PROSTATE CANCER

Prostate cancer is currently the second most common cancer in men after lung cancer. While we all think about the associations of lung cancer (smoking, asbestos, chemical air pollution) we rarely stop to think about prostate cancer, and how to detect it early on.

The prostate gland is about the same size and shape as a chestnut, and is located in front of the rectum, directly below the bladder. It is part of the male reproductive system, and adds nutrients to the semen. Males over 30 are at risk for developing prostate cancer, and the risk becomes greater with each passing decade of life.

The symptoms of prostate cancer or prostate enlargement are usually caused by obstruction of good urinary flow. The man may experience a weak stream, or may have difficulty initiating a stream. Getting up more often at night to urinate is another clue. Blood in the urine or a sensation of not completely emptying the bladder should prompt investigation for prostate cancer.

Your doctor will examine your prostate via a digital (using the finger) rectal exam. If your gland is suspicious, special x-rays may be ordered, or an ultrasound of the prostate will be done. Additionally, a consultation with a urologist for a biopsy of your prostate will probably be obtained.

If the biopsy is positive for cancer of the prostate, therapy depends on your age, overall health and the stage of the disease. Options include radiation, medical therapy and surgery.

If you are a male over the age of 35 and have never had a digital rectal exam, we highly recommend that you see your doctor for this brief, but very important first step in the early detection of prostate cancer.

By Pauline Spray

Blessed be God, which hath not turned away my prayer. (Psalm 66:20)

An elderly lady prayed and prayed for money to give to her church. It seemed as if her prayers would never be answered.

But one day she spied a vine growing under her window. She watched it grow all summer and discovered that three squash vines had merged to become one marvelous, fruitful plant.

Fall came. The little lady began harvesting the squash and putting them out for sale. All in all, the vine produced 250 squashes. It wasn't long until she was able to donate to every phase of the church work she wished to help support. Besides, she had enough money left over to purchase a small trinket she had been wanting for her own pleasure.

God sometimes chooses to answer our prayers in far different ways than we expect. His answers do not always come in large packages. But some of the so-called "little ones" prove to be among the greatest blessings.

The Lord did not choose to give the old lady a diamond mine or a pot of gold, but He supplied her needs and more. Yes, her prayers were definitely answered—"via the squash vine."

Prayer: Dear Lord, answer my petitions according to Thy will and in Thine own way. Help me to accept what Thou dost send. May I never despise the "size" of Thy answers. Teach me to realize that the greatest blessings in life often come in the smallest packages. Amen.

I know not if the blessings sought Will come in just the way I thought, But leave my prayers with Him alone, Whose will is wiser than my own.

News From 5th District Congressman . . .

Paul Henry

In a statement released today, United States Congressman Paul Henry (R-Mi), invited all residents of Michigan's 5th District to participate in two commemorative events sponsored by the Commission on the Bicentennial of the United States Constitution.

"On September 17, 1987, we will celebrate the 200th anniversary of one of the most significant events in history, the signing of the United States Constitution," Henry said. "On this day in 1787, 30 men signed their names to a document which established the world's most enduring democratic government. It would be appropriate for each of us to take a few moments to reflect on the blessings of liberty, justice, and equal opportunity made possible by the Constitution."

and two outstanding young Americans, will follow the President with their remarks.

"This program represents a great opportunity for our communities and schools to learn more about the rights and liberties guaranteed by our Constitution," Henry said.

The second event-Bells Across America - is scheduled to mark the actual time and date of the signing of our Constitution. Henry said, "All types of organizations and individual citizens, are encouraged to participate in this 'ringing tribute' by playing bells and chimes for 200 seconds on September 17th at 4:00 p.m. EDT."

Henry added, "Organizations wishing to receive a certificate of recognition for their participation in Bells Across America should notify the Commission. Letters may be sent to: Bells Across America, Commission on the Bicentennial of the U.S. Constitution, 736 Jackson Place, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20503."

If you've been casting about for what to call a whole heap of hawks, you might like to know the official term is a cast.

Mendez in triathlon

Melisa Mendez, a 1980 graduate of Lowell High School, participated in her first triathlon on Labor Day. The C. H. A. I. Life Triathlon in Denver, Colorado, includes a 500-meter swim, a 20-mile bike trip and a 10 kilometer run. Melisa's total time was approximately two hours and 15 minutes. The C.H.A.I. Life Triathlon is not an officially timed race, but more for those challenging themselves.

Mary Doyle, also a Lowell High graduate, and two friends were there to cheer her on. Mary, who is also a runner, ran the last mile with Melisa.

Besides receiving a trophy for finishing, Melisa said she felt great and even had a little kick left for the end of the run!

Arrows squeak by Knights

The Lowell Red Arrows upped their season record to 2 and 0 with a narrow victory over the Knights from Kenowa Hills last Friday. The Arrows didn't get on the scoreboard until the fourth quarter when Glen Rozich rammed into the endzone from the eight yard line. The extra point attempt was no good, but the six points were enough to best the Knight's lone score, a 31 yard field goal earlier in the game.

Arrow quarterback Rob Burritt was only one for seven in the passing department for 15 yards, but Lowell running backs combined to roll up 131 total yards for ten first downs and the score. Kenowa Hills put 98 yards in rushing and 48 yards of passing together for 142 total yards, but could manage only four first downs.

Rozich led Lowell's attack

each added five. Linebacker Joel Schrenk and center Toby Czarnopis each had four. Safety Fred Heeringa picked off a Kenowa Hills pass and defensive tackle Tony Stepek caused a fumble. Czarnopis also ran back punts for twelve yards and kickoffs for 25 more.

Lowell will play at home Friday evening in a OK White match-up with Sparta. Game time is 7:30 at Burch Field.

we would be more than happy to publish articles submitted by parents, interested students or coaches of the teams. Also, we would use any quality photos that may be submitted. Black and white photos are preferred, but color photos can also be used. News copy does not have to be professionally written. If volunteers can simply get us the facts and statistics, we will rewrite the article. You can help us recognize these athletes' efforts by helping us gather the necessary information.

Civil Counsel Jon DeWitt gave a pricing status report on the Mass Burn Incinerator. The County received a Triple A credit rating from Standard & Poor's last Wednesday. He believed this is the first waste recovery project based on the municipality's own credit to receive a Triple A rating. The project was to be offered on the market yesterday and today. Shearson Lehman received a market reading on Friday, and it was very weak. On Friday there was an announcement that the federal discount rate would increase by 50 basis points. That announcement could have been interpreted favorably by the market, and it was hoped that the market would strengthen Tuesday. The market opened extremely weak Tuesday morning and was worse by afternoon. The market was very volatile this morning, and there were no buyers. The interest rate Thursday and Friday might have been 8.0 percent. By Tuesday morning it had jumped to 8.4 percent and to 8.7 percent today. Shearson Lehman recommended against going into the market today. The market will be monitored daily until about next Thursday, which is as long as the County can wait and still begin construction October 1.

Civil Counsel DeWitt explained that a backup plan was initiated Tuesday. There are two options: 1) sell all the bonds as five year notes, and 2) continue in the 100 percent variable rate mode and wait for another opportunity to convert. It is the recommendation of the project team to continue in the variable rate mode until such time as the market reaches an attractive level to convert to fixed rate. The key item to be completed is to negotiate a letter of credit with Mitsubishi Bank for the entire $90 million issue so that the County can break escrow and start construction October 1. The County would have the flexibility to convert at any time; it takes about 60 days to convert. The variable rate in the market today is 5.02 percent. There are other costs of being in the variable rate mode which would bring the rate to about 5.75 percent. In addition, the County would want to budget 100 basis points to protect against volatility in interest rates, bringing the rate to 6.75 percent. The fixed rate for a long term bond is 8.7 percent. The disadvantage of staying in a variable rate mode is that the County takes the risk that interest rates will continue to climb.

Commissioner DeVriendt asked how much of this problem could be attributed to the delays caused by ABATE. Civil Counsel DeWitt stated that the action taken by ABATE in February and April delayed the County's ability to enter the market. If they had not taken the appeals and made the motions for rehearings, the County could have been in the bond market in the spring. In April the market was as low as 6.8 to 6.9 percent. He was hoping for an interest rate of 7.5 percent.

Commissioner Byl asked what an 8.5 percent fixed rate would translate into for a tipping fee. Civil Counsel DeWitt indicated it would be nearly $40 per ton.

At 6:05 p.m. Commissioner Lorch moved to adjourn, subject to the call of the Chairman, and to Wednesday, September 16, 1987 at 9:30 a.m. for a Special Meeting and to Friday, October 2, 1987 at 9:00 a.m. for a Committee of the Whole Meeting and to Wednesday, October 7, 1987 at 9:00 a.m. for an Official Meeting.

Motion carried.

LAAC Fall Festival Analyzer is donated

Festival Sept. 26-27

The 19th Annual Fallasburg Fall Festival will be held Saturday, and Sunday, September 26 and 27, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day, at Fallasburg Park, four miles north of Lowell.

Sponsored by the Lowell Area Arts Council, the festival features unique art and crafts, food booths, entertainment, demonstrations of turn-of-the-century skills, a free children's craft area, free parking, and free admission.

Various aspects relate to the turn-of-the-century theme including demonstrations, costumed participants, antique buggies, sleighs, and autos, the old schoolhouse museum, a pie judging, and the historic Fallasburg Covered Bridge. Highlights will be the annual reopening of the Fallasburg Post Office with collectors cachet and envelopes, and the annual raffle of a hand-made quilt, designed each year with the covered bridge featured, with additional raffle items selected from artists' booths.

Lowell High School's Automotive Shop Instructor Curt Kaeb and Assistant Superintendent Gary Kemp take receipt of an engine and gas analyzer donated by Dale and John Stuckey of Stuckey's Amoco. Kaeb says he has been trying to get such a unit for his students for ten years or more. The Stuckey brothers estimate that the seven year old unit is worth approximately $6,000. It was recently replaced with a $20,000 ultra-sophisticated Sun Interrogator system.

Kaeb is delighted with the donation. "It'll do anything the new ones will do, except you have to read meters instead of digital read-outs", Kaeb said. Dale Stuckey said the old unit isn't capable of analyzing certain modern engine systems, but for the most part it is still functional. "It can be used for 95% of all service work", Stuckey said.

Tim and Lori Gerard of Lowell are proud to announce the birth of their son Christopher John. He was born Sept. 10, weighed 8 lbs. 10 oz. and was 21" long.

Proud grandparents are John and Shirley Willison, Charlotte, Joseph and Barbara Gerard of Royal Oak, and Chuck and Joanne Lydick of Satsuma, Florida.

101 Places To Sip Cider

A rising tree inventory and excellent weather have produced the state's largest apple crop ever—64 percent above last year's level—and that means plenty of cider sipping this fall, reports AAA Michigan.

"Thousands of visitors are traditionally beckoned each fall by the memorable sights, scents and sounds of operating cider mills," stated AAA Michigan Travel Services Manager James Drury.

"With an abundant supply of apples and cider and doughnut prices up only slightly from 1986, this should be an especially good year for savoring fall's gold and russet finery and enjoying outdoor family fun at a Michigan cider mill," he added.

Michigan's total apple crop this year exceeds 1.15 billion pounds, up from last year's 700 million pounds. The harvest is the largest since the Michigan Agriculture Department began keeping records in 1898.

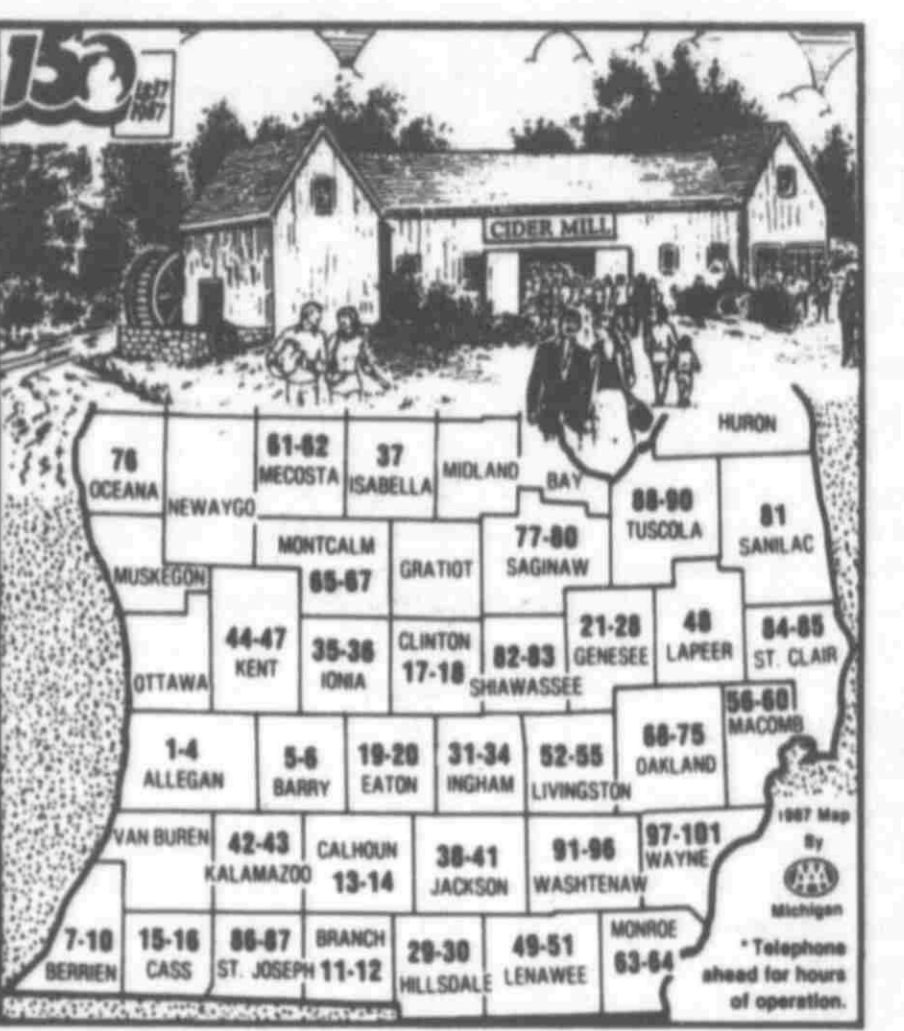

This year, Michigan is expected to become the second largest producer of apples nationwide, growing 70 million pounds more than last year's second-ranked New York State. Washington continues to lead in apple production nationwide.

Drury attributed the upswing in apple production to a 24 percent increase in apple trees between 1982 and 1986, favorable pollination conditions in the early spring and the right combination of heat and rainfall this summer. Fruit-bearing trees now account for 4.4 million of the state's total record 5.8 million apple trees.

Historically, the most abundant Michigan apples are Red Delicious, and Jonathan. Other popular varieties include Ida Red, Golden Delicious, McIntosh, Rome and Northern Spy. Cider mill visitors will find that cider averages $2.45 per gallon, 5 cents more than last year, with prices ranging from $1.50 to $3.90. A dozen doughnuts averages $2.37, 7 cents more than last year, and costs from $1.55 to $3.00.

AAA Michigan's 1987 Cider Mill Guide lists 101 mills. Many mills offer such family fare as hay wagon and train rides, animal petting farms, pony rides, and pick-your-own apples. Most mills permit visitors to watch pressing operations and provide special tours. Visitors should call ahead for pressing dates and times and a schedule of activities.

The next resolution was adopted to certify that the school district has implemented a plan for adult education. The Board then adopted a resolution which establishes a committee to develop a strategic long range district plan for district improvement from July 1, 1989 through June 30, 1994 and prepare their final report to the Board on or about June 15, 1988.
