POLICE WARN RESIDENTS OF STATEWIDE SCAM

The Lowell City Police Chief, Barry Emmons, notified the Ledger Monday of a statewide or possibly nationwide telephone scam now going on in the area.

A caller will ask if you have any friends on the Lowell Police Force. Then will tell you about a film or other fundraiser going on for the Lowell Police Department, soliciting donations from $50 to $500. They will also tell you that a police officer will not pick up the money, but a representative of the Department will pick it up.

Chief Emmons advises that the Lowell Police Department is not at this time running any fundraisers or like activities. If you are contacted by these people, call the Lowell Police Department immediately at 897-7123.

be able to reverse the decision to discontinue a six-year Lowell Chamber of Commerce tradition.

Many have questioned: "Where are the lights" and " Why aren't the trees lit along Main Street?"

The extension cords for the lights have been taken down and the lights will not be put

Jim Pfaller, Chamber of Commerce President adds, "It was going to cost $500 to repair and replace many of the sets of lights. The City's lease for the trees is in its last year and we have no guarantee the trees will be around next year."

Pfaller added that of the 60-plus sets of lights only eight still work. "It's the wind that has caused the damage. The Chamber spent $300 last year to repair lights," he says.

Former Chamber President Denny Thomet adds that if the City decides to keep the trees up along Main Street the Chamber would consider putting the lights back up. The lease for the trees is Duane Lambert, of Lambert Variety, added a third reason as to why the lights are not being put up. "Lowell Light and Power has had many extra projects this year. The local power company has been very busy. Although, I'm sure Lowell Light and Power would do it if asked."

He continues, "Each year

Make It a Happy Holiday Season.

Enjoy decorating for the holidays with family and friends and keep it a safe holiday season by following these sensible and important fire safety tips.

- Use only Christmas tree lights that carry the UL (Underwriters' Laboratories) label. They have been tested for safety. Also, in outdoor displays, use only lights that are specifically designed for outside use.
- Carefully check Christmas light cords for frayed wires. If they are damaged, discard them. They are too difficult to fix and are not worth repairing.
- Avoid overloading electrical circuits by carefully adding up the wattage of all the bulbs or strings of lights. Do not exceed 1,500 watts per outlet.
- · Cut at least two inches off the bottom of a fresh Christmas tree before placing it in a stand to enhance water absorbency. Check the water level daily and fill with fresh water as needed.

- Place your Christmas tree away from fireplaces, radiators, televisions and other heat sources that can dry a tree out and create a potential fire hazard.
- Keep a reliable, filled fire extinguisher in your home. Know where it is and instruct everyone on how to use it.
- Take down and throw away your Christmas tree immediately after the holiday season before it becomes dry and a serious fire hazard.

Enjoy Christmas to the fullest, knowing you have been cautious in preparing for it! Have a very merry and safe Christmas season.

Judging by the number of patients we have been seeing in the office with acute gastrointestinal complaints, the flu season is back in force. One of the most common problems associated with the flu is abdominal cramping, nausea and diarrhea. Today we are going to discuss home therapy of the same location on Riverdiagrhea in the adult population. Many people reach for the Kaopectate® or Pepto-Bismal® to stop the diarrhea, but many physicians feel that this may not be necessary as most episodes of diarrhea associated with the flu are self-limited.

TREATMENT OF ACUTE DIARRHEA

Diarrhea leads to a loss of important electrolytes and neared the completion of its water from the body. Therefore, it is important to replace both fluids and electrolyes in order to prevent dehydration. Even in the presence of vomiting you should try to take small sips of fluids. The goal is to try to take in two to three quarts of fluids per day. Many physicians recommend Gatorade® or other noncaffeinated soft drinks. Soft drinks shald not be of the diet variety. Another long time favorite is chicken broth without fat. Another alternative is the fruit juices such as lemonade, fruit punch and possibly orange juice. Apple juice and prune juice should be avoided when treating acute diarrhea.

A homemade oral rehydration fluid can be made by following this recipe:

Combine: I quart water 3/4 teaspoon salt substitute ½ teaspoon baking soda

3 tablespoons white corn syrup [Karo®] 1 packet unsweetened powdered drink mix

If the diarrhea persists for several days, or if cramping is severe, you should probably see your physician. Other signs which may indicate diarrhea may be due to something other than the flu include persistant high temperature, per-vomiting, or blood in the stool.

As diarrhea and nausea decrease you can begin solid foods. These should be easily digestable foods such as bananas, rice, toast, soda crackers and chicken. You should comnue to avoid high fat foods and dairy products during the early days of recuperation.

Enjoy a terrific holiday season filled with laughter and good spirits.

If you're a Catholic who has been away from the Church, think about coming home for Christmas.

During the holiday season we recall the good times of our lives...those we've had, and those we miss. If you've thought about how you miss the Church, this could be a Christmas to remember for a long time.

Christmas is a time for healing, so we want to heal any hurts we may have caused you. We want to tell you we're sorry for not seeing...not hearing... not caring enough.

With you in mind, we've planned two Wednesday night sessions. We'll talk about the joys and pains you've been through since we've been apart. Maybe we'll find a way to bring us together again.

Know this for sure: We miss you, and we love you!

Merry Christmas, All of Us at Holy Family

A. 961 LINCOLN LAKE (SOUTHEAST CORNER OF LIN-COLN LAKE AND HUNT) - CHRIS CHILDS SETBACK VARI-ANCE FOR DETACHED GARAGE - SET PUBLIC HEARING (12/4). Chris Childs had petitioned for a setback variance so that he could construct a detached garage closer than the required 60 feet to the road right-of-way. The garage would be 44 feet from Lincoln Lake and 23 feet 5 inches from Hunt Street. Mr. Childs had previously stated that the configuration of the lot makes it difficult to comply with the ordinance provi-

Item No. 2. LOWELL AREA SCHOOLS - COLLECTION OF SUMMER TAXES FOR 1990. City Manager Pasquale stated that the City has had a continuing resolution with the Lowell Area Schools for collecting the school's property taxes at no fee. In lieu of this, the City has been able to keep the interest earned during bank deposit before distributing these monies

Councilmember Thompson questioned if the Townships were charging a collection fee. City Manager Pasquale replied that he did not know if the Townships charge a collection fee, but he would check into this.

The consensus of the Council was to defer this matter until

Item No. 3. SERNE-ODELL-OLIN HANGAR LEASE. The hangar owned by Douglas Olin, James Serne and Roger Odell has a lease agreement with the City which expired December 4. There were two options to consider: (1) to extend the lease another ten years, (2) have the City buy out based YEA: Councilmembers Fonger, Thompson, Hodges and on one-half the appraised value (Messrs. Olin, Serne and Odell have the control on whether the buy out proposal is used), or (3) purchase the hangar by granting rent-free agreements to the three for twelve years.

> The rent-free option, after consulting the City Attorney, would be limited to ten years but could include a two year option. Also, the three lessees could be subject to property taxes. This was rejected along with the straight buy out provision by the lessees. Thus, an extension as stated in the agreement would be implemented.

IT WAS MOVED by Hodges and seconded by Thompson to extend the hangar lease for Douglas Olin, James Serne and Roger Odell for another ten years to December 4, 1999.

 The City has $573,899 balance in its General Fund. This amount will be reduced because of payments for the new Fire Station.

 A large amount of text was taken because of federal requirements involved with the Wastewater Treatment Plant construction.

- It was mentioned that this is the first year the Lowell Cable TV has made a profit.

 Brief discussion was held concerning Light and Power's use of their computer system as well as billings.

In their closing comments it was stated that City Treasurer Judy Noonon has been doing an outstanding job on the finanapproved the site plan contingent upon the granting of the cial affairs of the City and the City Manager David Pasquale and Deputy City Clerk Betty Morlock are doing a good job on the administrative affairs.

City Manager Pasquale pointed out that the Audit has shown a loan receivable to the Showboat Corporation of $13,303.31 for the purchase of bleachers and related equipment in 1973. This needs to be resolved. The Council felt that the Showboat Corporation should have a recommendation regarding the loan. Pasquale was asked to communicate this to the Corpo-

Lowell upended by Vikings in O.T. 69-66 Holtz tallies 26, Adams 17 in league defeat

It seemed simple enough. Lowell had the ball, and was up nine, 58-49, on the road against O-K White foe Wyoming Park. Just 3:39 stood between the Red Arrows and its first boys' basketball victory of the season.

The simple became complicated. A nine-point lead evaporated into a 60-60 tie after four quarters. The Vikings' Derek Schmidt used the three-minute overtime to score eight of his game-high 26 and led Wyoming Park to a 69-66 overtime win.

"I'm pleased with our play. We're competitive now when we take the floor," Lowell Coach Mark Thomas said.

A year ago, many of the Red Arrow starters were not in many close games late with a victory within their grasp. Not having much experience in that type of tight conditions, hurt Lowell down the stretch against the Vikings.

POLICE WARN OF SCAM IN AREA

The Lowell City Police are alerting all area residents of a statewide, possibly nationwide scam.

A caller is apparently asking you, as friends of the Lowell Police Department, for donations to fund some worthwhile fundraiser for the department. The caller will tell the resident that a police officer will not pick up your money, but a representative of the department will.

The Lowell Police Department does not presently have any fundraisers or like activity underway. If you are contacted by these people, call the Lowell Police Department immediately at 897-7123.

Elementary students shop for Christmas

This year once again the students at Alto Elementary were given the opportunity to purchase gifts for their family at the P.T.C. sponsored Santa's Shop. The event was held Dec. 4-8. Co-chairs for the event, Ellen Lietzke Kolleen Scheid, said that the "elves" shopped for good buys all year at store sales and various wholesale houses. Handmade and new donated items were also sold.

The Alto P.T.C. hopes that the Santa's Shop provides students with the chance to choose gifts, to make alternate choices when supplies run out, and to make wise money decisions, all without requiring Mom or Dad to take them out shopping

16-year-old LHS student dies in Sunday morning accident on 36th Street

Thomas Kazen, 16, of 302 then burst into flames. Roberta Jayne here in Lowell was killed tragically in a onecar accident early Sunday morning (2 a.m.) when the car he was driving burst into flames as it left the road and struck a trree.

According to the Kent County Sheriff's Department report Kazen was westbound on 36th Street when he failed to negotiate a curve at the 8600 block. Losing control. Kazen's car went off the road and struck a tree. The vehicle

The junior at Lowell High School was driving a 1984 Chevy Camaro. According to the Kent County Sheriff's report there were no signs of alcohol being involved. Kazen was on his way to his mother's house after watching a movie at a friend's house, Lowell High School Principal Jim DeWeerd said.

"I think it's important to squelch rumors that follow tragic accidents like this," De Weerd said. "There was no sign of alcohol being involved."

The mood at Lowell High School on Monday morning was a somber one. Many students walked the halls trying to come to grips with what happened. "I held a meeting with our staff an hour prior to school starting to discuss how to deal with this tragedy," DeWeerd said. "We also had counselors (members of our Crisis Response Team) available throughout the day for students to talk to."
