"Mighty Oak" to document township's historical past

There is a lot to learn from a fallen tree.

That will soon be evident when a group of Vergennes Township residents salvage at least one cross section of the "Great White Oak" tree which sat on the northwest corner of Bailey and Parnell. The tree rings in the cross section(s) will be used to highlight a visual record of township history.

When the Kent County Road Commission toppled the "Great White Oak" in September/October, it cut down a 150-year-old township landmark. "It may very well have been older than that," said Bill (Mac) McPherson, a member of the committee who helped decide what to do with the fallen tree. He worked with Susan Geiger-Hessler, Doug Olin and Pete Gustafson.

After the cross section(s) are cut, the committee will examine what wood might be available for any other restoration possibilities.

PROGRAM ON PARENT'S ROLE IN CHILDREN'S HOMEWORK

The Parent's Role with Their Child's Homework will be presented Thursday, Jan. 14 from 7 to 8:30 p.m. at Lowell Area Schools' Administration Building, 300 High Street. Dr. William McInnis, a psychologist from the Grand Rapids Psychological Consultants Group, will speak with parents.

Learn how to help your child organize homework, develop a good "homework routine," homework tips, school and home communication. Find out just how involved a parent should be in their child's nightly homework. This is a free workshop with childcare provided. Call either Jantina at 897-1214 or Carol at 897-1216 by January 12. Sponsored by Lowell's Educational Support Services Dept.

PICTURES NEEDED FOR SENIOR VIDEO

Parents, for the senior video to be a success, we need pictures of your seniors. Please bring group or individual pics, baby, preschool, junior high or current shots to the high school office or the media center by Fri., Jan. 15. Put your name on them and they will be saved for you. This video will be available at the senior all-night party May, 1999.

Vergennes' deputy supervisor sworn in

•••• Ken Ewing was sworn in as Tim Wittenbach's deputy supervisor on Wednesday (Jan.6).

By Thaddeus J. Kraus Lowell Ledger Editor

In the field of sports, officials who go unnoticed during a game are said to be ones doing a good job.

Vergennes Township's Ken Ewing will execute the same approach in carrying out his duties as deputy supervisor. Ewing was sworn in to his new role on Wednesday.

"I just want to make a constructive contribution to all of my neighbors in Vergennes Township," Ewing said.

The state of Michigan entitles a township supervisor to have a deputy supervisor to serve as an assistant.

Ewing will carry out functions for Tim Wittenbach when he is not able to... except for talking to the press about issues and decision-making matters. "I am not interested in a lot of attention," Ewing explains.

He's also not interested in money. Ewing has volunteered his time and services.

Ewing spent 36 years in a federal law enforcement agency before retiring in 1995.

He's lived in Vergennes Township for 13 years.

"My hours are not fixed. I will work when Tim needs me," Ewing said.

Wittenbach says the position is an extension of the supervisor. "Ultimately I am responsible. Ken will support me. Ken is a responsible person. He won't be running around defining township policy as some have implied. That would not be responsible or practical," Wittenbach said. "He will carry out leg work and research for me along with being in constant communication."

Wittenbach assures people his role as supervisor will not change. "I'm still going to be extremely involved in decision-making," he says.

School board approves pay hikes for substitute teachers

By Thaddeus J. Kraus Lowell Ledger Editor

As a matter of fairness, the Lowell Board of Education approved recommendation to increase the pay for district substitute teachers.

The $10 increase for certified teachers raises the pay to $70 a day from $60. Certified teachers who work 15 consecutive days or more will be paid $80.

Lowell superintendent Bert Bleke said the district is one of the last in the Kent Intermediate School District to approve a pay increase.

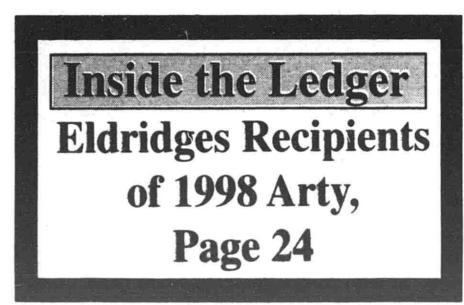

"We're still below what the rest of the KISD schools are paying substitute teachers," Bleke explained.

A concern for getting substitute teachers and fairness were the two reasons highlighted in Bleke's recommendation for an increase in substitute pay.

Connie Gillette, Lowell's assistant superintendent for finance and personnel, said the school will spend between $14-$15,000 on substitute teachers this school year.

Lowell School Board

president Pete Gustafson said the pay hike brings Lowell more in line with the other KISD schools. "We have an appealing venue for substitute teachers to work in," Gustafson explained.

Gustafson said brings Lowell with the other "We have an venue for substituto work in," Gu

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ON THE CITY OF LOWELL'S PROPOSED USE OF 1999-2000 KENT COUNTY COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT BLOCK GRANT FUNDS

A public hearing will be conducted by the Lowell City Council on Tuesday, January 19, 1999, at 7:30 p.m. at the Englehardt Public Library Community Room, 200 N. Monroe Street, Lowell, Michigan.

Public comments will be received during the hearing, orally or in writing, regarding the City of Lowell's proposed use of U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Community Development Block Grant Funds for the following projects:

Completion of West Main Street Sidewalk .$39,989.60 Improvement Project. North Kent Transit, assistance for senior citizen ..$2,000.00 and handicapped riders..

The County of Kent has allocated a portion of its 1999-2000 federal entitlement Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) to the City of Lowell. The primary objective of the federal CDBG Entitlement Program "is the development of viable urban communities, by providing decent housing and a suitable living environment and expanding economic opportunities, principally for persons of low and moderate income." Activities using CDBG funds must meet one of the following National Objectives: benefiting low and moderate income." Marine Cpl. John B. Sterzick, son of John L. Sterzick of Lowell, recently completed a six-month deployment to Iwakuni Japan, with Marine Fighter Attack Squadron 121, as part of the Unit Deployment Program (UDP).

While deployed, Sterzick participated in Exercise Southern Frontier. During the integrated air exercise, Sterzick and fellow Marines had the opportunity to fly with and against members of the Royal Australian Air Force. Sterzick's squadron also had the opportunity during the training to visit Australia.

UDP units based in the United States deploy to Iwakuni for six months to hone combat skills and conduct training. From Iwakuni they can deploy to other countries in the Pacific region.

Sterzick's squadron flies the F/A-18C Hornet, a twinengine supersonic strike fighter which features an all-weather intercept, identify, destroy and ground attack capability. He is a 1995 graduate of Saranac High School of Saranac.

the crime - and it is a crime - more seriously.

Rural and suburban mailboxes are most vulnerable to vandalism, according to postal inspectors, because they are usually isolated and frequently not visible to the owners from their homes. Since mailboxes are considered federal property. crimes against them are considered a federal offense. Violators can be fined up to $250,000 or imprisoned for up to three years for each act of vandalism.

If you have information on mailbox vandalism or mail theft in your area, the postal inspection service needs to know about it. And if you have teenagers in your home, do your best to let them know the penalties for vandalism, and that the postal service does not take any of it lightly.

If your mailbox has been vandalized, contact your local police department and file a complaint. Let your postmaster know and notify postal inspectors.

Burglar alarms in private homes are no longer a novelty and a personal alarm is now available.

New congressman Gerald R. Ford's first column, "Your Washington Review," to appear weekly, starts today. He writes about moving in, his office staff, the State of the Union speech by President Truman, newspaper reporters, and walking the four miles to work.

ACUTE SINUSITIS

Sinusitis or sinus infections are seen quite frequently in the office this time of year. They are often a complication of the common cold and we're right in the middle of the cold and flu season

Sinuses are air spaces in the bones of the face that function to humidify the air we breathe. Sinus infection results when there is a blockage of the small openings that connect the sinuses to the nasal passages. A build-up of mucus and other secretions become trapped within the sinuses leading to bacterial overgrowth.

It may be difficult to differentiate a cold (which is caused by a virus) from a bacterial sinus infection. A cold that starts to get better, then gets worse after a week or so, may be an indication of sinusitis. Some symptoms suggesting sinusitis include pain on one side of the face, tooth pain, thick green or yellow drainage, headache and symptoms lasting more than two weeks.

Antibiotics are frequently prescribed for acute sinusitis, but many physicians feel that most cases of sinusitis will resolve without the use of antibiotics. Some steps that can be taken at home to hasten the resolution of sinusitus are listed below:

*Drink plenty of fluids.

*Avoid dairy products for a few days.

*Apply a moist hot towel to the face or breathe in steam from the shower to promote sinus drainage.

Letters, Letters, Letters...

The Lowell Ledger welcomes all "Letters to the Editor"for publication on its "Viewpoint" page. Letters can be typed or written. However, we ask that they do ot exceed one written page or one typed, double-spaced

"Letters to the Editor" should be sent to the Lowell edger, 105 N. Broadway, P.O. Box 128, Lowell, MI 49331

Editing may be necessary for space, clarity and to void obscenity, libel or invasion of privacy. The Lowell Ledger thanks you in advance for your ooperation.

Sunday evening was Lowell Night at Van Andel Arena for the G.R. Hoops game against the Idaho Stampede. Before a crowd of 3,037, the Lowell High School symphonic band played prior to the start of the game and at halftime. "The kids enjoyed themselves and it was a fun activity for them," said Lowell High School band director Bob Rice. The marketing strategy is to highlight area community bands during the season. It is also a way for area bands to raise money. Rice was contacted by the Hoops last spring. The Lowell band was asked to sell game vouchers, in turn receiving a percentage of their sales. Students sold 330 game vouchers earning the band roughly $1,600. The money will be used to purchase items for the band. Lowell High School's symphonic band was the first band highlighted this season.

Potted azaleas, like their outdoor relatives, need an acid growing medium. Stunted growth and yellow leaves are signs the growing medium isn't sufficiently acid. Adding 1/4 teaspoon ferrous sulfate to the pot once a month will keep the medium acid enough to meet the plant's needs.

City and Grand Rapids Gravel discussing city sign alignment

By Thaddeus J. Kraus Lowell Ledger Editor

Grand Rapids Gravel owner Andy Dykema just wants the city to live up to its agreement.

He is in luck, because that is what the Lowell City Council wants too.

When discussion originally arose for the new Bowes Road alignment, Grand Rapids Gravel stated it was interested in the old Bowes Road right-of-way.

company cooperated with the city on the whole new alignment.

"We allowed the city to put the new street through the middle of our property," Dykema said. "We were under the impression by doing so we'd get half of the old right-of-way." The city began the process when questions arose about the of the old roadway if it remained city property.

"I just don't want a cray looking easement in the middle of my property," Dykema said.

The topic will be revisited at the Jan. 19 meeting. During this time the two sides will determine the size and shape of the Dykema said he does not have a problem with the city triangular size shaped parcel the city sign will sit on.

Lowell bounces Northview

•••• The win was the Red Arrow basketball program's first conference win in over two years.

By Thaddeus J. Kraus Lowell Ledger Editor

Prior to Lowell's OK White conference boys basketball game with Northview, there wasn't a player on the roster who knew the feeling of winning a varsity league basketball game.

Following a 66-55 victory, in which Lowell never trailed, they all did.

"Our juniors are growing and our seniors are leading,' said Lowell varsity basketball coach Pete Bush. "We've played well through five games. This was a good win for us. We did not play a perfect game tonight, but we're still learning how to win.

Bush gave his club a few pointers midway through the fourth quarter when the game was still in doubt.

"The boys quit looking to score," Bush said. "I told them that we can't stop scoring... that we needed to continue to take good shots when we have them.

The Red Arrows led through three-and-a-half quarters before Northview tied the game at 49-49.

Lowell, who may have folded in recent years, responded with a 7-0 run to take a 56-49 advantage on baskets by Shane Teelander, Aaron Alsgaard and Ryan Mix.

Northview (0-7, 0-3) made one more push to pull

The Red Arrows, however, outscored the Wildcats 10-1 in the final 1:45 to secure Lowell's second win in five attempts.

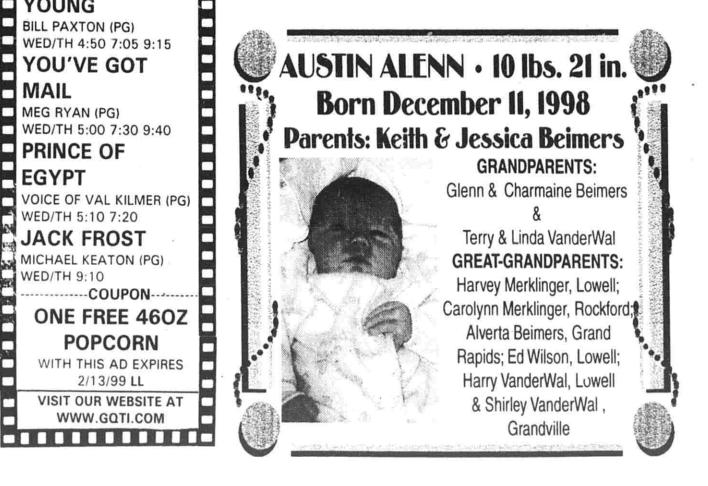

"Lowell played hard. Coach Bush and his club deserved the win," said Northview coach and former Lowell assistant coach Rob Smith. "We had 13 turnovers in the first half. We have to do a better job of running our offense and with getting better shots."

While the two clubs grabbed an equal (40-40) amount of rebounds, the Red Arrows (2-3, 1-2) did a better job with positioning on the offensive end as they grabbed 14 offensive rebounds.

Junior Steve Adams led all Lowell players with 11 rebounds. He also netted nine points. "That was Steve's best game of the year," Bush said. Lowell also got a big per-

Central bumps its way past Lowell in classic dual, 35-32

•••• Ranger coach bumps state champion up to 171 pounds and with it knocks Lowell from atop OK White.

By Thaddeus J. Kraus Lowell Ledger Editor

Lowell got an early jump on Forest Hills Central Thursday night, but it was a bump later in the match that sparked the Rangers to an emotional 35-32 win before a charged crowd of approximately 1,200 high school wrestling fans.

"It was a classic Forest Hills Central/Lowell wrestling match...a great crowd and emotions were high," said Central's wrestling coach Dave Mills. "I'm just happy we came out on top."

Bumping a wrestler up one weight class doesn't always work, but when the wrestler is a defending state champion, the chances are much improved.

Brad Anderson, who will probably wrestle at 152/160 pounds the remainder of the year, stepped up to 171 against Lowell

Red Arrow spikers fall to second ranked Rangers

By Thaddeus J. Kraus Lowell Ledger Editor

Three things hurt Lowell in its OK White conference volleyball opener.... lack of communication and lack of movement were two of them; last but not least, the Red Arrows were playing the number two ranked Class A school in the state. Lowell lost to Forest Hills Central 15-4, 15-6 Thursday night at home.

"Central is consistent, and smart at the net," Lowell volleyball coach Kristen Ference said. "and they are just the second-ranked team in the state."

Lowell's coach was fairly happy with her club's passing off serve receive. "Considering who we were playing, I was pretty pleased," Ference said. "However, we did not communicate and move very well."

Angie Schmidt was Lowell's leader in kills with two. Erica Heisser had eight to lead Central.

Natalie Syre led the Rangers in aces with six. Shelby Williams had two assists for Lowell while Megan Bock tallied 15 for Central.

Byron Center Invitational

The theme continued at Byron Center on Saturday. Lowell's spikers lacked communication, movement and consistency.

"I was very frustrated with the way we started," Lowell volleyball coach Kristen Ference explained. "We scored one point in our second game against Spring Lake. The girls scored more points against Central. Spring Lake is nowhere close to Forest Hills.'

Some of Ference's frustration was tempered when her club faired better at the end of the day as it defeated Middleville 15-3, 17-15.

"The girls ended the day on a good note. They played well against Middleville," Ference said. "Our passing improved and our consistency was better."

Both were missing in Lowell's loss (15-11, 15-1) losses to Spring Lake and 15-10, 15-8 to Grand Rapids Baptist (15-10,

The performance of the Forest Hills/ Lowell swim team at the Forest Hills Invitational on Saturday may be a good indication of what's to come.

"We are very happy with the way the boys are swimming so far this season." said assistant coach Heather Heritage.

While Heritage and head coach Tim Jasperse know the club isn't ready to challenge the likes of Forest Hills Northern, East Grand Rapids or Grandville, they are aware of some marked improvement.

"The boys turned in some great swims on Saturday," Heritage said. "I think this is a good indication for the rest of the season."

Shawn Tornga earned a third-place finish in the 100 freestyle at the Forest Hills Invitational. The Ranger came home in 53.22.

Following Tornga were teammates Luke Rosenberger (56.87), Andrew Klipa (57.81), Jon Rosenberger (101.61), John Webb (1:06.41), and Tyler Duckett (1:25. 10).

Personal bests were the order of the day in the 50 freestyle. Tornga was third overall in a time of 23.71. Peter Gillen had the second best time for the Rangers as he finished in 25.51. Finishing with personal bests were Jon Rosenberger (26.82); Webb (28.50); Jacob Billingsley (29.88); James Bennett (29.43); and Duckett (35.27).

Forest Hills/Lowell (Luke Rosenberger, Brett Goldberg, Gillen and Tornga) finished fourth in the medlev relay with a time of 1:51.17.

Ranger swimmers did not place in the 200 freestyle, but still managed some solid swim times. Goldberg came home in 2:08.84; Phillip Wegert stopped the clock in 2:13.76; and Mark Kwast finished in 2:28.97.

Luke Rosenberger, Tornga, Gillen and Klipa placed fourth in the 400 freestyle relay in a time of 3:54.68.

Luke Rosenberger was fifth in the 100 breaststroke with a time of 1:09.64 Other Rangers to swim in the event were Gillen, 1:13.56; Klipa 1:14.53 and Bennett 1:40.45.

In the 100 backstroke, Goldberg was outstanding, coming home in 1:03.52. Billingsley finished in 1:13.55.

In the 200 freestyle relay, it was Jon Rosenberger, Tornga, Gillen and Klipa finishing in 1:40.61.

In the 500 freestyle, Rangers Wegert came home in 6:11.87 and Kwast finished in 6:58.07.

to find the net only 44 seconds into the first period. They followed with a second goal only three minutes later to take an early 2-0 lead. The Red Arrows battled back and narrowed the margin late in the first period on a goal by Adam Dabaja with an assist from Bobby Oliver.

The first period came to a close with the Red Arrows trailing by a goal. Lowell fought back and tied the game midway through the second period on an unassisted goal by defenseman Mike Hoonhorst but once again found themselves trailing after a Huskie goal late in the second period.

The Red Arrows were not ready to give in quite yet. Lowell goaltender Jay Blair dug in behind some great defensive play by Chad Rau, Hoonhorst and Bryan Posthumus to hold the Huskies scoreless for the remainder of the game. This allowed the Red Arrow offense to mount a charge that began early in the third period when

Eldridges' time and talent enhance art in Lowell community

•••• The 18th annual LAAC Arty was presented to Gary and Trish Eldridge for their 20-year commitment to arts in the Lowell community.

There has not been a task too big or too small, messy or elegant, difficult or simple for Gary and Trish Eldridge during their 20year tenure with the Lowell Area Arts Council.

"We've stayed involved over the years because of the people and we love art," Gary Eldridge said. "The LAAC brings together a neat cross-section of the community."

Ann Breckon presented the Eldridges with the LAAC's 18th annual Arty award in recognition of their active volunteerism and dedication to the arts in Lowell. The Arty Award presentation took place during an LAAC holiday gathering.

"It's recognition of a lot of hard work. It is also an honor because of the people before us," Gary Eldridge explains.

As is often the case in volunteer organizations, this husband and wife team growing expertise soon won them an invitation to the steering committee and for the past two years, they have served as co-chairs of the Arts Council's biggest event of the year and most important fundraiser. This year, in addition to general chair duties, Trish was co-chair of publicity for the festival.

Gary and Trish Eldridge have served as co-chairs of LAAC's Fallasburg Fall Festival.

Gary has used his graphic arts knowledge and talent often, volunteering designs for used by the post office at the festival.

Trish and other family members have worked on the sewing of the quilt. Currently, Gary serves as vice chairman of the board of directors.

"The Lowell Area Arts Council has a good reputation in West Michigan and around the state," Gary Eldridge said. "It's also nice to be doing it for a community that appreciates what's being done. We're lucky to have its support and activity."

Both Gary and Trish are longtime members of the LAAC Gallery Committee.

As David Davis, gallery director, has often said, "To be a member of this committee, you not only must have an understanding and appreciation for the artwork, but you have to be a gourmet cook as well." It's not known whether all members can live up to that job description, but the Eldridges have done their share of hanging artwork and preparing delicacies for the buffet table during gallery openings.

According to board chair Ann Breckon, who presented the Eldridges with a framed certificate and gifts from the membership, being an active volunteer at the Arts Center involves working at many kinds of tasks. Whatever has been needed, Gary and Trish Eldridge have been there working and are appreciated as volunteers who give a lot of time and talent to bring the arts to the community.

Arts Council projects a pleasant and productive way to have time together and serve their community.

The Eldridges have been especially active with the Fallasburg Fall Festival. Their first duties were as volunteers in the information booth, but their
