1987-88 City budget is unveiled; millage will remain the same

Former Lowell City Manager Ray Quada addressed the Lowell City Council Monday evening to review the city's 1987-88 budget. Quada prepared most of the document prior to leaving his position with the city two months ago. This was the first of two public hearings to be held before the budget can be adopted by the City Council.

Because of increased State Equalized Valuations in the city, the assessed millage of 12.38 mills generated approximately 9/10ths of a mill more than had been forecast in this year's budget. Quada pointed to new commercial development like Family Fare and industrial development at Attwood as major contributing factors to the larger SEV. Despite the increased revenue, Quada recommended that the millage level be left at 12.38. Quada mentioned the upcoming secondary sewage treatment plant construction, and suggested that the extra revenue might be needed for that project.

Quada told the Councilmen that the individual funds had not changed much from the previous years. Quada did touch on such costly items as police cruisers, D.P.W. equipment, local streets and refuse collection as areas where potential problems may occur if not monitored closely. Quada recommended that nearly $111,000 in Federal Revenue Sharing be earmarked to help defray the city's share of the new sewage treatment plant.

There were no comments on Quada's proposed budget from either the Council or the audience. The next public hearing is slated for Monday, May 18 at 8:00 p.m. A copy of the proposed budget is available to the public at Lowell City Hall.

The Council conducted two other public hearings on Monday, both concerning zoning variances. A request to construct less parking spaces than required by the city ordinance was approved for the True Value Hardware now under construction 1901 W. Main St. According to the ordinance, the square footage of the building dictates that 32 spaces are required. Charles Bernard, owner of the new business requested that the City Council allow him to build only 26 spaces. The variance was granted unanimously.

The Council tabled a request from Jim Fizer of D&D Leasing. The ordinance requires that business signs be placed at least 75 feet from the center of the roadway. Fizer claims that the ordinance creates a hardship for him in that the sign would block his drive if moved back that far. Fizer also claims the sign needs to be closer to the road for visibility and noted that other signs in the area are not in accordance with the ordinance.

Acting City Manager Barry Emmons told the Council that the City Planner has suggested the 75 foot setback requirement may be too stringent. The Council decided to review the entire sign setback requirement before making a decision on Fizer's case.

The council set a public hearing for their June 1, 1987 meeting to hear a request from Henry VanderVennen regarding a rezoning request. VanderVennen wants portions of two lots on his premises rezoned from residential to commercial. Parts of both parcels are already zoned commercial, and VanderVennen wants to square off the property.

The Lowell Planning Commission granted their approval on Monday, April 27. However, Commissioner Pfaller and a neighbor in the audience insisted that the premises be cleaned up and screening installed before the site is approved for use as a car lot.

The Council approved a contract negotiated between the city and YMCA allowing the YMCA to conduct recreation programs at city parks. The YMCA operates adult and youth softball programs at Recreation Park and Creekside Park as well as a youth soccer program at Creekside Park. As part of agreement, the YMCA will offer Lowell residents a one third discount off normal registration fees. Those wishing to get the discount must first obtain a voucher from Lowell City Hall. The discount is an effort to recognize the tax dollars residents have paid to develop the parks. Quada noted the activity at Creekside Park on Saturday. "With a softball tournament taking place on all diamonds and soccer games in progress on both fields, Creekside Park was one of the busiest parks I've seen lately" Quada said. He then complimented the Councilmen on their efforts in establishing the park.

Non YMCA events at city parks will have to meet the following criteria: insurance coverage from $100,000 to $300,000 depending on the size of the event, pay a $100 deposit (can be waived by City Council for non-profit groups), pay 10% of all fees (not less than $50.00 per diamond per day) and pay 15% of all concessions.

The airport issue came up again. Emmons told the Council that he had not received a copy of an insurance policy from the Grand Rapids School of the Bible and Music naming the City as an insured party. Emmons said the policy was overdue, and that he would be contacting Clare McCombs at the School. Emmons also told the Council that the city assessor had appraised the airport buildings and real estate. His estimate of the total worth is $319,405.

The Council set Monday, May 18 as a special work/study session to review the airport problem. The session will follow the regular Council Meeting.

Four will vie for three board seats

Residents of the Lowell Area Schools will have the opportunity to elect three members to the Lowell Board of Education at the annual school election to be held on Monday, June 8.

Candidates for the two four year terms are Roger Kropf and Jack Lane, and the candidate running for the one year term is Norman Byrne.

Roger Kropf has been a Board member for twelve years and currently holds the office of Vice-President of the Board. Mr. Kropf has been a resident for 44 years and his reason for running again is to offer his experience and direction in the school system operation. Jack Lane of 10837 Keystone Dr, Ada has resided in the school district for two years. He graduated from Forest Hills High School and Western Michigan where he studied and received his Bachelor of Science degree in public administration and political science. When asked for his reason for running, Jack stated "I am very interested in local involvement and decision-making. Since I have no children in the school system yet, I feel I can fairly represent all concerned with quality education and financing. It will be a great opportunity for me to become actively involved and informed while participating in the area political system."

Norman Byrne was appointed in July 1986 to fill the Board vacancy created by Jo Murphy's resignation. That four year term will be up in June of 1988 so

Norm is running for one year to complete the term of office. Norm is owner of Byrne Electrical Specialists in Rockford and his reason for running is as stated, "Since I have lived in the Lowell School District all of my life and have had children attending Lowell Schools the past 17 years and still have 2 children enrolled, I feel that I can make a considerable contribution to our educational system in Lowell. With my business and financial background, I can see that the taxpayers' money is utilized wisely."

Bill would help courts report drunk driving

Legislation designed to help Michigan courts report drunk driving and other traffic offenses to the Michigan Department of State has been introduced in the state House.

The bill, (HB 4547, sponsored by State Representative William VanRegenmorter, R-Jenison), would bring about the improvement recommended in a report issued by the State Task Force on Reporting Traffic-Related Offenses.

Those changes include: --requiring court officials to certify in writing twice each year that they have reported all required convictions for the prior six months;

--requiring county prosecutors to be responsible for identifying felony traffic cases that are to be reported to the Department of State;

--amending state law to indicate what cases must be reported to the Department of State.

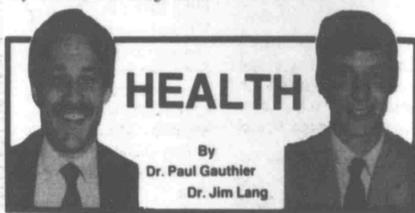

Last April a House Concurrent Resolution was passed requiring the Auditor General to investigate state driving records to determine whether courts were consistently reporting convictions for drunk driving offenses. The auditor general's review found that 88 percent of felony convictions involving a motor vehicle were not reported to the Secretary of State, even though such reporting is required. The 27-member task force was appointed in January following the auditor general's report.

The legislation is designed to better define the responsibility of trial courts and other agencies in reporting offenses. Our ultimate goal is to keep dangerous drivers off the road.

MALIGNANT MELANOMA

Melanoma, a skin cancer, is a malignancy of the melanocytes, which are the cells that give your skin its color. If not detected early, it can spread (metastasize) to other parts of the body. If detected early, melanoma will not spread and the prognosis for recovery is good.

The best advice we can give regarding any bothersome skin growth is this: have the area examined by your physician to make sure that what you may consider to be a "mole or a freckle" is not actually something more serious.

Indeed, melanoma can begin as something which looks like a mole or a freckle. What may distinguish melanoma are the following features:

- A) Melanoma is usually asymmetric (uneven in shape).
- B) The borders of the growth are irregular.
- C) There is a variety of colors present on the growth--brown, black, red, blue, or white.
- D) Melanoma is usually larger than a pencil eraser.

Some people are more likely to get melanoma than are others. A person's risk of melanoma is greater if a family member had melanoma. People who spend a lot of time in the sun or in tanning booths greatly increase their chances of getting melanoma. Many tanning centers claim that the rays they use to tan their customers are "safe" and do not harm the skin. This is untrue. Rays from the sun and rays used in tanning booths are equally dangerous when it comes to increasing the risk of melanoma.

Being careful of the sun is the best way to avoid melanoma. Other tips are the following:

- A) Avoid the sun between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m.
  - B) Use a sunscreen with a protective factor of 15.
  - C) Respect the sun even on a cloudy day - you can burn even through clouds.
  - D) Beware of reflected sunlight - sand, snow and water all reflect sunlight.
  - E) Be extra cautious of the sun when taking tetracycline or sulfa drugs - they may make you burn more easily.
- In any case, if you have a suspicious skin growth, take the time to have it evaluated by your doctor.

Poems for Mothers Day

Bonnie Coleen Ward Wise, a local resident, has submitted these poems just in time for Mother's Day. Bonnie has been writing poems and stories for pleasure in her spare time.

A MOTHER'S PRAYER

Please let me keep on going Lord, From Dawn to setting sun. 'Till I'm no longer needed, And all my work is done.

Please let me be around to see My little ones grow strong And keep my shoulder handy For their tears when things go wrong.

Please help me make our home a place They're happy to be in... And help me by example to keep them free from sin. For not until they're all prepared To face life's rocky road Does any mother dare to lay down Her burden and her load.

It's only then that she can feel She's truly earned her rest As thankfully she whispers, "Lord, I've done my very best." Bonnie Coleen Ward Wise 5/18/1981

A GRANDMOTHER'S LOVE

I look into the eyes of my grandchild, And see my baby there. The feelings of love, and pride and joy, The memories we grew to share. Now with withered hands and graying hair, And a rich full heart with wisdom to spare, This child does touch my life indeed, To fill my still young mind with need. To hold, and touch the silken skin, To whisper goo-goo, and tickle a chin. To have chubby little arms around my neck, Drool on my shoulder, and the old rocker to set. Those eyes that twinkle into mine, The toothless grin that ever shines, My grandchild will keep me young and alive, For through his life, my love will survive Until the very end of time; he'll pass it on By telling the stories of his memory's dawn.

"Mama, what language will we speak in heaven?" Sue asked one day when she was a youngster.

"English is about the best language there is," Sybil insisted. "Everyone thinks his language is the best," argued Sue.

Finally we agreed that, regardless of what it will be, the tongue spoken will be one all will be able to understand perfectly. Perhaps there will be no need for words as heaven is a place of universal love. Love needs no language. A twinkle in the eye,

Utilize MISS DIG

Warmer temperatures and enthusiastic do-it-yourselfers have recently caused an increase of underground utilities. Consumers Power Company would like to remind all of its customers to utilize the MISS DIG notification system 48 hours in advance of scheduled excavation. Most utilities will then respond by locating and staking the gas, electric, water and communication lines.

The MISS DIG notification system is a 24-hour service that utilizes the toll-free number of 1-800-482-7171. All homeowners who utilize the professional services of local contractors should give the proper notification to MISS DIG at least two days in advance of scheduled activities. Recent totals indicate that approximately 20% of all dam-

Old Alexander Graham Bell probably never realized what was in store for society when he first rang up Doc Watson on his new-fangled invention. There aren't many items in our lives that are more used, and abused. As you may have guessed, we're going to concentrate on abuse rather than use. As we all know, it's not proper newspaper etiquette to talk about the good aspects of any subject. I'm prompted to write about telephone abuse because of two separate experiences I've had in the last few days. Two different businesses, which will remain anonymous, have answered their phone with, "Good morning, we're having a great day here at Joe Blow's Bait and Tackle". My question is, "What in the world makes their day so much better than mine"? What happens if you're calling to complain that your worms all died or the paint flaked off your Northport Nailer? How are you supposed to scream at some cheery wierdo on the other end of the line who answers the phone like that? I don't know about you, but I think this is a new low in telephone etiquette. It's even worse than the old, "Have a nice day" phrase that is used so unconsciously at the end of almost every phone conversation.

Then there are those who never seem to know what time of day it is. There are certain places that I call where the receptionist can almost be counted on to say good afternoon in the morning and good morning in the afternoon. I could understand a busy receptionist slipping between the hours of say, 11:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. When I ring up a place at 9:30 in the morning, and the phone is answered with "Good afternoon, Sparky's Sprocket Co.", then I'm inclined to think somebody's trying to rush their day along just a little too quickly.

Another telephone peeve of mine is the person who apparently loves the sound of their own voice. An example would go something like this, "Good morning... Elmo's Elevator Co... this is Elmo speaking... our special this month is Elmo's 12 passenger express... how may we help you this morning?" By he gets all of that out, you've forgotten what you called for, and hang up on the jerk.

Don't you just hate being put on hold? I don't mind so much if I have been talking to someone, and they put me on hold while they look something up. What I really hate is when you don't even get a chance to open your mouth. "Good morning, Dibble, Dabble and Dribble, Attorneys at Law, hold please." Then you get to listen to Barry Manilow music for twenty minutes. The receptionist finally comes back on the line and I tell her I want to speak to Mr. Dabble. "I'm sorry, Mr. Dabble's line is busy, would you care to hold?" is her reply. With twenty minutes invested, I usually say yes and hope the conversation won't drag on too long. Twenty more minutes with Barry Manilow, and the receptionist comes back on. "Who were you holding for?" she says. By this time I'm lucky if I'm not holding myself because I have to go to the bathroom. "Mr. Dabble", I say. "I'm sorry, Mr. Dabble has stepped out for lunch", she says. My reply is usually not something I'd want to print in a family newspaper. We'll just say it's almost as course as Barry Manilow music is bland.

I could go on and on about phones. There are those idiotic recordings on answering machines. There are those wrong numbers at 3:00 a.m. There are the guys whose beepers go off during a funeral. There are cellular phone users driving 75 down the expressway while looking up a phone number. There is that sensational idea to breakup AT&T. There are all those curly long distance commercials. There are the retailers who abandon you as a cash customer just to answer the phone. Yeh, I could go on and on, but I won't, and I'm sure you don't want me to. History tells us that Alex spilled some acid on himself, and Watson first heard him on the telephone when he hollered for help. I sometimes wonder if we wouldn't all be better off if Alex had spilled that acid on his invention.

McGee throws second no-hitter

Michelle McGee hurled her second no-hitter of the season, as Lowell scored nine times in the bottom of the fifth inning to defeat Wyoming Park 10-0.

The game was called because of the ten run mercy rule. McGee forced just 2 hitters over the minimum. She needed just 60 pitches for the game. She walked three batters, but one was caught stealing, as Megan Kirby fired a perfect strike to Ronnie Watrous for the out. The Red Arrows ended the game in the fifth, as they sent eleven hitters to the plate. McGee's triple sent home Micky Denman, with the game's ending run. Megan Kirby belted a home run in the big inning.

In game two, Lowell scored in every inning to crush the Vikings 17-4. Again, the game was called by the mercy rule. Chris Bussell smashed three hits at the plate, including a two run home run. She collected three RBIs for the game. McGee also picked up three hits for the game. Michelle Tousignaut drove a triple for Lowell's other extra base hit. McGee's record is now 5-1 in league play and 9-2 overall. Lowell's record stands at 5-2 in league play and 13-4 overall.

Arrows lose in 9 innings

Lowell traveled to Rogers on Wednesday, and lost a heartbreaking game to the Golden Hawks, 8-7, in nine innings. Lowell trailed 4-0 after four innings, as the Hawks' Char Hickey allowed only one hit. The Red Arrow bats came alive in the fifth as they scored five runs to lead 5-4. Lowell sent eleven hitters to the plate as Michelle McGee, Michelle Tousignaut, Deb Crawford, Chantal Cosgrove, and Ronnie Watrous each drove home a run. Rogers came back in their half of the fifth by scoring three times to lead 7-5.

In the Arrows' sixth, McGee's two out double scored Chantal Cosgrove, who also doubled, and Micky Denman to tie the game. It stayed that way, until Jen Kolasse singled home June Marinelli from third in the ninth inning. "It was a great game and the girls played their hearts out," stated Coach Bob Rodenhouse. "I am pleased with the effort and they do not have one thing to feel bad about. Rogers is a very good team. They must come to our place yet, and we will be ready for them". Chantal Cosgrove and McGee each collected two hits. McGee suffered her first league loss of the year.

Red Arrows defeat Sparta 11-7

COMING ATTRACTIONS

Mia Sara stars as the exotic 'Queenie'

By Evan Levine

With TV miniseries representing a seemingly endless "Lifestyles of the Rich, Famous and Perfectly Coiffed" for an insatiable public, ABC would seem to have hit pay dirt with "Queenie," airing Sunday, May 10, and Monday, May 11. Not only does the movie have beautiful women triumphing over the odds and powerful men triumphing over the women, it has a glamorous real-life story behind it. Based on the book by Michael Korda, editor-in-chief of the publishing house Simon & Schuster, the story plays out a thinly veiled account of the life of movie star Merle Oberon, who married producer Alexander Korda, Michael Korda's uncle. Queenie, like Oberon, rises from the slums of Calcutta to become a dance hostess and finally, a world-famous actress.

Mia Sara

Mia Sara stars in ABC's 'Queenie,' Michael Korda's thinly disguised account of Merle Oberon's life. It airs Sunday, May 10, and Monday, May 11.

Although Mia Sara, the actress who plays Queenie from ages 18-20, had seen many of Oberon's movies, she didn't approach the role as if she were playing Oberon. "It was Queenie in the script; that's who I was playing," the 19-year-old actress asserts.

"There aren't many good roles for actors my age. And I got to do everything — it wasn't just reacting to other characters." Straight from her role as the girlfriend of Ferris Bueller (Matthew Broderick) in "Ferris Bueller's Day Off" (1986), Sara won the role over actresses who had the advantage of being British, as the role dictated. "There's a certain gumption in the character," says Sara. "You have to be a little crass to rise from the slums to be a movie star. I showed I could be that; I also showed a sense of humor. "I'd been filming another movie," continues Sara. "When I auditioned for

'Queenie,' I felt comfortable, like I'd been born on a movie set." The Brooklyn-born Sara had no difficulty with the British accent. "I just did it," she says. "There was a coach who told me when I did something that was too American, but I'd lived in England and had English friends, so it wasn't that difficult." Some of Sara's favorite scenes were those with Claire Bloom, who plays Queenie's mother. "Acting with another actress was something new for me," she explains. (In addition to "Ferris Bueller," Sara starred opposite Tom Cruise in 1985's "Legend.") Sara, who "always believed in the core of my stomach that I'd go to college," has shelved that plan. "After I started acting, I realized that this was it, this is what I was doing. I realized," she says, "that this was life."

hrop. She is a September senior heifer calf sired by Eng-Amer Lancelot-ET and from a GP Marx daughter with 23,049M and 941F. A maternal sister to the consignment has a record of 25,176M 3.6% 897F. Less than a week earlier, this calf distinguished herself by placing 4th in a class of 25 at the Michigan Spring Tanbark Kick-off. Terri Grams, St. Johns, was the successful bidder. The second high seller, also a Holstein, was from Martin Krhovsky, Corunna. She brought $1100.00 and was purchased by VG Telstar with a Michigan fat record of 729F. She went to Jamie Snow, Mason for $875.00. This was the first year that a Red & White was offered, and the strong demand for that breed was reflected with the summer yearling consignment from Ron Smith, Mason, bringing $850.00. She was the choice of Cindy Koning, Lowell. A tall, open-ribbed heifer, she was sired by Sungold Big Brother and from a GP E-D Tonto Cavalier.

The lone Brown Swiss consignment from David Shafer, Henderson was a straightlined November daughter of UW-Cora Beau Dapper Don-Twin from a

The first item of business was to set a public hearing date for a sign variance request from the SUNTANNER, 2186 W. Main, Lowell. In order to comply with zoning requirements, they would have to place the sign close to the entrance door. Instead they are requesting to place the sign next to the existing "Mother's" restaurant sign. Acting Manager Emmons recommended the hearing be set for May 18, 1987.

IT WAS MOVED by Doyle, supported by Collins to set the public hearing date for the sign variance request for May 18, 1987.
YEA: All.
NAY: None.
MOTION CARRIED.

Next item on the agenda was to set a public hearing date for a request for a side yard variance from Raymond Kastanek, 333 Donna Dr., Lowell. His intention is to build a two-stall attached garage and is unable to meet the six (6) foot setback requirement. Acting Manager Emmons recommended the hearing be set for May 18, 1987.

IT WAS MOVED by Thompson and supported by Doyle to set the public hearing for the side yard variance request for May 18, 1987.
YEA: All.
NAY: None.
MOTION CARRIED.

Councilman Collins noted the lack of the garage height on the variance application and requested that information be included on the form before the hearing.

A discussion on the Lowell Airport was addressed next at the request of Councilman Thompson. Acting Manager Emmons noted that Mr. Claire McComb of the Grand Rapids School of Bible and Music was present, but was not prepared to make a proposal at this time. Mr. McComb said he had been contacted by and met with the City of Wayland on the possibility of moving his operation to that location, but as Wayland owns only the airstrips, the school would need to purchase the adjacent land.

He then stated he had met with Acting Manager Emmons to discuss the Lowell airport and the possibility of a longer, more permanent lease/purchase agreement with the city. Another issue discussed was better maintenance of the runway; because the DNR no longer allows oiling which causes much dust and wear on the aircraft, a hard surface is needed. He noted the possibility of the school handling the insurance and managing the facility; in return the city would receive revenue from the tie down fees. He then pointed out the money the school has invested in equipment and facilities and the 2800 pounds of fertilizer recently applied by a friend with a sprayer. Mr. McComb went on to say that the airport could be a real addition to the city as a draw for business.

Councilman Thompson replied he is concerned with people using the airport that shouldn't be when it is supposed to be closed to transient traffic. Also the fact that the fertilizer spraying raised complaints from neighbors adjacent to the airport. McComb said the closing is listed with the FAA, but it is still on the flight maps. Also, the runway should be "X'd" to show it closed. Councilman Collins said he is in favor of reaching an agreement with the school and releasing the city from the expense and responsibility. Mr. Jim Serne stated a closed airport jeopardizes the insurance on an aircraft and questioned whether there is any financial audit on the airport. The mayor and council replied that information is contained in the budget and will be available. Mr. Leonard Jackson said he felt the airport is good for the city and the benefits are not measured in dollars alone.

The issue of existing leases and expiration dates was discussed and Mr. McComb asked permission to communicate with the city attorney, Richard Wendt, on ordinances regarding the leases in conjunction with Barry Emmons. Council concurred.

Acting Manager Emmons reported the dates for Mayor Exchange had been set for May 19 (Lowell there) and May 21 (Portland here) with the City of Portland. Councilman Collins, after reviewing the information on Portland remarked on the similarity of our two communities. Leonard Jackson, in the audience, made the offer of airplane rides for the visitors, as he has in the past.

The consideration of a resolution supporting the City of Grand Haven Grant Application to upgrade the existing boat launching ramp on Harbor Island was discussed next. Mgr. Emmons explained this was merely a support measure because the residents from surrounding communities utilize the facility and it would not jeopardize any request we might make for state monies.

IT WAS MOVED by Collins and supported by Fonger to support Grand Haven in their grant application to upgrade the boat launch.
YEA: All.
NAY: None.
MOTION CARRIED.

CITIZEN SUGGESTIONS: Leonard Jackson again voiced his support to open the airport which followed with mixed reactions from the council.

COUNCIL COMMENTS: Thompson requested that Acting Manager Emmons contact the city attorney for information on the leases at the airport. Collins remarked on the poor working order of the speed signs located on Monroe for Runciman Elementary School and the need to have them properly set. Emmons replied the DPW does have a key and that they are difficult to set, but that he would look into the matter.

MANAGER'S REPORT: He reported there have been complaints of young people swimming at the city property off Bowes Road during the recent warm weather and asked Council permission to post "NO SWIMMING" signs in the area. Council concurred. Next item was the presentation of the cost of water cooler for city hall, $499 installed. He noted there is money available in the Building Fund.

IT WAS MOVED by Doyle and supported by Thompson to approve the purchase and installation of a water cooler for City Hall at a cost of $499.
YEA: All.
NAY: None.
MOTION CARRIED.

Also discussed was the cost of lighting the flag pole in front of City Hall. Quotes of $1200 and $1000 were submitted and found to be prohibitive at this time. He also informed the council it is time once again to set the public hearings for the annual budget.

IT WAS MOVED by Doyle and supported by Thompson to set the public hearing dates for the budget for May 18 and June 1.
YEA: All.
NAY: None.
MOTION CARRIED.

The motion was later amended by a consensus of the council to move the public hearing dates to May 4 and May 18.

Acting Manager Emmons stated the Department of Transportation had received a letter regarding a complaint about the planters on Main Street. They conducted a study and found the planters not to be a traffic hazard. Next was a discussion about the rezoning request by Atwood to Vergennes Twp. for the purpose of building a warehouse. Collins brought up the possibility of annexation because they currently use city services. Mgr. Emmons informed the council of the Michigan Municipal League Meeting in Detroit on September 9-11, also the Asugyegan River Odyssey and docking at Lowell on May 11. In conclusion, the manager reported the resolution to hold Macker on Main Street needed to be amended to read the inclusion of the County of Kent, for the detour, in the Macker insurance policy as named insured.

IT WAS MOVED by Thompson and supported by Doyle to amend the resolution adding the County of Kent as named insured.
YEA: All.
NAY: None.
MOTION CARRIED.

IT WAS MOVED by Doyle to adjourn at 9:10 p.m.

Approved: J. D. Maatman, Mayor

JV Standings

Lowell vs. Greenville - 4/21.
Pitcher Todd Probst had a rude greeting during the first inning as host Greenville managed three hits and three walks off him, to account for five runs.
Lowell managed to get back one run in the second, four runs in the third, and three runs in the fourth to take over the lead 8-7. The Yellow Jackets once again capitalized on two untimely errors to score five runs of their own in the bottom half of the fourth inning. The Red Arrows could score only one more time to make the final score 9-12. Todd Probst helped the losing cause batting two for three and knocking in three RBIs.

Lowell vs. Forest Hills Central - 4/23.
It was Kevin Goggins on the mound for Lowell this time, who was greeted with sizzling bats as FHC rapped out five hits to score six times in the first inning. The Rangers were to cross the plate twice in the second inning, once in the third and fourth, and twice more in the fifth inning, while the Junior Red Arrows were held scoreless to end their first conference game after only 5 innings of play with a score of 0-12. Brian Hewitt, Todd Probst, Bart Olin and Dennis Stickney each tallied one hit.

Lowell vs. Kenowa Hills - 4/24.
Game One.
It didn't take long for visiting Kenowa Hills to make themselves at home on Lowell's new diamond, as they belted out seven hits (two being home runs) while picking up three walks to score eleven times in the once again ominous first inning. Lowell tallied two runs of their own in the second inning when Todd Probst and David Organeck scored off of back-to-back singles by Joe Malone and Dan Schmidt. The Red Arrows picked up two more hits by Craig Mersman and could only push one more run across while the visitors found the way to plate eight more times to make the final score 3-19.
Game two.
In the second game of the double-header, the Lowell batsmen found holes in the Kenowa Hills defense nine times for three runs, but the visitors picked up where they left off in the first game and crunched out twelve more hits while counting for thirteen runs. Todd Probst picked up the loss for Lowell while Jerry Goggins lead all Red Arrow hitters with a two for three performance at the plate. The JVs conference record is now 0-3.

Lowell vs. Sparta - 4/27.
The JV Red Arrows finally burst out of their shell and pounded the visiting Spartans 11-1 in a five inning game.
The Lowell batters came alive and safely hit thirteen times with Brian Hewitt and David Organeck each going three for three, while Craig Mersman and Joe Malone each marked two hits of their own. Kevin Goggins pitched a beautiful game for Lowell, allowing only one run on two hits while striking out five and walking none.

Lowell vs. Rogers - 4/29.
The JV Red Arrow finished their mid-season home-stand with a tough loss to visiting Rogers. Rogers started the scoring in the third inning capitalizing on two Lowell errors and three hits of their own to score twice, but the Red Arrows tallied two of their own in the bottom of that inning, when Brian Hewitt doubled home Jerry Goggins, and Kevin Goggins, to knot the score at two's.
In the fifth and sixth innings the Rogers' batters again went into action and scored six times on ten hits, and the Arrows were held scoreless in their half of the fifth inning, but came back in the sixth with four runs of their own with Aaron Wester hitting a key double, driving in two of these runs to make the score 6-8, still in favor of Rogers.
Pitcher David Organeck held Rogers scoreless in the tip of the seventh to give the Red Arrows one more chance for the win in regulation play.
Todd Probst led off with a double down the left field line and was then scored by Bart Olin's single. Olin then stole second, base only to watch his next two teammates strike out. But Jerry Goggins gave Lowell one last shot and hit a double to score Bart and tie the game at eight at the end of seven innings.
The eighth inning proved to be disastrous for the Arrows, as Rogers belted out seven hits while picking up four walks to score nine times, and Lowell could only squeeze one more run across the plate in the bottom of the eighth to make the final 9-17.

The salon's other two beauticians, Ginger Braun and Penny Starks will remain on the staff.

Gerry is a graduate of the Lou-Rog School of Hair Design in Grand Rapids. She is also a lifelong Lowell resident and a graduate of Lowell High School.

Gerry says she plans to institute a senior citizen rate. The hours at the 203 East Main Street business are 9-5 Monday thru Saturday. Appointments may be made by calling 897-7506, but walk-ins are always welcome.

"Matchcounts" team does well at State

Over the 1986-87 school year, several Lowell Middle School students worked on challenging math concepts as part of the "Mathcounts" program which was sponsored by the Ada Construction Company. In late January a local competition was held to determine which students would represent Lowell at the western district competition at Aquinas College in early March. The first place team members were Dwight Frey, Gregg Gruizenga, Jay VanAntwerp and Jen Wieland. Because of previous obligations, two team members could not participate; so the final team consisted of Dwight Frey, Jon Kohler, Jay Thaler and captain, Jay VanAntwerp.

The team placed third in the district and qualified to go on to the state competition at MSU on April 4. The members worked very hard and even met over spring break. Out of the 26 teams at the state level, the Lowell team placed 16th and placed second out of the four western Michigan teams to go.

Congratulations to these fine students who represented Lowell in a respectable manner academically, as well as socially. They were polite, and well mannered, a tribute to their families and school.

SESQUI-SENSE

We don't know whether anyone in Michigan ever wore, or even saw, Paris fashions in the 1830s, but the fashionable women wore an elaborate hairdo with a large, fancy hat, tied with a big bow under the chin. Her dress had ruffles at the neck, very full sleeves to the elbow, and then either tight sleeves or bare arms with long gloves. Skirts were quite full and long, often with a decorative apron. Flat slippers completed the outfit.
