Land auction on horizon for Lowell Charter Township

By Marc Popiolek Contributing Writer

If you're looking for land in Lowell Charter Township to build two homes, the township board may have a deal for you.

The board has discussed auctioning off a 4.8 acre parcel of land on Lowellview Drive to the highest bidder in an effort to pay off some of the cost of obtaining the land.

"I think it's a good idea of roll and collecting taxes on it," said trustee Richard Huver.

The township acquired the parcel from the state two years ago after the previous owner couldn't pay back taxes.

Proponents rally in favor of historic district; ordinance passed unanimously

By Thaddeus J. Kraus Lowell Ledger Editor

A pocket of dissonance was met with a front line of accord at the second public hearing in three weeks to discuss the ordinance process of a historic district in Lowell.

While a pocket of dissonance was heard at an Oct. 21 public hearing, a strong showing of support communicated a need for its establishment Monday night.

The result was the Lowell City Council found it appropriate to unanimously approve establishing a historic district.

Lowell Historic District Study Committee member Jim Doyle was relieved and very gratified with the decision.

"With the district now established, we enter the implementation stage," Doyle said. "I cannot overemphasize the need for good communications within the district between the commission and business people within the district."

Doyle described a historic district as a process of study, review and recommendation.

"This process is a forward looking process for Lowell," he said. "It is a slow process that takes time. Appropriateness will be looked at when change is made. Historic district business people don't have to do a thing. Everything is grandfathered in."

If the commission determines a building is being demolished by neglect, it can step in and tell the owner to carry out appropriate maintenance.

The commission will look at the appropriateness of change to the exterior. Doyle noted that such things as painting over brick, putting in a window where one previously did not exist, and putting in an awning would have to come before the five-member his-

Key Heights trailer lost in Friday morning fire

By Thaddeus J. Kraus Lowell Ledger Editor

A Key Heights trailer was destroyed in an early Friday (Nov. 1) morning fire.

Lowell area firefighters were called to the scene of Dennis McClure's at 1829 Fay, Lot 269 at 9:16 a.m.

The fire was first detected by McClure's neighbor Karen Kennedy and Eastgate resident Scott Treglia.

Treglia was driving south on Cumberland when he detected smoke.

"I saw smoke coming from the trailer window and then I saw flames shooting from the roof," Treglia said.

The resident at 1672 Stonewood Dr. stopped to get help.

"The neighbor and I (Kennedy) pounded on the trailer to see if anyone was inside," Treglia said. "The east side of the trailer was already hot to the touch."

Martin said the fire had been burning well before fire fighters got there. "The inside of the trailer got hot enough to melt keys on a piano that sat near the front of the trailer," explained Martin.

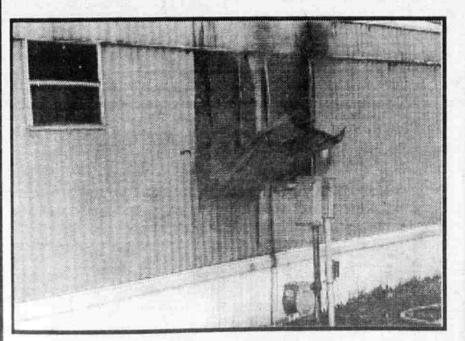

Kennedy, after detecting the fire, ran to a neighbor and asked that they call 911.

Martin said the fire started in the back bedroom. "The cause is not known and is still being investigated," the Lowell fire chief said.

Martin estimated that losses would total around $50,000.

McClure owned a couple of cockatoos which were killed in the fire.

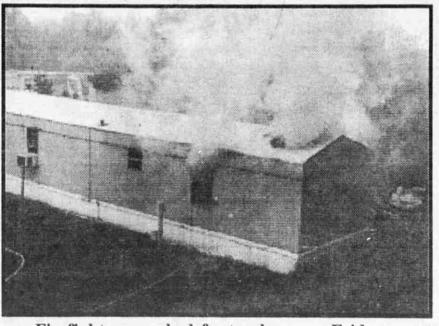

Firefighters were on the scene for approximately two hours, according to Martin.

Damage was estimated at approximately $50,000. The trailer and items inside were destroyed.

Lowell fire chief Frank Martin works on the far west end of the trailer.

Firefighters worked for two hours on Friday to put out the trailer fire.

Lowell Township and Bowne Township Fire Department hash out equitable funding agreement

By Marc Popiolek

Contributing Writer

Officials from the Bowne Township Fire Department and Lowell Charter Township Board will discuss a new funding formula to help offset costs of answering calls within the township.

The board was presented with information from fire officials that shows the township's funding is well below what it costs the department to operate in Lowell Township.

"This is not a bill; it's just information presented to us so we can get a better understanding of what it costs to answer calls in the township," said clerk Carol Wells.

The township currently pays $3,500 for fire protection, but according to Bowne figures, the cost of responding is more than $27,000.

"If it costs them this much, then we're obligated to respond and not put a burden on Bowne Township," said trustee Alyn Fletcher in regard to the funding and cost gap.

Township officials agree that changes are in order and plan to up their ante, but first they want to develop a funding formula that is equitable to both parties.

According to fire officials, the department covers 41 sections in Kent County. Of those sections, 12 lie within township limits.

The department estimates that its basic operating expense is more than $41,000, excluding wages of fire personnel responding to a call.

The department divided the $41,000 by 41 sections and came up with a cost of $1,000 per section.

With its 12 sections, the township's share of operating

TOWNSHIP OF VERGENNES NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Vergennes Township will hold a public hearing on Monday, November 18, 1996 at 7:00 p.m. at the Vergennes Township Hall, 10381 Bailey Drive to receive public comment on proposed Ordinance 96-5, Water Service Ordinance. If adopted, the ordinance would amend Ordinance 93-6. Water Service Ordinance. and would require connection to the water system in certain instances. Background

In 1993, pursuant to a Water and Sewer Agreement entered into by and between the Township of Vergennes and the Township of Lowell, Ordinance 93-6, Water Service Ordinance, was adopted by the Township of Vergennes, in order to provide for the use, management and operation of a Water System within a part of the Township of Vergennes. The Water and Sewer Agreement called for the Township of Vergennes to adopt changes in its Water Service Ordinance similar to changes adopted by the Township of Lowell. In September, 1996, the Township of Lowellamended its Water Service Ordinance to more effectively achieve efficiency and future financial stability of the Water System. As a result, under the joint Water and Sewer Agreement referred to above, the Township of Vergennes has prepared proposed Ordinance No. 96-5, Water Service Ordinance which would, in certain instances, require connection to the Water System.

The development of good character and virtue has always been important in our public schools. For 30 years I have seen teachers, coaches and administrators work individually to build these important virtues in the lives of our students. Thus, contrary to the thinking of some, the idea of character development is not new to public education but is, in many ways, as old as public education itself.

What is new and full of possibilities is our schools and our community working together to develop and incorporate specific guiding principles and character traits in our schools. We are searching for guiding character traits that can serve as a focal point that all can encourage, support and promote. Increasingly, it is clear that progress and improvement are best made through common vision and effort with all working together towards a common goal.

Over the past months, we have worked to develop a common vision and purpose for staff and students. The underlying reason for this common vision is to clarify the knowledge,

HEMORRHOIDS

Hemorrhoids are dilated (varicose) veins of the rectum and anus. There are two major types of hemorrhoids - external and internal. External hemorrhoids develop under the skin just outside of the anus. External hemorrhoids may cause pain and itching. Internal hemorrhoids occur inside the rectum. Often these hemorrhoids are not painful and may not be known until they start to bleed.

A frequent symptom is rectal bleeding. Bright, red blood may appear as streaks on toilet paper or may color toilet water. Pain, itching or mucus discharge may occur after bowel movements. Large hemorrhoids may cause a sensation that the rectum has not emptied completely after a bowel movement. It is critical in this process to understand that our schools do not wish to undermine in any way the traditional role of parents, churches and community. Instead, it is our hope to develop and support commonly held beliefs and to work in conjunction with our community to create healthier and more productive citizens. In striving to reach these goals, it is important to remember that these principles are not just for our children but will also serve as guiding principles for adults in the Lowell schools as well. Taxpayers who have non-wage or salary income of less than $100 ($200 for joint filers) from dividend or interest, are eligible for the new option. Their state income taxes would be deducted automatically by their employers. Taxpayers who choose a No-File option on their W-4 forms can still claim home heating and prescription drug credits.

While the program is not for everyone, an estimated 400,000 of the 4.5 million Michigan taxpayers are eligible. It's hoped that about half of those taxpayers who are eligible will take advantage of this new option in 1997.

preparer, but should help the state to become more efficient. Another change the state has implemented is that on income tax forms sent out by the state for this year, the Social Security numbers will be coded so that only computers at the Department of Treasury will be able to read the number. This will reduce the risk of unscrupulous use of taxpayers' Social Security numbers.

For more information on the new tax-filing option, please call the Michigan Department of Treasury at 1-800-FORM-2-ME. Hopefully these changes will help to make April 15 a lot less hectic for many taxpayers.

Exercising to become a way of life for Cherry Creek students

Students will be asked to exercise four times a week for at least 20 minutes at a time. Parents will be asked to sign a piece of paper confirming each day that their child exercised.

"The students will have to do this on their own," Roth said. "We are going to offer incentives for children to exercise four days a week."

The incentives will include free roller skating and bowling, and passes to different events.

There's no place like home There's no place like home There's no place like home.

Hastings' girls basketball team was reminded of that Tuesday night when it returned home and defeated Lowell 56-47 in an O-K White conference battle.

The win snapped a Saxon five-game losing streak. Lowell is hopeful that when it returns home this week to entertain Forest Hills Central, it too will snap a losing streak. The Red Arrows (3-7, 6-10) will be returning home after a seven-game road trip. Lowell started the trip with a nonconference win at Forest Hills Northern, losing its next six league games.

Hastings (4-6, 7-9) jumped out to an early 8-0 lead and led 13-8 after the opening eight minutes. The Saxons never looked back as they led from start to finish.

The Saxons led 19-16 at halftime before outscoring Lowell 22-15 in the third quarter. Hastings opened up a 41-31 advantage to start the fourth quarter.

"There is no place like home," said Hastings' basketball coach Katie Kowalczyk with a smile that stretched from ear to

"We lost five in a row on the road. So it is nice to get home and get a victory," Kowalczyk said. "Our leader Rachale Young was in foul trouble, but had other girls step up and get the job done. It was a great team victory." For Lowell coach Ken Akers, it was more of the little things that add up in losing streaks.

The black attired, whitefaced students lined the school exit at day's end and handed out red ribbons to their classmates as a reminder of the dangers of alcohol.

"The white out's impact was felt," said SADD (Students Against Drunk Driving) advisor Kathy Talus. "The activity was part of the SADDsponsored Red Ribbon week."

The Lowell High School SADD program, in just its second year, has 160 members. "We started a year ago with 150 members," Talus said

"This team has character," Dean emphasized. "I am a tough coach in practice but they responded with their play and their hustle."

The final game of the year is always a moving one for the seniors, especially when it's at home. "It was an emotional evening; that doesn't always make for inspired football," Dean

The Red Arrows were a little slow getting started as they failed to score their first two possessions against Greenville's defense.

Lowell broke through with 1:16 remaining in the first quarter as Jack Livingston became the first of five seniors to score a touchdown in their final game in a Red Arrow uniform. Livingston scored on a 31-yard touchdown rumble.

Lowell made it 12-0 on its opening possession of the second quarter when quarterback Jeff Catlin hit Brett Bittrick on a 17-yard touchdown pass. The two-point conversion failed and Lowell led 12-0.

"Lowell is a nice football team that has a good quarterback and a good coach," Greenville coach Aaron West said. "I am proud of our senior class. We haven't won many in the off season. We're going to change that."

Lowell made it 18-0 when Catlin connected with Andy Smith on a 13-yard touchdown pass which capped an 11-play. 76 vard scoring drive.

After recovering an onside kick to start the second half, Lowell marched the ball 53 yards in seven plays with Catlin scoring on a 13-yard run, making the score 24-0.

Lowell's defense stopped Greenville on a third and eight from its own 48. The Red Arrows then blocked a punt, setting up shop at the Greenville 44. The offense took three plays to reach pay-dirt. Thank you to all the friends and family who flowers, cards sent attended funeral services, and just took moment of their time, publicly or privately to say good-by and pay their respects to our father, Robert F. Peters, who left us unexpectedly October 5, 1996. Also, a special thanks to Father Dave, who gave such a fitting eulogy. Our father was many different things to many different people. To his grandchildren and friends of recent years, he was "Poppy Bob", to his old pals he was "Scissorbill", and to his children he was everything. He was a Veteran of W.W. II where he fought in the battle of Anzio. He was a man of honor and represented a self-sufficient era of our country's past. We will miss him so much. However, the sorrow we feel is only for ourselve;, for him we feel only love and admiration. Your love and condolences were so appreciated our time of need. at

Thank you again.

The Fifth Season In the Spring of life, In the flower of youth,

Everything is bright and In the Summer of life.

Time of growth and change,

Each day brings new dreams to pursue.

In the Autumn of life. There's a settling down contentment sureness in what we do. In the Winter of life.

peace and Comes wisdom, Time to relax and reminisce, too ... But with the passing of these seasons,

Life is still not done, not through, for there is yet another season.

When each spirit renewed.

And it is in this calm fifth

In this hopeful second Spring, a time of cleansing and rebirth,

A time of new awakening. Each person's life will come full circle, even as the seasons do, to start another. Much better than the one we knew.

Scout grounds named after Gould Rivette - a determined scoutmaster

Some people wish for things to happen and then wait for others to make them come true.

Others have a vision and then work relentlessly to make it a reality.

Gould Rivette was one of those "others."

In the early 1950's, Rivette had a vision whereby local scout troop 102 would have a cabin and land to build it on.

Inspired by his charge, Rivette and other volunteers worked tirelessly raising money through contributions from parents, civic groups, churches, and many scout paper drives.

"Rivette's generosity was limitless. His time and hard work paid off as his vision for the scouts is still standing today, 44 years later," said Dirk Ritzema.

At the extreme north end of Washington Street lies the scout grounds and the scout cabin.

On Saturday, former scouts, leaders, family and friends gathered at the cabin to dedicate a memorial to the scoutmaster responsible for building the cabin.

"We dedicated a plaque in honor of Gould. The plaque sits on a rock by the flagpole," Ritzema said. "We also planted a beautiful blue spruce tree and have named the grounds the "Gould Rivette Scout Grounds."

The tree was grown and donated by Rivette's cousin Dick Court. The plaque was provided by Rivette's family in the scoutmaster's honor. The rock was donated by Terry VanderWarf.

Gould, during his tenure as scoutmaster, was determined in his efforts to get the cabin up and the grounds dedicated.

"It was tough going at times - workwise and financially but Gould's leadership helped them finish the job and many good times have been enjoyed there by scouts who have been associated with the troop since that time," said his wife Barb Rivette. "Gould cared for people, seeing a need and taking action to carry through with a solution. He made a difference in the scouting program and in the lives of many individuals."

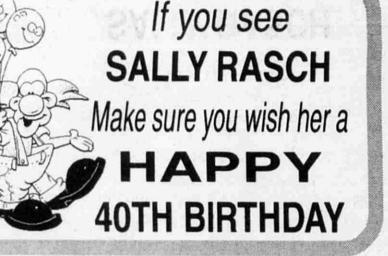

Rivette served as Scoutmaster for Troop 102 from 1950-1957. He died in October of 1995.

Sportsman Club faces list of

By Marc Popiolek Contributing Writer

In response to Lowell Charter Township's list of improvements, the Northeastern Sportsman Club will discuss on Thursday what steps they will take to meet those demands, according to township supervisor John the "rustic" style campground Timpson.

Earlier this month, the township provided the club, located at 9605 Grand River Drive, with a list of requirements to continue operating.

Among the items listed was the installation of a commercial driveway, gate that can be locked, and privacy fence. The club was also instructed to clear a sight distance of 500 feet at its entrance, provide the township of club rules and newly elected officers and meet standards set by the Michigan Department of Public Health.

Timpson said meeting the MDPH guidelines will be the club's hardest task.

According to Timpson,

897-9259 • 835 W. Main, Lowell

does not have well percolating soil for a septic system and has a drainfield which is saturated.

"The health department's report said the septic field failed and they have to bring it up to standard to operate as an RV park," Timpson said. "Before we can issue them a special use permit to continue their operation, they must meet the health department requirements and our requirements."

The club, which has been located at the site for more than 30 years, has a membership of 100 and costs $60 to join the club. A small clubhouse and sites for trailers to camp and be stored during the winter months are part of the club's benefits.

Timpson said the township became involved in the club after neighbors complained that club members had come to their homes to use the phone.

Timpson has met with club president Lloyd Brown and said the club has agreed to work with the township to comply with the codes.

"Mr. Brown seemed more than willing to cooperate and has agreed to discuss the matter with club members," said Timpson. "The problem is that it will be quite costly to comply with the health department, but they must in order to open next year."

FRIENDSHIP COUNTRY CHAPEL PAYS TRIBUTE TO PASTOR BOB ROUSH

On Sunday, Oct. 27, the congregation of Friendship Country Chapel honored Pastor Bob Roush and his wife Kathy at a special service for Clergy Appreciation month.

Pastor Bob is a faithful follower of the Lord God as a servant himself, creating an atmosphere that makes one feel wanted and part of the family. His servants' attitude has allowed him to help at the chapel doing everything from maintenance, building, yard work, cleaning, teaching, encouraging, visiting, singing - to name a few - as well as preaching. Pastor Bob faithfully preaches and teaches from the word of God encouraging and challenging his flock.

His wonderful wife Kathy is also loved by all. She has faithfully taught Sunday School for as many years as the chapel has been in existence. She has also been behind most of the notes, flowers or plants sent on behalf of the chapel. In appreciation for all they have done for us, the congregation gathered on a Saturday and re-roofed Pastor Bob and Kathy's home as a gift to them. As part of our Sunday Service Tribute, we presented them with a gift tree. It included a variety of unique gifts such as gift certificates to restaurants, Christian bookstores, bed and breakfast and many more.

Pastor Bob and Kathy have four grown children: Bob, Bonny, Becky and Brian and seven grandchildren.

We love you Pastor Bob and Kathy. You're Awesome!
