Attwood employees do some spring cleaning Volunteers clean up Riverside trash

It's fair to say that Attwood Corporation has excellent housekeeping habits for a manufacturing firm of their size. A view of the large plant from the bluffs across the Flat River reveals neatly mowed lawns, attractive landscaping and well-maintained buildings. There is seldom any debris in the form of old pallets, barrels or dumpsters. If such material accumulates it is quickly removed.

The Lowell Ledger

The view from Attwood's side of the river is not neccesarily so pleasant. Over the years, irresponsible people have heaved all sorts of trash over the steep bank off Riverside Dr. The sight of trash like old appliances and mattresses littering the otherwise beautiful riverbank stirred Attwood employees Jan Jasinski and and Dan Thomas into organizing a clean-up effort. Last Saturday Jasinski and Thomas, along with fellow employees Tom Powell, Wayne Carson, Roger Kimble, John Hollander, Mike Kettlehut, Bud Harrington, Don Mitchell and Brian Peterson tackled the Herculean task of dragging the unsightly trash up the steep riverbank. Old lawn mowers were hauled up along with bed springs, toys, tires and even a wallet with one dollar still in it. The trash was placed in a large dumpster provided by Burch Disposal of 630 S. Division in Grand Rapids. The dumpster was soon hauled away and the once scarred riverbank was returned to a more attractive place due to the volunteer efforts of the Attwood employees. A tip of the hat goes out to them for helping make our community a better place.

MeadowBrook is a 100-room tudor mansion and the former home of Alfred and Matilda (Dodge) Wilson. This mansion and surrounding gardens serve as the cultural and conference center of Oakland University.

The cost of the trip is $44.50 and the reservation deadline is May 1. Call Marge at 897-8434 to make your reservations.

LIONS CLUB WHITE CANE WEEK

The Alto Lions Club will be at area businesses this weekend collecting donations in observance of White Cane Week. All proceeds go to the Lions Club's programs to aid the sight-impaired.

ACTS FOR TALENT SEARCH SOUGHT

PARTY COMMITTEE TO MEET ON MONDAYS

The Parents of the LHS Seniors planning the All-Night Party will meet every Monday night in May to work on plans and decorations for the May 24 event.

Parents who can help should come to the high school, Room A-1 at 7 p.m. Students who have reservations will be receiving information before the party. Parents who have questions about reservations or other details, can come to the Monday night meetings or call Carol Briggs during the day at 897-8415 (Central Office).

PAINTERS NEEDED FOR SHOWBOAT

The Showboat Corporation and the Lowell Jaycees are asking for volunteers to come and help paint and clean up the Lowell Showboat.

There will be a work detail this Saturday, May 4 at 9:30 a.m. Bring brushes and rollers. Come on out and help!

CLASS OF 1976 SEARCHING FOR CLASSMATES

The Lowell High School Class of 1976 is looking for these classmates: Martha Beach Koole, Bill Biers, Dave Brown, Jan Chapman, Carol Chriss, Dave Franklin, Barb Nelson Ferri, Joy Singh, Jean Smith Whitsel.

Class reunion is July 13 at Deer Run Golf Club. Any information call, Carol at 897-5506 or Chris, 897-8901.

Attwood employees and other volunteers pitched in Saturday morning to clean up a dump site on the west bank of the Flat River. The trash was visible from the Attwood plant on the east bank. Helping out were Wayne Carson, Dan Thomas, Roger Kimble, John Hollander, Bud Harrington, Mike Kettlehut, Jon Jasinski, an unidentified woman, Brian Petersen (an unidentified youngster) Don Mitchell and Tom Powell (taking the photo).

Dan Thomas, B-ian Petersen (barely visible with hat) and Jon Jasinski toss Attwood Personnel Director Tom Powell into the dumpster during the Saturday morning clean-up effort.

RINGING IN THE EARS

Tinnitus is the medical term used to describe a ringing or buzzing noise in the ear. This is a frequent complaint and it is often difficult to determine a specific cause. Tinnitus can present as a ringing, buzzing, blowing, pulsating or humming sound in either ear. Intensity of the sound can vary and it may be continuous or intermittent. Patients experiencing tinnitus can become very annoyed with this dif. ficult problem.

It is believed that damage to the small hair cells in the inner ear is the underlying cause of tinnitus. These damaged cells send impulses to the brain which are interpreted as sound

Tinnitus can be short or long term. Almost everyone has experienced tinnitus at one time or another. A few examples of short term tinnitus include the noise experienced in the ears after a loud concert or ringing in the ears due to a severe cold. Aspirin in high doses is a frequent cause of tinnitus. Other medications which may cause tinnitus are decongestants; nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory agents. Products containing caffeine or quinine have also been implicated as causative agents.

In some cases, long term exposure to loud noises damages the hair cells leading to chronic tinnitus. Using power tools or loud machinery without protection can cause tinnitus as well as hearing loss.

Your doctor will usually perform a complete ear exam if you are complaining of tinnitus to rule out serious causes. Michael D. #### Dear Mr. Brown:

We read, with interest, your March 27 article about Thor.

At the risk of understating the facts, it appears that you have mixed feelings about this family companion. Obviously Thor cares deeply for you. He apparently finds your company much more desireable than you find his. He begs for your attention in the only way he knows -- playing catch. His desire to please you is so strong that he'd even go through childproof gates to bring the ball you requested. When you're gone he misses you and gets bored, and you know the old adage, idle hands, in Thor's case paws, are the devil's tools.

Not everyone knows how to appreciate and channel such enthusiasm and devotion. Perhaps all that is needed is a little obedience training for you and Thor. The Humane Society is offering obedience classes for a mere $15.00 per 8 week course. The next class begins Thursday, July 11th at 7 p.m. We invite you and Thor to come and learn how to fully appreciate each other.

Sincerely

Sandra L. Carlton Administrative Assistant THE HUMANE SOCIETY

As you can see, my list of column candidates has boiled down to me, myself and I. It's no secret that I do enough Perhaps your sports reporbumbling and bungling in a week's time to have plenty of ter doesn't think girls' golf is things to pick on myself about. But seriously folks, do you a sport??? Let him go out and really want read about me every week? I didn't think so. To try to do what these girls are Gamma chapter of Pi Kappa heck with it. I'm going to throw caution to the wind. Anybody and everything is fair game from now on! Look out Terese! Look out kids! Look out friends, neighbors, employboys' golf coverage last at the college. The 14 memees, Hoosiers, etc.! I can hardly wait . . . a fresh list of fall victims! Why, I might even go so far as to mention . . . "Vice Grips" again. Lowell

About a month ago I wrote about "Thor", our big, wild yellow Labrador retriever. "Thor stories", I called them, I told about how he had ruined my VCR. I told about how he had gnawed our woodwork, slept on couches, chewed a phone jack to pieces, shed dog hair all over my car and some of his other less than desireable traits. I told of how I have repeatedly resisted the urge to shoot the dog. I wouldn't necessarily be putting him out of his misery, but my level of suffering would decrease dramatically.

Anyway, it was a pretty typical column for me. I took the basic facts then embellished, exaggerated, twisted and forged them into what I think is humorous. I have run into plenty of trouble over the past fifteen years with this practice. My wife just about threw me out when, in a column about our inefficient water heater, I happened to mention that the hot water shortage was worse than usual on the day she shaved her legs. My kids have grown to the age where they are pretty touchy about what I say about them in this space, so I more or less leave them alone. I learned a long time ago that it's best to leave friends (if you want to keep them), relatives, employees and customers out of this space. I even got in trouble with a bunch of Hoosiers over that Indiana piece a couple weeks ago.

Inanimate objects aren't even fair game. I have received nasty letters from patent attorneys over my misuse of "Frisbee", "Styrofoam" and even "Vice Grips". They're all afraid their precious patented trade names will fall into general usage like poor old linoleum did. So, that left Thor and myself on my list of possible column material, and after you read the following letter, you'll probably agree with me that Thor ought to be scratched off the list as well.

I don't have all of the scores nor are they necessarilv in the right order since I was looking to the Ledger each week for coverage instead of the Grand Rapids Press where i apparently should have been looking instead

Come on .. this is a Lowel sports, why do I have to get the info in the GR Press?? These girls and their coach deserve some recognition even if they never win another match this year. Who cares about stuff growing in the Ledger refrigerator when you continually leave out some other areas each week. I am not even asking for a big write-up like there is for softball, track, baseball, tennis, etc. Just putting the scores in each week would at least acknowledge that there sorority at Hope is such a thing as a girls' golf

Editor's Note:

No excuses, and we apologize. You will find an update of girls' golf scores in this issue, and if Monday's match hadn't been cancelled due to weather you would have found some photos as well. Golf coach Rick White left a synopsis of scores in our sports reporter's high school mailbox last week. The trouble was. Thad Kraus, our reporter, was on vacation and we didn't know he even had a mailbox at the high school. Thad is back now, and with motivation provided by both your letter and yours truly. I'm sure you can expect to see increased coverage of girls' golf.

As a footnote to this issue. John Crissman time to help them when they I will say we are stretched pretty thin in our editorial department. While Thad was gone the spring sport coaches were extremely helpful in getting information to us so that last week's games, meets and matches wouldn't be overlooked. But, even with Thad here he is pretty much on his own to cover not just the high school sports, but all the other news of the communi ty. I help out when I can, but it's minimal at best.

So, with that in mind would again like to invite interested parents and stùdents to help out in gathering information for publication. We have easy to use cameras loaded with black and white film we can loan out to someone attending an event we can't get to. For nstance, L.H.S. student Carrie Symko did a nice job with our little Pentax at a track meet last week. Some of her photos appear in this issue.

So again, no excuses, but we are stretched a little thin. Any help you can offer in bettering our sports coverage would be greatly appreciated.

According to Pacific Intercultural Exchange (P.I.E.) Area Coordinator, Patricia Blundy, the students are all between the ages of 15 and 18 years, have their own spending money, are fully insured and are anxious to share their cultural experiences with their new American families. P.I.E.'s academic homestays range in length from one semester to a full academic year, where the students attend local high schools.

P.I.E. representatives match students with host families by finding common and lifestyles interests through an informal in-home meeting<sub>16</sub> Prospective host families are able to review student applications and select the "perfect match". As there are no "typical" host families, P.I.E. can fit a student into just about any situation, whether it be a single parent, a childless couple, a retired couple or a large fam-
