Second opinion gives students a second semester chance to use Runciman gymnasium

By Thad Kraus
Lowell Ledger Editor

The information gained from the use of a second opinion may provide Lowell Runciman Elementary students with second semester use of its gymnasium.

Back in September, following advice from WBDC, Lowell's building and site committee recommended the Runciman Gymnasium be razed.

Jim White, project coordinator of building renovation, said, much like people seek second opinions from doctors, the school sought the opinion of construction firm Owen, Ames and Kimball.

It told the school that there might be a way to repair the roof and the cracks in the south and west walls. Owen, Ames and Kimball noted that the cost would be more.

WBDC's recommendation had three options, raze the building, rebuild the configuration in its same footprints, or lower the roof down to 12 feet and make the gymnasium more of a multi-purpose meeting type place.

White said the estimated cost for razing the building was $80,000. Owen, Ames and Kimball estimated that the repair work would cost approximately $110,000. Bids were opened for the project on Monday.

After the second opinion was sought, the two sides sat down and went over both reviews.

Owen, Ames and Kimball's plan calls for pilasters (support columns) to be built on the outside of the building up to the top of the roof on both the south and west sides. On top of the pilasters will be a beam that will connect to the roof. So, instead of sitting on the brick wall it will rest on the outside structure. "The wall will not be the primary support," White said. "The cost will vary on just how much of the roof will need to be replaced. Right now, we're estimating that 20 percent will have to be replaced."

Lowell Assistant Superintendent Gary Kemp said he is sure funds from the general fund will not be used, so as to conserve those monies for other use. "We'll have to determine what all has to be done before we can determine if any bond money will be used and whether we can afford to use bond money without taking away from the integrity of the bond project. Energy and maintenance funds are there if we'd decide to use them," he said.

Cracks in the north and south walls were originally repaired over 11 years ago and reappeared this past spring. Lowell Superintendent Esch said the problem appeared to be excessive weight of the roof on the frame of the wall.

The cracked gymnasium walls have also forced Runciman Elementary to run a double lunch. A separate lunch at Riverside and a separate lunch at Runciman.

Vergennes Twp. drops out of county library system; residents left to pay for service

By Marc Popiolek
Contributing Writer

Citing rising costs in the Kent County Library system Vergennes Township decided to drop out of the system starting Jan. 1.

The cost of running the Vergennes branch has more than tripled since 1992. In 1992, the payment for Vergennes was $4,854 and the scheduled payment for the 1994 year is $14,797, that figure could rise by the first of the year.

Residents wishing to use the library services will have to pay a $70 non-resident fee, unless the board can come up with an alternative for residents, which they have said they will do.

According to Kent County Library System Deputy Director, Ruth McCrank, the increased cost is based on circulation and the cost of running library branches used by Vergennes Township residents. This means the residents pay for using other branches besides their own.

Vergennes Township Clerk, Jean Hoffman, says the library payment in 1994 is 25 percent of the total taxes Vergennes takes in per year. She also feels if the township keeps saying yes to the library it will get out of control.

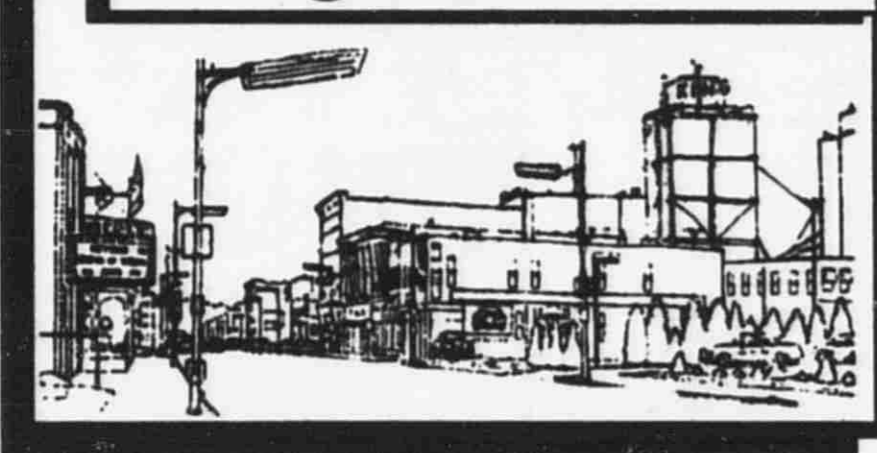

"The figures are going out of control, it's best for this township to pull out for a year and try something different," said Hoffman.

Although the township has not decided on what alternatives they will choose to the $70 payment, Hoffman said they will look into paying half of the fee for each resident.

According to Hoffman, the township may rejoin the system anytime they want if something can be worked out.

"If the system finds a better way of paying for the cost we could rejoin at anytime, your never completely out of the system," said Hoffman.

City dollars will have impact on sidewalk plan completion

By Thad Kraus
Lowell Ledger Editor

The time frame for the completion of a sidewalk improvement plan will eventually come down to how much the Lowell City Council is willing to spend and over what period of time.

Art Gall, Director of Public Works, provided the council with a sidewalk priority area plan that it had asked for at a Sept. 13 work session.

However, the Council determined Monday night that more details were needed so that a decision could be made on how much sidewalk could be installed per year.

Another area that remained unanswered is how the project would be funded.

Bruce Walters, 606 Riverside Dr., stated that he thought, in order for project continuity to be maintained, that either a bond or millage was necessary. "Otherwise, there is no guarantee that tomorrow or next year, another council couldn't change what's been started," he said.

The City Councilmen agreed that the sidewalk program should not run longer than 10 years.

Gall provided the council with a list of streets where sidewalks did not appear to make sense. He said the streets listed were prohibitive because of terrain, lack of use, and streets were in such bad shape.

The list raised the question, who determines where sidewalks are not needed.

Mayor James Maatman said more detail is needed on each of the 12 areas, so the Council can determine what needs to be budgeted each year. "We need a comprehensive plan of when an area is going to be done and what it will cost the City," he said.

Gall's proposal was based on the following assumptions:

* Providing a city share of 25 percent; 30-35 percent on corners.

* Budgeting for sidewalks

Red Arrows defensive in 1-0 win against EGR

By Thad Kraus
Lowell Ledger Editor

Good passing and midplay helped the Red Arrows in their 1-0 win over the defensively minded Pioneers of East Grand Rapids.

The victory enabled Lowell to bring out the brooms, as they were able to sweep the Pioneers this season. The game was controlled by both defenses. "Our defense played very well. East always seems to have a strong defense," Lowell soccer coach Dave Wydock said.

The only goal of the game came in the first half on a Paco Villafano cross to Jason Prescott, who headed past the Pioneer goalie.

Lowell had 19 shots on goal compared to East's 15. "Lowell and East always seem to play good, close games," Wydock said. "Today, our passing and midfield play was just a little better."

Lowell 3
Tri Unity 1
The Red Arrows left the confines of the O-K White, as it posted its 11th win of the season against Tri Unity.

It only took the Red Arrows three minutes before Jason Prescott, off a long throw-in from Matt Carstens, headed the ball into the corner of a set play.

Later in the first half Paco Villafano made it 2-0 Lowell, on a penalty kick, which transpired when Eric Claypool was taken down inside the box. The Red Arrows controlled the contest as it outshot Tri Unity 16-9.

The Red Arrows' third and final goal of the contest came in the second half. Ryan White sent a cross to Eric Arnett, who just missed putting the ball in the corner of goal. Claypool rebounded the miss and slid the ball in the corner for Lowell's third goal.

Sparta 5
Lowell 1

Unlike its earlier 6-1 loss to the Spartans, the Red Arrows were more successful at pressing Sparta. However, the talented O-K White champions got past the pressure in handing Lowell its fifth league loss.

"Our boys played well. We pressured Sparta more, but just couldn't put the ball in the net," Wydock said. "Some of that, you have to credit to Sparta's good, strong defense."

The Red Arrows only goal came 10 minutes into the second half on a Jason Prescott volley kicked from 12 yards out. Sparta led 3-0 at halftime. Prescott's goal made it 3-1. The Spartans scored two goals in the last five minutes to finish out the scoring. "By that time our boys were beat up and tired," Wydock said.

Sparta outshot Lowell 20-15.

"Sparta is very strong and should win their district, Wydock said. "Who knows how far they can go after that."

Lowell opens up district play on Monday against South Christian, a team they beat 2-0 earlier in the season. The winner will play East Grand Rapids. The winner of that semi final game will play the winner of Northern and North-

VERGENNES TOWNSHIP NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the Vergennes Township Planning Commission will hold a public hearing on Wednesday, November 17, 1993 at the Vergennes Township Hall, 10381 Bailey Drive, to receive public comment on the following proposed amendments to the Vergennes Township Zoning Ordinance:

PLANNED UNIT DEVELOPMENT

A proposed Ordinance No. 93-10 to amend the Vergennes Township Zoning Ordinance to provide for Planned Unit Developments under Section 125.286c of Michigan Public Act No. 184 of 1943 as amended (proposed new Section 201.429 of the Vergennes Township Ordinance).

A planned unit development would offer a controlled method for additional flexibility in utilization and development of parcels of land in appropriate locations. The proposed ordinance contains provisions substantially consistent with present land use planning and zoning requirements and would provide an alternative to the present grid pattern of development by making it possible to cluster structures while retaining essentially the same overall density for the total parcel and protecting natural features such as woods, streams and hills while making them available for general use of occupants of the parcel.

Before any parcel could be rezoned for Planned Unit Development, a detailed review and approval process would be required, ad follows:

- An informal pre-application conference.
- A preliminary development plan review, including an optional advisory public hearing and recommendations from the Planning Commission to the Township Board.
- Final development plan review by the Township Board, following review of the final plan by the Planning Commission and also following a public hearing by the Township Board on the final plan.
- If the property proposed for rezoning for Planned Unit Development exceeds three acres the Township Board may also require one or more additional statements or assessments. Such additional information could include market need, economic feasibility, fiscal statement and community, traffic, or environmental impact.

PRIVATE ROADS AND STREETS

A proposed Ordinance No. 93-11 to provide additional detail on specific construction standards for private roads and streets (Section 202.005 of the Vergennes Township Ordinance).

The proposed amendments would provide a revised cross section drawing for Local Roads, including specific standards for private residential, commercial or industrial streets or roads, and widen dead-end turn arounds to an 80 foot diameter.

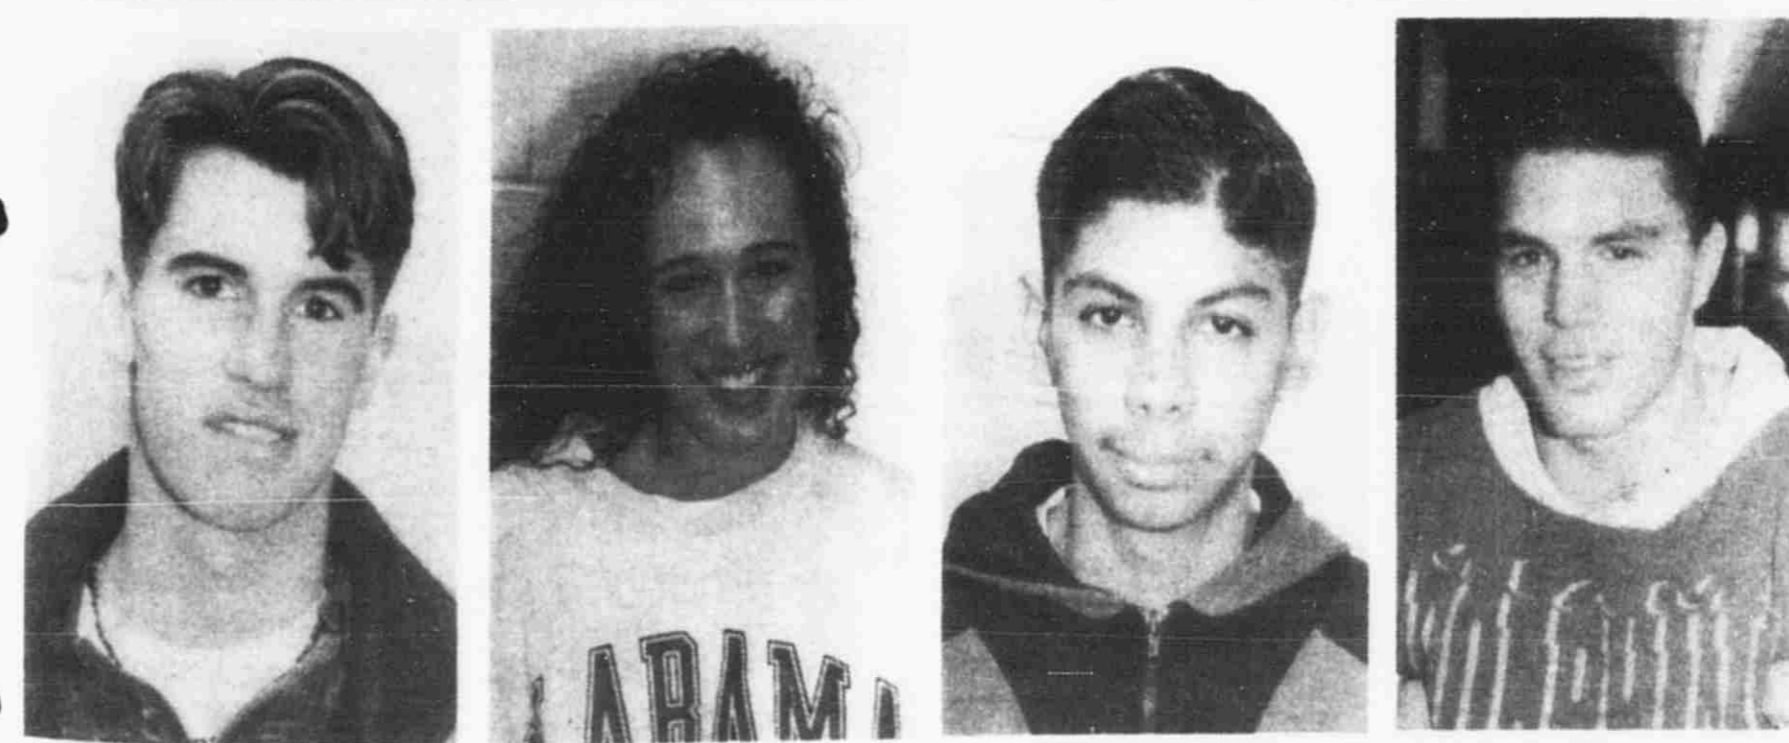

Copies of the above proposed ordinances can be reviewed at the Vergennes Township Hall from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Monday, Wednesdays and Fridays.

Written comments will also be considered if received by the Township Clerk prior to 7 p.m. on November 17, 1993. Gil Wise Chairman

There could be some surprises with finances, but it will be for the better. Do not put on false pretenses - others will find you out.
Pisces (Feb. 19 - March 20)
You must stick to your guns and not be influenced by a persuasive person. It may not feel like it, but you have made the correct decision.

ATHLETES OF THE WEEK Sponsored by Family Fare

George Ponchaud
The Lowell safety has been a key figure in Lowell's improved secondary play in 1993. Ponchaud has a number of interceptions to his credit. Lowell football coach Phil Christensen said Prescott is always right there to do what's asked of him.

Melissa Beute
The Red Arrows junior scored 11 points and grabbed a team-high nine rebounds in Lowell's 47-46 loss to Central. "Her defensive play over the last month has been superb. Melissa's offense is also starting to pick up," Lowell basketball coach Ken Akers said.

Sean Saldivar
The Lowell sophomore harrier climbed up to the number three spot on the Red Arrow team this past week. He was the third Red Arrow to finish in a conference meet against Rogers, coming home in 19:39. He was also the third Arrow harrier home against Belding, stopping the clock at 18:39.

Phil Catlin
The senior back was Lowell's bread and butter man on short yardage situations. Lowell football coach Phil Christensen has called Catlin one of the toughest backs he's ever coached. Catlin's senior season was cut short when his ankle was busted in the Zeeland game.

Lowell's Sturgis to perform with National FFA chorus

When the lights are dimmed and a hush descends upon an audience of 29,000 at the world's largest annual youth convention this Nov., a local FFA member will share the spotlight in a vocal performance that will inspire the crowd and provide memories that will last a lifetime.

Tricia Sturgis, of Lowell, will join FFA members from across the country in providing musical entertainment for more than 29,000 members and guests at the 66th National FFA Convention, Nov. 11-13 in Kansas City, MO.

Sturgis, a member of the Lowell FFA chapter, is the 18-year old daughter of Richard and Patricia Sturgis. She was selected from more than 275 applicants to be part of the 100-voice National FFA Chorus.

Participants are recommended for the chorus by their state FFA associations, agricultural education instructors and choir directors. They are selected on the basis of those recommendations, an audition tape and past singing experience.

Tricia Sturgis shows her musical talent and career success. Local, state and national activities and award programs provide opportunities for students to apply knowledge and skills acquired through agricultural programs.

The National FFA Chorus is sponsored by the Ford Division-Ford Motor Company of Detroit, as a special project of the National FFA Foundation.

FFA is a national organization of 412,788 members preparing for leadership and careers in the science, business and technology of agriculture. The organization has 7,456 local chapters located throughout the United States, Puerto Rico, Guam and the Virgin Islands. FFA's mission is to make a positive difference in the lives of students by developing their potential for premier leadership, personal growth and career success. Local, state and national activities and award programs provide opportunities for students to apply knowledge and skills acquired through agricultural programs.

City Council approves final arrangement of refuse disposal contract

By Thad Kraus
Lowell Ledger Editor

Final arrangements were reviewed and approved by the Lowell City Council, regarding the proposed contract extension with Denny's Disposal.

The extension will provide the same solid waste collection arrangement at the same cost (approximately $11,000) until January 31, 1994.

It will institute a bag purchase system, with residents paying 50 cents per bag and the City providing the remaining 30 cents, starting Feb. 1, 1994.

The arrangement would also start a residential curbside recycling program city-wide at $2.50 per stop, per month. This cost would be assumed by the City.

Under this agreement, subsidies on commercial and multiple family residential dumpsters would be eliminated.

The contract will be extended to Oct. 15, 1994. The Council asked that there be a review of the arrangement within the first couple of months to make sure everything is going all right.

Navy Airman Recruit Anthony M. Dubois, son of Marc J. and Therese J. Dubois of Alto, recently completed basic training at Recruit Training Command, San Diego.

During the cycle, recruits are taught general military subjects designed to prepare them for further academic and on-the-job training in one of the Navy's 85 occupational fields.

Studies include seamanship, close-order drill, naval that have the same traffic volume," he said.

The traffic volume at the corner was the other reason stated by the commission why a signal was not needed. According to their standards, the volume at a four-way stop should be relatively equal and they are not at this intersection.

Kent County statistics show that there are less than 1000 cars per day approaching the intersection on Cascade Rd. The volumes on Alden Nash approaching the intersection are from 5600 from the south and 3600 from the north, thus the volumes are not close to being equal and are not high enough to meet the criteria.

Phone help is on the way for residents near I-96

By Marc Popielek
Contributing Writer

Residents along Alden Nash, near I-96, will soon receive relief from motorists whose cars have broken down on the highway.

The Michigan Department of Transportation has agreed to install a phone at the park and ride on Alden Nash, just off the I-96 off ramp.

The decision comes after weeks of inquiring about the need for a phone by Township Supervisor John Timpson.

"This board and the planning commission have received numerous requests from citizens to help with the problem and a phone there would certainly help," said Timpson.

The need for a phone first came up at a public hearing held by the planning commission for a possible gas station in the area. Citizens for the gas station cited a need for a phone so motorists would stop bothering them late at night.

Mrs. Donald Yeiter says she sometimes has to help six or seven motorists in one week.

The transportation department said Ameritech would install the phone, but the township has yet to be told how much the phone will cost, who will pay for it, or when it will be installed.
