Downtown Kiwanis, largest of the city Kiwanis groups. The advisor is Sharron Moody.

The club will meet every Monday evening and will feature speakers who will present a variety of subjects of interest to young men. Once a month, a speaker will be scheduled to discuss a vocational field. Business meetings will also be conducted once a month.

As a mini-Kiwanis, the Key Club has as its motto "We Build." It is devised to serve the community and the school. Developing initiative and leadership among its members, the group plans to become active immediately with a vocational clinic.

This club was first organized at the end of the last school year. President Gary Grover and vice president Douglas Griffith were elected at the International Convention in July at Montreal, where they gained an insight to the workings of the huge organization and an enthusiasm they hope to impart to their fellow members.

Discussions of the coming election and a filmstrip entitled "Voting is People Power" will be the topic of the W.C.S. meeting to be held at the First United Methodist Church today at 2 p. m.

Mrs. Harvey Hilliker, chairman of the League of Women Voters will be the guest speaker, and Stanley Gardner will give devotions.

The Martha-Priscilla Circle are hostesses.

The meeting is to be open and all guests are welcome.

For those who cannot attend the afternoon meeting, Mrs. Arie Leeman will repeat the program at 8 p. m.

The annual homecoming Dance is scheduled for Saturday, October 5, and will be held in the high school gym.

All alumni are invited to attend either or both activities.

Suggests Try Weed Control Before Freeze

For the most effective lawn weed control, apply spray now, advises William Meggett, Michigan State University crop scientist.

"If you spray your lawn before the ground freezes, any weeds that are killed will be replaced by grass which is growing at its best this time of year," explains Meggett.

"Delaying your spray program until next summer will mean that the dead weeds will be replaced with crabgrass or other annual weeds."

He says the combination of 2,4-D amine and silvex, applied at the rate of one pound of active chemical per acre, will control dandelions, plantains, clover, chickweed, black medic, creeping charlie, red sorrel and roundheaded mallow.

Wiper arms should exert a pressure against the windshield of an ounce to each inch of blade length. If pressure is right and wiper still streaks, it means the blade is dead and calls for replacement or refill.

Headlights should be accurately aimed and all lights in working order.

Be sure your windshield is clean and your windshield wiper equipment—arms, blades, and washers—is in top condition.

It was not so very long ago that self-respecting retirement was something you could look forward to if you were a man of wealth and only dream about if you means were less than average. Even the term "senior citizen" was unheard of a generation ago.

But times have changed. Today a comfortable retirement belongs to any man who plans for one, according to the Investment Company Institute, national association of the mutual fund industry. Witness the millions of senior citizens who are now able to enjoy their harvest years in relative ease, thanks to an extended life span and a growing national prosperity.

Yet, to retire is not always that easy. Government figures indicate that only 40 per cent of the more than 15 million people in this country who are 65 and over are self-sufficient. The rest must rely on public welfare, private agencies or family for support.

The real problem is simply poor planning. Too many people who thought they had provided adequately for the future find that either they had miscalculated or that inflation had trimmed the value of their original savings far below levels needed to live in terms of what today's dollar will buy.

Mutual funds, with broad holdings in American industry, have proved effective in keeping pace with inflationary trends, the Institute points out. They can be used as income-producing vehicles from which the investor may draw during retirement, or if he is self-employed he may set up a Keogh Program during his working years. Why are mutual funds—with 4.2 million shareholders and assets of close to $50 billion—so popular today? To begin with, mutual funds employ professionals who constantly watch the many different markets and analyze all the conditions that may affect them.

In addition, a mutual fund also provides broad diversification. This is a well-tested method of reducing the risk inherent in any investment for it spreads that risk among the securities of many different corporations, rather than just a few. Even one mutual fund share may represent holdings in as many as a hundred or more different companies.

Chevrolet introduces 1969.

Caprice. Match this, you other 69's! There is no joy in the land of our competitors today. But let us ask you this. Should we have made Caprice shorter instead of the longest Chevrolet ever built? Or adorned it with flashy nicknacks to make it look less expensive? Just because competition doesn't, should we not have offered you washers to clean your headlights, new variable-ratio power steering, liquid tire chain you can apply to your rear wheels at the touch of a button? Should we have given you less power, instead of the largest standard V8 in its field? Some people think so. Our competitors.

Arrows, Rangers Both Drop Conference Openers on Gridiron

Lowell Suffers 53-0 Loss

Lowell High football fans may find little solace in the fact that the worst part of the 1968 season is behind the Red Arrows, but Coach Jerry Smith is one who is happy to see the first two games behind him.

"We knew that Ionia and Greenville probably would be the toughest opponents on our schedule... and it proved out that way," declared Smith following last week's 53-0 drubbing at the hands of Greenville.

Lowell returns to Tri-River Conference action on Friday night with a home encounter against Sparta (1-1). Game time at Recreation Park is 7:30 p. m.

Greenville was making its debut in the conference and rival coach Ed Heigby spared none of his horses in running up the lopsided count against the injury-plagued Arrows.

Heigby elected to keep his entire starting backfield in the game until all 53 points had been scored.

All-state candidate Mike Nelson, a bruising fullback, scored twice as did Halfback Gary Barager. Halfback Al Colby scored one touchdown, kicked four extra points and ran another one-pointer across.

Quarterback Ed Barnwell also proved a difficult man for the Arrows to stop, running for one TD and passing for two others.

"Potense is our real bug-a-boo," said Smith, who saw linebackers Ch Avery and Ron Wittenbach and Guard Bob Van Dyke go out for the season with injuries in their drills. "I guess we'll just have to put the best 11 men we have out there and hope they can do the job."

On the brighter side, Smith was encouraged by the work of Quarterback Mitch McMahon, who accounted for 140 yards passing with nine completions in 23 attempts. However, three of McMahon's heaves were intercepted and one of those led directly to a score for Greenville when Paul Christensen raced 37 yards to paydirt in the third quarter.

That was the stanza in which Greenville rolled up 27 points to increase its lead to 46-0 after a 19-point second quarter.

Lowell managed to contain Greenville in the opening period, but Nelson got the victors on the scoreboard in the second quarter with a 13-yard run. A 53-yard Barnwell-to-Nelson pass was the highlight of the quarter.

Lowell penetrated deep into Greenville territory twice in the early going, but the Arrows' only serious thrust, on Friday night, was a 37-yard pass to Nelson. The drive ended in a punt.

Lowell's only other drive in the first half was a 13-yard pass to Nelson. The drive ended in a punt.

SIMONS SURROUNDED - Kentwood defenders move in to stop Randy Simons after the hard-running Forest Hills fullback broke loose in Friday's game for a long gain. The defenders are Floyd Haight (11), Tony Scali (making tackle), Tom Heikbeer (71) and Jimm Beeman (74). Blocking for Simons are Jim Witzel (left) and Bob Vandenberg (82) with an actual score of 74. They included Ralph King, Don Meyer, Doug Anderson, Bob Harrison, Fred Droski and Jay Reeb.

Smith, who publishes the paper, had finished first under the Callaway system, but declared himself ineligible to receive the trophy.

Les Lehnen, Len Kerr, Gerry McDonald and Harold Vroman all finished at one-over.

Low gross honors for the men were shared by Kerr and Smith, each with an actual score of 74. Kerr put together nine of 29-29 and Smith had a 34-42.

It was the half time intermission and his team was trailing by a 74 score when Forest Hills High School athletic director Ed Shy made a prophetic statement.

"You can bet that the series between Forest Hills and Kentwood will become one of the best around in just a few short years," declared Shy. "We're about the same size, we have much the same type of kids and we're naturals for a neighborhood rivalry."

Before last Friday's game had ended in a 14-13 victory for Kentwood, there was already evidence that Shy's prediction was bearing fruit.

Coach Frank Rosengren's Rangers, who take on Wyoming Park on Friday night at 7:30 p. m., came within an eyelash of claiming victory in their first start in the O-K Red Division.

In fact, it took Kentwood's lone completed pass of the night to send the Falcons on their way to a winning touchdown drive that ended with Halfback Tony Scali sweeping end from the 13-yard line on the first play of the final quarter.

The pass, good for nine yards, was from Quarterback Floyd Haight to End Tom Barbee on a third-and-10 situation and carried Kentwood to the Forest Hills 44.

Gambling on fourth down, Haight sneaked over center for the necessary yardage to keep the drive going.

After Halfback Jordan Bosma picked up eight more yards on crushing off-tackle smashes, Scali broke loose for 17 yards to the Rangers' 15 and a holding penalty advanced the ball to the seven.

After an offside penalty set Kentwood back to the 12, Bosma carried in for the score and Halfback Tom Vanallen added his second extra point of the night to make it 14-7.

Statistically, Forest Hills had a wide edge with 147 yards rushing and 125 passing to 154 and 11, respectively for Kentwood.

Wingeler completed eight of 14 aerial attempts and had none intercepted. Grochowski topped Rangers' runners with 82 yards in nine tries for a 9.1 average while Simons gained 52 in 14 carries for a 3.7 average.

Rosengren singled out Grochowski, Simons, Vandenberg and Griffin for the offensive team for special praise and noted that Tackles Don Mosher and Guards Steve Grabarek and Tom Dwyer had turned in fine performances.

"These kids deserved to win this one," said Rosengren. "But we have improved more rapidly than even I thought we could. They'll win their share of games."

In other O-K Red openers last week, Wyoming Park upset Godwin Heights in a defensive struggle, 74 for its second straight triumph of the campaign; and Rogers came up with a rare safety in the final stanza to nudge Hudsonville, 8-6.

The Rangers wasted one other opportunity when they surged to the Kentwood 13 early in the second quarter with the aid of a pass interference penalty. From that point, Simons broke off tackle to the five-yard stripe, but a clipping penalty set the Green and White back to the 21 and the drive ended three plays later with no further advance.

However, Fullback Randy Simons' run for the extra point fell just inches short of the goal line.

A 21-yard gallop by Simons, a 13-yard pass play from Wingeler to Telf, a 27-yard aerial from Wingeler to End Bob Vandenberg and Halfback Stan Grochowski's 13-yard run figured prominently in the drive.

Scali and Bosma were the big guns for Kentwood in the drive.

Late Effort Just Misses

Score Three Victories in Rec League

The Forest Hills-area teams emerged victorious in two of five games played last week in the South Kent Recreational Football League.

The Lions shut out Caledonia in Crushers, 19-0, in the most lopsided victory while Badgers topped Pinery Park Packers and Wildcats whitewashed All Stars, 7-0.

Kentwood Cannibals took the Rockets by a 7-0 count and the Jets suffered a 26-0 setback at the hands of Godwin Maulers.

Close Finish Marks Ledger-Life Meet

Only two strokes separated the top 13 finishers in the annual Lowell Ledger-Suburban Life golf tournament held Sunday at the Arrowhead Golf Course.

Tournament directors Gene and Vince Kaye announced today that a four-way tie for the top position among the men resulted with the withdrawal of Fran Smith from the tournament.

Smith, who publishes the paper, had finished first under the Callaway system, but declared himself ineligible to receive the trophy.

Les Lehnen, Len Kerr, Gerry McDonald and Harold Vroman all finished at one-over.

The pass, good for nine yards, was from Quarterback Floyd Haight to End Tom Barbee on a third-and-10 situation and carried Kentwood to the Forest Hills 44.

Gambling on fourth down, Haight sneaked over center for the necessary yardage to keep the drive going.

After Halfback Jordan Bosma picked up eight more yards on crushing off-tackle smashes, Scali broke loose for 17 yards to the Rangers' 15 and a holding penalty advanced the ball to the seven.

After an offside penalty set Kentwood back to the 12, Bosma carried in for the score and Halfback Tom Vanallen added his second extra point of the night to make it 14-7.

Statistically, Forest Hills had a wide edge with 147 yards rushing and 125 passing to 154 and 11, respectively for Kentwood.

Wingeler completed eight of 14 aerial attempts and had none intercepted. Grochowski topped Rangers' runners with 82 yards in nine tries for a 9.1 average while Simons gained 52 in 14 carries for a 3.7 average.

Rosengren singled out Grochowski, Simons, Vandenberg and Griffin for the offensive team for special praise and noted that Tackles Don Mosher and Guards Steve Grabarek and Tom Dwyer had turned in fine performances.

"These kids deserved to win this one," said Rosengren. "But we have improved more rapidly than even I thought we could. They'll win their share of games."

In other O-K Red openers last week, Wyoming Park upset Godwin Heights in a defensive struggle, 74 for its second straight triumph of the campaign; and Rogers came up with a rare safety in the final stanza to nudge Hudsonville, 8-6.

The Rangers wasted one other opportunity when they surged to the Kentwood 13 early in the second quarter with the aid of a pass interference penalty. From that point, Simons broke off tackle to the five-yard stripe, but a clipping penalty set the Green and White back to the 21 and the drive ended three plays later with no further advance.

However, Fullback Randy Simons' run for the extra point fell just inches short of the goal line.

A 21-yard gallop by Simons, a 13-yard pass play from Wingeler to Telf, a 27-yard aerial from Wingeler to End Bob Vandenberg and Halfback Stan Grochowski's 13-yard run figured prominently in the drive.

Scali and Bosma were the big guns for Kentwood in the drive.

Low gross honors for the men were shared by Kerr and Smith, each with an actual score of 74. Kerr put together nine of 29-29 and Smith had a 34-42.

It was the half time intermission and his team was trailing by a 74 score when Forest Hills High School athletic director Ed Shy made a prophetic statement.

"You can bet that the series between Forest Hills and Kentwood will become one of the best around in just a few short years," declared Shy. "We're about the same size, we have much the same type of kids and we're naturals for a neighborhood rivalry."

Before last Friday's game had ended in a 14-13 victory for Kentwood, there was already evidence that Shy's prediction was bearing fruit.

Coach Frank Rosengren's Rangers, who take on Wyoming Park on Friday night at 7:30 p. m., came within an eyelash of claiming victory in their first start in the O-K Red Division.

In fact, it took Kentwood's lone completed pass of the night to send the Falcons on their way to a winning touchdown drive that ended with Halfback Tony Scali sweeping end from the 13-yard line on the first play of the final quarter.

The pass, good for nine yards, was from Quarterback Floyd Haight to End Tom Barbee on a third-and-10 situation and carried Kentwood to the Forest Hills 44.

Forest Hills Hi-Lites

BY SHIRLEY DYGERT

Autumn means something special to Glen Morris and Charles Worden. They have heeded the call of the wild and are really out for big game.

They drove from here to Ludington where they boarded the ferry that transported them to Manitowish, Wis. From there they drove to the Park in Manitoba, Canada. Now on foot, they are hunting moose in those fresh pine-scented elbow-stretching spaces.

Following the Rocket football game Saturday, Ron and Cheryl Collins took off for Lowell where they joined their soccer club for the evening. This group has been going for about seven years. Originally there were three tables, but now there are four. The club meets once a month in various homes throughout the year.

Saturday was one of those rare hot days for this time of year and good day for entertaining friends outside. As the misty rain over the hills and waters, the fragrant odors from the grill wafted over our lands. Among those who entertained were the John Sykes. They welcomed the Tom Fredericks, the Alan Schmidt's, and the Harry Currens.

After seven rounds of bridge, Frank and Mary Lou Schneider treated their guests, Winnie and Paul Peterson, John and Ann Perschbacher, and Dawn and Harold Edzbeck to the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with bouquets of yellow mums, bronze pom poms and palms.

The dinner menu also included Italian Verdicchio, crisp salad, baked potatoes, rolls, and the hostess' justly famous strawberry cream tarts.

When the Cascade Businessmen's Association met for the September session, Harold "Tiny" Neitzel was the guest speaker. His subject was the history and future of the Forest Hills Country Club. Anyone who is planning to let his membership lapse over the winter had better beware: Neitzel is expecting to have a new trap awaiting wandering balls.

The Penn Club was the scene of the gay Commodore's Ball Saturday night for the Bay Haven Yacht Club of Holland. Greeting 50 guests at a cocktail party in their home preceding the ball were Barry and Sheryl Lilly of Bradford Road N.E. The gay get-together was to celebrate Barry's new role as Commodore for the coming year.

Miss Bishop graduated from Forest Hills High School in 1967 and her fiancé is a 1965 graduate of South High School.

CAR CARE TODAY
How can you remove grass spots and stains from your car's upholstery? Keep your car interior clean by brushing the upholstery with a volatile cleaning solution. Bring the cloth through. Then open it and allow the fluid to evaporate a little. Put the spot lightly with the cloth. Do not rub it in. This will pick up particles which are embedded. Repeat this procedure several times, using a clean cloth each time. Now moisten another piece of cloth with the cleaner. Allow it to evaporate until fairly dry. Rub the spot lightly, working from the outside in. Repeat this procedure until the spot is removed. Repeat a ring. Repeat

Participates in Foreign Study Plan

Greg Jay Hoag, son of Mrs. Frances Hoag of Route 3, Lowell is one of 177 Kalamazoo College juniors participating in the Foreign Study Program during the fall term.

He will be studying in Hanover, Germany, one of 21 centers around the world selected for the program.

The foreign study program was designed to give the students of Kalamazoo College an in-depth experience with people, language and schools of a different culture than their own, as well as participation in a quality academic experience that is enriched by the environment in which it occurs.

Most of the students travel to their destinations by boat and will study in the country of their choice for a six month period. The majority will live with non-English speaking families.

DR. CARLSON VISITS HERE

Dr. C. E. Carlson of Fort Wayne, Ind. was guest speaker at the Sunday morning worship service at the United Brethren in Christ Church.

A former bishop who has visited different foreign missionary fields such as the one in Serria Leone, West Africa, he is a very able speaker.

Dr. Carlson attended the men's retreat at Camp Living Waters this weekend, returning and spending Saturday night as the house guest of Rev. Lee R. Palmer and family.

Rev. Palmer, Clayton Mote and Fred Sawdy also attended the retreat for pastors and laymen. They gave a fine report of helpful experiences between pastors and their workers at this very beautiful natural wild large camp site in lower north Michigan.

The young men at camp this summer have erected an open air chapel on the lake shore and bought material out of their earnings to build it.
