Showboat Talent Search reduced to fabulous 15

There were 85 acts that paraded before talent search judges on Friday and Saturday.

For nearly three hours on Friday and Saturday some of West Michigan's elite amateur talent danced and sang and played their way onto the 1992 Lowell Showboat June 18, 19, and 20.

"I think it's the best quality of amateur talent that we've had try out for the Lowell Showboat," Talent Search Chairman, Karen Hample said. "We had fewer number of acts try out, but the quality was great. There were many quality acts that were left out."

There were 85 acts judged over the two nights. Of those 85, 15 were selected to perform on the Lowell Showboat.

Judges for the two nights of talent search were Ginny Beyer, David Davis, Ray Quada, Sylvia Taylor, Dale Triplett and the alternate was Beverly Quada.

Performing Thursday night on the Showboat with The Lettermen will be:

Hung Jury!

The Lowell City Council was unable to give its approval on Lowell Township's proposed water system project, despite the recommendation of the City manager and the City engineer.

A proposed water system project which was substantially scaled down by the Township and presented to the City in an effort to reach an agreement in concept, and to provide Lowell Township with water service was considered by the City and Lowell Township Monday night.

The water system project was approved and recommended by City engineer, Tim McNamara, City Manager Dave Pasquale, Lowell Township Supervisor, John Timpson and the Lowell Township Board, but the Lowell City Council did not see things so clearly, as it asked that it be able to go over the proposed system some more.

The Council was troubled by the city resident increase in the ready-to-serve rate. The budget calls for the rate to go up from $8.50 to $9.50 without a water project. With the proposed system it would inflate to $13.50 per month for city water users. Add to that the average household user rate and the typical resident would pay $22.38 a month. While the typical Township resident would pay $28.18 a month.

"It would be much more expensive for the City users to make these improvements on their own or with the school, than it is with the calculated rates from the Township," said the Fishbeck, Thompson, Carr and Huber engineer (McNamara). "However, unless the Township project is feasible, the City may soon or ultimately be faced with the higher costs of doing the project with the Township. Even if the City allocated the same cost to the school that the Township proposes, the cost to the City users would still be more than with the Township."

The scaling down of the project would include foregoing the M-21 project plan; the demand for Township water would be reduced from 54 million gallons a year to 30 million a year, and a smaller tank in the Township would be planned; and the tank would provide fire protection to the northwest high pressure district of the City.

For the City it means the Main Street project would be eliminated; the estimated cost of the booster pumping station reduced since the Township will have elevated storage; and much of the proposed piping within the City will be reduced to 12-inch as a result of the smaller piping demand in the Township.

"No, I'm not disappointed that the Council didn't approve the proposal concept. It was the first time they have had a chance look at it. They want time to discuss it amongst themselves and then make a recommendation to the Township," Pasquale said.

While Pasquale wasn't disappointed, Timpson and Lowell Superintendent Fritz Esch were.

"I hope the City's analyzing doesn't get the project to where it's not affordable. Then it won't have any participation from the Township," Timpson said. "The Township is not going to fall off the end of a bridge to get water. It has other avenues. However, it believes this avenue is the best one."

Timpson said the Township Board has no concerns with the concept proposal. "I feel the Township has negotiated in good faith. I believe the proposal on the table is fair. In order to have any deal you must have a willing buyer and a willing seller. There is a willing buyer, but after tonight I'm not sure there is a willing seller."

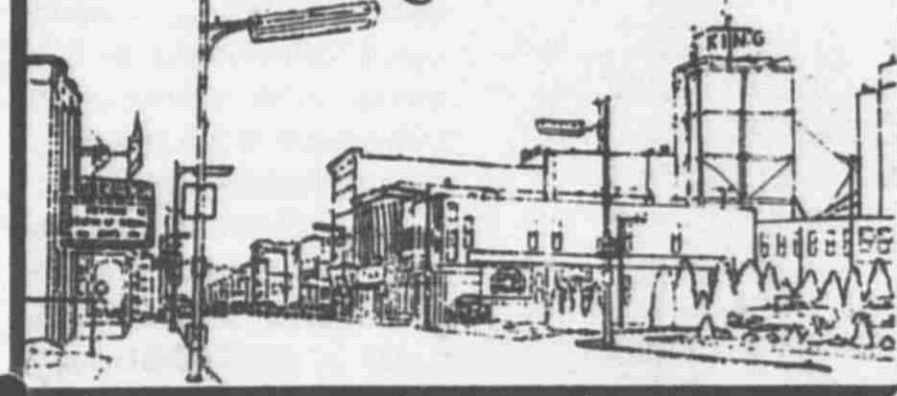

Esch who sat in on the meeting said he was disappointed with the Council's decision, especially since it was recommended for approval by Pasquale and McNamara.

"I'm disappointed it did not gain the Council's approval. The longer the delay the further it shoves back the new high school."

Thompson was concerned that the benefits of the project to the City have decreased since the M-21 project has been removed from the proposal. While the Township will benefit from value of Township property increasing and thus enhancing development possibilities and adding to the Township's tax base.

"Is it possible for the City to get by for awhile without the improvements?" Thompson asked. McNamara said yes, but some time down the road the improvements will have to be made. Mayor Jim Maatman added that "The cost will be worst 10 years from now."

Homespun Devotions

By Pauline Spray

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven (Matthew 5:16).

Headlights on a car are a must if one travels on the highways after nightfall. They light up the way so the driver can see where he is going and avoid any obstructions in his path. It is an extremely dangerous thing to be caught out on the road after dark without them.

Taillights on a car are equally important. They keep the other vehicles on the highway from colliding with us from behind. Without them, we not only endanger ourselves, but the oncoming travelers, as well.

Christians, we have a duty. We have been commissioned to let our light shine before men that all may see our good works and thereby glorify the Father which is in heaven. We are urged to be true lights in a darkened world. By living consistent Christian lives, we can avoid being stumbling blocks to others. Spiritual laxity on the part of any one of us may cause another harm, but setting the right example will guide others to the right. We can be blessings in this world, providing we "keep the lights turned on."

Prayer: O Lord, make me a blessing to all I meet. May my life always ring true. May I set the right example for others to follow. Grant that my light will shine through my actions, attitudes, and words. Amen.

I do not ask for mighty words
To leave the crowd impressed,
But grant my life may ring so true,
My neighbor may be blessed.

cozy corner by Roger Brown

We've all seen the sign posted in the service areas of auto dealerships. No, not the one that says, "You want it when?!" above the little cartoon guys rolling on the floor holding their guts with laughter. I'm talking about the serious sign. The one regarding labor rates. It's stated something to the effect of, "Labor... $40.00 per hour. If you watch... $80.00 per hour. If you help... $160.00 per hour."

You may not take this sign seriously. If not, then you're probably a lot like me. That is, you don't actually do anything for your paycheck. Oh sure, we work all right, we just don't do anything very tangible. If I'm asked what I do for a living I always have a little difficulty with my answer. I don't lie very well, so rocket scientist is out. I have to tell the truth and say I sell advertising. Boy, talk about intangible. You never know if people are actually going to read these ads, or wrap their garbage in them. No matter, it's my job to sell 'em anyway. And, I have to continually make these sales despite my handicap. What handicap, you say? Like I said, I don't lie very well. Nuff said!

I had a guy try to tell me that sales is very important. I scoffed. He remained adamant in his conviction and went on to say sales is the oldest profession in the world. Before I could say anything he said, "I know what you're thinking, but she never could have begun her business without first making the 'sale'". I guess he's got a point there.

There are a lot of us in the same boat. We shuffle paper, manage money, supervise people, advise, consult, sell, teach, serve, heal, etc. We'll do anything for a buck, except actually work. Auto mechanics work. They take a car with a blown engine, fix it and put it back on the road. That's tangible. Construction workers build tangible stuff from brick, and steel and wood. Farmers grow stuff for us to eat. These people actually do something, and they don't much care for those of us who don't. That's the reason auto mechanics post that sign in their shops.

I know a little bit about this because I have been in the printing trade all my life, and I classify a printer as someone who actually works for a living. The process of getting ink on paper is very tangible work. My problem is I was never very good at it, so I gravitated to something intangible. In fact, I'm not only not very good at printing, I'm not even welcome in my own back shop. The pressmen say I emit some negative aura, or bad vibes, or something, that makes their presses misfeed, folder jam up and all sorts of other bad stuff. So, like the sign says, people doing real work don't even want us outsiders even watching.

The real problem of course, is when those like us try to do real work. Can you imagine, for example, buying a product that was built when the workers were on strike and the management was manning the assembly line? I can picture a Ford Taurus coming off the line looking mostly like a Hotpoint refrigerator.

All of this brings me to an incident that occurred a couple of Fridays ago. Because of some unusual circumstances I was pressed into service developing the negatives for the Buyers Guide issue we were putting to bed. Things were actually going pretty well. I had the negs developed, fixed, rinsed and was feeding them through the dryer. I had the door open and the room was awash in light when a friend of mine stopped by for a chat. I should have sensed trouble. This guy is an airline pilot and therefore is one of us. That is, he doesn't do anything tangible either.

Sure enough, as I had my back to him while feeding a negative into the dryer, I heard him ask, "What do you keep in here Brownie?" To my horror, I turned to see him standing with the lid up on a $200.00 box of film! I closed the lid, and left the problem for the guys who do the real work around here to figure out on Monday morning. That's how those like us operate, and that's why the other guys don't want us around their stuff.

Like I said, my friend is an airline pilot. So, if you're on a flight sometime and see a big guy matching my description sauntering toward the cockpit, do yourself a favor. Hitch up your seatbelt and give the emergency procedures card a quick once-over.

A NEW TEST FOR DETECTION OF PROSTATE CANCER

Prostate Cancer is an extremely common cancer affecting older men. Approximately 132,000 cases of prostate cancer will be detected this year alone! There is no doubt that productive active men will die from this disease.

The time honored means of detecting prostate cancer has been to perform a digital rectal examination during a physical exam. Most men view this as a rather unpleasant but necessary procedure. Today a newer test can be performed by taking a blood specimen and testing for the amount of prostate specific antigen (PSA). PSA is a very useful tumor marker available for the diagnosis of prostate cancer. Prostate specific antigen is a protein produced by the prostate gland and released into the blood stream. In men with prostate cancer or other disease states of the prostate, a higher than normal amount of PSA will be found and released into the blood stream. This can then be detected by checking the blood specimen.

The PSA test should not replace the digital rectal examination. In a recent study, 32 to 38 percent of cancers would have been missed if digital rectal exams were used alone as a means of detecting early cancer. However, PSA is not capable of detecting all prostate cancers and digital rectal exams will detect some cancers that do not have an elevated PSA. Therefore, the most complete examination for early detection of prostate cancer is digital rectal examination and a blood specimen for PSA.

If an elevated PSA is found or an abnormal gland is palpable on digital rectal exam, your doctor will usually recommend a prostate ultrasound be performed along with needle biopsies of any suspicious lesions. Several studies have shown that prostate cancer is curable if the disease can be detected and treated when the cancer is isolated in the prostate gland. The PSA test is an excellent tool to help us achieve this goal.

Most urologists recommend yearly digital rectal exams for all men beginning at age 40 and yearly PSA tests at age 50.

SURVIVAL TACTICS

As we watch the construction of the addition onto our current high school and anticipate the beginning of construction for the new high school, it must seem inconsistent to taxpayers that Lowell Area Schools has the same budget problems that other school districts are

Thad's thoughts

I was somewhat mystified, disappointed and angered by an event that took place at the O-K White Conference track meet.

I don't get to events early very often, but this athletic event I did, to my dismay. I was 30 minutes early and the conference meet was anywhere from 30-45 minutes late getting started, depending on who you talked to.

The running event preliminaries had been taken care of the day before. All the lane assignments were in order.

The second event run that early Friday evening was the 100-meter dash. Possibly, the most highly anticipated race of a track meet.

Normally, the highest seed going into the race gets lane three. The lane which is most conducive to a fast time. On this day however, officials erred by putting the top seed in lane one, which along with lane eight is probably the least favorable lane to run in, and less conducive to fast times.

So what's the point, Lowell happened to have the top seeded 100-meter sprinter in both the girls' race and the boys' race. Those sprinters being Heather Gowen and Shawn Smith.

The mistake was not brought to the officials attention until after the races had been run. Why, you ask? Most coaches stand down and/or sit down near the finish line. Have you ever tried to identify people from over 100 yards away. Making things even more difficult is the fact that the runners in the next race are standing behind the runners at the starting line.

Officials admitted there was a mistake but decided it was unfair to ask the sprinters to run the race again. Unfair to all eight runners. Not re-running the race was only unfair to Gowen and Smith. After all, the preliminaries are held to determine who gets the better lanes. If officials aren't going to abide by this, why run the preliminaries.

The new Chicago Style Math being taught in Lowell, Northview and many other schools in West Michigan does not allow for a student to move on until he passes the test on the subject matter being taught. In other words, do it until you get it right. I suggest to you that those same concepts that are applied in school, which student athletes abide by or find themselves ineligible, should be practiced by school officials. The race should have been re-run until the track officials got the lane assignments right.

Granted the importance of track doesn't rank up there with math, English and science, but what does it say when officials settle for something less than the best.

Yes, Gowen and Smith both lost their respective races. For Gowen it was her first conference loss in four years in the 100-meter dash. She may have lost in lane three, but with her prior record in that lane, you had to like her chances.

Smith redeemed himself at the regional by defeating the runner who beat him in convincing fashion in the conference meet.

One other note on Smith and Gowen, they handled the snafu with the class of a champion.

I guarantee you if runners are aligned in the wrong lanes at the state meet, the race will be re-run because it is the right thing to do.

..... two weeks ago from an angered Lowell resident. Asking me to remind people that handicap people are not just handicapped between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

It seems that there are some non-handicap drivers who are using handicap parking spaces.

This person asked that this wrong be stopped.

facing. What is hard for taxpayers to understand is that monies voted for the construction of buildings can never be transferred to a budget which pays operational costs. All formula school districts in this State are faced with the task of reducing their operational budgets for the 1992-1993 school year, and in some cases those budgets will be reduced to a figure below the 1991-1992 budget year. Lowell Area Schools is not an exception. I will be recommending the Board of Education approve an $850,000 reduction in the district's 1992-1993 budget year which begins July 1.

The lack of revenue to cover the planned improvements are threefold: (1) Dwindling State Aid dollars are siphoned from the basic formula into "new incentive programs" which are good ideas but poor choices in bad economic times, (2) Property assessments are frozen which limit increased local revenue, (3) The Board of Education has a commitment with district residents not to seek additional operational millage until we open the doors of the new high school in the Fall of 1994.

Although the State Aid bill has not been passed by the State Legislature, school districts are required to approve a balanced budget prior to July 1 each year. It is always risky to announce a planned expenditure level for the next year when you are never sure of the revenue you will have. But, that's the law. If the legislature passes a State Aid bill with less support dollars than now anticipated, then school districts will be forced into another round of budget reductions before school starts next Fall. The problem can be even worse in school districts where millage renewals are rejected by voters in June elections. We came face to face with that problem last year. The survival skill needed is in conservative budget management while slowing the improvement of the educational program for our "most important product", the student.

The recommended budget reductions going to the Board for the 1992-1993 budget can be summarized as follows: A total of $383,720 in non-staff expenditures will be reduced from teaching supplies, staff re-training and development, capital outlay and equipment replacement, curriculum, central office, maintenance, and athletic supply accounts. An additional $120,000 can be saved by replacing retiring staff with new employees at entry level dollars only where needed. $96,500 will be saved by not replacing 1.5 high school teachers and .5 elementary teachers and 3 paraprofessionals.

New additions totalling $250,000 not to be added next year included the addition of 2 middle school teachers due to increased enrollment, 1 special education teacher, 2 elementary art teachers, 1 elementary media specialist, 1 building custodian and 1 bus driver. The elementary art teachers and media specialist positions were positions scheduled for next year from the Strategic Planning Committee recommendations.

The above cuts in next year's budget will get us through next year only, with no guarantee for the following year. Further reductions in State Aid support for formula districts in the years ahead is already a hot discussion topic in Lansing. Reductions in State support for public schools is not always in the form of sending less dollars to the local school districts. The possible cuts in the future may be in the form of no longer reimbursing the local district for a portion of the Social Security tax and a portion of the teachers retirement funding which has long been a practice of the State. Any lack of reimbursed dollars to the local school district automatically adds to the expenditure budget of the district and always translates in a request to the local taxpayers for additional millage to make up the deficiency.

Personally, I do not envy the task of our state legislators. They often get unjustified criticism for a tough and thankless job even when they take a few days off to relax. Bashing politicians and their actions today does nothing to build for tomorrow. They are wrestling with the same issues that our school board is... attempting to find ways to make ends meet at an acceptable point. Until we find a suitable alternative to school finance and property tax relief, there are only two approaches - increase revenues or cut expenses. This year we are cutting expenses. This year it's the only survival tactic game in town!

to a person in Kent County who has made an outstanding contribution to education. Roger Kropf has been on the Lowell School Board 17 years and for nine of those years he has served as board president. He has also been instrumental in organizing the distribution of apples to every teacher in Kent County in honor of Teacher Appreciation Day.

The Lowell Education Association nominated Kropf because of his years of dedicated commitment to the Lowell Area Schools. The association praised him for his ability to communicate with people, listen to concerns, and take the necessary steps to continually improve education for Lowell students. The positive relationship between administration, staff and school board members is largely due to his influence and continued involvement.

Mike Stephens from KCEA stated, "Roger has taken Board and employee relations from being adversarial to the cooperative working relationship we have today. He is truly a friend to education because he puts the welfare of students in the Lowell School District first."

"I'm disappointed it did not gain the Council's approval. The longer the delay the further it shoves back the new high school."

Thompson was concerned that the benefits of the project to the City have decreased since the M-21 project has been removed from the proposal. While the Township will benefit from value of Township property increasing and thus enhancing development possibilities and adding to the Township's tax base.

"Is it possible for the City to get by for awhile without the improvements?" Thompson asked. McNamara said yes, but some time down the road the improvements will have to be made. Mayor Jim Matman added that "The cost will be worst 10 years from now."

Thompson explained that due to tough times over the years the system may not have been taken care of the way it should have been.

Councilman Jim Hodges believes the City Council is one water main break away from mismanagement.

"The City has one water line going from the water plant to Reservoir Hill. It has one line going from Reservoir Hill back across the river to serve the people on the west side with adequate pressure," Hodges said. "Those lines have been there roughly 60 years. The City is one break away from what could be a major problem. For the cost of MTV the residents can have an improved water system they can rely on."

that students see an inter-relationship of each student.

As an example, Matlosz said if a unit is planned around a Greek theme, the students will be exposed to it in all areas at the same time.

The concept assures that all students will be exposed to a large curriculum selection. Matlosz said this will ensure that they have a base to make a selection from in the elective areas as to what they want to develop when they reach the high school.

The concept will:

- * Increase sixth-grade unified art choices;
- * Allow for planning of an integrating curriculum;
- * The ability to establish inner disciplinary units;
- * And through "contact" time, it will allow teachers to monitor the whole learning environment of each student.

"Contact" time will evolve around the first 25 minutes in the morning. This time will be used by teachers to help students with goal setting, study skills, self esteem and problem solving, and decision-making to name a few areas," Matlosz said.

Another subtle change will be the discontinuation of using teachers in the lunchroom. "Their time can be better used by putting them in front of students," Matlosz explains.

Teachers will be set up in teams so that four teachers can set down and discuss the progress of a student who they all teach and view on a day-to-day basis.

Item #3. ENGINEERING SERVICES FOR JAMES STREET IMPROVEMENTS AND NORTHEAST HIGH PRESSURE DISTRICT. The City Council has previously approved to proceed with improvements on James Street. These encompass the installation of an eight inch water main and asphalt paving the road at twenty feet in width. Further, at the April 6 meeting, road costs ($15,500 estimate) were determined to be split with the City on a 50-50 basis as a special assessment project. In order to proceed with the project, it was recommended that the City contract with Fishbeck, Thompson, Carr and Huber for engineering services regarding improvements for James Street at a cost of $3,100. This will aid in the permit, bidding and special assessment process. Further, a proposal for engineering services from Fishbeck had been provided to initiate work to install a booster pump station by the reservoir and water main construction on Shepard and Grindle to thus create a northeast high pressure district. The engineering costs, as submitted, were $29,500 for the booster pump station and $13,750 for the water main. It was recommended that, in order to proceed with the special assessment district on Grindle that preliminary design for the water main ($3,750) be approved at this time. Councilmember Thompson questioned if it would be cost effective to the City to staff an engineer that could oversee various projects rather than contracting out for these services. City Manager Pasquale responded that a future plan for the Department of Public Works is to employ an engineer for administration. However, it would be questionable to utilize this position for projects when reviewing fringe benefits and necessary support services.

IT WAS MOVED BY HODGES and seconded by GREEN to accept the low bid of $3,850 with Rickett Electric for the underground wiring of the softball field lights at Recreation Park.

Hoag reflects on her 30 years of teaching; knowing she has done more than just teach children

While schools have been conforming to children's ever decreasing attention spans, Fran Hoag continues her effort to expand them. That's not surprising coming from a teacher who decided to expand her knowledge at the age of 41. Hoag earned a Bachelor's Degree in elementary education from Western Michigan University in 1965. "I earned many of my credits from Western through correspondence classes. I drove all over to take these classes," Hoag said.

Two years later, she completed her Masters Degree at Michigan State University. "I don't believe that young children can only work on one thing for 20 minutes at a time," Hoag says. "I don't think 20 minutes is long enough. When possible I try to push it to an hour."
Hoag agrees it is more and more difficult to do that because of videos and television.
Hoag's devotion to education has been a lengthy one. She has been teaching for 30 years, most of them at Lowell. She spent a few years in the Forest Hills area. 1992 will be Hoag's final year. "It's been a wonderful 30 years," Hoag said. Over this period of time, she has taught in the Head Start program, the developmental kindergarten students, fourth-sixth grade and also drove a bus. Her decision to pursue education was greatly enhanced through a discussion she had with Father Grant from the Parnell Catholic Church. "I'm not even Catholic, but Father Grant and I were good friends," she explains. "He said to me one day, it's too bad you're not a teacher, the way you like kids and knowledge." That conversation proved to be the driving force behind Hoag's decision to go back to school at the age of 41. "I love children and the challenge of seeing them learn," Hoag explains. "If you don't get to and help the children when they are young you won't reach them when they are older either." The 30-year teaching veteran likes teaching the lower grade levels the most. "I think you can be more effective," Hoag said. "When I was teaching fourth through sixth grades in Forest Hills, I had kids that came into my class unable to read and left who were unable to read, that was sad. That's why you must get to them when they are little." Someone once asked Hoag is that all you are as a teacher? The comment made her take a step back and think. Today, Hoag can respond yes to that question and then add - a teacher who made a difference.

The eagle uses the same nest year after year, adding new material each year.

Item #2. AUDITOR AGREEMENT. In response to a request from City Council, City Treasurer Judy Noonon stated that she had contacted several similar sized cities in the area about auditing costs. She found that most were paying nearly the same or slightly higher for comparable auditing services than the City of Lowell. The City of Rockford has been using the firm of Rehmann & Robson, and their costs are significantly lower than ours. In discussing his firm's proposal, Bob Miller of Rehmann & Robson stated Lowell has more activity than Rockford, and therefore, the City's audit cost would definitely be higher than theirs. In recommending the present auditing firm of Biggs, Hausserman, Thompson and Dickinson, Noonon saw a significant difference in the number of hours a principal or partner was involved in the audit. In the case of Biggs, Hausserman, Tom

Item #4. HANGER RENTS. At its regular meeting of April 28, the Airport Board reviewed lease rents for Hangars #4 (Miller) and #5 (new). In particular, the need to examine expenses for premises liability insurance and personal property taxes prompted discussion of rent increases. It was recommended by the Board that rents be increased by $10 per month per space starting in May. This would cover the taxes while the present rent would provide the insurance payment. Thus, Hangar #4 would be leased at $85 per month per space. The four inner bays would be charged $100 per month per space while the two outside bays are at $110. Thompson questioned that a municipality should have taxes waived on the hangars. City Manager Pasquale responded he has discussed this matter with the City Assessor. Because the City is charging private parties for the use of the facility, not being city purpose, personal property taxes must be paid to Vergennes.

IT WAS MOVED BY THOMPSON and seconded by GREEN to accept the increases for rent at Hangars #4 and #5 of $10 per month per space.

Item #5. UNDERGROUND WIRING QUOTES - SOFTBALL FIELD LIGHTS. At the April 6 meeting, the Council approved the Recreation Park softball field lighting project to a maximum of $23,000. The cost of the project, except for underground wiring has amounted to $18,822. The following quotes solicited for underground wiring were received:

Rickett Electric (Lowell) $3,850.
Spike Electric (Grandville) $4,750.
It is recommended by staff that Rickett Electric be awarded the project for $3,850. Thus, the total project cost would be $22,672, which was within the Council guideline.

IT WAS MOVED BY GREEN and seconded by HODGES to accept the low bid of $3,850 with Rickett Electric for the underground wiring of the softball field lights at Recreation Park.

Item #6. WATER EXTENSION TO LOWELL TOWNSHIP. This past week the Council received reports from Tim McNamara (Fishbeck, Thompson, Carr and Huber) and Tom Dickinson (Biggs, Hausserman) regarding the costs of extending water service to Lowell Township as well as establishing the northeast high pressure district project. McNamara gave a detailed analysis in terms of project costs and customer charges. These were refinements of estimates after a review session held on April 23 with City Treasurer Judy Noonon, Tom Dickinson (auditor) and City Manager Pasquale. Further, Dickinson provided comments on the project proposal. The report showed the City needs $112,455 per year from the Township to provide water. This may be distributed between readiness-to-serve and consumption rates. Further, city readiness-to-serve would need an increase to $12.01 per month per unit ($2.51 increase) to provide the city share of west side improvements. Also, an additional $1.02 per month was necessary on readiness-to-serve for the northeast side improvements, bringing the total to $13.03 per month. Some benefits of the increased rates include City residents having better water pressure on the west side, the opportunity to increase the customer base to the northeast and north-west side where there is no service presently and increased fire protection. It was the consensus of Council to approve the proposed letter to Lowell Township subject to negotiation.

Item #7. CITIZEN COMMENTS. None.

Item #8. COUNCIL COMMENTS. Councilmember Thompson expressed his concern over the comments in the Ledger regarding the YMCA pool and wondered if something could be done to keep the pool open such as a fund raiser. Pasquale mentioned the Parks and Recreation Commission will be discussing this issue and will provide a recommendation to the Council. Councilmember Fonger said that the rip rap around the dam and Showboat ticket office needs some attention. Councilmember Hodges noted the condition of the grand stand and the need of a chain link fence to secure the rear of the structure at Recreation Park softball field. Tony Siciliano, Director of Public Works, responded that a contractor is needed to provide a price for repair. Mayor Maatman wondered why the City needs to rent port-a-johns at Creekside when restrooms are present. Pasquale responded the City has had problems with pipes freezing. With the possibility of April being a very cold month, the City elected to go with the port-a-johns. In May, the restrooms are opened. Furthermore, Maatman mentioned that Officer James Valentine was inviting the presence of the Mayor and Councilmembers to attend the D.A.R.E. (Drug Abuse Resistance Education) culmination to be held at the Alto, Runciman and Bushnell Elementary schools. City Manager Pasquale said that the D.A.R.E. program has been received very well in the Schools. Maatman added the presence of our young people that their City government supports their endeavors to "Say No to Drugs".

Item #9. MANAGER'S REPORT. City Manager Pasquale reported on the following:

1. The City has received a variance petition at 1420 Laurie Gail. Dennis Dombak wishes to construct a 12' X

38' addition on the rear of his house providing an 18' rear yard set back and 25' is required.

IT WAS MOVED BY GREEN and seconded by THOMPSON to set a public hearing for the next City Council meeting dated May 18, 1992 to consider a rear yard variance at 1420 Laurie Gail.

2. The Lowell Area Historical Association is planning a raffle fund raiser using a painting as a prize. In order to comply with State Lottery regulations, a local government resolution is needed recognizing LAHA as a non-profit organization.

NAY: 0.

3. A letter was presented from the Kent County Library System Board stating that the District Library proposal is delayed to more fully discuss concerns raised by the various cities and townships. The Board will seek input from the City as well as all other jurisdictions.
4. As mentioned at the last meeting, the Council needed to provide a decision on whether to remove a tree in front of 192 S. Pleasant (Alois Pfaller). Upon review, the city staff recommended that the tree be cut. Councilmember Fonger mentioned he would like Mr. Pfaller to continue the sidewalk that runs north of his house in exchange for the City expense to cut down the tree.

It was the consensus of Councilmembers Green, Hodges, Thompson and Mayor Maatman to have the city proceed with cutting down the tree in front of 192 S. Pleasant without the exchange of a sidewalk to be constructed. Councilmember Fonger did not approve.

5. The minutes of the March 18 Look Memorial Committee and the March 23 and April 20 Planning Commission meetings were provided.
6. City Manager Pasquale mentioned he is in the process of following up on questions brought up by Council at the April 20 meeting, regarding M-21 with the State.

IT WAS MOVED BY HODGES to adjourn at 8:27 p.m.

DATE APPROVED: May 18, 1992

Grattan Township Junk Control Ordinance

GRATTAN TOWNSHIP

JUNK CONTROL ORDINANCE (Ordinance No. 92-04 Resolution No. 92-13) THE TOWNSHIP OF GRATTAN ORDAINS AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1 - Findings and Purpose. The Township Board of the Township of Grattan ("Township") hereby finds that it is essential and necessary to the health, safety, well-being and welfare of the residents of the Township and the well-being of the personal and real property located within the Township that the Township adopt this Ordinance, and that the disposal and accumulation of solid and liquid waste, junk, trash and discarded items shall occur only in a sanitary, orderly and safe fashion. In the past, waste, trash and hazardous materials may have been improperly dumped, buried or disposed of within the Township, which may have caused irreparable harm to property and natural resources within the Township, including but not limited to, lakes, streams, soils, watersheds and sensitive wetlands, all of which are essential to the health and economic well-being of the community. The Township Board further finds that the improper disposal of such materials impairs property values and poses a real and substantial risk to the health and safety of persons, pets, farm animals and wildlife within the Township.

This Ordinance is not intended to interfere with farming and conventionally accepted farm operations or practices. Nor shall this Ordinance be deemed to prohibit or interfere with the storing or spreading of manure, fertilizers, herbicides, or other soil conditioners as part of a farm operation.

Section 2 - Authorization. This Ordinance is authorized and enacted pursuant to MCL 41.181, Article 4, Section 52 of the Michigan Constitution of 1963 and other applicable laws.

Section 3 - Prohibited Acts. Unless otherwise expressly permitted by Section 4 hereof, it shall be unlawful for any person, entity, corporation, association or other organization to do or permit any of the following (or to assist in doing any of the following) within Grattan Township:

A. Operate an unlicensed or unlawful dump, landfill or sanitary landfill.

B. Utilize, bury or dispose of any item at an unlicensed or illegal landfill or disposal site knowing the same to be unlicensed or illegal.

C. Pour, drain, dump, abandon, bury or dispose of any discarded liquid which may be hazardous, toxic, nuclear, poisonous, dangerous or biologically harmful into, below, within, or onto the ground, a road, or any soil, lake, stream, pond or wetland or to accumulate or store such discarded liquids outdoors. This prohibition shall include, but not be limited to, gasoline, oil, cleaning fluid, heating oil, industrial or commercial waste, medical waste, paint, pesticides, flammable liquid, or liquid industrial by-products.

D. Deposit, dump, drain, or cause to be drained, any harmful or hazardous liquid, sewage or industrial waste substance from any sink, tank, motor vehicle, or any other thing, onto the surface of any land or into any open ditch, lake, stream, pond or wetland, or into any pipe or conduit which directly or indirectly empties or deposits any such substance onto the surface of any land or into any open ditch, lake, creek, wetland or stream.

E. Place, throw, bury, dump, abandon, store or accumulate outdoors any empty or partially filled cans, food containers, broken or whole bottles, trash, rubbish, garbage, litter, junk, rags, used or broken glass, mobile homes not meeting township ordinance requirements, debris, used tires, used tanks, rubbish, discarded or scrap plastic, waste, boxes, barrels, scrap metal, cardboard, inoperable or partially assembled equipment or machinery, scrap rubber, crockery or utensils of any kind, automobile or vehicle bodies or parts of automobiles or vehicles (except in a duly licensed junk yard), old stoves or appliances, furniture, parts of machinery, contaminated soil, illegal pesticide, illegal fertilizer, refuse, scrap styrofoam, paper, broken pallets, cloth, batteries, mattresses or bed springs, flammable matter or substances, offal, medical waste, industrial by-products or waste substances or objects of a similar nature, upon any land in the Township, or to permit any such things or substances to accumulate on land or water over which the person permitting the same occupies, owns, leases or has control.

F. Allow the accumulation of materials which provide rat harborage or which may serve as food for rats or is accessible to such rodents or in or around which flies, insects, rodents or vermin may exist, breed or multiply, or to suffer or permit upon any premises stagnant or filthy water deemed a health hazard by the Kent County Health Department (excluding natural wetlands), dead animals or unwholesome meat or any other unwholesome, filthy, deleterious or offensive thing or substance.

G. Litter on any property or roadway within the Township.

Dental News

You can use!

FLUORIDE FOR TOOTH SENSITIVITY
Question: I have always known that fluoride was helpful in preventing dental decay. But recently, I heard that it has other uses in dental health. Is this true?

Answer: Many dentists now believe that fluoride treatments may also help adults with sensitive teeth. More than one treatment may be required, and the dentist may need to use a stronger concentration than is normally used for decay prevention in children. But the process has reportedly reduced sensitivity in many cases of tooth erosion, gum recession, and after periodontal surgery. Sensitive teeth react uncomfortably to heat, cold or sometimes when they come in contact with metal objects.

The Township shall initiate a show cause hearing before the Township Board of Safety Appeals (as created by Township Ordinance No. 92-01), which shall sit as the Township board of Health and Safety Appeals for purposes of this Ordinance ("Board") when it believes a violation of this Ordinance has occurred. The purpose of this hearing is to determine on a preliminary basis whether a violation of this Ordinance has occurred and to seek voluntary compliance with this Ordinance. At any such hearing, the alleged violator or his or her agents shall have an opportunity to show cause why the provisions of the Ordinance were not violated.

If a show cause hearing is held, it shall be conducted under the following guidelines:

(i) Notice shall be served by mailing a written notice by registered mail to the property address (if occupied) of the subject property or to the address of the owner of the property (if not occupied) as shown on the most recent tax records of the Township not less than ten (10) days before the hearing date. Such notice shall also be sent to the owners of all property within 300 feet of the property in violation by first class mail at least ten (10) days before the show cause hearing. The notices shall contain the purpose of the hearing, the time, date and place it is to be held, a description of the alleged violation (including the section or sections of this Ordinance involved) and a statement that the owner or violator and any interested persons shall have an opportunity to be heard at the hearing.

(ii) At the hearing, the Township shall have the burden of establishing, through the use of witnesses and/or other evidence at the Township's discretion, that a violation of the Ordinance has occurred by a preponderance of the evidence. The Zoning Administrator shall present the Township's case.

(iii) The owner or alleged violator may present evidence regarding whether the Ordinance was violated and may present witnesses and/or other evidence at the owner or alleged violator's discretion. The owner or alleged violator shall also have the right at the hearing to question any witnesses presented by the Township and to respond to any evidence presented by the Township.

(iv) At the conclusion of the hearing, the Board shall, within a reasonable time, determine whether a violation of this Ordinance has occurred and to seek voluntary compliance with this Ordinance. The Board shall notify the owner or alleged violator of its decision either in person or by mail.

(v) The hearing and proceedings herein shall not in any way affect the other remedies available to the Township or bar criminal prosecution pursuant to Section 6 hereof. The results of a show cause hearing shall not be admissible at any criminal prosecution trial pursuant to this Ordinance.

B. The Township, through its Zoning Administrator, is specifically authorized to issue and serve appearance tickets (on forms authorized by law) or seek warrants if it has reasonable cause to believe that any person, business, or organization has violated any of the provisions of this Ordinance and for which a fine, imprisonment or both may be levied as a result of such violation.

to a four-run Red Arrow seventh inning.

"We were lucky, East Grand Rapids gave us the game in the seventh inning," Rodenhouse said.

An error, a walk and an error by EGR loaded the bases in the seventh for Lowell. A sacrifice and a pop out to the shortstop left runners on first and second. Singles by Vickie Videan and Erica Hertzzer plated the tying and winning runs.

Hertzzer went 4-for-5 with three RBI and scored two runs. Videan was 2-for-5 with an RBI and scored a run. Amy Stauffer was 3-for-4 and scored a run.

Lowell scored 12 runs on 18 hits.

"I thought the game was over after East tallied five runs in the fifth to take an 11-5 lead," Rodenhouse said.

The Pioneers scored the five runs on four walks and a triple.

Stacy Tousignant earned the win in relief, running her league record to 1-5 and her overall mark to 2-7.

In game two, Lowell did it East what teams have been doing to the Red Arrows all year. Lowell came from way down to defeat the Pioneers.

The Red Arrows trailed 8-0 heading into its half of the third inning.

Many might think that a team with a losing record would hang their heads and give up, but instead, Lowell fought back with four runs in the third, two in the fourth, ballplayers," Lowell coach Bob Rodenhouse explained.

Their softball ability and athleticism helped Forest Hills Central recover from a 5-3 deficit to earn the victory.

Trailing 3-2, Lowell rallied for three runs in the fourth to take the lead.

Angie Nauta started the inning with a single and came around to score on a triple by Vickie Videan. Following a walk to Erica Hertzzer, Amy Stauffer singled home Videan. Stauffer later scored on an error by the Rangers' right fielder.

Central recovered in the fifth with four runs on three hits, a walk and a Lowell error.

FHC added two insurance runs in the sixth to secure the victory.

Wyoming Park 19-9 Lowell 3-2

The Vikings left little doubt as to why they are one of the top teams in the O-K White.

Park scored one run in the first, four in the second, five in the third, three in the fourth and six in the fifth to cap their scoring celebration.

Park tallied 19 runs on 12 hits. Lowell scored three runs on five hits and committed five errors.

Vickie Videan went 2-for-3 with three RBI to pace the Red Arrows in game one.

Lowell played much better softball in game two.

The Red Arrows tied the score at 2-2 in the fourth with two singles by Amy Stauffer and Krista Posthumus. Lowell was also helped by two Viking errors.

Park, however, answered the challenge by scoring two runs in the fourth, and fifth and three more in the six, to earn the win. Amy Stauffer led Lowell at the plate with two hits.

Gowen qualifies for state in two events; Lowell places 6th

Kathy Talus sees the regional track meet as a place to get individual athletes to perform their personal bests and hopefully earn a place at the state meet.

The Red Arrow coach enjoyed that kind of success seven times Friday in the Class B Regional at Forest Hills Northern.

Lowell girls handed in personal bests in five events and qualified for state in two events.

However, qualifying for the state meet in two events and achieving five personal bests did not add up to a top five finish in the team score. "We thought we'd do better as a team, but we saw schools we haven't seen and they were better than we anticipated," Talus said.

One thing Talus has been able to anticipate over the last four years is Heather Gowen qualifying for state.

Gowen qualified for state in four events in each of her first three years.

Friday, Gowen and her teammates missed out in the 800 and 1600-meter relays, but the Lowell senior qualified for state in two individual events - the long jump and the 200-meter run.

Gowen was second in the long jump with a distance of 16'8-1/2. Colleen Hipp of West Catholic was first with a mark of 16'9-1/4. Gowen's personal best this year was 17'2-1/2.

With that in mind, Talus likes Gowen's chances at the state meet. "I think Heather has a real good chance of placing at the state meet in the long jump."

Gowen also claimed a second in the 200 with a time of 26.7. Rachael Meyer of Kenowa Hills was first at 25.84.

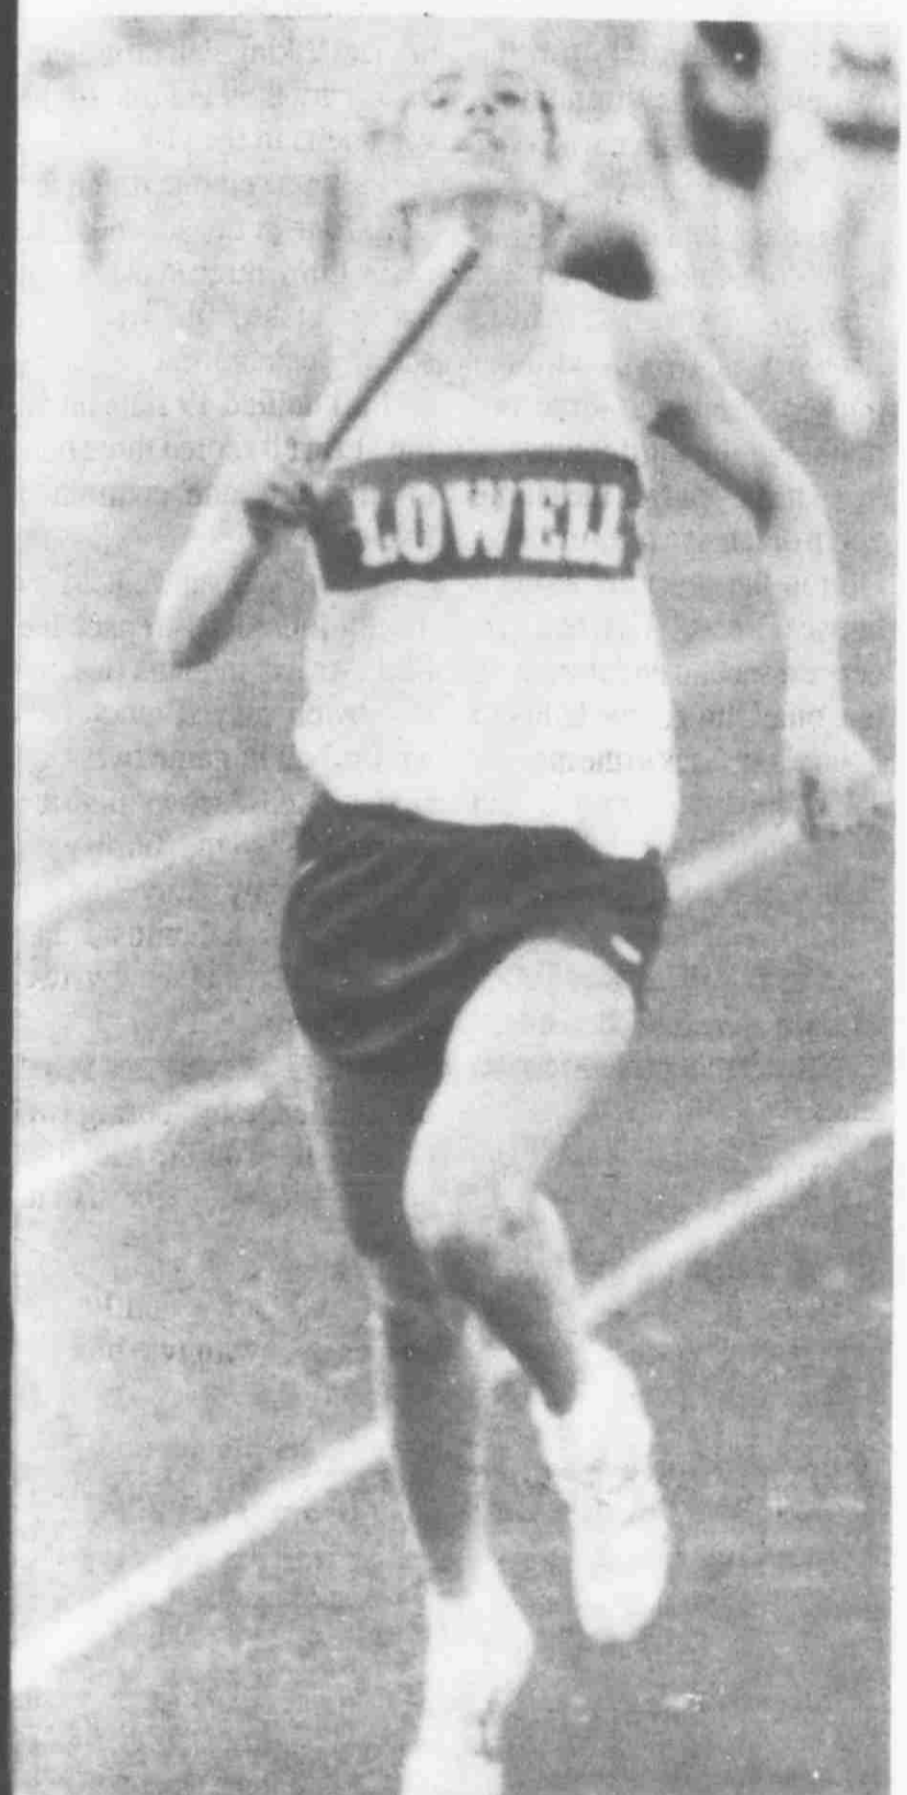

"Heather got off to a slow start and just could not catch her," Talus said.

Senior Brandi Phillips was sixth in the discus with a personal best of 100-5. "Brandi set breaking a 100 as her goal, she accomplished that tonight after four years of hard work," Talus said.

The 800 relay team of Kortney Gowen, Leslie Murphy, Tammy Allchin and Heather Gowen placed third in 1:49.9. They missed qualifying for the state meet by 1/ Girls track, cont'd., 26

Athletes of the Week

Jon Hutfilz
 The Lowell senior hurler notched a big complete game victory against Northview and provided the winning hit in the seventh inning against Forest Hills Central. His hit into right-center field scored Chad Lyon from second base. His arm led Lowell to a 5-4 victory over Northview. "Hutfilz pitched us a big, big game," Lowell coach Kris Kropf said.

Erica Hertzzer
 The Lowell second baseman went 6-for-10 in Lowell's doubleheader sweep of conference foe East Grand Rapids. She also had four RBI and scored three runs. "Hertzzer came through at the plate for us in key situations against East Grand Rapids," Lowell coach Bob Rodenhouse said.

Shawn Smith
 The Lowell senior sprinter saved his best performance of the year for the regional at Forest Hills Northern. Following a disappointing second at the O-K White Conference meet, Smith atoned for his loss to East Grand Rapids' Jason Williams with a season best time of 10.76 easily beating Williams' mark of 11.09.

John Saboo
 "John ran like a man possessed," Lowell boys' track coach Keith Boeve said. Saboo may have surprised even his coach when he won the 400-meter run at the regional on Friday. The Lowell track star was timed in 51.57. "Saboo ran the entire race at a sprint speed," Boeve said. "He destroyed the field."

Smith blazes to seasonal best in 100, 10.76; Lowell places 5th

For many, it's the most exciting and compelling 10-12 seconds in high school track. For Lowell's Shawn Smith, it was his most rewarding 10.76 seconds of the year.

Smith, who has struggled some, in this his, senior year, came up second to Jason Williams of East Grand Rapids in the 100-meter run at the O-K White Conference meet a week ago. He redeemed himself on Friday in the Regional at Forest Hills North.

Smith defeated Williams in convincing fashion, breaking the string at 10.76, his best time of the year. Williams was clocked at 11.09.

"It was nice to see Shawn smiling again," Lowell coach Keith Boeve said. "It's been about two weeks. I think Smith's run in the 100 was a real pick-me-up for the rest of the team."

Lowell placed fifth at the regional with 55 points. Coopersville was first with 66 followed by Hudsonville, 63; South Christian, 57; and Northview, 56.

Following Lowell was East Grand Rapids with 46; Kenowa Hills, 35; Wyoming Park, 33; Calvin Christian, 29; Catholic Central, 25; Unity Christian, 22; West Catholic, 14-1/2; Rogers, 12; Forest Hills Northern, 10-1/2; Spring Lake 3.

Other than Smith, Lowell's John Saboo was the only other Red Arrow to qualify for the State Tournament at Wyoming Park.

"John ran like a man possessed. He destroyed the field," Boeve said. "Saboo ran the same sprint speed throughout."

Saboo finished the 400-meter run in 51.57. Kenowa Hills' Scott Chapman was second at 52.52.

"At the conference meet our young kids came through. Today, it was our seniors," Boeve explained.

In the 400 relay, Randy Klitz, Paul Middleton, Aaron Stencil and Smith placed sixth in a time of 45.5. Coopersville won the 400 in 44.72.

In the 800-meter relay, Noah Meneray, Saboo, Stencil, and Smith finished fourth in a time of 1:34. Coopersville won the event in 1:32.96.

Kyle Boston, Dan Huizenga, Jason VanderWarf and Tom Mull were third in the 3200 relay in a time of 8:22.6. The relay was won by South Christian in 8:17.37.

Meneray was third in the shot at 44.2. Chad Bolema of Rogers won the event with a distance of 47-10-1/2.

The discus event was won by Mike Vanderbeek of Hudsonville with a mark of 144'. Lowell's Joe DeJong 10 of a second. "They were disappointed," Talus understated.

In the 1600-meter relay, Gowens, Allchin and Sara Lesky came home in third place at 4:17.8.

Tammy Allchin stopped the clock in under 50 seconds in the hurdles for the first time in her career. Allchin was timed at 49.8. "I think running the 400 and the mile relay this year has helped her," Talus said.

Freshman Leslie Murphy placed fifth in the 400, stopping the clock at 63.5, two seconds off her best time. "That's the best I've seen Leslie run all year," Talus said. "It was a great effort."

Jason VanderWarf finds a desirable pace in the boys' 3200 run.

Lowell rallies to defeat FHC 7-6; Hutfilz helps pitch Arrows pass 'Cats

After suffering through a tough three-game losing streak, which saw Lowell get shut out by Rogers and then kicked around in a Friday afternoon doubleheader by Wyoming Park, the Red Arrows needed to right their sinking ship if it was to remain in the upper echelon of the O-K White.

To do that, Lowell would have to beat a competitive group of Rangers and pesky bunch of Wildcats.

Losses to Rogers and Park have left Arrow eyes a little red. Battling for the third spot in the O-K White, Lowell cleared its vision and went after Central, Northview and East Grand Rapids.

"Early inning errors nearly killed us against FHC, but the boys didn't quit and chipped away at the Ranger lead," Lowell coach Kris Kropf said. "In game one against Northview, we got a big, big game from Jon Hutfilz. We needed him to go the distance so we could save Miedema for East Grand Rapids."

A Lowell error and some clutch hitting by Forest Hills Central helped the Rangers build an early 5-0 lead in the first inning. "Too often this year we've started an inning for a club with an error," Kropf said.

Lowell scratched back with an RBI single in the first by Troy Addington and an RBI single in the second by Ryan Peel. Central also scored in the second, holding onto a 6-2 lead.

The Red Arrows put themselves right back in the game in the third, tallying three runs.

Addington led-off with a walk. The walk was followed by a single off the bat of Rich Depew and a Jason Essex RBI single. Runs two and three were plated on a sacrifice and a Ranger error.

Lowell tied the score in the fifth on a RBI double to right-center field by Kip Carpenter.

The Red Arrows won the game dramatically in the seventh with the score tied 6-6. Essex started the inning with a double. Chad Lyons walked. On an unsuccessful sacrifice bunt attempt Essex was gunned down going to third. Lyon advanced to second. With two out, Hutfilz blasted a shot into right-center field with the winning hit, scoring Lyon from second and completing Lowell's come-from-behind 7-6 win.

"Hutfilz came through with the big hit, giving us a big and much needed victory," Kropf said.

Miedema went six innings, allowing five hits and six runs. Addington came in relief in the seventh to gain the win.

was really in trouble, otherwise he was in control."

Northview tagged Hutfilz for back-to-back doubles to highlight a two-run second.

With Northview leading 2-1, Lowell used a walk, a stolen base and a catcher's error to tie the contest at 2-2 in the fourth inning.

The score was tied 3-3 entering the seventh. Northview drew first blood scoring the go-ahead run on a two-out single by Brent Mulheisen.

Lowell, not to be denied, battled back. Essex started the inning with a single. "Jason battled back from an 0-and-2 count to get a hit," Kropf said. "That was some good hitting."

Essex then stole second and came to third on a pass ball, before scoring the tying run on a sacrifice fly by Brad Harrall.

In game two, Lowell got four solid innings from pitcher, Ryan Peel in gaining a sweep of the doubleheader.

The Red Arrows changed their role, instead of falling behind early and coming back, they grabbed a sizeable early lead and never looked back.

"This time we were the beneficiary of first-inning give-away runs," Kropf said. The big hit in the inning was a triple off the bat of Peel. Lowell scored four times in the first.

With two outs in the sixth, Lowell tallied two more runs on a single by Peel, an RBI double by Depew and a fielder's choice.

Northview got four consecutive singles to start its sixth inning, off of reliever, Rich Depew. However, Depew settled down and got out of the inning with only two runs scoring.

The doubleheader win improved Lowell's league record to 8-4 and overall to 12-6.

Wyoming Park 12-11 Lowell 4-5

The Vikings pounded out 21 hits and scored 23 runs in sweeping past Lowell.

"Park is on a roll and they hit the ball extremely well," Kropf said. "We caught the Vikings at the wrong time. We were never in either one of the games."

In game one, Park scored in all but the fifth inning. Offensive highlights for Lowell were a double by Kip Carpenter and a solo blast by Chad Lyon.

In game two, the Vikings scored in every inning but the third. Trailing 8-1, Lowell mustered a little rally of three runs in the fifth, pulling to within four at 8-4. The Red Arrows got as close as three, 8-5, with a single run in the sixth. However, Park closed the door with a three-run sixth inning.

The score was tied 4-4 going into the bottom of the eighth. Addington lined a one-out single. He then stole second, went to third on an error and scampered home with the winning run on a pass ball.

"We'll take it," smiled Kropf. "This is our second consecutive come-from-behind win, and we needed it."

For Kropf, the major story-line was Hutfilz pitching a complete game. "The second inning was the only inning Jon

Lansing Catholic Central upends Lowell in regional; Arrows regroup for State meet

Teams have their good days and bad days, and at the girls' golf regional Monday at Deer Run Golf Course, Lowell's day just was not good enough.

Erin Nausieda was the regional medalist with a 92

For the second consecutive year the Red Arrows finished second to Lansing Catholic Central at the Class B Regional, last year at Saskatoon and this year at Deer Run.

Lansing Catholic Central shot a 400, Lowell finished four strokes back at 404. There was not another team within 34 strokes. Middleville finished third at 438. The top three clubs from the regional move onto the State Tournament at Forest Akers in East Lansing.

"We didn't play as well as we should have," Lowell coach Rick White said. "Give Lansing Catholic Central credit, it came into an unfamiliar place and played well."

With the first three golfers in for both clubs, Lowell was up seven strokes. The difference was the play of Central's fourth lady golfer. Katie Fries fired a 99, 53 on the front nine and 46 on the back nine, making up the seven stroke difference plus four more.

"We've counted on team balance all year and today it paid off," Central coach Margaret Iding said. "I wasn't sure we could beat Lowell, but in the game of golf anything can happen."

An on Monday it did. Although not a major upset, the number two ranked team in the state beat the number one ranked team.

"It's disappointing. The girls wanted to win, but the key thing is we finished in the top three and we're going to get a chance to tee it up again," White said.

Erika Iding led the winners with a round of 95. Fries finished with a 99, Cammie Coscarelli carded a 102 and Danielle Coscarelli shot a 104.

"Fries has really played well over the last couple weeks," Iding said. "She came through for us today."

The regional medalist was Erin Nausieda with a 92 (43-49). Tracy Burrows came home in 95 (45-50). Megan Leach followed with a 107 (54-53) and Connie Colburn fired a 110 (57-53).

"We've had our way all year," White said. "The girls haven't had to make sure that every stroke counts. When you get to this point, every stroke counts and you must play smart."

The girls have two weeks to prepare for the state tournament. "They will be ready," White said.

The biggest challenge to the Lowell girls' golf team's perfect dual meet season record would be non-conference foe Forest Hills Northern.

On a cloudy, windy day at the par 36 Deer Run Golf Course, Lowell carded a team score of 190, defeating the 10th ranked team in the state, FHN (204), by 14 strokes.

That win and the two wins that would follow, at Broadmoor against Union and Caledonia, finished Lowell's regular season record at 23-0 overall and 12-0 in the O-K White.

Match medalist, Erin Nausieda led Lowell with a round of 42. Senior Tracy Burrows fired a 46. Megan Leach was one shot back at 47 and Connie Colburn rounded out the score with a 55.

The Huskies were led by Mindy Popiel's 44. Caitlin Stovall carded a 47, followed by Jessica Popiel's 53 and Molly Buchanan's round of 60.

Lowell 203
Union 241
Caledonia 278

Lowell's score was not great, but it didn't have to be, for the competition wasn't great either.

Nausieda and Burrows tied for match medalist honors with rounds of 47. Megan Leach came off green number nine with a 52 and Connie Colburn finished with a 57.

It was announced Wednesday night that Erin Nausieda, Tracy Burrows and Megan Leach were unanimously chosen for All-Conference honors in the O-K White for 1992.

Connie Colburn was named to the Honorable Mention All-Conference list.

An early evening accident slowed traffic on E. Fulton West of Lowell on Friday. Failed brakes were the cause for the accident.

Brakes fail to prevent E. Fulton accident

Minor injuries were incurred by area residents in a two-car accident Friday evening near the 1100 block of E. Fulton.

Lowell's Mark Allen Iteen, 22, had just finished crimping the brake line on his Camaro as he began to back out of the driveway.

As Iteen began backing out he realized his brakes were not working and thus failed to stop the car before it reached the East Fulton traffic.

Iteen and his passenger, Kimberly Walburg were T-boned by a truck driven by David Carrol Henry of Ionia, according to the Kent County Sheriff's Department. Henry was not hurt, but two of his passengers were.

Injured were Randy Paddock of Lowell and LeAnn Henry of Ionia. Paddock was transported to Butterworth Hospital by Lowell Ambulance.

Henry was transported to Ionia County Memorial Hospital.

*** It is a pleasant fact that you will know no man long, however low in the social scale, however poor, miserable, intemperate, and worthless he may appear to be, a mere burden to society, but you will find at last that there is something which he understands and can do better than any other.

—Henry David Thoreau
