Showboat to make a comeback in June

Board President Ray Quada and the rest of the Lowell Showboat Board of Directors tell us the famed Lowell Showboat will steam around "Cattail Bend" at least three evenings in late June of 1988. Quada made the announcement at a press conference held last Wednesday at Pockett's Night Club in Grand Rapids. Quada told the members of the local media that the Showboat would make a gala return on June 23, 24 and 25. Quada guaranteed those in attendance that the headliner would be a top notch talent, but a contract had not yet been finalized. "We're working with a couple of different groups right now, but we're not quite to the point in the negotiations where we can commit ourselves to a formal announcement", Quada told the reporters. Quada hopes to be able to announce the headliner at a fundraiser slated for Saturday.

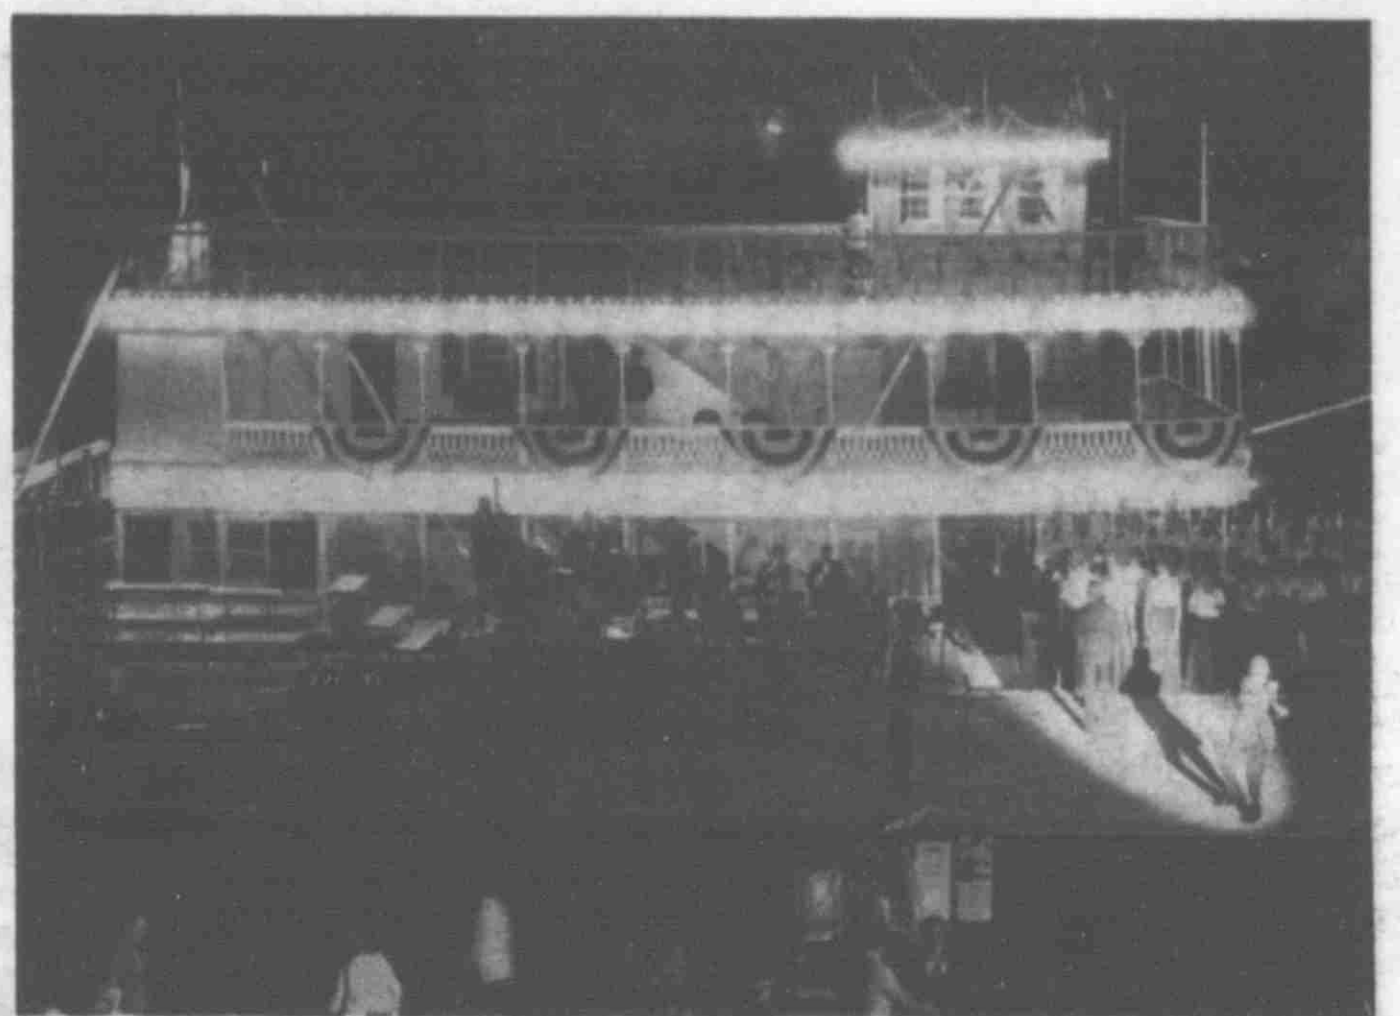

A "Kick Off Fundraiser Dinner" is slated for this Saturday, October 24 at Pockett's Night Club. The celebration will begin at 5:00 p.m., and tickets are just $20.00 per person. The evening includes a roast beef dinner and entertainment by "Alive and Well". Make reservations by calling Pockett's at 957-5179, Heritage Meat Market at 897-7049 or No Sweat Exercise Salon at 676-3138. All tickets will be paid at the door. Mark your calendar now, you can enjoy fine food, great entertainment and support Showboat all at the same time.

The Showboat Board plans to bring the famed summertime event back with all the trimmings that made it so popular in the past. Planners intend to bring back endmen, a chorus, dixieland band, a headline act and a the famous Robert E. Lee sternwheeler. "We're not limiting ourselves in any way", Quada said. "By that, I mean we intend to draw from the entire area, including some top notch talent available in Grand Rapids to fill the endman, chorus and other positions in the production. We want to make the Lowell Showboat the best entertainment of its kind anywhere".

The Lowell Showboat ran aground in 1982 when interest on a staggering $45,000.00 debt kept the production from operating in the black. The Board of Directors opted to cancel the annual production until fundraising events could eliminate the debt. After five years of car raffles, Memorial Day celebrations, donations, etc. the Lowell Showboat is finally out of debt. It owns such major assets as a 4,500 seat amphitheatre and the boat itself, free and clear. Directors now feel that the annual production can again become a profitable venture, and at the same time restore the glimmering "Showboat City" image to Lowell.

Of course the effort needs the support of the entire community, and anyone willing to serve in any capacity should contact a board member or write to Showboat Corporation, P.O. Box 213, Lowell, Michigan 49331.

The Lowell Showboat will "come aglow" June 23, 24 and 25 of 1988. Planners are shooting for a "back to the basics" production, complete with a top-notch headliner, endmen, chorus, orchestra and of course the good ole "Robert E. Lee".

Vennen expands auto dealership

It looks like just another hole in the ground at this point. But, if work continues on schedule, a brand new used car sales office and car clean-up center will be completed on the corner of Center St. and West Main by Dec. 31st, 1987.

According to owner Henry VanderVennen, the 40 x 40 building will provide sales offices for three or four additional salesmen as well as a new and used car prep area.

The new building will be located adjacent to the existing Vennen body shop and will allow ample display space for used cars between the front of the new offices and the south side of Main St. The area to the rear of the building will be provided for new car storage and employee parking.

"This expansion has been needed for quite some time," VanderVennen said. "The support for our business by the people of the Lowell Area has been tremendous. We expect the addition of three more salesmen, specifically for used car sales, to serve the needs of our customers in the most professional manner possible."

There were initial problems with the planned expansion of the Vennen lot last Spring. Residents of the Center St. area became concerned over use of the proposed lot for storage of empty drums and disabled vehicles. However, these fears have been laid to rest and in a compromise agreement, VanderVennen consented to construct a 15 ft. landscaped green strip along the west edge of Center St., to shield the residents from the car lot.

The first layer of asphalt for the lot should be down and in use by Nov. 15, and the entire project should be completed by Dec. 31st.

VanderVennen is actively seeking to add to the Chrysler, Dodge, Plymouth lines already

A house has been razed and several large trees have been removed to make way for Vennen Chrysler, Plymouth and Dodge, Inc.'s expansion. The area will be paved and a used car office will eventually be erected on the site.

handled by them. The most recent pursuit is for the Jeep Eagle line which was recently acquired by Chrysler Corporation.

"We're growing!" VanderVennen says. "We hope everyone in the Lowell Area will benefit from our new facility."

Council wades through agenda

The Lowell City Council sailed through an eleven item agenda, an eleven item comments and recommendations letter from the city auditors and a nine item City Manager's report Monday evening. The packet of information before the Councilmen looked like it would take all night to wade through. Surprisingly the information was covered in less than two hours. The following is a capsulized account of the meeting.

The question regarding a three yes, and one no, vote on a zoning variance at the last Council meeting was cleared up by the City Attorney. The Councilmen were told that City Attorney Dick Wendt ruled the vote stands in this case. Ivan Blough, the owner of the property in question at 117 Jefferson, had been told he could proceed with his project.

A variance request from Wittenbach Olds, Pontiac and GMC was granted by the Council. The auto dealership asked to park a temporary (one year) 12' X 48' used car office on the south side of Main St. Wittenbach's owners plan to extensively revamp their facility over the next several months, to include the demolition of the present used car office.

The Council adopted a new dog ordinance which specifically defines "leashed" (physical restraint not more than eight feet in length), "unrestricted", "unconfined" and "vicious dog". The new ordinance should clear up discrepancies, duplication and gray areas that were found in two previous ordinances.

City Councilman Bill Thompson requested a public hearing to hear his request for a vacation of a portion of Hillside Ct. Thompson owns property bordering the street. The public hearing was set for the November 2 meeting.

Virgil Biggs and Thomas Dickerson of Biggs, Hauserman and Abraham, P.C., the city's auditors, presented the annual audit of the city budget. Dickerson said that as of June 30, 1987 the city financial state of affairs was excellent. The auditors found no problems in the city's finances that would dictate any change in accounting methods. An eleven item comments and recommendations letter listed such minor items as City Council proceedings that hadn't been signed by the City Clerk and a suggestion to annually review the fees charged for city services.

The Council agreed to a proposal to lower the interest rate charged on a 50 year loan to the Lowell Cable TV Department from the Lowell Light and Power Co. The original loan was at an 8% rate. The new rate of 6% will allow the loan to be paid off in 22 years, a time span more in step with the depreciation schedule set up for the equipment.

HEADACHE I

Headache is probably the most common complaint brought to the doctor's office - and that's before they even see the bill! Seriously, headaches account for a large percentage of office visits and are often difficult to treat. In our next couple of columns we are going to discuss the two most common causes of headache - muscle contraction and migraine. Although there are several other causes of headaches such as infection, tumors, eye problems, high blood pressure and allergies, the two causes mentioned above are probably responsible for 90% of all headaches.

Muscle contraction headaches can occur in any age group although it is seen most commonly in the adult. It is the most frequent type of headache seen in a family doctor's office. The cause of pain is excessive contraction of the scalp muscles which may be due to stress, tension, depression, neck strain or even an abnormality in the jaw joint or bite.

The pain is usually described as an aching, dull continuous, squeezing sensation around the head. Some patients will describe a band-like feeling around the head. Others will feel pressure or burning on the top of the head. The scalp may be so tender that touching or combing the hair causes pain. Neck pain or stiffness will often accompany muscle contraction headaches. Muscle contraction headaches are also present with pain just in the forehead or behind the eyes. It is the typical headache that all of us have experienced at one time or another. The pain can come on daily and usually increases in severity as the day progresses. Attacks may persist for several days or come and go infrequently.

Examination by a physician will reveal normal neurologic functions. There are no lab tests or x-rays that help to establish the diagnosis of muscle contraction headaches. The way of diagnosing this type of headache is through a detailed history of the attacks.

Muscle contraction headaches, although very common, may be the most difficult to adequately treat. Simple measures should be tried first, these include - application of moist heat or ice packs to the neck and forehead, massage, neck exercises and aspirin. Dealing with daily stresses is very important. Physical activity such as aerobic exercise - running, walking or biking may help us deal with our stress more effectively. Sometimes muscle relaxants are prescribed, although these should be used sparingly. Physical therapy such as manipulation of the neck muscles or cervical traction may alleviate muscle contraction which leads to pain. Biofeedback training may be effective in some patients. There are a multitude of other medications that are used with varying results.

We don't know why some individuals are prone to headaches more than others and why some treatment plans work well in some patients but fail with others, but you and your doctor should work together to develop a plan that is effective for you.

...if we walk in the light... the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin (1 John 1:7).

We didn't ride school buses when I was a teenager going to high school. We had good times walking home nights, but those three miles of country road were very hard on the feet. During the winter months, our feet grew stiff with cold, and every step was misery. But there was no stopping place. If I wished to reach home and enjoy the savory stew Mom had simmering on the cook stove, I had to keep walking.

The Christian life has no stopping place. It is one of continuous conquest. To keep cleansed from all sin, we must keep walking "in the light". We must keep forging ahead. The way is sometimes difficult. Discomfort often accompanies the journey. Sickness and monthly bills come to annoy. Flat tires and broken clotheslines try the best of us. Adversity and sorrow are not choosy; they visit all. Still, the Christian keeps plodding on. Having the promise that God's wonderful treasures await him at the end of the journey, the Christian looks to the future with anticipation and "keeps on walking."

Prayer: Dear Jesus, the road is often rough and stony. Still, with fond anticipation, I plod steadily on. Help me to fix my eyes on Thee and "keep on walking" in Thy light. Amen.

Boast not too much of mountains you will master. The while you linger in the vale below; To dream is well, but plodding brings us faster To where we go.

Halloween Safety Tips

With the end of October here, the sights and sounds of Halloween are more evident. Pumpkins are carved and kids are preparing their costumes for the trick or treat festivities. Even though there is a lot of fun associated with all halloes eve, it is also a time to exercise caution.

Accidents, leading to mild and severe head injuries and other mishaps, can occur if certain rules are ignored. To ensure that you have a Happy Halloween, here is a list of safety tips to follow:

1. Wear a bright costume that can be seen by drivers and fellow trick or treaters. If you are wearing a dark costume, paste some shiny, reflective tape to your clothes.
2. Don't walk on the street, stick to the sidewalk. When you do have to cross the street, make sure you look in all directions.
3. Don't wear a mask or a large hat that might obscure your vision.
4. Try to go trick or treating while it is still light out.
5. If you are out at night, make sure you bring along a flashlight. Not only will your path-way be lit, but you can avoid falling down or tripping over something that could lead to a bump on the head.
6. Always trick or treat with someone else. Preferably with an adult or with a group of friends.

A pumpkin flashlight and bright costume contribute to this child's safety.

D.N.R. News

New rules regarding mandatory hunter education, licensing hunters who hunt with dogs, and shining, head the list of major changes in hunting rules for Michigan's 1987-88 hunting seasons.

Shining or the use of artificial lights for locating wildlife, will not be permitted starting this year during the entire month of November. From December 1, 1987 through October 31, 1988, shining is banned from 11 p.m. to 6 a.m.

Beginning January 1, 1988, all hunters who were born after January 1, 1960, will be required to complete an approved hunter education class and produce proof of completion or produce a previous hunting license in order to purchase a license for the 1988-89 hunting season.

Currently, only those between the ages of 12 and 16, are required to do this.

Beginning immediately, all persons must have a valid Michigan hunting license to participate in any way in pursuing a game animal with dogs during the open season for hunting that animal with dogs. In the past, only the person shooting the animal was required to have a license. This rule does not apply to persons participating in field trails.

The muzzleloader deer season is December 4 through 13 in Zones 1 and 2, the Upper Peninsula and the northern Lower Peninsula, while it is December 11 through 20 in zone 3, the southern Lower Peninsula.

Bear hunters are now required to turn in their kill validation tag when they register their bear at an authorized Department of Natural Resources bear registration station.

Consumers Power offers conservation tips

Consumers Power Company recently announced that it is offering an energy conservation analysis program for its smaller commercial customers for $60. This analysis is specifically designed to help these customers use energy more efficiently.

"A typical small business fully implementing the recommended conservation measures can usually save between 10% and 25% of its gas and electric costs," says Robert DeNooyer, market services director for the utility's central region. In the central region, 385 commercial customers have benefited from the program.

The energy analysis will be conducted by a trained professional from Consumers Power. Included will be inspection of business lighting, heating, air conditioning, insulation and water heating systems.

After inspecting these and other areas, the analyst will provide an on-site evaluation of estimated savings for implementing the specific energy conservation measures.

It's true that termites do more than $750 million of damage each year in this country. But, according to International Wildlife magazine, their ecological good may outweigh the economic harm. Of the 2,000 species, only about 10 percent cause any economic damage at all. On the other hand, all of them benefit us because they recycle vast quantities of cellulose, making its atoms available to living plants!

Krause at the House

 Vic Krause
 19th District
 State Representative

To help Michigan companies fight the problem of illegal drug use, State Representative Victor Krause (R-Rockford) has introduced legislation that would protect the existing right of employers to test job applicants and employees for drug abuse.

The Krause bill (HB 5006) would regulate the type of tests that can be done and who can administer them. A valid drug testing program should include advance notice of testing, consent of the employees, credible testing, confidentiality of test results, and conformity with employment law. House Bill 5006 would also make employers conduct a second test to confirm positive results.

According to the Michigan Substance Abuse Information Center, more than 750,000 Michigan residents currently need services for alcohol and drug abuse problems. The center also estimates that lost work production alone, due to substance abuse, costs Michigan businesses more than $700 million annually.

Allowing employers to establish comprehensive drug abuse testing and programs will benefit both employers and workers. Initial efforts would focus on the detection of substance abuse, while additional focus would be on education, prevention and treatment.

If we can identify drug users before problems arise, companies will be able to reduce accidents and absenteeism, while at the same time assisting troubled individuals.

With passage of this legislation, Michigan would join at least six other states which have drug testing laws. The courts say drug testing is legal and the public is indicating its approval as well.

The bill also has extensive support in the business community, including the Michigan State Chamber of Commerce.

Bowne Township group has recently formed an historical society

On Monday evening, October 5, 1987, a meeting was held in Alto at the Township Hall to establish a Historical Society for the Township of Bowne. The group will be headed by Kendall Porritt, a life-long resident of the Township. The Society is looking for anyone that is interested in becoming a member and helping research the early history of the Township. The Society is looking into the possibility and cost of moving the Old Ladies Aid Hall (a new one is to be built) to a site nearer the old Township Hall and these two buildings would be joined later by one or two other buildings that would be acquired in the future.

Although plans are incomplete at this time the Society is looking into the possibility and cost of moving the Old Ladies Aid Hall (a new one is to be built) to a site nearer the old Township Hall and these two buildings would be joined later by one or two other buildings that would be acquired in the future.

These are undertakings that seem monumental to a small group of people who are trying to preserve their heritage for future generations to enjoy. Others have done it in their communities and the new group would like to do so for Bowne Township. The Society is going to need help from people in the area or those who were residents and have things to donate, lend, or share. Anyone having items such as pictures, drawings, newspaper clippings, or other small articles of historical value can call the township hall on Wednesdays or Fridays between 9 a.m.

and 3 p.m. or you can attend meetings which will be held the first Monday of each month at 7:30 p.m. in the Township Hall, 6059 Linfield in Alto. If you have items that you do not wish to donate or lend but could be copied, this would also be appreciated. Bowne Township Hall, 868-6846.

Repairs, repairs, repairs! It seems like I could fill this column each week with complaints of what it takes to keep my life in working order. I do take off on this subject from time to time. A few weeks ago I rambled on about the sorry state of affairs the family's fleet of bicycles was in. Last spring I related the story of my daughter's trip through the end of the garage in my wife's new car. There were repairs aplenty involved with that incident. There have been other occasions when I've carried on about this repair bill, or that, but I'll tell ya, I've only scratched the surface.

I never told you about the little ticking noise my boat was making this summer. A "better safe than sorry", trip to the marina turned into a $750.00 repair bill. The number one piston and cylinder wall were trashed. No, they couldn't tell me what caused it. No, it wasn't covered under the warranty. Yes, all I could do was pay up and shut up.

I never told you about my salesman blowing a tire on the company sales car with only a few thousand miles on it. No, they couldn't tell me what caused it. No, it wasn't covered under the warranty. Yes, all I could do was pay up and shut up.

That particular incident was compounded by the fact that the wheels are locked on with special lug nuts that require a key to unlock. Of course the key was nowhere to be found when the tire blew. The salesman couldn't change the flat, and had to call a wrecker. The story goes on from there, but you should get the picture.

The family dryer quit on us a few months ago. That required a repairman. The filtration pump on Casey's aquarium quit, and even his Flat River bullheads died. That may have been a blessing in disguise, as the aquarium is now one of those basement residents that will probably go out on a garage sale someday down the road. Of course the cars have needed the normal repairs. For instance, my car needed a new $80.00 turn signal mechanism. Everybody needs one of those every now and then.

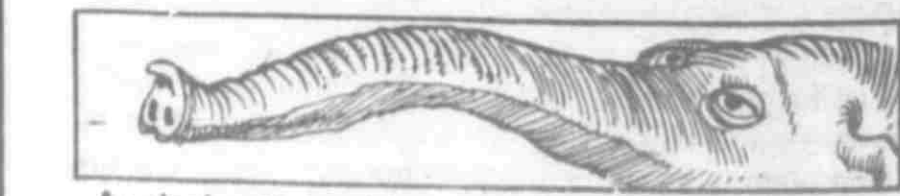

I guess I haven't even mentioned the business. The copy machine repairman practically lives here. One of the pressmen recently showed me a $500.00 handfull of bearings and springs and things that he needed to repair one of the presses. We've had to repair a roof, a door and a window this year to the tune of $3,500.00 or so. Again, the list goes on and on, but you get the picture.

I got started on this subject, because I spent most of yesterday afternoon carting things around Grand Rapids for repairs. I took the microwave to a place on 44th street. I knew where it was, because it has been there for repairs before, and there was a sticker on the back of my microwave with the company's address and phone. There was only one problem, they had moved in the interim. I called the number on the sticker from a phone booth. They had moved way out on 28th St. in Grandville. I found them, dropped off the microwave and headed for my next stop.

I have the original and a spare propeller for my boat. They both look like an iron jawed Cookie Monster got after them, so I headed for Michigan Wheel. I'd been there before, but I always get lost in that part of town. I ended up stopping at two gas stations before finding the place. By the time I got there, the service department was closed, but I talked a gentleman from the main office into writing up my repair order. That saved me from having to make another trip, and getting lost again.

Finally, I headed for Arden's Photo Supply with the good 35mm camera I broke when I dropped it at Lowell's homecoming game. As long as I was going there, I also took in a wide-angle lens for repair. It hasn't worked for years, but it would be nice to have for large group shots. They didn't give me an estimate, just a comforting statement like, "We'll call you if it's more than the camera is worth."

I slept comfortably last night thinking all my junk is either fixed, or in a repair shop somewhere. I jumped out of bed this morning, whistled in the shower, talked to the dog, had cup of coffee and headed for work. As I slipped on my new jacket, I noticed the sleeve has ripped out in the arm pit. Anybody know a good tailor?

An elephant's trunk has about forty thousand muscles.

"Capitol Column"

By State Senator
Dick Posthumus

Michigan road experts estimate that only 11 percent of our roads are in excellent condition. To upgrade that figure to 100 percent, it will take millions of dollars in federal, state and local dollars. The Legislature views our roads, bridges and other means of transportation as the foundation essential to economic growth. About 25,000 miles of roadway and more than 3,500 bridges are worn out and require immediate replacement or repair, according to the Michigan Road Builders Association. It says the cost of meeting those needs is likely to exceed half a billion dollars in the next decade--without taking inflation into account. And if federal budget-cutting legislation is upheld by the courts, Michigan could also face a loss of about $50 million a year in federal highway aid. Developing new alternatives for raising money to improve our roads is no small task. Lawmakers have been meeting all summer to hammer out an agreement on a transportation plan that would address the needs of our state. The formula which distributes money to local governments throughout the state for road maintenance and other transportation programs is set to expire October 30. The deadline has been extended often, but the time has come to resolve this issue without approving another extension.

The comprehensive plan now being considered by the Legislature would generate additional funds by raising vehicle title and registration fees and allowing county governments to charge their own taxes, with voter approval, for road improvements. It makes an important shift from state-mandated spending regulations to more local government control over infrastructure projects. Contrary to what many people thought, this was done without imposing a state gasoline tax increase. Instead, we have concentrated on locating new revenue sources and beefing up existing ones. The plan, for example, calls for raising vehicle title application and transfer fees from $2 to $10. Also under our plan, counties would be allowed to raise money in addition to that generated by the higher state fees. With voter approval, counties would be allowed to tax real estate transactions, charge local vehicle registration and driver's license fees and create a road authority that could charge taxes to raise money for road improvements. Because county road authorities get their money from state-collected taxes, these ideas would be innovative, and place more control on highway spending in the hands of local taxpayers.

The first item to be considered was the continuation of the public hearing on a variance request for 117 Jefferson.

The meeting was turned over to Councilman Thompson, Chairman of the Zoning Board of Appeals, who related that the hearing was closed, but additional comments would be accepted. Mr. Ivan Blough, petitioner, stated he felt reports regarding himself were unfair and he wanted to defend his reputation and credibility to clear the matter up. He reviewed the issuance of the building permit and the deficiencies which were overlooked at the time and later noted. He then addressed each of these. Item No. 1: lot size--he noted the multiple rental units in the area with similar measurements. Item No. 2: floor space measurement; he noted the measurements are over the requirements of the ordinance. Item No. 3: side yard setback of 5'; Mr. Blough said he was unaware of the 5' requirement and the existing measurement should be grandfathered and not considered a violation. Item No. 4: parking--he asked that the parking, for which there is adequate room, not be covered because it would not be aesthetically favorable to add another building on the lot. Mr. Blough stated he is "not trying to hide anything" and only wants to continue with the project. He stated he had met with Mr. John Kaufman, the city manager and the building inspector to try to remedy some of the concerns that Mr. Kaufman has including the runoff of rain water. He said he is willing to run a slope 81'x 6' for drainage plus install a chain link fence of which sketches were provided for the council. Mr. Kaufman stated that he still was not satisfied; the project does not comply with the ordinance. The Council entered into discussion of the matter and Building Inspector, Joe Nowak commented that he did not feel the ordinance was clear in many areas and is directed to new construction than conversion. He stated the building project is in the correct district and that the parking and lot size should be the only issues.

IT WAS MOVED by Fonger and supported by Thompson to approve the contract with 1 change (boards in 4' lengths).

Soo Company is building a car wash on W. Main for which there are no sewer and water improvements at present. They will be able to choose their own contractor for the project and the specifications are being done by WBDC (city engineers). The developer will pay the cost up front and at the time of completion it will be turned over to the city for maintenance.

AIRPORT DISCUSSION: Manager Pasquale stated the airport is a complex subject with many problems and that he had had two meetings with Claire McComb, Jim Steed and Leonard Jackson at which initial ideas were put together. They want the council to feel comfortable with any decision made regarding the airport.

They also feel the airport could be an asset to the community with the proper management. He stated we need to: have a handle on development, city cost and liability and is looking for direction from the council on these matters. Proposals for the airport are an airport authority (board) which would be responsible for the facility on a day to day and long term basis. They feel it would be logical to have a person from GRSBM for a manager, as the school is concerned about its future in a long term sense. Recommendations are for a 10 year lease with a 10 year renewal, city to charge school rent which would be determined by the council. The fee would help defer cost incurred by the city such as the $2,800 insurance. The school in turn would collect revenues for fuel, tie downs, etc. The monies accumulated would go into an escrow fund for capital improvements. If grant monies were available the school would pledge the local share. He continued by saying that the Kent County airport is becoming crowded and Lowell could act as a satellite. Mr. Leonard Jackson was present and concurred with the remarks made by the manager.

Councilman Collins felt that 2 contracts would be needed, one with the airport manager and one with the GRSBM. Councilman Thompson also mentioned the existing leases which the city holds on some of the hangars. Council was agreeable on direction being taken with the airport and directed the city manager to check with the city attorney and come back with a progress report.

MANAGER'S REPORT: Manager Pasquale presented a resolution for Water Quality Awareness Week 10/18 - 10/24 1987 and asked for council approval on the matter.

He reported that regarding concerns on the speed limit on M-21 coming into the city, he has contacted Mike Jones, State traffic engineer, who will be doing studies in coordination with the State Police Department. The representatives will be present at the 11/2/87 city council meeting. Additional traffic lights will also be discussed, which they feel control the flow of traffic not the speed.

He reported on actions taken by the Planning Commission at the last meeting regarding Lowell Plaza, Vennen site, Sam's Factory Outlet Auto & Shell Station. Bids for the demolition of the house at 725 E. Main. He also discussed the recent drug bust, sewer rate appeals from commercial customers, letter from Congressman Henry for the Groundbreaking ceremony at the Wastewater Treatment Plant.

He also noted the sidewalk area at Rite Aid and commented that Chief Emmons had been in contact with the firm. He reported that a letter had been received from Dr. Reagan regarding the problem of loitering youngsters in the area. He suggested that this problem could possibly be regulated through rentals of the apartments over the buildings on Main Street and the party store. Regarding the weeds in the city streets as noted by Councilman Collins at the last meeting, he said they would be scraped this fall by the DPW and sprayed in the spring. This he said should control the problem.

He also reported that his family is officially moved and they are in the new house on Washington Street.

IT WAS MOVED by Thompson to adjourn at 9:50 p.m.

We have examined the general purpose financial statements of the Lowell Area Schools as of and for the year ended June 30, 1987, as listed in the table of contents. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

A substantial portion of the revenues of the School Services Funds consists of charges to users. It was not practicable to extend the examination beyond the Lowell Area Schools accounting for amounts recorded as received.

In our opinion, except for the effects of such adjustments, if any, and disclosures as might have been required had we been able to obtain sufficient competent evidential matter with respect to the item mentioned in the second paragraph, the general purpose financial statements referred to above present fairly the financial position of the various fund types and account groups of the Lowell Area Schools at June 30, 1987, and the results of their operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Ledger Entries . . . of 75, 50 and 25 Years Ago

100 YEARS AGO IN THE JOURNAL - OCTOBER 20, 1887
135 people from the Rapids (Grand Rapids) moved to southern California last week.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" played at Train's Opera House last week and is reported as a quality production.
Top corn yield in Vergennes is a very good 75 bushels to the acre.

The creamery will run all winter if enough farmers arrange to have their cows producing then.
There is only one dry-goods store in Lowell, people complain.

75 YEARS AGO IN THE JOURNAL - OCTOBER 17, 1912
Teddy Roosevelt is wounded by a would-be assassin in Milwaukee. The speech in his pocket keeps the bullet from his heart, and he delivers his address with a broken rib before reporting to the hospital.

Heavy rains wash sand and stones over the rails causing a Grand Trunk derailment east of Ada. Twisted rails keep the engine from rolling down a steep bank and no one is injured.
The new and much-maligned "parcels post" law includes no provisions for books, tut-tuts the editor.

50 YEARS AGO IN THE LEDGER - OCTOBER 21, 1937
The Japanese/Chinese War in North China and the Spanish Civil War are causing the U.S. to abandon its isolation policy and urge quarantine of aggressors, says a front-page article.

545 small-game hunting licenses have been sold at Ralph's Tire & Radio, Gee's Hardware and Price-Rite Hardware.
New laws taking effect: use tax on mail-order sales, secret vote in primaries, absence of venereal disease required for a marriage certificate, triple damages for discrimination in hotels and restaurants, 12-hour truck driving limit.

25 YEARS AGO IN THE LEDGER - OCTOBER 18, 1962
The new Alto Elementary School building is considered to be one of the best elementary schools in West Michigan.
Egypt Grange wins $1,000 in the Sears-Grange national Community Service Contest.

A Republican Information Center is set up at the corner of Main and Lafayette for the November 6 election.
A new Tarzan adventure is playing at the Strand Theatre with Jock Mahoney and Jai, the Elephant Boy.

City Council, continued

The Council approved a $1,250 expenditure for computer software for the Building Inspector. The new software will permit the department to better organize the permit records and readily access property descriptions.

The Council accepted the low bid of $22.00 per ton for 150 tons of road salt from Domtar Industries, Inc. Domtar was the low bidder of three bids received.

The ticklish subject of naming the new street at the west edge of the Valley Vista subdivision came up again. Councilman Jack Fonger has insisted that the street be named after Helen Look Daley. Fonger found little support from his peers, and Mayor James Maatman broke a 2-2 tie vote when he voted for the Ridgeview Dr. name that had been previously suggested.

Monthly reports for the various city departments were distributed to the Councilmen. City Manager David Pasquale has asked the head of each department to submit a written report to the Council each month. The reporting departments are: treasurer, police, fire, building inspector, water treatment, wastewater treatment, water distribution, streets, cemetery and parks.

The meeting ended with Pasquale's nine item report. The report consisted mostly of informational items for the Council that concern upcoming projects such as Mayor Exchange Day, formation of the 1988-89 budget, possible sewer rate appeals, etc.

Record enrollment at GVSC

Fall enrollment at Grand Valley State stands at an all-time record high of 9,031 students. That represents a 6.7 percent increase over the previous record set last year when 8,460 students enrolled. The number of credit hours for which students have registered is up 8.1 percent over last year.

"We're showing increased enrollments in every academic division," says Robert Fletcher, Assistant Vice President and Dean of Academic Services. He notes a particular increase in the number of full-time students at GVSC this year.

Fletcher attributes the overall enrollment increase to greater availability of programs and the growing academic reputation of Grand Valley State throughout Michigan. "We offer classes at our Allendale campus as well as in Grand Rapids and in Muskegon at our Lakeshore Center," he said. "The flexible scheduling of classes including daytime and evening hours is also an advantage to our students."

DON'T FORGET TO FALL BACK!

This week-end is the time for changing our clocks! Don't forget before going to bed Saturday night, set the time back one hour. A few more ZZZZZZ's for that night!

ENJOY AN EVENING WITH BERRIEN

Don't forget! This (Wednesday) evening at 8:00 p.m. Berrien, songwriter and musician, will be presenting his program at the Lowell Area Arts Council Center, 149 S. Hudson Street. You won't want to miss it! The Senior Citizens enjoyed a special program at 1:00 p.m. today followed by tea and reception and an After-School Special is scheduled to begin at 4:00 p.m. You will be thoroughly entertained by Berrien's songs performed on a variety of instruments, many of them inspired by his travels around the country.

HALLOWEEN COSTUME DANCE

Ghosts, goblins and ghoulies are invited to attend the Halloween Costume Dance sponsored by the Lowell Area Rescue. It will be held Saturday, October 31 from 8 p.m. until midnight at Deer Run Golf Club, 13955 Cascade Road, Lowell. ANNUAL HARVEST DINNER

Have you heard the good news? The Annual Harvest Dinner is scheduled to take place at the First United Methodist Church of Lowell on Tuesday, October 27 from 5 to 7 p.m. Tickets for the turkey dinner with all the trimmings may be purchased from Annabelle Wittenbach at FMB State Savings Bank, at the church office, 621 E. Main St., and at the door. Prices are $5.00 for adults; $2.50 for children 5 thru 12; and free for children under 5. Take-out dinners are available only for the homebound and by reservation through the church office, 897-5936. Be sure to mark the 27th on your calendar and come and enjoy a delicious dinner.

HALLOWEEN COSTUME CONTEST IS OCTOBER 30

The Ledger's third annual Halloween costume contest will be staged on Friday, October 30 this year. An unofficial poll of several businesses indicated that the vast majority preferred Friday because more employees would be on hand to participate, and because some businesses aren't even open on Saturday.

Give us a call at 897-9261 if employees at your workplace will be in costume. A Ledger photographer and judges will make their rounds throughout the day. They will make every effort to get to all the businesses and to honor time requests when possible.

Yes! We do need judges and prizes. Give us a call if you can help out with either.

GOT YOUR THANKSGIVING TURKEY YET?

Mrs. Bill (Nancy) Wood called the office Monday to report that they had visitors in their yard Monday morning. Five female wild turkeys came walking across their lawn from the south, going north, came up by the house and the car parked in the driveway and then strolled on. Nancy said they were huge and beautiful. Where they came from, no one knows! Probably heading away from civilization since next month is Thanksgiving! Bill and Nancy live on North Division Street - not exactly "country" but almost. She took pictures but doesn't know if they turned out yet.

OFF THE BLOTTER

Reported to Lowell officers Friday, October 15 was a hit and run accident that occurred on Main Street near West. Damage was minor to a vehicle owned by Daniel DeGood which was parked on Main Street.

Arrested and taken to the Kent County jail Friday evening October 16 for driving under the influence of alcohol was Danny Fullerton, 27, of Lowell.

A 16 year old juvenile from Lowell lost control of his car and skidded off the road on W. Main near the Valley Vista trailer park Saturday evening, October 17, doing minor property damage to his car.

Duane Kellogg, 17, of Lowell, was injured Saturday afternoon when the car in which he was a passenger lost control due to a sticking accelerator pedal and struck a parked car owned by Stormzand Used Cars on Main near Monroe. The impact of the accident pushed Stormzand's car into another parked car owned by John Winks. The 16 year old driver of the car was slightly injured.

Cited into 63rd District Court for minor in possession of alcohol Friday evening, October 16, was Timothy Moore, 19, of Lowell. Moore was also arrested and taken to the Kent County jail on a warrant issued by 63rd District Court for failure to appear. A 15 year old juvenile was also ordered into court for possession of alcohol at the same time.

Arrested and taken to the Kent County Jail by Lowell officers on Wednesday morning, October 14, was Gerald Wright, 21, of Howard City, for driving while his license was suspended.

Issued an appearance ticket to 63rd District Court for open container of alcohol in a motor vehicle was Jessie Wilder, 25, of Grand Rapids, on October 4.

Injuries were reported in an accident Friday night at Main and Hudson when a pick-up truck driven by Michael Spickler, 19, of Lowell, failed to yield right-of-way at the intersection and collided with a car driven by Dena Anderson, 17, also of Lowell. Impact of the accident caused Anderson's vehicle to strike a car driven by Luann Howard, 18, also of Lowell, who reported injuries to Lowell officers.
