HELP NEEDED IN COMPLETING FOOTBALL BOOKLET

The first revision of Lowell High School Football, 1900-1988. "A Gridiron Tradition" is nearly complete, but help verifying information is needed.

The booklet contains a complete history of the Lowell High School football program dating to 1900, the first season of interscholastic competition. Schedules and scores must be checked from all yearbooks prior to 1914. It is also important that a 1932 team photograph be secured from the 1933 Restrospectus.

It is not necessary that yearbooks be taken from anyone's possession because all information can be gathered by telephone. People who can help out with this information, are urged to call Fred Lenger, 897-5847 mornings or evenings between 9 and 11

Lowell Schools collecting Food City receipts

Lowell Schools are now collecting cash-register receipts from Eberhard and Food City Stores which will be used in helping the school purchase Apple Computers, printers, and educational software from the stores' "Apples for Students" program.

"Eberhard and Food City

Stores are giving our Lowell Schools the opportunity to acquire any of the five different Apple Computer Systems free, plus educational software for our classrooms," said Ginny Webber, coordinator of Lowell's computer program, Ginny Webber.

The school will be collecting cash register receipts from the Eberhard stores and turning them back in. "The store will then give the school a small portion of every dollar total on those tapes and buy the computers the school needs," Webber said. "It takes a large amount of money to get one computer, but even one would be considered a successful campaign."

"Lowell Schools consider Apple Computers excellent educational computers and thinks it would be ideal if every student could have extensive hands-on access to a classroom computer prior to graduation," explained Webber.

"We have a computer lab in the math department, but so many academic areas benefit from computers that we are trying to establish another small lab so that all areas and all students have access," Webber said.

Webber hopes that parents and the community will help support this program by sending their Eberhard/Food City cash register receipts to school with their children, or by mailing or dropping them off at any of the school offices. This campaign will be in operation from October of 1988 through May of 1989.

Michigan's unemployment rate is still almost two points higher than the 5.4 percent national September rate, even though it has dropped a long way from the 15.7 percent recorded in September 1982.

Michigan State University economics professor Daniel Hamermesh finds little reason for celebrating our improvement from the 1980-82 recession. "At this point, one really wonders whether we will ever get back to being a below-average unemployment area," he said.

"We've always had a highly cyclical economy," Hamermesh said. "However, even in the good times we're not going down to the national average. It's not just a matter of the Michigan economy being cyclical, it also seems sick, chronically ill."

Hamermesh notes that in 1966, the state's annual average unemployment rate was 3.5 percent, while the national rate was 3.7 percent.

One explanation for Michigan's current lag behind the nation in structural unemployment in some of the state's older industrial urban areas, where people seem to be locked into poverty and unemployment.

"This is a problem that will not be solved by higher automotive sales and a stronger national economy," Hamermesh said. "Some Michigan residents have been without jobs so long, their skills are no longer useful, a situation that discourages some new employers from moving to Michigan."

"Maybe there's something to the notion that people stay around here because there are good unemployment benefits," he said.

Bolstering his supposition is a recent study from the Upjohn Institute which showed that unemployment costs in Michigan were 51 percent higher than the national average of industrial states for high wage employers.

Legislative Republicans have sponsored legislation aimed at remedying this situation by reforming Michigan's unemployment system and other labor reforms. Such measures would create more jobs and help Michigan become competitive again and we will continue arguing that passage

Recent visitors from North Carolina brought together a family of five generations for the second time in twenty three years. Timothy Doyle was two months old when he first made the five generations of the Salzgeber family, now the father of Crystal Monique Doyle he has again made it five generations for the Salzgeber-Stoney family. Tim, wife Gail and daughter Crystal were recent visitors to Crystal's great-grandmother, Avis King.

The Doyle's live in Wilson, North Carolina so this was the first time for great-great-grandmother Leone Storey, great-grandmother Avis King and grandmother Sharon Dunn to meet their granddaughter, Crystal Monique Doyle.

It was a real family reunion for these five generations to get together and of course have their

Homespun Devotions

By Pauline Spray

But God commended his love toward us, in that...Christ died for us (Romans 5:8).

To this day Mom declares the back of the chicken is her favorite piece. Not long ago when a member of the family insisted she take a better piece of the prepared fowl, she declined, stating, "Honestly, I like the back. It's my favorite." I wondered: Has she honestly always been fond of this most usually unwanted piece of chicken? Or has she come to like it out of necessity?

Then, too, I remember the pie. Many are the times Mom has given her piece to one of us youngsters. When she saw us casting coveted glances at her portion, she felt constrained to sacrifice her dessert, also.

It isn't difficult to sacrifice for those we love. Gladly we do without in order to please them.

God, our Heavenly Father, loved. He loved so much He gave. His gift was the greatest ever given. He gave His Son to die in man's stead. Could He have done more?

Can we do less than give our best in return to Him? No sacrifice should be too great if we truly love Him. Like Mom, we should gladly forfeit our pie and eat "the back of the chicken."

Prayer: Heavenly Father, no earthly love can begin to compare with Thine. Anything I can do for Thee would fall far short of sacrifice. Help me to give my best. Thou hast done so much for me. Amen.

Because we have been sheltered, fed,
By Thy good care,
We cannot see another's lack,
And we not share.

Glenn E. Sims to sing at Lowell Assembly of God

Glenn E. Sims will provide a concert of contemporary christian music at the Lowell Assembly of God, 3050 Alden Nash, Lowell, on Oct. 30 at 6 p.m.

Sims spent his entire life singing in the church. From a quartet at the age of eight, to singing in the junior choir, to traveling with a christian youth band called "The Followers", Sims went on to a solo ministry.

For two summers Sims attended the Blackwood Brothers' School of Christian Music where he learned from some of gospel music's "best", such as the Northams and the Blackwoods. After graduation Sims recorded his first album "I Can Do All Things" and his solo ministry began.

Now three years later his ministry has reached across Michigan and expanded into Indiana, Wisconsin, and other parts of the country. Sim's latest release "Humble Heart" was produced by WORD recording artist Russ Hollingsworth, in Nashville, TN and it provides an exciting and refreshing sound for the church.

Sim's music is enjoyed by people of all ages. The community is invited. A free-will offering will be taken.

Lowell School retirees hold annual luncheon

Since 1963, more than 50 teachers, office personnel and custodians have retired from the Lowell Area Schools. Of these, 47 still live in the area around Lowell, Ionia and Grand Rapids. The others have yielded to the more comfortable climates of Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, California and Hawaii.

On Friday, Sept. 30, a luncheon was held at Keiser's Kitchen for 28 of the local retirees and their spouses and friends. This marks the 13th year this group has met for reminiscing, getting updated on who's doing what and, in general, "telling tales out of school."

Each year a few new retirees are welcomed into the group. This year's additions included Mary Ann Ayres, Marge Kropf, and Jack Kempker. Also newly retired Gary Rivers, who was unable to be present.

Speaker for the day was Dr. Fritz Esch, who brought the group up to date on current issues in education. In addition, his program, "Waltzing Matilda," came complete with a written test for those people who had given their share of exams in years past. It was all in fun, of course, but the net result was a little more knowledge about that land "down under."

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

The citizens of Lowell are currently the subjects in a marketing experiment being conducted by Rite Aid. Pornographic magazines, a proven curse to the home and the community, are being sold on a "trial" basis at Rite Aid. The position of the management is that they will remove these magazines if enough people object, otherwise...well, they are making a substantial profit, even if it is at our expense. What is, perhaps, worse is that those magazines are being displayed not behind the counter, but on the floor where they are available to anyone of whatever age. I expressed my views to the store manager and he shared with me that although there have been some complaints, few were willing to actually write a note of complaint and sign their name, on paper Rite Aid supplies with their pen! Have we become so accustomed to the acceptance of sin or so unwilling to "rock-the-boat" that we will not speak up against wrong, even when we have the chance? I would like to urge you and the readers of this paper to take one or all of the following three steps to eliminate this threat to our lives:

1. Stop in at Rite Aid and write a note of complaint and leave it at the front counter.

2. Call Rite Aid's district office in Grand Rapids, 791-9861, and lodge a verbal complaint.

3. Indicate to the store manager at Rite Aid that you will be boycotting the store until those magazines are removed.

PLEASE, LET'S GET INVOLVED!

the lack of coverage for the sports teams below the varsity level.

As an impartial person who does not live near the Lowell community, I have been very impressed with the overall coverage. I have been reading the Ledger now for over two years because my roommate, Tom Caldwell, who is from Lowell, subscribes to the paper while he is away at law school at Indiana University, Indianapolis.

In comparison, I can recall my own hometown newspaper was fortunate to have the resources to even cover varsity sports. Thus, from an outsiders perspective, the Ledger does an outstanding job in coverage of community news and sports. Keep up the good work!

A CURE FOR BALDNESS??

We've received several inquiries about a new product marketed for treatment of male pattern baldness. In today's column we'll review this product and tell you what you can expect.

Rogaine®, a solution manufactured by the Upjohn Company was recently given approval by the FDA for treatment of baldness. The product has undergone several clinical tests and has proven effective in SOME cases of male pattern baldness. It promotes new hair growth and may prevent ongoing hair loss in some individuals. However, hair growth is not apparent until after at least four months of use. Also, some researchers claim that its high cost, the necessity for prolonged treatment, and a relatively modest rate of cosmetically acceptable hair growth makes it truly practical for only a small percentage of balding individuals. The following conclusions have been based on clinical studies:

1. After 1 year 37% showed a minimal regrowth of hair, 31% showed moderate growth and only 8% showed dense growth of hair.
 2. Regrown hair varies from short nonpigmented hair to thick short pigmented hair to hair of the same color and character as those in non balding areas.
 3. Patients who have been balding for less than ten years and who are younger than 40 are likely to respond to treatment.
 4. The drug has been shown to be effective only on the crown of the head. It is not effective for frontal hair growth. (the so called receding hair line).
 5. Patients with balding areas less than four square inches showed better growth than others.
 6. Patients must apply the medications twice daily and should continue indefinitely. Discontinuing the drug results in loss of the hair regrowth.
- Adverse effects of the medication include mild irritation of the scalp such as itching or dryness. This was seen in about 5% of patients treated with the drug. This appears to be the only appreciable side effect so far, but like any new drug, other side effects may become apparent with widespread use.
- In checking with area pharmacies, we have found that the cost of a 60 cc. bottle (enough to last for one month) is close to $60.00! As stated previously, in order for the drug to be effective it must be used continuously. This leads to a medication cost close to $700.00 per year. Whether or not this new drug is worth it, only you and your doctor can decide.
- At one time in ancient Rome, it was forbidden to eat eggs. The egg was regarded as a potential chicken, therefore too valuable to be eaten.

Face winter on your own terms.

6.9% financing or up to $150 back. And a great warranty, too.

This fall, choose Arcoaire's Super High Efficiency gas furnace, and choose between 6.9% financing or up to $150 back. Either way, you'll get a limited lifetime warranty on both heat exchangers, and a limited five-year warranty on all other parts. Plus, you'll get Arcoaire reliability; and up to 94% efficiency. And that can make winter easier to face. So call your dealer today. Because terms this great will only be offered short-term.

Info. needed on LHS Football

The first revision of Lowell High School Football, 1900-1988: A Gridiron Tradition, is nearly complete, but help verifying information is needed.

The booklet contains a complete history of the Lowell High School football program dating to 1900, the first season of interscholastic competition.

Schedules and scores must be checked from all books prior to 1914. It is also important that a 1932 team photograph be secured from the 1933 Retrospectus.

It is not necessary that yearbooks be taken from anyone's possession because all information can be gathered by telephone.

People that can help out with this information, are urged to call Fred Lenger, 897-5847 mornings or evenings between 9 and 11 p.m. as soon as possible.

The book will be on sale to the public for a $5 donation. The complete cost of printing has been underwritten, and all proceeds from sales will support the Lowell Area Schools athletic program.

Haines keeps Lowell Cable Television fine tuned

Can you remember the last time your television picked up just the three basic stations (ABC, CBS and NBC)? Okay. Can you remember the last time these three stations provided enough programming that you didn't feel the need for a VCR, a satellite dish or cable? Chances are it's been quite some time. Here, in Lowell, cable's popularity is as abundant as it's ever been. "Cable's popularity has fluctuated over the years, but right now it's as high as it's been," Lowell Cable Supervisor Herb Haines said. The construction of Lowell Cable was first started in the fall of 1982. Its first hookup was in January of 1983. Mullen Construction, out of Wisconsin, did the honors of installing the $900,000 system. That first month there were 450 homes hooked up (132 HBO, 71 Cinemax, 221 basic cable). Today, 1,620 homes have cable wires running into the back of their television sets. Haines is happy to report that Lowell Cable is now operating in the black.

In 1983 basic cable cost roughly $7-$8 a month, while HBO cost $8.95 and Cinemax ran $7. While the price has risen, so has the basic cable package. Haines said that he can see an increasing number of stations made available through basic. "Anytime there's technical equipment involved you're going to have problems," Haines said. "I've compared our rates and the quality of our picture to other cable systems of similar size (Ionia, Greenville), and we're comparable in price and I haven't seen another cable system with a better quality picture." Haines added that he believes people are happy with the system because of favorable rates, picture quality and with the selection availability. Some of the most common complaints are that channel 50 is not part of the package and that their television remote doesn't work with cable. The latter has been solved, Lowell Cable now has a trap system which allows people to use their own remote, unlike the encoded system where the cable remote had to be used. "Channel 50's monthly hookup expense would be too much because it's microwave and not satellite and it's too far to pick up off air," Haines explains.

It is easier, less cost per customer, to add a channel to the basic cable than to add, say, Showtime. The reason for this is with basic there is a larger base in which to spread the costs. Showtime might have eight percent of the base to that of basic. Another problem according to Haines is that the technology of cable is ahead of the manufacturers.

"We do phone surveys to hear what people like and dislike. That's why PASS came about, through our phone surveys. Lowell cable employs two men full-time, a technician and a chief engineer. "We also have an accountant/receptionist for our cable system."

I took yesterday off work to take care of some personal business. As is the case with most jobs, my work is still waiting for me when I come back from time away. Consequently, I came in extra early this morning. I was here well before 5:00 a.m., brewed a pot of coffee, put the TV Guide section together and was at the typesetter by 6:45. Only one problem, no ideas.

The last time this happened, I searched in vain for a cute little article I had seen regarding errors in a series of classified ads in a small town newspaper. Well, I ran across that article last week, and made a good mental note of its whereabouts... just in case. It's now well after 7:00, employees will soon be showing up, the phone will soon begin to ring, and the hub bub will not be conducive to composing a column. So, with no further ado... it's time for a little plagiarism:

NOBODY'S PERFECT...

Nobody's perfect, of course, but the errors that creep into newspapers have been known to cause editors and sub-editors to go home at night and beat their wives. We make our share of mistakes here at the Advertiser, but thankfully we haven't yet had a series of errors such as Publishers Auxiliary magazine reports occurred in a small daily in the South.

It started with the following want ad on Monday:
FOR SALE: R. D. Jones has one sewing machine for sale. Phone 958 after 7 p.m. and ask for Mrs. Kelly who lives with him cheap.

On Tuesday:
NOTICE: We regret having erred in R.D. Jones' ad yesterday. It should have read: One sewing machine for sale. Cheap. Phone 958 and ask for Mrs. Kelly who lives with him after 7 p.m.

On Wednesday:
R.D. Jones has informed us that he has received several annoying telephone calls because of the error we made in his classified ad yesterday. His ad stands corrected as follows:
FOR SALE: R. D. Jones has one sewing machine for sale. Cheap. Phone 958 after 7 p.m. and ask for Mrs. Kelly who lives with him.

Finally, on Thursday:
NOTICE: I.R.D. Jones, have no sewing machine for sale. I smashed it. Don't call 958 as the telephone has been taken out. I have not been carrying on with Mrs. Kelly. Until yesterday she was my housekeeper, but she quit.

Arrows rebound with wins over Zeeland & Sparta

Lowell varsity girls' basketball coach Ken Akers was talking about how well his team rebounded this past week. How LeAnn Iteen puts up a short jumper in action against Zeeland. Iteen netted 20 points while pulling down nine rebounds.

The Red Arrows shot out of the blocks against Zeeland almost as fast as Olympic sprinter Ben Johnson did in Seoul.

Before the Chix had time to catch their breath, Lowell had built a 20-4 first-quarter lead. The lead stayed at 15 throughout the first half. If poor shooting played an important role in Lowell's loss to FHC, then much improved shooting most certainly keyed its victory against Zeeland.

The Arrows now 5-3 in the league, were led by senior captain LeAnn Iteen. The Arrow netted 20 points and shared rebounding honors with teammate Deb Adams with nine caroms. Adams and Kerry Zywicki both tallied 10 points apiece. "The girls had a little bit of a letup in the second half, but I guess that is to be expected," Akers said.

Lowell 47, Sparta 42. Lowell defensive pressure caused 36 Spartan turnovers as the Red Arrows led from start to finish and were really never threatened by Sparta.

Arrows' sophomore center Erica Hackenbruch played. The sophomore, according to Akers, is still at about 75-80 percent of what she was prior to her ankle injury. "She's still recovering, but is making progress."

Julie Tarak, who has picked up some of the scoring slack recently had team honors with 16 points. Iteen and Zywicki followed with 10 and eight points respectively. Zywicki grabbed a team-high 10 rebounds. Adams also contributed with seven rebounds.

Lowell's shooting from the floor was much improved, but from the foul line the Arrows had problems, connecting on 3-of-16 attempts.

Lowell led by eight early and Akers said.

The Red Arrows bounced back in convincing style, handing the Chix from Zeeland 49-38 defeat. Later in the week they dominated the Spartans from Sparta 47-42, the score being a lot closer than the game itself.

Akers believes the second game with the Chix will be much tougher. "Zeeland caught us at a bad time. We were coming off that loss to FHC, a club Zeeland had just beaten," Akers said. "Zeeland may have had a let-down and our girls ambushed them."

The two O-K White Conference victories puts the Red Arrows in a position to move up the league ladder this week when it plays host to Rogers and then travels to Wyoming Park.

A victory against Rogers here at home Tuesday and a Rogers' loss later in the season to Park

Inspirational Lowell win stuns Zeeland, 18-13

Arrow defense bends but doesn't break

In the first Edition of Lowell High School Football: 1900-1987 A Gridiron Tradition, six memorable games are re-collected in narrative accounts from the Red Arrows' football past.

After Lowell's stunning and inspirational 18-13 victory over the previously unbeaten O-K White Conference Champs Zeeland Chix, Red Arrow fans in attendance Friday night can safely assume they witnessed number seven.

Zeeland entered the game a victory away from an undefeated season in the O-K White in its first year, and an inaugural conference championship. The Chix had successfully turned away the challenges of East Grand Rapids, Wyoming Park, Northview Rogers, Forest Hills Central and Sparta.

Lowell, playing for the pride of the O-K White, not wanting a team to come into the conference and go unbeaten in its first year; for the pride of Red Arrow football; and for Coach Carroll "Chris" Burch the patriarch of Lowell pride.

Burch, who passed away last week, was honored with a moment of silence before the game by Lowell fans, players, coaches and friends for the football legacy Lowell's Mr. Football left behind.

The week of practice and the game were dedicated by coaches and players in his memory. Some might question using a person's death as a rallying point for a game, but Burch's grandson didn't. "Coach Burch's grandson came in after the game and said to me this is what Granddad would have wanted," Christensen continued. "This win was for the him."

His Red Arrow pride button would have popped serving Lowell trail twice at 6-0 in the first half and 13-12 in the third quarter, but both times came back to grab the lead.

"We've told the kids all year - you're going to get knocked down, but what's important is that you get back up one more time than you get knocked down," Christensen said.

Lowell certainly did that against Zeeland. As if its opponent, the Chix weren't enough, the Red Arrows were flagged for numerous penalties (13 for 120 yards). The Chix, after taking the second-half kick, fumbled on their sixth play into the drive. Soubahn Soukhome fumbled on the Lowell 44-yard line and Arrow David Organe jumped on it.

The very next play, momentum took a sudden and cruel turn. Bob Adams fumbled at the Lowell 44, the ball hit the soggy turf took one bounce right into the arms of Zeeland's Zeb Jones, who then raced down the Arrow sidelines for the go ahead touchdown.

The game wasn't played in ideal weather conditions, but both clubs had to deal with the wet and soggy turf.

Tim Weststrate caught three passes against the league leading Chix Friday night. Two of them went for touchdowns.

ing up 49 of his team-high 85 yards and two momentum first downs.

"When Zeeland got inside our 20 late in the game, our offensive coordinator Rob McCormick told me 'get us the ball one more time coach and the offense will keep it,'" Christensen said.

Lowell tied the game at 6-6 early in the second quarter when Ryan Holtz hooked up with Tim Weststrate on a 63-yard post pattern. "Usually I streak down the sidelines, but this time I gave the defender a move to the flag and cut to the post," Weststrate said.

For the senior this was one of two memorable catches. The second catch being the one he, Red Arrow fans and Zeeland defenders won't soon forget. On second down and seven from the Zeeland 31-yard line, Holtz lofted a ball in the direction of Weststrate into the Chix endzone, who had two Zeeland defenders with him, the Zeeland's defenders went up for the ball, tipped it, and Weststrate, who never left the ground, grabbed the ball out of the air giving Lowell a 12-6 lead.

"It's something that's hard to put into words, but it's a great feeling, seeing these young men accomplish something like this," Christensen said. The Lowell coach ranked this victory as the sweetest in his nine years as coach. "The victory three years ago against Park, when Mike Dumas was a junior, ranks right up there, but this I think is sweeter, because of the way the kids had to come from behind twice during the contest."

With Slay sitting the race out due to injury, the door was opened for Parks' Kim Blouw, who claimed first with a time of 19:54.8. Sparta's Angie Thomas took second, stopping the clock at 20:10.2.

Lowell's top runner all year, Hillari Kirsch didn't disappoint the Red Arrow faithful or her coach as she finished third, coming home in 20:48.8.

Kirsch ran another strong race," said Lowell coach Tom Harper.

Places four through six looked like this, Tiffany House, Park, 21:05.7; Betsy Pyle, EGR, 21:11.0; and Dawn Westfield, Zeeland, 21:31.0.

Lowell's harrier of consistency, Betsy Dommer, was seventh overall, covering the terrain in 21:41.3. Finishing out the top 10 were Stefanie Oatis, EGR, 21:43; Tina DeKlyen, Rogers, 21:53.9; Tonia Kappenaal, Zeeland, 21:55.6.

Following Dommer home for 19th place at 23:07.9. Red Arrow runners four and five came home together in the 23rd and 24th positions respectively. Chris Decker was clocked at 23:21.6 and Amie Kanoza finished at 23:30.3.

Other Arrows to run but not score for the team included Karen Bussler, 28, 23:47.2 and Stacy Beute, 32, 24:35.6.

"The girls had an outstanding season," Harper said. "We've had great team efforts all year and finishing second in the tough O-K White Conference is super."

The Arrow girls were 6-1 in dual meets and 10-2 overall in 1988.

Harper's boy harriers while competitive just were not deep enough to contend for a conference victory.

Lowell's two top runners and most consistent harriers, Clay VanderWarf and Mike Mull, again showed the starch they're made of by finishing in the top 10 at the conference.

The boy harrier teams finished in this order: 1. Sparta, 34; 2. East Grand Rapids 92; 3. Zeeland, 92; 4. Forest Hills Central, 94; 5. LOWELL, 113; 6. Wyom-

Lowell girl harriers second at conference meet

The O-K White Cross Country Conference Meet didn't have a lot in the way of surprises, but it did reaffirm what the conference dual meets disclosed:

* The Red Arrow girl harriers had the number of every league foe except East Grand Rapids.

In the conference meet at Johnson Park Saturday, the Red Arrows were stronger than six of the seven league teams, the exception being the Pioneers.

EGR without the services of their top runner, Heather Slay, was still able to post an impressive victory. The teams came home in this order: 1. EGR, 50; 2. LOWELL, 74; 3. Forest Hills Central, 100; 4. Wyoming Rogers, 115; 5. Wyoming Park, 134; 6. Zeeland, 141; 7. Sparta, 144; 8. Northview, 159.

With Slay sitting the race out due to injury, the door was opened for Parks' Kim Blouw, who claimed first with a time of 19:54.8. Sparta's Angie Thomas took second, stopping the clock at 20:10.2.

Lowell's top runner all year, Hillari Kirsch didn't disappoint the Red Arrow faithful or her coach as she finished third, coming home in 20:48.8.

Kirsch ran another strong race," said Lowell coach Tom Harper.

Places four through six looked like this, Tiffany House, Park, 21:05.7; Betsy Pyle, EGR, 21:11.0; and Dawn Westfield, Zeeland, 21:31.0.

Lowell's harrier of consistency, Betsy Dommer, was seventh overall, covering the terrain in 21:41.3. Finishing out the top 10 were Stefanie Oatis, EGR, 21:43; Tina DeKlyen, Rogers, 21:53.9; Tonia Kappenaal, Zeeland, 21:55.6.

Following Dommer home for 19th place at 23:07.9. Red Arrow runners four and five came home together in the 23rd and 24th positions respectively. Chris Decker was clocked at 23:21.6 and Amie Kanoza finished at 23:30.3.

Other Arrows to run but not score for the team included Karen Bussler, 28, 23:47.2 and Stacy Beute, 32, 24:35.6.

"The girls had an outstanding season," Harper said. "We've had great team efforts all year and finishing second in the tough O-K White Conference is super."

ing Rogers, 128; 7. Northview, 140; 8. Wyoming Park 230.

The top three runners included Chad Meyer, Zeeland, top honors at 17:07.3. Andy Wilson, Sparta, was second with a time of 17:19.9. John Turkal, EGR, was third at 17:20.5.

Lowell's VanderWarf took fourth, finishing at 17:32.0. "I expected VanderWarf to run well and he did," Harper said.

Runners five and six were Walter Roundtree and Jeremy Walker of Sparta. Their times were 17:34.4 and 17:36.0 respectively.

Red Arrows' Mull was seventh stopping the clock at 17:42.8. "Mull ran a great race again," Harper said.

Rounding out the top 10 boy runners were Dave Vonk, FHC, 17:45.4; Matt Richmond, Northview, 17:50.1; and Randy Wooten, Sparta, 17:58.7.

Lowell's final three runners finished in increments of 10. Andrew Patterson was 24th at 18:54.9; David Stouffer was 34th at 19:27; and Wayne Haines was 44th at 19:50. All five Lowell runners finished under the 20 minute marker.

The sixth Arrow runner to come home was Jon Pratt at 21:25.

Lowell's boys finished fifth in the conference meet and fifth in the dual meets during the regular season.

Both squads will participate in the regionals Saturday at Christian Recreation Center, starting at 11 a.m. "We're hopeful of having four state qualifiers," Harper said.

In a pre-conference warm-up Lowell's girls defeated Zeeland 22-39 while the boys lost 25-30.

All nine girl harriers who Coach Harper ran, finished under the 26 minute barrier.

The Arrows took five of the top seven spots. Top honors went to Kirsch with a time of 21:06. Dommer was third overall at 22:16, followed by Shuster, sixth overall at 23:34. Lowell runners four and five were Kanoza, fifth overall at 22:45; and Decker, Others that ran finished like this: Bussler, 8th, 24:33; Jessica Stone, 9th, 24:39; Beute, 12th, 25:39; and Elisa Peel, 11th, 25:24.

On the boys' side VanderWarf was second at 17:30; Mull was fourth at 18:16; Patterson was sixth at 18:46; Stouffer was eighth at 19:19; and Haines was 10th at 20:15. The times of other runners included Pratt, 20:25; Matt Monda, 21:43; Gregg Grooters, 21:46; Rob Bourgette, 22:24; Clay Pelon, 22:38; and Jon Amundsen 23:34.

For the year, the boys were 3-4 in the O-K White and 7-6 overall.

Equestrians clinch District V Championship

The Lowell Equestrians clinched their fourth straight District V Class A Championship. With a whopping 621 point total for three meets, Lowell overwhelmed their opponents.

The B division was much closer with Zeeland coming from behind to squeak past Rockford. Only three points separated the top three: Zeeland 259; Rockford 258; and Cedar Springs 257.

Lowell will now represent District V in Mason on Oct. 29 for the Class A State Championship.

At the final meet at Zeeland the following placements were picked up by Lowell.

Lowell YMCA starts fall programs

Once again it is time to start thinking about indoor activities.

The Lowell YMCA Fall II Programs will start up on Monday, Oct. 31. There are several activities from which to choose:

There are swimming lessons for children on Monday and Thursday; Kiddy gym is Monday at Runciman School for children ages 3-5; For adults there are fitness classes every day of the week - morning class meets on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. The evening class meets on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday. A new class will be started after school at the Middle school on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday.

Swimastics which is a water fitness class will meet at the residence of Ivan Blough on Monday and Thursday.

The youth basketball program has some changes this year. Games will be played on Saturday mornings on 10-foot baskets for grades three and four and grades five and six. Games will be played at the Middle School.

The first and second-grade program will play on Wednesday evenings. This new seven week program will play full court at Bushnell Elementary on specially designed baskets.

Children will learn the basic fundamentals of basketball in a non-competitive atmosphere.

There will also be plenty of adult basketball this fall. There will be open gym basketball on Monday evenings at the High School, cost is $3 payable at the door.

Starting in December, on Monday, the men's "over 30" slow-paced league will start. Teams will play a 10 game schedule at Riverside School. On Thursday in December fast-paced basketball will be held at the Middle School, or the High School depending on school functions. Teams will also play 10 games.

Children will learn the basic fundamentals of basketball in a non-competitive atmosphere.

There will also be plenty of adult basketball this fall. There will be open gym basketball on Monday evenings at the High School, cost is $3 payable at the door.

Starting in December, on

In January, on Wednesday, there will be a men's 3-on-3 league. Teams may have up to six people on a roster.

If you would like to sign up for any of the YMCA programs stop in or call the YMCA (897-8445). For all youth programs, financial assistance is available if needed.

"Athletes of the Week"

LeAnn Iteen

If there's a last second shot to be taken, LeAnn Iteen would like to take it; If a two-out hit is needed in the last inning of a softball game, and the game's on the line, Iteen would like to be the batter.

Without overstating it, and making high school sports bigger than it's supposed to be, Dick Vitale would call her a P-T-P'er, a "Prime Time Performer."

Iteen, a co-captain on this season's Red Arrow basketball team, her second on the varsity level and fourth overall, seems to be enjoying her role, and why not? She's been filling that role pretty well.

She's led Lowell in scoring the entire season. Iteen plays as hard, if not harder, on the defensive end and seems to have a good understanding of what's expected from her.

"Being a co-captain you're expected to lead the team," Iteen said. While some lead by their actions, Iteen seems to do both - by action and by taking charge. "I talk a lot," she says, then pausing a few seconds, she chuckles, "some would say I have a big mouth."

Iteen is very much upbeat about what the season has brought. "The team is disappointed about our conference losses, because we really wanted the conference title, but this club doesn't give up and has played well."

The daughter of Lee and Cathy Iteen, and the sister of Lee, Annette and Mark, has mixed feelings about her senior year. "I'm not ready for high school to end. It's going to be kind of sad," she said.

Dan VanderMeulen

Lowell's football team overcame many penalties in their 18-13 upset win over Zealand Friday night.

Judging by the talk with Dan VanderMeulen on Monday morning, the senior and many other Red Arrows may incur a flag by their own coach for not following the 48-hour rule.

Lowell coach Phil Christensen has a 48-hour rule, which gives players the weekend to think about Friday's game, come Monday though he wants the players to put the game behind them.

"I still haven't come completely down from our victory over Zealand," VanderMeulen continues. "It was a great win. It made our season."

VanderMeulen was an intricate part of that victory. The Red Arrow inside linebacker had seven solos and three assists against the Chix. A year ago the senior was an offensive tackle.

"I like the inside linebacker position better. I think it's a tougher position to play and it requires you to be in the game more mentally," VanderMeulen said.

For VanderMeulen this is his second year on varsity and his third year of high school football. Both of his older brothers, David (inside linebacker) and Brian (defensive lineman) also played Arrow football. "They always have advice for me," muses VanderMeulen.

The son of Jim And Ann VanderMeulen will attend Grand Rapids Junior College before transferring to a four-year university, where he will study television and radio.

Dietz fills yard with ghosties and ghoulies

From tombstones, to spider webs, to ghosts and goblins - Bonnie Dietz has it all scattered throughout her yard.

The ghosties and ghoulies and long-legged beasties this Halloween may be your gang from work or the work of your neighbors.

Neighbors of Bonnie Dietz may already be experiencing those things that go bump in the night.

Dietz, continuing a tradition that she started two years ago, has again decorated her yard with ghosts, skeletons, tombstones, and large spiders which have spun a pleasant "little" web.

Like many Americans across the nation, Dietz is enjoying one of the fastest-growing holiday trends, the celebrating of Halloween. Many celebrate by playing tricks on family and neighbors, Dietz, however, celebrates by decorating her yard for youngsters, including the kid that lives inside her.

"It took two hours for my sister, Dawn Schondelmayer and I to decorate the front yard," Dietz said. "I started planning what I was going to do a couple of months ago."

Dietz adds that she still plans on lining her driveway with 50 milk cartons, each holding a lit candle inside. "These will be put out prior to Halloween night," she said. "There will also be lit pumpkins."

Halloween isn't the only holiday that brings out the decorative genius in Dietz. "I also have lots of fun decorating at Christmas time," she said.

The Lowell native added that decorating can become expensive. With new ideas each year, Dietz's costs have grown. "Yes, but I've been fortunate this year, I've had some stuff donated," Dietz said. "Newell's donated the cardboard; Erb Lumber donated the sticks; and friends donated the white sheets."

"My parents did not do a whole lot of decorating when I was a kid. I think that's why I do so much now as an adult."

While Dietz decorates, many people will receive cards bearing such messages as "Let's go bump in the night." Others will sport spider earrings and bone bow ties at the office and on the street.

According to a Hallmark news release from Cousins' Hallmark Card and Gift Shoppe, adults are wearing Halloween jewelry and novelty items like ties or buttons to the office. They're also sporting costumes, masks, and make-up to parties and out to restaurants that feature special Halloween events.

According to Hallmark, this trend is new for Americans, but the custom of dressing in costume goes back more than 2,000 years to the pagan new year feast of the Druids, religious leaders of Celtic tribes in Wales, Ireland and Scotland.

Hallmark research also tells that ghosts were thought to mingle among the living on Oct. 31, the eve of the Druid new year. Villagers prepared banquets for the ghosts and wore masks and costumes to represent the souls of the dead and paraded to the outskirts of town, hoping the ghosts would follow.

Today, about 14 million adults will get into the spirit by wearing some kind of costume for Halloween. Industry experts estimate that Halloween costuming, makeup and accessories is nearly a $400 million business.

Nationwide, about 28 million Halloween cards will be given, making Halloween the eighth largest card-sending holiday in the United States.

This scarecrow had a rough night. Someone spiked his cider!

Left, it was a little cool in the shade, even for the scarecrows. Right, folklore has it this gentleman once lived happily in Lowell.

CITY OF LOWELL PUBLIC NOTICE

NOTICE TO OAKWOOD CEMETERY LOT OWNERS

If you have urns, artificial flowers, decorations, etc., which you wish to save, please remove them by November 1, 1988. Urns should be emptied of dirt and turned upside down to avoid cracking.

All items not removed by November 1, 1988 will be picked up by City crews and discarded.

Winter floral tributes are allowed, including plastic flowers, wire stemmed plants, etc., but must also be removed by early Spring. These items can foul lawnmower blades and cause serious injury. C49-50
