ON VIEW AT LAAC GALLERY

"The Human Form", paintings and drawings of ten local artists will open on Wednesday, Sept. 13 and will be on view through Oct. 8.

A reception for the artists will be held at the Gallery on Sunday, Sept. 17 from 2 to 4:30 p.m. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Gallery hours are Monday - Friday, 1 to p.m. and 1:30 - 4:30 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday. For further information phone the Arts Center at 897-8545.

LAAC WILL HOST LIFE DRAWING WORKSHOP

The Lowell Area Arts Council is taking registrations for its Life Drawing workshop. The Workshop begins Monday, October 2 and will run for seven weeks.

This is not an instructional workshop but rather a series of sessions to enable artists within the community to have the opportunity to paint and draw from life and character models.

The fee for the workshop is $32 for LAAC members and $38 for non-members. For further information or registration call the Arts Center at 897-8545.

LOWELL YMCA HOURS FOR FALL

The Lowell YMCA office will be open from 8:30 to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday.

SURVEYORS TO DETERMINE LANDMARK LOCATIONS

The Southwest Chapter of the Michigan Society of Registered-Land Surveyors Foundation will conduct an original-research survey. Using chain and stake, they will determine the locations of the 1939 sawmill, 1840 gristmill and tannery lot at the Fallasburg Pioneer Village.

Saturday, Oct. 14 (rain date Oct. 21) from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Fallasburg Pioneer Village, across the old covered bridge, guides will show in-progress restoration of the Fallas House. The Fallasburg Schoolhouse Museum will be open and visitors will be able to view an archeological dig taking place in the Village.

The Surveyor's group operates a museum in Lansing, the only one in the U.S. devoted entirely to surveying. In 1988 they were invited to survey Old Fort Michilimackinac, and this year completed a survey of the old Fort on Mackinac Island.

Ladies of the Alto Apostolic Christian Church will cook and serve all homemade food, including pies, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The event is being sponsored by the Fallasburg Historical Society, formerly West Central Michigan Historical Society. The public is invited and there is no admission charge. For more information call Judy Baird, 897-9081.

MASONS SPONSOR FISH DINNER OCT. 7

On Saturday, Oct. 7, there will be Fish Dinner sponsored by Lowell Masons and Eastern Stars.

The "All You Can Eat" dinner is at the Lowell Masonic Temple, 112 Lincoln Lake, serving from 5 to 7 p.m. Prices are $5 adults; $2 children.

ALTO ELEMENTARY BOOK FAIR PROMOTES READING

Alto Elementary School is holding a book fair at the school Sept. 28 from 7 to 8:30 p.m.

A wide selection of high quality, high interest paperback books for children will be for sale at the school.

There will also be items of interest for adults, including gift, craft and activity books. Profits from the book fair will be used to support the school library. The public is invited to attend the fair.

YMCA OFFERING CHOLESTEROL TESTING SEPT. 27

The Lowell YMCA will be offering cholesterol, glucose and triglyceride testing on Wednesday, Sept. 27 from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. (12 hour fast required for triglyceride test).

Cost is $5 for one test, $9 for 2 tests and $12 for 3 tests. The YMCA is located at 323 W. Main, Lowell.

Fallasburg Festival Sept. 23 and 24

21st Annual offers a variety to weekend festival goers

On Saturday, Sept. 23, at 10 a.m. the 21st annual Fallasburg Fall Festival gets underway. The two-day festival, which goes from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day, is sponsored by the Lowell Area Arts Council, but many other individuals and organizations should be given credit for joining to make the festival a success.

Entertainment will be provided from noon to 5 p.m. each day. On Saturday music will be performed by Harmonica Bob, Beats Settin' Home, and Down River Players. Sunday's performers are the Hill People, Greg and Kathy Proulx, and Quodlibet.

Antique vehicles will be on display. The VanSlyke collection of buggies and sleighs will be shown, and there will be a visit by the Flat River Antique Auto Club on Sunday afternoon.

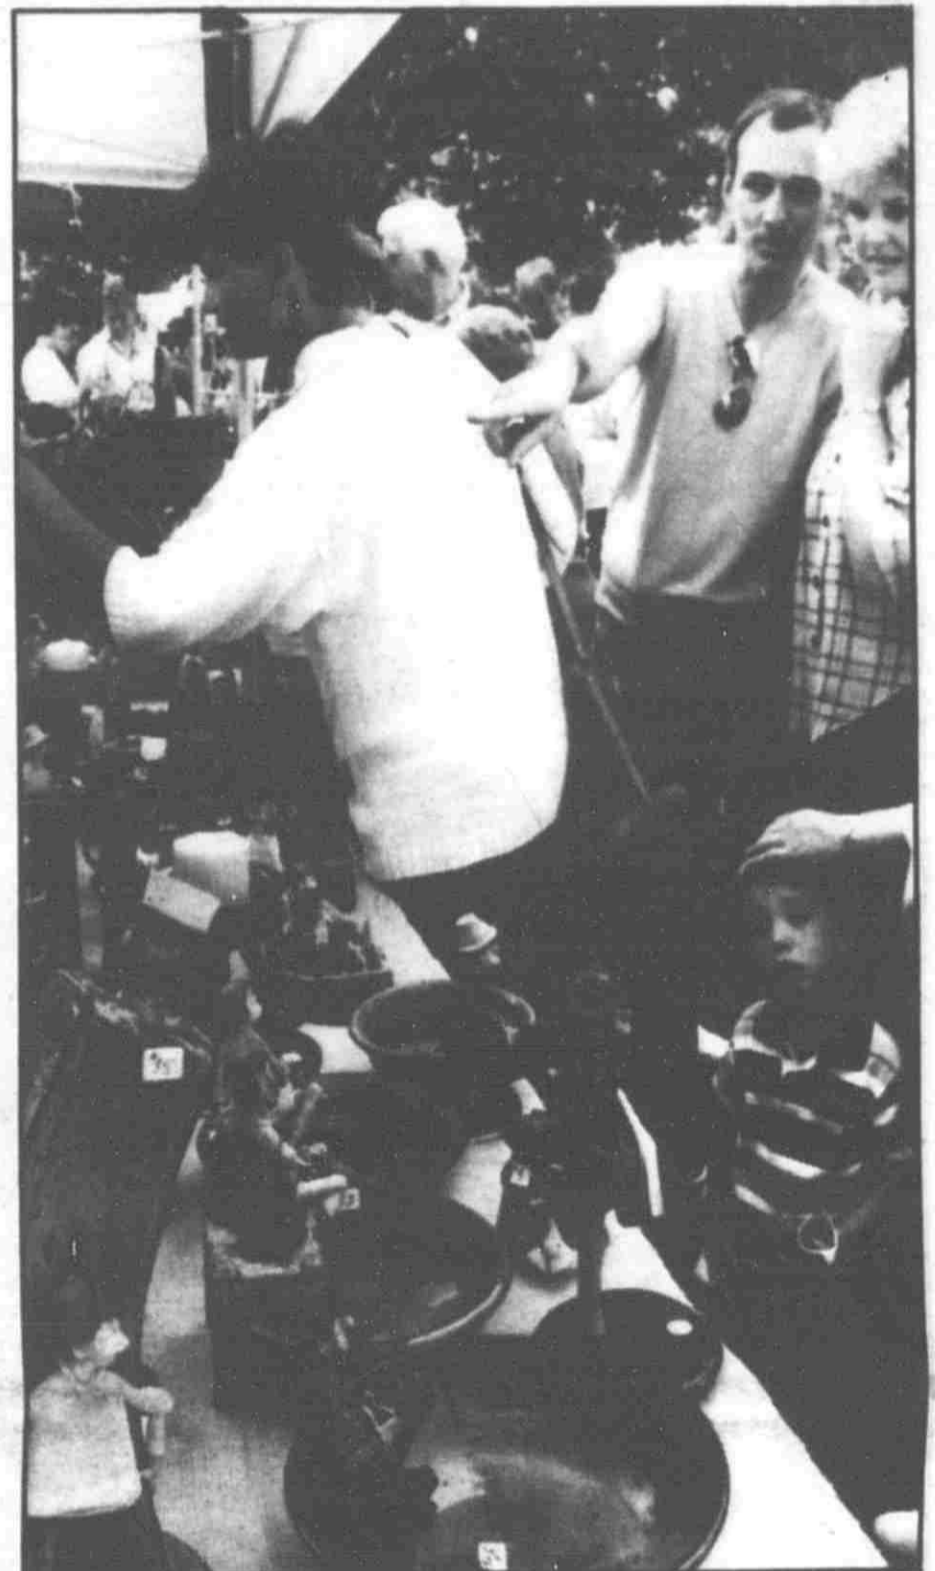

Turn-of-the-Century skills will be demonstrated in the pavilion. Joan Bunn will set up a butter churning display, the Eldredges will demonstrate canning, spinning and weaving will be done by Mary Bastneck, and wood carving will be demonstrated by Jim Meekhoff. In addition, rug hooking will be demonstrated by the Flat River Rug Hookers, and drawing and sketching will be done by the Lowell High School Art Club.

Eleven food booths will offer festival visitors everything from a meal to a snack. The eleven non-profit groups who will be setting up booths are the Women of the Moose, the Knight of Columbus, Vergennes United Methodist Church, the First Congregational Church, the Lowell Rotary Club, the Alto Lions, the Lowell Lions, St. Patrick's Home and School Association, the West Central Michigan Historical Society, St. Paul's Women's Guild, and the Arts Council Kids.

In addition many other volunteers supervise a free children's craft area, the free parking, the information booth, grounds clean-up, decoration, and other aspects designed to keep the festival running smoothly.

Along with the 65 artists who are the focus of the festival, these many volunteers join to make the 21st annual Fallasburg Fall Festival a fun-filled event for everyone who visits Fallasburg Park Saturday and Sunday.

Visitors admire the artwork at the 20th Fallasburg Festival. The 21st event is this weekend, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Lowell Rotary blood drive collects 75 pints

The Grand Valley Blood Program, sole supplier of blood to Butterworth, Blodgett, Metropolitan, Ferguson and St. Mary's Hospitals estimates that it will need 36,000 pints of blood in its blood bank if it is to serve patients in Kent County in need of major surgeries, trauma cases and in the treatment of disease.

Lowell's Rotary organization has held a blood drive each year since 1974 in an effort to aid the Grand Valley Blood Program.

The Donor Recruiter said Lowell Rotary's blood drive had 126 people sign up to give blood in 1986, with 94 actually able to give. "Since then it has dropped but over the last two years it has leveled off. This year the drive had 87 people sign up, with 75 actually able to give.

In 1988 the numbers were 85 - 62 and in 1987 they were 94 - 72 respectively.

holds one in September and the fire department will hold a second blood drive in December. "Grand Valley tries to set up a blood drive every eight weeks (donors can only give every 56 days)," Donor Recruiter, Judy

Nelson said. "We're always searching for more donors while also trying to hang on to the ones we have."

With towns the size of Lowell holding four to five drives a year it prevents residents from having to drive to Grand Rapids to give blood.

"We're encouraging groups to work together and to see the drives as part of one larger group," Nelson said. "In regards to our goal, we will know in several months how we fared."

Nelson says the success of blood drives vary from year to year, depending on groups and area. "Each area goes through cycles. Whether a group reaches or exceeds its goal is dependent on many variables," she says.

Action Auto kicks off contest valued at $10,000

Flint-based Action Auto Stores, Inc. has kicked off a contest for its employees and customers, sponsored by Quaker State and Monroe Shocks, with prizes and trips to be given away valued at $10,000.

The contest is running August 1 through September 30. During that time a total of three trips for two to the Bahamas will be given away to a customer and to the manager of the Action Auto store that sells the most Quaker State and Monroe products during the contest's run. One of the trips has already been given away to a store manager during a contest kick-off meeting held in late July.

In addition to the Bahamas trip, other prizes include a custom sailboat, a deluxe folding bicycle, ten mini-pedal race cars, color televisions, shopping sprees ranging from $100 to $1,000, gift certificates, tickets to a Nascar race at Michigan International Speedway and cash prizes to store employees.

"The contest is designed to provide added incentives for our store employees. The more Quaker State and Monroe products they sell, the better their chances of winning money and prizes," said Dick Sabo, President of Action Auto Stores, Inc.

"This is one of the most ambitious and lucrative contests we've had to date. In addition to our employees getting the opportunity to improve their stores' sales and win prizes for themselves, our customers will also benefit from the chance at winning a trip and other valuable prizes. We believe this is a true 'win-win' situation with everyone coming out on top," said Sabo.

Action Auto is a one-of-a-kind, $100 million automotive aftermarket retailer specializing in discount gas, parts, tires and service all in one location. There are currently 71 Action Auto stores throughout Michigan.

The world distance record for solo ballooning was set in 1984 when Joe Kittinger flew 3,535 miles from Maine to Italy in 84 hours.

September is a lovely time of the year among the fruit orchards of western Michigan. Peaches are in abundance. The branches of the apple trees droop almost to the ground, unable to bear up under the weight of their luscious red burdens.

All are privileged people who live in this beautiful country. But the orchard owners will tell anyone that it takes more than sunshine and rain to produce an abundance of apples, cherries, peaches, and pears. Farmers must use the proper tools in the cultivation of their orchards. They must learn to control the insects and diseases common to fruit-bearing trees. They must also know how and when to prune their trees.

Reading God's Word and taking its truths to heart, along with sincere prayer, are tools essential to the work of spiritual cultivation. It takes God's mercy and grace, along with our diligent effort, to produce "an abundant harvest."

Prayer: O Lord, make me fruitful in Thy vineyard. Cultivate Thy Word in my heart. Prune out those thoughts and attitudes which would hinder my service for Thee. Give me "an abundant harvest." Amen.

He who keeps an open mind and receptive heart is always beloved and blessed of God.

Well, it finally happened. The furnace was turned on for the first time—just to take the chill out of the house. The basement is damp because of all the rain and the house seems to have picked up its mustiness. The patio looks forlorn and the black pool cover is another testimony to the end of summer. Fall is here.

I feel a little sad that summer has gone so quickly. There are summers that seem like they last forever, (like last summer and its unrelenting heatwave) and then there is this summer and its almost perfect weather. Farmers were grateful, at least around here, for the sufficient rainfall. Although, the weather wasn't as hot as last year, there was time enough for swimming and cook-outs and sunny days to make it comfortable.

Every year about the third week of August, I get the itch to get things into more of a schedule. School is good for that, among other

Tommy's OUT-OF-DOORS JOURNAL

It used to be so easy. I'd ride that big black and yellow smoke belching school bus around its route and get off two stops before the end. Boy, in the fall of the year that was the longest ride in the world.

When I think back, the afternoons always had that sort of clearness about them, and I can always smell the air. To this day, the smell of an early fall rainstorm triggers memories of those wonderful days past when my biggest task in life was simply growing up.

Dad was always ready in those early years and, as soon as I could get my clothes changed, we would load up into one or another of the old pick-ups we always seemed to have then and be off to the woods. There was always an apple or a peach or plum for a snack on the way because it was the time of year for fresh tree fruit.

The wood lot or field was always a subject of great conversation. For days in advance we would discuss the potential of various acreages, the best time to hunt and the best route of access. Always it was the land of someone known to us, and there never was a problem with the use of their land by ourselves. It was simply a courtesy. If we opened a gate, we closed it. If we crossed a fence, we were careful not to break it down. And, if we passed the house, we usually stopped. Good for public relations, dad used to tell me.

I didn't realize it then but I was learning. I learned cover and habitat, gun handling and sportsmanship. Those trips were some of the best private tutoring a boy can get. They set the mold for the kind of outdoorsman he will grow into. It was, for me, a family tradition, and should be for everyone.

But enough of the past. Like I said, it used to be so easy. There was never any doubt. We would go hunting and we probably would bring home something for the pot. The important part was that we went.

Nowadays between work and school and soccer, football and basketball games we are pretty much limited to weekends. And then, do we go hunting or enjoy the last few weeks of stream fishing for trout? Maybe we should pass up the fishing for now and head to the squirrel woods. Naw, too many leaves. Then again, the cover is good and the berries weren't too bad, perhaps we should unlimber the old La Fevers and go chase up a few grouse. Rabbits are easy. With a season open until March 31st of next year and abundant numbers, why, a guy can go rabbit hunting any time. But rabbits are more fun in the snow. Timber doodles. Yeah, we could load up and head north a ways... well it is a bit early for the migration.

It's this time of year that gets me. I'm ready and the season is changing all around me. But, realistically, I guess it is a little early for any serious hunting. The part that bothers me is that when it comes, it all comes at once, with a rush. There is this huge flurry of activity... and then it's over.

One more weekend at home won't hurt me. Maybe this weekend I can get ahead of the job jar. A few more tasks need completing before I get serious in the woods anyway. Besides, it's sort of a political thing. If I can clean up the odds and ends that need finishing around the house this weekend, then the better half has no hooks in me when I finally do decide to blow off for the weekend.

That's it. The decision has been made. Work this weekend and get out to the woods and streams for the next three and a half months. Not a bad trade. Now, where to start? Well, I do need to do a little work on my bow blind before the season gets too close, and as long as I'm out in the woods, I guess I could take along the squirrel rifle and, down the river from the blind there is this bass hole that... well, I guess you get the idea.

Enjoy your time in the outdoors.

by Roger Brown

The Brown family found a little surprise when we returned home from my sister's wedding last Saturday evening. Our house, trees and shrubs had been elaborately toilet papered, or "T.P.'d", as the expression goes. It's a "tit-for-tat" thing that's going around at the high school. Of course my kids say they'd never dream of entering someone's home, but when we are repeatedly the target of roll throwers, I have to wonder.

We have an ideal home to T.P. There are lots of huge old trees for the toilet paper roll thrower who can really loft that thing up there. There are big shrubs all around the house. The house itself is a large two story job that drapes quite nicely. And, above all else, it's located on the busy corner where all the kids turn into the high school parking lot or ride by on the school bus. It's just no fun to paper a home out in the sticks, 'cause nobody sees it. Kinda' like shooting a hole-in-one while playing alone.

Have you ever tried to clean up after a good T.P. job? It's darned near impossible. When you try to pull the paper down from the high branches, it simply tears off just out of reach. I put the kids to work cleaning the mess up that night, so nobody really got to see what an elaborate T.P. job it was. But, there are still plenty of white streamers in those high places. More than enough to remind me that I have to come up with a way to get even. Heh, heh, heh!

The paperers spilled out, "Hi Rog" in toilet paper on the lawn. Some of my kids' friends call me Mr. Brown. Some call me Dad. Some won't speak to me. But, only one calls me "Rog", and he knows who he is. And he is on my list.

There are a couple of things my young friend may not know about me. One, I subscribe to the theory that it is infinitely more gratifying to get even, rather than get mad. And two, I've been known to pull a few pretty good pranks of my own over the years. I know where this young fellow lives, where he works, what he drives, etc. I also know he reads this column every week, which puts him on notice. Ain't life great?

EXERCISE AND THE ELDERLY

We encourage regular aerobic exercise for all of our patients, as a means of attaining good cardiovascular fitness. Most forms of aerobic exercise - brisk walking, jogging, running, bicycling, rowing, swimming - are relatively inexpensive to indulge in and the benefits can be immeasurable. While the young and middle aged individual can generally pursue these activities with little attendant risk, the elderly person should exercise just a little caution when beginning an exercise program. Today's article addresses a few of the precautions we usually give to our elderly patients when they are about to embark on an aerobic fitness plan.

1. Try not to exercise for at least 30-45 minutes after eating.
2. Make sure to take adequate amounts of liquids when exercising. As we age, we become more prone to dehydration during exercise. Keep close tabs on your weight before and after exercise - replace any weight loss ounce for ounce with water immediately following your work-out.
3. Don't exercise too vigorously. This increases your risk of injury.
4. In warm weather, exercise during the coolest time of the day and in cold weather during the warmest part of the day.
5. Don't exercise outdoors in extreme temperatures because as we age our sensitivity to temperature extremes increases. When it's too hot or too cold, drive to a mall for a walk or exercise indoors on a stationary bike, rowing machine or treadmill.
6. Avoid exercising on asphalt, concrete or other hard surfaces that can cause repetitive trauma to the bones and joints. Whenever possible, exercise on natural surfaces such as grass or dirt.
7. Don't wear rubberized or plastic clothing when exercising. In these outfits, you will perspire more and will consequently increase your risk of dehydration.
8. Learn how to take your pulse from your doctor during every exercise session. Your doctor can explain to you how high your pulse should be to get the maximum benefit from aerobic work.

We strongly encourage exercise for the elderly. It can make you feel better, work better and sleep better. It can also, through weight loss, lessen the need for certain medications.

In old Scotland it was believed if February 12-14th were stormy, there would be good weather the rest of the year.

NEW SCHEDULES AND NEW BEGINNINGS
Joan Wittenbach

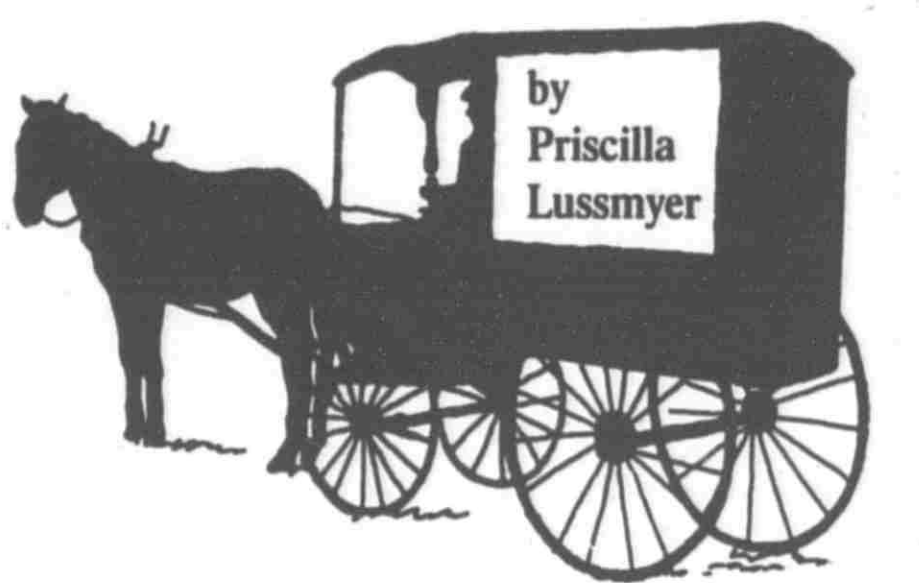

Just before our granddaughter went to kindergarten, she curled up in my lap and we talked about going to school. "Grandma, I'm afraid. It's a scary thing to go to school," she confided. I understood. I remembered a quote that Chaim Potok's mother said to him. "All beginnings are hard. You'll be alright soon," and I spoke their truth to Amy.

Amy has been in school for a couple of weeks now and is learning new rules in her daily schedule. Another woman is replacing the time that her mother had with her, and she is learning from her own experience that "All beginnings are hard. You'll be alright soon."

I even think children are ready for a meaningful change of daily input. Just as they are ready for school to get out, teachers and pupils seem ready for it to begin again.

Classes have started for my children. Our youngest son graduates this year and our first grandchild, Amy, started kindergarten. Always my heart seems to whisper that the time has gone so quickly. Classes and deadlines have started as well for me, but on a smaller scale. It is a marvelous thing to be able to learn and to be with people. Going to school isn't the only way one learns, but for me, when Fall comes, I still want to buy notebook paper, pencils and smell the smell of new books. And what is the oncoming of Fall without the celebration of a new outfit to replace shorts, and sleeveless blouses?

Some people have thought that seeing a wolf before the wolf saw them would render them speechless.

cludes funds for school improvement planning and a new achievement incentive program.

The Schools of Tomorrow program will allocate $2.25 million to districts to provide support services for developing and adopting long-range school improvement plans, and to adopt a core curriculum. The Achievement Incentive Program will provide $2 million to applicant school districts to develop innovative programs to improve school performance.

The budget also includes $17 million for a new program for special aid to low-income districts that spend less than $3,100 per pupil and which levy less than 32.5 mills.

In addition, the school aid budget:
--raises dropout prevention program funds to $5 million
--increases preschool funding by $5.2 million to $17.2 million
--provides a $5 million incentive plan for districts that improve their Michigan Education Assessment Program (MEAP) test scores.

New hangar at Lowell Airport is not a dead issue

The City of Lowell wishes to construct a six airplane T-hangar very similar to this ten-year-old privately owned hangar at the Lowell Airport. Hangar construction was recently put on hold when the Vergennes Township Zoning Board of Appeals denied a request for a variance. However, state regulations governing public use airports exempt such facilities from local zoning. The project is back on the front burner.

The construction of a six place hangar at the Lowell Airport may be completed. The project suffered a serious set back on August 31 when the Vergennes Zoning Board of Appeals denied Lowell Area Arts Council holds workshops thru Oct.

The Lowell Area Arts Council will present four workshops in October. Life Drawing workshop is open to all area artists who wish to participate in studio sessions painting and drawing from both life and character models. This is a non-instructional workshop and affords members the opportunity to work from the human form. This workshop begins Monday, Oct. 2 and runs for seven sessions, 7 to 10 p.m. for Life Drawing is $32 members and $36 non-members. Basket making is a workshop that has proven to provide both fun and frustrations! This workshop will be held on Thursdays beginning October 5 for four sessions and is taught by Barb Caddick. Participants may choose from several styles of baskets and will usually complete a basket in an evening. The session runs 7 to 9:30 p.m. and the fee is $12 for members and $15 for non-members plus materials. Super Saturdays for Kids begin October 7 at the Arts Center. Four Saturdays, 10 a.m. to noon - two workshops! Children grades 2 through 6 may participate in either "Experiments with Line and Color" a drawing and painting workshop taught by Sandra Bartlett or "The Puppet Caper", a puppet making and drama presentation, taught by Dru Rooker. Fee for either session is $20. Adults or children interested in signing up for any of the LAAC October workshops may do so by phoning the Center at 897-8545 Monday through Friday, 1 to 5 p.m.

Lowell City Council and the Lowell Airport Board. The T-type hangar is designed for storage of six privately owned aircraft. The project would be self funded through hangar rentals, and would ultimately provide operating income for the airport when the loan is re-paid.

The city's options appeared to be limited to scrapping the project, seeking re-zoning or battling the township decision in circuit court. City attorney Dick Wendt took yet another course. Wendt felt that a municipally owned public use facility like the Lowell Airport would be immune to local zoning regulations. In a well-researched four page opinion, Wendt cites numerous statutes, along with court cases upholding them, that bear out his initial reaction to the township ruling.

In a case involving the City of Detroit's attempt to condemn property in Warren Township for the purpose of building and operating an airport, the township argued that such a use was in direct contravention with the zoning ordinance prohibiting the use or occupancy of lands for an airport. In dismissing this argument the court wrote: Such a township ordinance is unenforceable and void for the reason that it is in direct conflict with the following state statute: "The State administrative board or the legislative body of any city or village or township in this state is hereby authorized to acquire, own, control, lease, equip, improve, operate and regulate landing fields, seaplane harbors and airports for aeroplanes and other aircraft either within or without the limits of said cities and villages . . ."The case went on to the Michigan Supreme Court where the original decision was upheld, and not limited in any way.

The state code regarding airports further reads: Every political subdivision in this state is hereby authorized through its governing body to acquire property, real and personal, for the purpose of establishing, constructing and enlarging airports, landing fields and other aeronautical facilities, and to acquire, establish, construct, enlarge, improve airports, landing fields and other aeronautical facilities, and other property incidental to their operation, either within or without the territorial limits of such political subdivision.

In summation of his opinion Wendt wrote, "It is, therefore, our opinion that the City is not, with respect to the airport, subject to the Township's zoning ordinance and may construct the additional hangar without obtaining either a use variance or a rezoning of the airport property from Vergennes Township."

Lowell City Councilman William Thompson offered a motion at Monday's Council meeting to request a building permit from Vergennes Township based on Wendt's opinion. Thompson further offered that the hangar should be constructed with or without township approval. The resolution passed unanimously.

Traffic engineer presents findings to Lowell businessmen

Editor's Note: On Tuesday evening (Sept. 19), Ed Swanson, a traffic engineer retained by the City of Lowell, presented findings and recommendations regarding downtown parking. Because of deadline constraints, The Lowell Ledger is unable to include the responses and feedback from downtown business merchants and local residents to these findings and recommendations presented by Swanson. However, that will be reported in the Sept. 27 edition. What follows is information in the report concerning downtown parking in Lowell.

Swanson and Associates performed a parking inventory to determine availability of and use of existing parking facilities. Parking is allowed in the Central Business District (CBD) from Broadway Street east to the city limits. Parking is also allowed from West Street to Hudson Street to Lincoln Lake Avenue on the North side.

Parking inventory data was collected from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and from 7:30 until 8:30 p.m. The area of inventory included all Main Street block faces where parking is allowed, along with four parking lots within the city limits. On-street parking for Riverside Drive was also inventoried. Two of the parking lots are public lots and the other two are city lots. On-street and city lot parking is limited to a two-hour limit. Data was collected in 60 minute intervals. Percent occupancy and duration of parking was determined for each block face and parking lot studied.

(Peak hour utilization chart). The parking study was conducted to determine parking utilization and thus indicated where excess parking is available. Each block face was inventoried separately since parking is dependent on the type of business present. Data was collected during the month of July.

The report indicated that summer parking in commercial areas is approximately 70 percent of the parking demands in December. Areas, except for the Broadway to Riverside block face and the city lot between Riverside and Broadway, can absorb the 30 percent additional parking demand for the peak retail season.

Commercial establishments located on Main Street provide an additional influx of traffic. Within the City, parking is limited to two parking lots and on-street parking. The need for smooth and safe traffic flow on Main Street competes with the need for parking.

Placement of left-turn lanes at some intersections in the CBD would aid in traffic flow at the cost of some on-street parking. The study showed that this could be accomplished by removing parking in areas currently under-utilized and where alternative parking exists.

The minimum parking stall width is eight feet, resulting in 16 feet of travel room lost where parking is allowed on both sides of the street. The report stated that on-street parking restricts traffic flow to two lanes resulting in less maneuvering room for traffic and also restricts visibility for vehicles attempting to enter the traffic flow from side streets. Ability for motorists to detect pedestrians is also restricted. Reduced visibility results in reduced reaction time for the motorist.

The study indicates that while parking is valuable to businesses within the CBD, it recommends that left-turn lanes be provided on a limited basis.

Left-turn lanes should be placed between Hudson Street and Jackson Street.

The report goes on to recommend:

*That Hudson to Broadway have a left-turn lane length of 75 feet for eastbound traffic to access Broadway. This would allow for three cars in storage (waiting to turn without interrupting traffic flow).

*That Broadway to Riverside/Water have a turn length of 50 feet. Eastbound traffic accessing Riverside requires a turning lane length of 75 feet. Parking is provided nearby in a City lot located between Riverside and Broadway, and also on Broadway and Riverside just north of Main Street.

Due to the amount of alternative parking north of this block face, it is recommended that parking be removed from the entire north side of Main Street to accommodate the left-turn lengths. Parking would be available on Riverside for all periods during parking inventory. While parking inventory did find the city lot was heavily utilized during the day, it was found that 40 percent of the available spaces were occupied by vehicles with a parking duration of five hours or more. The same tendency was noted for vehicles parked on Riverside Drive. If the two hour parking limit is enforced for both the City Lot and on Riverside, there should be adequate facilities to compensate for the loss of seven parking spaces on Main Street.

Riverside/Water to Lafayette Westbound traffic requires 50 feet of left-turn lane approaching Water Street. parking should be removed on the north side of Main Street to provide the turn lane. The parking on Riverside should be extended to the Broadway-Riverside intersection and Broadway should be changed to a one-way street, flowing south, from this intersection down to Main Street. On-street angle parking would then be allowed on both Broadway and Riverside from Main Street to the Broadway-Riverside intersection.

Eastbound traffic turning onto Lafayette needs 75 feet of left-turn length. Parking should be removed from the south side of Main Street at this intersection since parking is available in the adjacent public lot.

Lafayette to Monroe

Eastbound traffic approaching Monroe requires 125 feet of turning lane due to the higher volume of traffic that utilizes Monroe. Because of the availability of the public lot across from Lafayette Street it would be feasible to remove parking from the entire south block face.

Monroe to Washington

Vehicles approaching Monroe westbound need 50 feet of left-turn lane while those vehicles approaching Washington eastbound require 100 feet for a turning lane. Because parking on the south face block is under-utilized it is recommended that parking be removed from the south side for the left-turn accessing Monroe. The presence of existing driveways currently restricts parking on the north side approaching Washington and parking should be removed further as necessary to accommodate vehicles turning left onto Washington.

Washington to Jefferson

Westbound vehicles approaching Washington need 75 feet of left-turn lane and eastbound vehicles approaching Jefferson require 125 feet of turning lane. With a large private lot for Rite-Aid customers, it is recommended that the space needed for the left-turn lane be removed from the north side of this block face.

Jefferson to Jackson

Traffic traveling westbound towards Jefferson requires 50 feet for the left-turn lane. Placement of existing driveways on the north side of this block face currently restricts parking and make the north side most desirable for parking removal to accommodate the left-turn lane since only two parking spaces would be lost.

East to east city limits
Jackson Street the traffic demand drops significantly. The primary use is by Main Street residents. No changes are recommended in this area.

Conclusion:
While parking on-street is vital to businesses in the CBD, demand is such that present nearby alternative facilities can accommodate for parking lost due to construction of left-turn lanes.

Item No. 1. ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS:

A. SOUTHWEST CORNER OF GODFREY AND LINCOLN LAKE AVENUE - BENJAMIN POOLS AND CONSTRUCTION, INC. - REAR YARD VARIANCE FOR DUPLEX - PUBLIC HEARING. Doug Benjamin petitioned for a 21' rear yard setback rather than the required 25' for the construction of a duplex. This was requested because of the shallowness of the lot. At the August 28 Planning Commission meeting a special use permit was approved with a 30' setback from Godfrey (front), Lincoln Lake 28' (east side), rear 21', and 8' west side. Maurice Hample (owner of the house at 1078 Lincoln Lake) said that he had no objections to the variance request. City Manager Pasquale said that he had received a letter from Dolores Myers (1073 Beech Dr) stating her opposition to the rear yard variance. She asked that the duplex be moved toward Godfrey or Lincoln Lake.

IT WAS MOVED by Hodges and seconded by Fonger to grant the 21' rear yard setback variance at the southwest corner of Godfrey and Lincoln Lake Avenue.

B. 1022 E. MAIN ST. - CHARLES SAGANEK - LOT SPLIT VARIANCE - SET PUBLIC HEARING (9/18). City Manager Pasquale stated that Charles Saganek (owner) wishes to subdivide his property into two separate parcels on East Main. With the property zoned R, a 90' lot width is required for each parcel. The total frontage is 174', leaving six feet short for one of the proposed lots.

IT WAS MOVED by Hodges and seconded by Fonger to set a public hearing for a lot split variance at 1022 E. Main Street for Monday, Sept. 18, 1989.

MOTION CARRIED.

Item No. 2. PROPOSED VACATIONS OF HILL, VALLEY AND MOUND STREETS - REQUEST TO SET PUBLIC HEARING (9/18). Residents in the Washington Street - Shepard Drive area petitioned to have Hill, Valley and Mound streets vacated.

After reviewing the matter, the consensus of the Council was not to hold a public hearing for the vacation of these streets at this time because of possible development which would be inhibited by this proposal.

Item No. 3. PURCHASE OF 1990 POLICE VEHICLE. Bids were solicited from the four local car dealers for the purchase of a 1990 police vehicle. The following were received:

Thomet Chevrolet-Buick Inc.
Chevrolet Caprice 4 Door Sedan	$14,553.99
trade in 1985 Impala	-1,200.00
	$13,353.99
Harold Zeigler Ford, Inc.
Ford Crown Victoria Police Cruiser	$15,200.00
trade in 1985 Impala	-1,000.00
	$14,200.00

It was recommended that the low bid from Thomet Chevrolet of $13,353.99 be awarded purchase of the police vehicle plus trade-in.

IT WAS MOVED by Thompson and seconded by Hodges to accept the low bid from Thomet Chevrolet-Buick, Inc. for the purchase of a 1990 Police Vehicle.

YEA: 4.

NAY: 0.

ABSENT: 1.

MOTION CARRIED.

Item No. 4. REVIEW OF BIDDING AND SOFTBALL TOURNAMENT POLICIES PROGRAMS. As directed by the City Council, the policies covering bidding and softball tournaments on City fields were reviewed. Under the bidding procedures policy, the Council felt that quotes from three rather than two vendors should be sought. Also, advertisement in local and/or area newspapers instead of specifically naming the Lowell Ledger and Grand Rapid Press was also mentioned by Council as an amendment.

Under the Softball tournament policy, the Council stated that a non-profit sponsored tournament must pay a $150 per park (rather than $75 per field as previously proposed) security deposit in advance. Also profit sponsored tournament would pay $100 per day per park (instead of field) rental charge for the use of City facilities in addition to the $150 per park security deposit. Councilmembers felt that port-a-johns should be placed during the softball season at Recreation Park by the City rather than making this an obligation of the sponsor.

These policies will be ratified by Council at the September 18 meeting, after further review by City staff.

Item No. 5. PURCHASE OF FAX MACHINE. Police Chief Emmons stated that the Police Department is in need of a fax machine to aid in its proceedings with the courts. All agencies will have to have a fax machine in their office within the next few months. The Michigan Municipal League has arranged special purchase pricing with Pitney Bowes for all League members. It was recommended that the City purchase a Model 7100 at a cost of $1,495 (one year warranty). A maximum of a $132 installation fee would be included. A monthly charge of $17.20 was given.

IT WAS MOVED by Thompson and seconded by Hodges to purchase a Model 7100 fax machine at a cost of $1,495, as recommended.

YEA: 4.

ABSENT: 1

MOTION CARRIED.

Item No. 6. SELECTION OF OFFICIAL REPRESENTATIVE TO THE MICHIGAN MUNICIPAL LEAGUE CONVENTION. A City representative to the Annual Business meeting (October 6) of the Michigan Municipal League Convention at Marquette was requested by the League to be selected.

IT WAS MOVED by Hodges and seconded by Thompson to elect David Pasquale, City Manager as delegate and Councilmember Jack Fonger as alternative delegate at the Michigan Municipal League Convention in Marquette on October 6, 1989.

YEA: 4.

NAY: 0.

ABSENT: 1

MOTION CARRIED.

Item No. 7. CITIZENS SUGGESTIONS. None.

Item No. 8. COUNCIL COMMENTS. Councilmember Thompson mentioned that there were several tree limbs throughout the City that need to be trimmed. Councilmember Hodges mentioned that a sidewalk inspection program is needed for the sidewalks throughout the City, especially by businesses and schools. City Manager Pasquale remarked that such an inspection program can be planned for next Spring.

Item No. 9. MANAGER'S REPORT. City Manager Pasquale reported on the following:

A. Copies of the letter to Belding and the DNR regarding sewer overflow into the Flat River were attached in the agenda as well as the resolution to the County regarding the airport. B. A copy of the speed limit changes on Bowes Road was enclosed.

C. Chief Emmons and City Manager Pasquale had a meeting with School Supt. Fritz Esch and High School Principal Jim DeWeerd on August 25 to discuss the student parking problem. A letter was sent to all high school parents regarding the parking issue. It was also printed in the Lowell Ledger for the general public.

Parking as it is affecting the neighborhood will be monitored closely by the School and the Police. Appropriate recommendations on any further actions would be given.

An article in the August 28 Grand Rapids Press was printed about increased costs to communities regarding the Kent County Library System. It was noted that the City of Lowell gave no comment. This was because no official figures have been given at the time. With the preliminary figures provided, there would be no problem in recommending it. The library use has gone up dramatically.

E. The need to schedule an open house for the Wastewater Treatment Plant as well as a groundbreaking ceremony for the Fire Station was brought up by the City Manager.

It was decided that the open house for the Wastewater Treatment Plant will be on Monday, Oct. 2 from 2 - 7:30 p.m. with the groundbreaking ceremony for the fire station at 6:30 p.m.

F. Vergennes Township Zoning Board denied a request for a variance from the City to construct a hangar at the Lowell City Airport (Airport considered a non-conforming use) at their August 31 meeting. A rezoning was recommended.

Bill Schreuer (12209 Bailey Dr.) requested trading road rights of way by the airport. He was considering a way to better develop his property and felt that the new road would provide a better route to the airport. The consensus of the Council is that they are not interested in trading road rights of way.

Item No. 10. APPOINTMENTS. None.

IT WAS MOVED by Hodges to adjourn at 8:53 p.m.

Approved: September 18, 1989

School posts position for Bushnell first grade teacher

Concerned parents who have children attending first-grade at Bushnell Elementary left Monday's (Sept. 11) Board of Education meeting unsure and skeptical that their worry of overcrowded first-grade classrooms would be dealt with promptly and not dragged out to the school year's fourth Friday.

That skepticism, in part, was due to the response Alan Dorough, father of Bushnell first-grader Ryan Dorough, got when he asked if the school would hire a new first-grade teacher for Bushnell Elementary. Lowell Superintendent Fritz Esch assured parents that every possible avenue would be explored in an effort to solve the problem. However, he said that at the present time he did not feel a new teacher would be hired. He added later, that it looks like paraprofessionals (aides) would be hired for classrooms where student numbers are 28 and higher. It was then learned Tuesday morning (Sept. 12) that a new first-grade teaching position had been posted for Bushnell Elementary. Why the sudden change? "I have learned that it is not good to overreact. You do that, and then you end up with 17 children in a classroom. That's not cost-effective," Esch said. Lowell Superintendent also did some checking and found out that the parochial school (St. Mary's) did not take as many children as it normally does and that the Lowell School system is up 40 students from a year ago, expecting to add 30 more. How many of those will be first-graders is not known.

Esch said the start of the 1989-90 school year has been draining on school officials. "We've started the school year two administrators short."

Sue Ball, one of roughly seven Bushnell parents to attend the Board meeting, questioned whether having a part-time principal at the year's start hurt the communication wires. She said this after hearing that Esch and the Board were not aware of the moves the Bushnell staff were willing to make in order to secure another teacher.

"I had heard concerns from parents prior to the September Board meeting. Dave Burdette, the new principal at Bushnell Elementary, had also mentioned to me prior to the start of the school year, that he thought another first-grade teacher would be needed," Esch said.

The new first-grade teaching position will be posted for seven days unless the requirement is waived by the union. "I hope to fill the position within a couple of weeks," Esch said.

Burdette added, "We will move the resource room, which currently has roughly nine students in it, to the computer room thus making room for another first-grade classroom."

Gene discovery spurs Cystic Fibrosis drive

The Cystic Fibrosis Foundation's annual Breath of Life Door-to-Door Campaign is becoming the most successful one yet due to the recent CF gene discovery. Throughout Greater Michigan, over 12,000 volunteers will be collecting donations door-to-door, Sept. 16-24. The Cystic Fibrosis Foundation expects to raise over $250,000.

With the recent gene discovery announced this month, volunteers are more enthusiastic about the importance of their work. "I've worked on this campaign for the last eight years," said Yvonne McGary, a door-to-door volunteer. "It is so gratifying to know that my volunteer work has contributed to the progress they have made in finding a cure for cystic fibrosis."

Warren Reynolds, Sports Director for WOTV, Channel 8, the chairman for this year's door-to-door campaign for Western Michigan said, "While the discovery is a major breakthrough, it's only the first step in finding a cure for cystic fibrosis. Money is needed now more than ever to fund future research and find a cure."

Request for Alden Nash estimate approved

A request for an engineering and cost estimate for the Kent County Road Commission and its grading of Alden Nash was approved by the Vergennes Township Board at its Sept. 11 meeting.

Approving the requests will help establish a price for the needed road work. According to Township Supervisor, Jim Cook, they will come up with the funds separately.

UA (United Artists) Cable was given the okay to provide cable service in and around Murray Lake. Lowell Cable does not service the area. The density of homes does not make it cost effective. Lowell Cable comes in on Lincoln Lake, but then goes east on Vergennes.

Peter Tolley, of Tolley, Fisher and Verwys, attorneys, was appointed the newest member of the Planning Commission, Richard Bieri.

Cook added the Vergennes Township office will be going on line with the county computer and the county treasurer's office. Vergennes Township just recently purchased the software.

Kent Special Riders benefit Saturday

The Kent Special Riding Program (K.S.R.P.) announces its Eleventh Annual Benefit Ride-A-Thon, Sept. 23 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Ionia State Recreation Area. The Ride-A-Thon is expected to attract over 200 horseback riders and hikers from Kent and surrounding counties. The 1989 Annual Benefit Ride-A-Thon is sponsored by Old Kent Bank and Trust, Radio Station WCUZ, Gannett Outdoor and Gilson Press. The 1989 goal is $15,000.

The 1988 Ride-A-Thon attracted 151 riders who brought in pledges totaling $12,800.

The Ride-A-Thon is a fund raising event with riders and hikers of all ages gathering pledges to support the program. Prizes are awarded to entrants in various age categories based on the amount of money they have gathered. Each entrant who gathers at least $25 in pledges will receive lunch and a special designer 1989 Ride-A-Thon t-shirt. There will be a Grand Prize drawing for a hot air balloon ride and various other prizes for entrants who gather $50 in pledges. Overall Hi-Pledge will receive a Montana Silversmith belt buckle. Last year, Sandy Scott of

Saranac won the Hi-Pledge Trophy by collecting $1,515 in donations. The Kent Special Riding Program is the 4-H Horseback Riding for Handicappers program in Kent County. K.S.R.P. serves physically, mentally and emotionally impaired riders from age

2 to 73 in 6-week sessions each spring, summer and fall. K.S.R.P. was founded in 1976 and to date has served over 2,700 riders.

For more information on the Ride-A-Thon or the Kent Special Riding Program, call 774-3265.

LOWELL TOWNSHIP NOTICE

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that the Lowell Township Planning Commission will hold a public hearing on:

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1989 at 8:00 P.M.

at the Lowell Township Hall, 2910 Alden Nash, SE, to consider two rezoning requests:

1. Michael Sherman's to rezone the property at 2838 Gulliford Drive, SE (41-20-15-100-016), 20.80 acres and

2. Wayne Delo's to rezone the property at 2880 Alden Nash, SE (41-20-14-100-026, 7.41 acres.

Both requests are to rezone Agricultural-2 land to Residential-1 land to allow for more splits to build dwellings.

The Township Planning Commission would not rezone one or even both of these parcels only as that would be spot zoning. If they recommend any rezoning it will be for an area and just how large an area to include will be the subject in question for this public hearing. Letters are to be sent, not only to those within 300 feet from the Sherman and the Delo properties as specified by the Zoning Ordinance, but also to the owners, per the latest tax roll, of all pieces that might be considered for rezoning.

The rezoning requests and the Lowell Township Zoning Ordinance and maps are available for public inspection at the Township Hall during regular office hours. Please call 897-7600 for further information.

RELAX

We'll make sure the worst is over.

One accident is enough, and the last thing you want to do is choose the wrong repair shop for your car.

The special technology required to repair today's cars could mean that your family's safety rides on your decision. Let us explain. To create a new generation of more fuel efficient automobiles, manufacturers world-wide have converted to "Unibody" construction. While these lighter, more complex new cars do save gas, advanced repair techniques and special equipment are necessary to restore your car to its "pre-accident" condition.

At Lowell Auto Body we have the equipment needed to repair your unibody car; a Car-O-Liner Unibody repair system with a sophisticated measuring system to locate and repair every millimeter of damage, and MIG welders for the new brittle High Strength Steel (HSS) now commonly found in unibody cars.

So remember, it is a very important decision, choose the shop with the technicians and equipment to repair your car properly.

Lowell soccer team falls to Sailors; but shuts out Rams of the year (4-1-2). The Sailors physical pressing offense overwhelmed the Red Arrow midfield. Lowell goalie Doug Sanford was injured early into the contest and though he finished the game, he was not at 100 percent according to Turkal.

Lowell 5, Rockford 0
Rockford had the misfortune of being Lowell's next opponent. The Rams, having played several Class A schools, were expected to give Lowell all it could handle.

Lowell's soccer team lost its first game of the year to South Christian, dropping its record to 5-1-2.

The Arrows adjusted their offense and brought freshman Josh Andrews up as a center striker to take some of the Ram defensive pressure off of Jason White, Lowell's left striker and leading scorer. The results saw the Rams give

Turkal's insight on O-K White's soccer teams

Soccer play in the O-K White Conference started this week. Lowell Coach John Turkal gives his insight as to how the league clubs will do. East Grand Rapids
The Pioneers have a senior dominated team which is state ranked and heavily favored to win the Conference. East is considered the best team in West Michigan along with defending champion Gull Lake. EGR carries only 22 players, because of its depth was able to cut returning seniors this year.

FAMILY FARE

Jason White
Jason White was first introduced to the game of soccer at the age of six by his father. "He taught us the basics (how to dribble and pass)," White says. Just as White has grown and improved, so has the game of soccer. "It's a good game because anything can happen," White said. "Everybody is involved. This is White's second year at the varsity level. He played one year on the junior varsity level and a number of years playing soccer with the YMCA program. "Youngsters that want to play soccer in high school should practice their dribbling (controlling the ball), passing and keep themselves in good shape." White explains. White and his teammates have kept themselves in

Northview
The Wildcat squad is on its third coach in three years and has been inconsistent. If Northview has a great day it can play with anyone, but their great days should be far apart.
Sparta
At the seventh and eighth-grade levels, the Spartans have the numbers for a tremendous future. 1989 is not the future and Sparta will struggle to be competitive in the O-K White.
Forest Hills Central
The huge squad of over 30 varsity players is picked along with the Arrows to fight it out for second in the O-K White. Although the Rangers have depth, FHC will rely on its first 15 for most of its play. The Rangers, like the Arrows, are young and can be spectacular in one game and down in another.
Zeeland
Zeeland is an unknown commodity in the conference. With two exchange students as strikers the Chix could be conference

Seven miscues lead Lowell gridders to 13-6 loss at Park

Christensen questions late "crack-back" block call

"I didn't see the play, but I was just glad to see that yellow flag over near Lowell's sidelines," said a relieved Wyoming Park Coach Rich Morse. "Lowell has beaten us on big plays before."

The Viking Head Coach had those comments about a game-saving penalty, following his team's 13-6 victory over the Red Arrows.

It was second and seven with a little more than five minutes to play when Lowell quarterback, Ryan Holtz, from his 23, connected with running back, Brett Knoop on a crossing pattern, which saw the sophomore use his blocking and turn the play into an apparent 77-yard Arrow touchdown.

However, a yellow flag that had "crack-back" block written all over it, brought the play back, snatching an apparent come-from-behind win from Lowell's grasp. "That was the ballgame," said a disappointed Lowell Coach, Phil Christensen. "I saw the play, and our player hit him above the waste. That was not a 'crack-back' block."

While Christensen was distraught with the call, he's also coached long enough to know a club cannot turn the ball over seven times, get controlled at the line of scrimmage for the better part of three quarters and go home with a victory.

"We made way too many turnovers. Wyoming Park is a good club and it took advantage of our mistakes," Christensen said.

That drive started on the Vikings' own 21 yard line. Two big pass plays in the seven play, 79-yard drive were key. On second and 15 from its 22-yard line, scrimmage. Park's QB, Ross Bush snuck it over from five-yards out, giving the Vikings a 7-6 lead. "Not too bad for someone who has been referred to as a fourth-string quarterback," Morse said.

Lowell had grabbed the early lead in the first quarter with 1:07 to play when Ryan Holtz on an option-play left scampered 72 yards down the left sidelines for a touchdown, giving Lowell a 6-0 lead. The extra point was missed.

"It was a defensive game, neither offense moved the ball very well," Morse said. "However we put an early second half drive together and then held on."

That drive started on the Vikings' own 21 yard line. Two big pass plays in the seven play, 79-yard drive were key. On second and 15 from its 22-yard line, Lowell's Brett Knoop looks for some running room in action against Wyoming Park Friday. The Vikings won the game 13-6.

Bush dropped back and hit Ryan Baker on a 39-yard pass in the right flats. The Park twosome were not finished. Three plays later, Bush connected with Baker again, this time on a 28-yard touchdown strike.

Of Lowell's six second-half possessions five ended in turnovers. The only drive that didn't end in a miscue was the final one. Holtz led all rushers with 73 yards rushing. Rich Dunkle was Park's leading rusher. He rumbled for 66 yards. "Coming in we wanted to stop Goggins," Morse said. Lowell's senior finished with 32 yards rushing. "Park always plays tough defense," Christensen said. Lowell, now 2-1 overall and 1-1 in the O-K White, does not have any time to lick its wounds. The Arrows go calling on East Grand Rapids this Friday, a 29-0 winner over Zeeland.

Seven Red Arrow turnovers played a significant role in Lowell's first loss of the season.

Red Arrow harriers sweep Wyoming Park

Kirsch, VanderWarf lead teams to showdown with East Grand Rapids

ence. Lowell will run against EGR next, in a meet that could decide the conference championship.

To run your best time while being pushed by a nearby competitor is expected - to run your best time while no one is within 200 yards of you is both gritty and not accomplished very often.

However, Lowell junior, Clay VanderWarf did just that in the Red Arrows' 15-50 forfeit win over Wyoming Park at an O-K White Conference meet at Johnson Park.

"It's not easy to push yourself when there's no competition pushing you," Lowell Coach Tom Harper said. "Clay ran the course in 17 minutes (personal best) and he was out by himself the entire way."

The Vikings, who only have a four-man team, must forfeit all dual meets. Their top runner was Chris Haase (3rd), who came off the course in 18:54.

Inbetween Vander Warf and Haase was Jason VanderWarf, stopping the clock at 18:30. Lowell's Andrew Patterson was fourth, taking the park land in 19 minutes. Teammate Tom Mull was fifth, coming home in 19:30 and David Stouffer was sixth overall, fifth Arrow to finish, covering the terrain in 19:44.

"It was a good team effort. We continue to show improvement and are looking forward to East Grand Rapids," Harper said.

Lowell's seventh and eighth runners were Wayne Haines (20:00) and James Chertos (20:14) respectively.

Wyoming Park's three runners finished in this order - Steve Quillan, seventh, 19:56; Jeremy Blok, 10th, 20:42; and Todd Peterson, 11th, 24:13.

Lowell is now 1-3 overall and 1-1 in the O-K White Conference.

Clay VanderWarf recorded his best time of the year (17:00) in a boys' cross country meet against the Vikings.

Karen Bussler digs for the finish in girls' cross country action against Wyoming Park. Lowell won the contest 26-30.

Red Arrow girls clobber Belding & edge Huskies

Tonya Stepek attempts to put a shot up and over her Redskin defender.

Lowell's girls' basketball team played two games this week against Belding and Forest Hills Northern. They were as different as night and day. The Belding game was a mismatch as Lowell rolled in a 61-13 victory. Later in the week the Huskies from Forest Hills Northern came calling. The Arrows had their number, 40-37 in a much more competitive match. Lowell finished the week at 3-2 with its O-K White Conference opener against Rogers (at home) Thursday night. Forest Hills Northern came into the contest undefeated and was averaging somewhere between 55-60 points a game. Lowell Coach Ken Akers didn't necessarily want his club to try to outscore the Huskies. Instead he stressed that they play tough defense. He also told the Arrows' leading scorer, Kim Marvin to defend FHN's leading scorer, Heather Merritt. She did, and Merritt never got out of the gate. Merritt and her teammates were blanked 9-0 after eight minutes of play.

Jennifer Murphy applies some stifling defense against Belding. Lowell's girls won the contest 61-13.

ence opener against Rogers (at home) Thursday night. Forest Hills Northern came into the contest undefeated and and increased its margin by 23 late in the third quarter. FHN, then, made its run as it closed within single digits. "I knew the Huskies were too good a club not to make run," Akers said. "I am very pleased with the victory, but I would have liked to have seen our girls put them away in the fourth quarter." He added he was excited with the play from Renee Nugent and sophomore guard, Angie Brown. "Nugent, along with Angie Arnett, is doing a good job filling in for Deb Adams. Her play inside has been super. Brown looked more comfortable out on the floor, cut down on her mistakes and made a positive contribution against the Huskies," Akers said. LOWELL 61, BELDING 13 Sometimes the best thing said about a game is that which is not said. That pretty much summarizes how Lowell Coach Ken Akers felt after his club manhandled Belding. Kim Marvin netted a game-

Newspapers and brown bags may again be recycled

by: Avis King
Litter & Ecology Chairperson
Showboat Garden Club

The long wait is over and we may again take newspapers and brown (grocery) bags only to our recycle station at 1335 W. Main St.

The Grand Rapids Press has increased its use of recycled newsprint and Nu Wool Insulation has agreed to accept up to 40 tons of newsprint each month from Recycle Unlimited.

Both of these sources have increased the market for recycle newspaper which greatly benefits our community. Over 250 tons of newsprint will be recycled monthly instead of being buried in area landfills or incinerated for energy at the County's Waste-to-Energy incinerators. The trees and fossil fuels used in production of paper from virgin wood fiber, will be conserved.

Recycling's future success as a waste management component is critically balanced upon the use of recycled products, not only by the public and private sectors, but by all residents of the county, state and nation.

We should applaud the Grand Rapids Press and Nu Wool Insulation's conceptual and financial commitment to recycling. All residents of the county and Western Michigan should support these recycling efforts by consistently participating in recycling programs and purchasing products. Look for this symbol on all recycled products.

A great big thank you goes out to all of the good recyclers who held their papers until this crisis could be taken care of. (A notice was placed in the Ledger and a sign was posted on the recycle station not to bring any more papers).

I don't know what to make of all those people who continued to pile the papers up all over the place. This is not recycling but making an unsightly mess of our recycle station.

If you wish to continue to bring your recycled items to the recycle station - please prepare them as has been explained before.

Remove and throw away all caps as they are not a recycled item. Wash jars clean and sort according to color. Wash tin cans clean, cut off top and bottom and flatten. (No rusted cans). Remove and throw away all caps on plastic jugs. Only water, milk, or cider jugs are to be recycled. Wash them clean, remove label and flatten. Please flatten as storage becomes a big problem. Only the jugs listed may be brought to the recycle station. NO OTHER PLASTIC JUGS!

Aluminum wrap and cans only. No other aluminum! All newspapers are to be put in grocery bags or tied in bundles. No loose papers, please. NO MAGAZINES!

These instructions have been printed so many times, but from all the trash that some people bring to the recycle station, they have to be printed again.

This is your recycle station and needs your help to keep it clean and looking neat.

PLEASE - PLEASE do your part. If you don't want to follow these instructions here or posted at the station, just let all your trash go to the landfill.

high 19 points, Erica Hackenbruch netted 10 and Jennifer Murphy added seven. Hackenbruch brought down 13 rebounds and sophomore Renee Nugent cleared the boards 11 times. Everybody scored for the hometown Arrows.

"Nugent is showing improvement all the time and her play around the basket has been outstanding," Akers said.

Lowell led 20-0 at the end of one and 34-5 at half.

Dumas, IU cornerback

Mike Dumas, a junior cornerback from Alto, and Lowell High School graduate, is a member of the 1989 Indiana University football team. Dumas a 6-0, 178-pounder will be playing for Bill Mallory, the 1987 Big Ten Coach of the Year, now in his sixth season with the Hoosiers.

IU, 8-3-1 last year and Liberty Bowl champions, opened its '89 campaign at Kentucky on Sept. 9 in Lexington, KY. IU's home opener was Sept. 16 against Missouri.

Minor injuries incurred in separate area crashes

Diane Jones-Knapp incurred a back injury after being unable to avoid Reinke's car.

Leslie Porter Jr. drove off the road and into a tree after he blacked out and hit a tree.

Minor injuries were incurred following two area accidents involving Lowell residents and a Greenville woman.

Leslie Porter Jr. 65, Lowell was eastbound on Cascade Road on Tuesday, Sept. 12 when he blacked out. Passenger, Marilyn Porter, 57, Lowell grabbed the wheel, pulling too much and steering the car into the ditch on the south side of the road where the car struck a tree. Julia Porter, 24, was also a passenger.

No other cars were involved in the accident.

All three received minor injuries and were transported to Butterworth Hospital by Life. The Kent County Sheriff's Department was also at the scene of the accident.

Lowell's Jill Reinke, 18, received minor facial cuts and a bruised hip when her vehicle was struck broadside at the corner of Parnell and Vergennes. Reinke stopped at the corner of Parnell, but failed to see a vehicle that was eastbound on Vergennes as she attempted to cross.

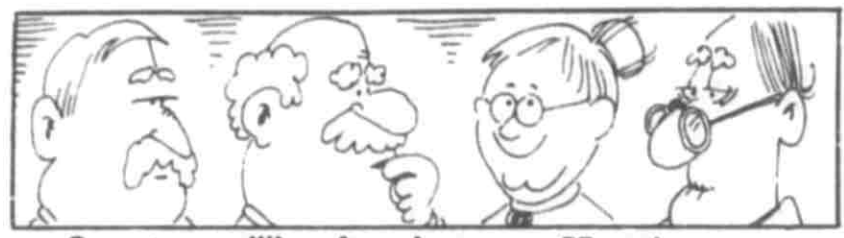

The eastbound vehicle was driven by Diane Jones-Knapp, 26 of Greenville. She complained of back pain. Both drivers were taken to Blodgett Hospital by Rockford/Lowell Ambulance.

Jill Reinke, Lowell, failed to see an oncoming car on Vergennes, before crossing at the Parnell/Vergennes intersection.

In the year 1880 the population of the United States was 50,155,783.

Fun Street may get the attention its residents have longed for

The "winding" road gets the improvements.

That may be stretching the use of adages and puns a little bit, but in case of Fun Street residents and their battle to have road improvements made, the "old saw" seems to have worked.

Lowell City Manager David Pasquale, Vergennes Township Supervisor Jim Cook and the Kent County Road Commission met at the site (Fun Street and Grindle) Wednesday, Sept. 13 to look over the situation and to see what improvements need to be made. An immediate improvement, according to Pasquale, should take place the week of 20-26 when a crossing sign warning should be put up on Grindle, before the Fun Street intersection.

Fun Street residents, impartial Larry Boyink and John VanderWilp, have taken their road improvement plea to the Lowell City Council on numerous occasions within the last year.

Nine residents currently live on Fun Street, which closely resembles a wagon trail out of the "Old West."

Boyink said if had to pick one improvement, it would be to have the road widened so that cars going in the opposite directions can pass one another safely.

"I'd like to see something done with the intersection at Grindle and Fun Street. That's more dangerous than the road itself," VanderWilp explained. He added that he would also like to see the sight distance improved so that cars can stop safely and avoid on-coming traffic if necessary.

Boyink and VanderWilp both believed that road improvements on Fun Street were to take place simultaneously with the work on the Hudson Street bridge. "Improvements for both streets were discussed at a Council meeting since the cost is divided up with the county. However, plans were never made to have both streets' improvements done at the same time," Pasquale said. "Both the City and Vergennes Township have signed a work order for engineering work to be completed. This will indicate what work is necessary and the costs involved. It will tell us what we will get for our money," Pasquale said.

The cost of the improvements will be divided among the County, the City of Lowell and Vergennes Township. According to Cook, the County will pay for 45 percent of the costs while the Township and City will share 55 percent of the local expense.

Fun Street's condition currently hinders the residents' mail and garbage service. "Lowell's mail service told us that we would have to put up boxes at the end of the road because of its condition. Come winter time, we also have to take our garbage to the end of the road. I'm a city resident, pay city taxes but don't get all the full benefits," VanderWilp says.

"If the mail and garbage services refuse to come down the road, what happens if there is a house fire during the winter?."

While neither VanderWilp nor Boyink is happy with some of the City services, they had glowing remarks for Lowell Light and Power. "It's one of the best things the City has going for it. It has done an excellent job servicing the residents out here."

Many people wonder why anyone would move out there respond by Sept. 28.

The Club held its annual meeting and election on Saturday, followed by a chicken barbeque with Ed Anible doing a masterful job of cooking the chickens.

New officers elected for 1989-90 are Ed Marshall, president; Jim Puchalski, vice-president; Judi Canfield, secretary; Brad Potter, treasurer; Don Souser, one year trustee; Jerry Canfield, two year trustee and Jack Condon, three year trustee.

The annual meeting and convention of Michigan Snowmobile Council is to be held at the Radisson Hotel in Lansing on Oct. 20, 21 and 22. The event will include a Snow Show on Oct. 21 with all the latest in snowmobiles, trailers, clothing, etc. being displayed for the enjoyment of those attending. It's a nice drive to Lansing so plan to attend.

The Work-Bee at the Club is planned for all day Saturday, Sept. 30, so bring your rake, mop, shovel or whatever - but most important, your willing body as lots of help is needed.

Winners at the picnic were Emily Zengri, Ginny Souser, Brad Potter, Jerry Canfield, Ed Anible and Carrie Scholten.

Remember to call if you plan to come to the Oct. 7 Open House. 897-6509.

with the road condition being so bad. "It's like anything, you don't know everything until you've been in the area a while," VanderWilp said. Well it's been a while, but future improvements look inevitable.

Do you pull out or don't you is the question Fun Street residents have been contemplating for quite some time. Pull forward and then decide - you say. That's okay, but then your front end is on Grindle Street. Recent talk between the county, the City and Vergennes Township may solve this long-standing problem.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ON INCREASING PROPERTY TAXES

The Township Board of the Township of Lowell will hold a public hearing on a proposed increase of .0396 mills in the operating tax millage rate to be levied in 1989.

The hearing will be held on Wednesday, October 27, 1989 at 8 o'clock in the p.m. at Lowell Township Hall, 2910 Alden Nash, SE.

If adopted, the proposed additional millage will increase operating revenues from ad valorem property taxes 4.1% over such revenues generated by levies permitted without holding a hearing.

The taxing unit publishing this notice, and identified below, has complete authority to establish the number of mills to be levied from within its authorized millage rate.

This notice is published by:

WINDSHIELD REPAIR SERVICE
AS LOW AS 2499
It's clearly worthwhile:

- Completely restores visibility
- Prevents damage from spreading
- Saves the cost of replacing the windshield
- Repairs most common small breaks as shown

It only takes about 30 minutes, and it will save you the expense of replacing the entire windshield. Some insurance companies will waive the deductible for windshield repairs. See your insurance agent for details.
