Bowne Township Planning Commission opposed to Landon rezoning request

•••• The planning commission's unanimous decision not to recommend rezoning of 142 acres did nothing to deter the real estate firm's continued pursuit. Landon will now take its case to the county planning commission.

By Thaddeus J. Kraus Lowell Ledger Editor

If Sanford Green, vice president in charge of real estate for Landon Companies, is correct in saying, "Many good things require ample persuasion," then his argument for the merits of rezoning 142 acres of ag land to urban residential in Bowne Township needs more persuasion.

If the approximately 250 Bowne Township residents in attendance, at the planning commission's special meeting to consider rezoning 142 acres of ag land to urban residential, think the unanimous vote to deny recommending Landon Companies' request for rezoning to the township board has taken the fight out of the Landon Company, they are wrong.

The 142 acres, owned by township supervisor Christian Wenger, run from 92nd St. south along Tyler Creek to 100th St.; then east on 100th to the property line and north on the property line to 92nd

Green was not surprised by the opposition that faced him Thursday night. "We're committed to seeing our way through this administrative rezoning process. We will give our best shot when we get to the end of the process," he said. "I believe strongly in what we're trying to do. It is a good thing. We're not ready to quit trying to persuade people."

Next up, in that process for the Southfield company, is a presentation to the county planning commission in an effort to attain its recommendation for rezoning. From there its fight goes back to the township board of supervisors.

In stating what he felt were merits for rezoning, Green explained that there is an acute need for affordable, quality housing for middle income people. "It will allow people to enjoy a beautiful piece of land," he said.

Bowne Township Planning Commission chairperson Pam Lucas said the onus was on Landon to convince the planning commission why it should not stick with the township's long-range land use plan which calls for the property to remain agricultural.

A township resident asked how this parcel of property is any different from the Section IV parcel (from 60th St. to 68th St.) which the township recently rezoned urban residential.

"The township wanted to be in compliance because our ordinance did not allow for mobile home parks. Thus, we rezoned part of Section IV because the long-range land use plan for it is urban-residential,"

Pete Siler served on the board of appeals during a three-year stretch in the late 70s when the township adopted a land use ordinance.

"It was so the uses within the district could work in harmony without being in direct competition," Siler explained. "The township

Look Committee board member Barb Brown presents Gordie Barry, vice chairperson of the Flat River Outreach Ministries interim board, with a check for $10,000. The monies will be used toward renovation of the building's exterior. To date, approximately $50,000 has been spent on heating and plumbing, a new roof, electric and tree removal. Flat River Outreach Ministries has collected roughly $55,000 in monetary donations and grants.

April workshops result from leadership Lowell Nov. meeting

•••• Grant writing basics and communication competence are just two of the six workshops being offered over a two-day period.

By Thaddeus J. Kraus Lowell Ledger Editor

To assure maximum use of the Lowell Area Community Fund grants, a Lowell Community Leadership Learning Initiative has been implemented.

Through this initiative, businesses, organizations, nonprofits and individuals are encouraged to take part in two workshops being offered in the month of April by the Lowell Area Community Fund and the Direction Center, a management resource for nonprofit organizations.

The idea of offering workshops, seminars and classes to increase the ability of individuals, organizations and community stems from Leadership Lowell's November (1998) meeting.

The workshops will be held on two Thursdays, April 22nd and 29th.

The cost is $7 per person or $25 per organization if it is sending more than three people.

The workshops will run from 6 until 9 p.m. with snacks and beverages available 30 minutes (5:30 p.m.) prior to the start of the workshops.

"This is a great opportunity to learn for a very small amount of money," said Bert Bleke, Lowell Area Community Fund advisory committee member. "These workshops are being taught by Leadership, cont'd. pg. 8 the devil must have been cackwas a clever one: the Son of God would receive a death sentence; and if He used His divine power to save Himself, He would have to give up the role of Savior of mankind. If Jesus didn't save Himself, that would be a sweet victory for the devil, watching God the Father stand by and do nothing to save His Son. Either way, the devil would win. Either way, he would be able to say to us:

See, it's just like I've always told you - you can't trust God.

Fools' prank, the devil overlooked something. He didn't foresee what would happen if the Father let His Son die and then made Him alive again

paid for by Jesus' death;

God's trustworthiness would be reaffirmed by His resurrection. Oh, sure, it makes

Have you ever heard the story about the guy who was an insomniac, dyslexic agnostic? Seems the poor fellow lay awake all night wondering if there really is a dog. That's a funny story, but unfortunately has nothing to do with my topic except that I recently got a laugh out of a guy when his dyslexia Michigan who has a 10 K.W. generator that he powers with a hadn't even met before the storm drew us together. We cooked apparently kicked in and he referred to the Y2K problem as the pending 2YK disaster. As for me, I prefer to call it the looming KY Jelly calamity.

sincerity told me they intend to pull all their money out of their various accounts, get it in cash and hide it until the KY Jelly thing has safely passed. The thought of this made me wonder away. My plans were dashed when the generator was indefiif I could train my dogs to sniff out caches of currency? Kinda like drug dogs, only different. A guy might do all right poking Jelly crowd. Now I know how the Amish guy feels when he to gas up the boat, buy some extra bait for the freezer and make around backyards at night with such a dog and a shovel. I could can't find a new wood stove. always use a few Mason jars full of Ben Franklins.

have them sold out. Their shelves are bare. It's a tragedy. Soon December 31. we'll see Amish folk driving Lexus sedans and shopping at Circuit City because they can't get their pioneer supplies.

My wife and I rode out Hurricane Georges last summer at our home in the Florida Keys. We were without power for 10 days following the storm. We were without phones, cable TV, garbage service and safe drinking water. Everybody had puttputt generators, but we only ran them during the day as they were noisy. Of course, everyone was without air conditioning and trying to sleep with all the windows open. It became an side that thinks Bob Dole's Viagra commercial is hilarious... unwritten law that generators be shut down around ten o'clock. When everything was said and done, the worst part of the entire long. A couple of weeks would do it. I went through it after the ordeal was trying to sleep with not so much as a fan.

Shortly after the hurricane, I ran across a guy here in really quiet Kawasaki engine out of a golf cart. He says it works great and has enough power to run my air conditioner. Even positive experience. I think KY Jelly could be the same, except better, he knew where I could get one of these golf cart engines, I love this kinda stuff. I have talked to people who in all cheap. I ordered a generator figuring the next hurricane we'd have a/c, ice cream in the freezer, TV off the satellite dish and neighborhood sleep-overs with my little generator purring nitely back-ordered because of the rush on them by the KY

They're buying generators, canned they are in the air. As far as I'm concerned, the computers can goods, chain saws, wood stoves, camping gear, etc. I guess crash all they want. In fact, I believe most government agencies there is a big hardware store in Ohio that is the headquarters for shouldn't have computers anyway. However, I might have to this sorta stuff. They typically supply these primitive goods to go along with the KY Jelly freaks on this one. I'm not so sure the nation's Amish population, but now the KY Jelly freaks I'd want to be strapped in the back of a 737 at midnight on My honest opinion of KY Jelly is that the whole thing will be a big bust. The news media will be on hand to sensationalize any little power plant going off line for awhile, a traffic light not working properly or some KY Jelly survivalist shooting a neighbor he thought was trying to steal his canned corn but was actually just returning a borrowed snow shovel. My guess is it won't amount to much.

However, the dark side of me... the black humor side... the hopes like hell the whole world shuts down for awhile. Not too aforementioned hurricane. We read instead of watching TV. We helped neighbors, and they helped us. Some of them we on the grill instead of ordering pizza. All in all, it was a very worldwide.

So, what is my KY Jelly survival plan? As usual, I'll be in the Keys for the holidays. My whole family will be there. My dogs will be there. Our best friends and their family will be there. I will have just celebrated my 50th birthday. Life will be good. The only KY Jelly preparations I'll likely make will be sure I have propane for the grill. If I have to, I'll weather the I know lots of people who say they won't travel during KY. catastrophe fishing and taking nourishment from grilled fresh

Psoriasis is a chronic inflammatory skin condition. It tends to cause red, silvery scales and flaky skin patches. It tends to wax and wane in intensity, and it sometimes may completely disappear. There is, however, no cure. The cause of psoriasis is unknown. We do know that it is not related to allergy or diet. It is not contagious, nor is it progressive to the point where it is life threatening.

For mild cases of psoriasis, using over-the-counter hydrocortisone cream, moisturizing creams and medicated shampoos may be all that is necessary to control the problem. Also, ultraviolet light from sunlight (not in great doses, however) can help decrease the rash.

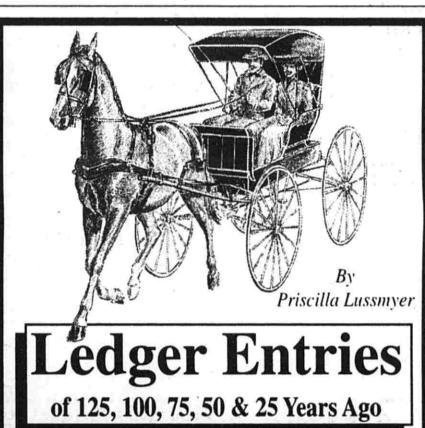

For more severe cases of psoriasis, prescription steroi-(cortisone) creams may be prescribed. No one should use these creams indiscriminately or regularly due to the side effects of long-term steroid use. If you have psoriasis over a large area of your body, your doctor may recommend phototherapy (light treatment). Phototherapy involves the use of ultraviolet A light in a generalized exposure to help treat the psoriasis. If your doctor adds a pill called psoralen for you to take, it is because psoralen boosts the action of ultraviolet light when you are exposed to it. This treatment is called PUVA (psoralen ultraviolet A light.)

One of the newer treatments for psoriasis is a cream of lotion that contains vitamin D (alcipotriene). It tends to help three out of four people who use it.

Even though psoriasis is chronic and incurable, it is fortunate that many viable treatments exist to help control it.

Joan Wittenbach's BOOK REVIEW

Two years ago, I was introduced to a series of four books that have delighted me and everyone that I have introduced them to. The Mitford series by Jan Karon are "homemade and down to Earth." And it is true, as the book cover suggests: "Enter the world of Mitford, and you won't want to leave." As I finished one book, I wondered if the next one would be as Yes, that was Dooley alright! What a rascal.

master plan does not allow for spot zoning which would put land use in direct competition."

Kris Roth said she understands why people want the land to remain undeveloped. "None of you, however, are farmers who are trying to make a living off the land. Farmers don't get raises and oftentimes get little if any money for their crops."

Douglass Brearley added many farmers cannot take on the taxes for repair or the taxes for agricultural use. "People who farm need breaks so they can afford to continue to farm." he said.

On the other hand, township residents like Jim Reynhout are fearful what will happen to their taxes when the value of their acreage is driven up by the outrageous prices being offered to farmers by companies like Landon.

"As soon as this property is sold for millions, my acreage value goes up," Reynhout explains.

Siler believes farmers have a valid argument. "The answer is in such things as PDRs (township's purchasing development rights to the farm land)," he explained.

Townships would have to tax themselves to raise money

"When it's amber colored, it's the best grade and the most desired." Ron explains.

The syrup is poured through a double filter to remove the impurities, and then into one quart cans as a finished product. Wenger Farms sells only pure maple syrup, with absolutely no additives or preservatives of any kind.

The process takes a huge amount of effort. The Wengers use 35-40 cords of firewood each year during the stove fire and water boiling process. The big stainless steel steaming pans were recently replaced at a cost of $8,000. Other equipment, especially the sap collecting pails, have cost them another

Further repairs on M-21 slated to begin in April

The Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT) is shifting its record $1.23 billion road and bridge plan for 1999 into gear, and motorists on M-21 between Ada and Lowell will soon see and feel the positive effects.

A 7.8 mile stretch of M-21 from Grand River Drive to Valley Vista Drive will receive $4.4 million worth of repairs. Depending on the location, these repairs will include concrete pavement repairs, asphalt milling and resurfacing, or total removal and replacement of the pave-

"We're working hard to achieve our goal of having 90 percent of state roads and bridges in good condition by 2007, and it is projects like these that are going to get us there," said Steve Earl, Grand Region engineer. "MDOT is committed to fixing the right roads at the right time the than routine maintenance." right way."

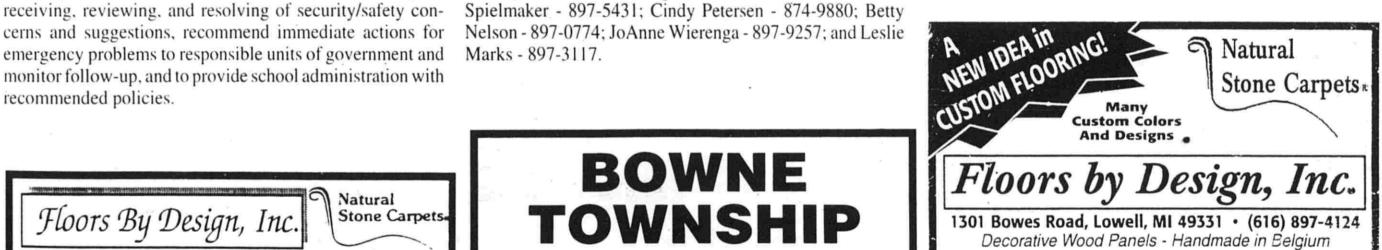

The project is scheduled to begin April 5 and be completed by the end of September. During the repairs, one lane of traffic will be maintained in alternate directions with flag control in the twolane sections. A minimum of one lane of traffic in each direction will be maintained in the four-lane sections. A detour of M-21 will be necessary during culvert replacement and during work in Lowell. The detour for the culvert replacement will follow I-96 and Alden Nash Ave. The Lowell detour will follow Bowes Road and Valley Vista Ave.

"This is a major project for this highway, but my staff and I are going to do everything we can to keep traffic moving as smoothly as possible," said Karl Koivisto. Greenville Area Transportation Service Center manager. "Also, we have scheduled a project that will rehabilitate this stretch for 15 years, so we won't have to return any time soon for anything more Funding for the project was made possible by Gov. John Engler's Build Michigan II plan and the federal legislation, TEA-21.

Grant proposals now being taken for Englehardt Lowell Area Community Fund

•••• Grant proposals are due May 3; grant awards will be announced in June. To date, nearly $600,000 has been awarded from the Lowell Area Community Fund.

The Lowell community is about to once again reap the rewards of Harold Englehardt's generosity to the town and people for which he had such love and concern.

That's because The Grand Rapids Foundation is encouraging Lowell-area, nonprofit organizations to apply for the current round of grants totaling up to $350,000, to be made available from the Lowell Area Community Fund.

The fund was established in 1997 as the result of Englehardt's $12 million trust created with The Grand Rapids Foundation for initiating a fund for charitable purposes for the Lowell area. Englehardt earned his fortune in Lowell where he lived for 75 years. He died in April 1997.

Grant proposals are due May 3, 1999; grant awards will be announced in June.

The Lowell Area Community Fund gives priority to projects that promote a "Healthy Community" by addressing the following areas: Arts and Culture, Economic Development, Education, Environment, Health, Human Services and Recreation.

LHS players help renovate their field of dreams

Lowell High School baseball players, parents and coaches spent much of their Saturday working on and refurbishing the Bancroft baseball field. Work began about 9:30 a.m. and wrapped up about 6 p.m. Tasks attended to included edging the warning track and infield, painting dugouts, and renovating the concession stand. Bill Brown, Lowell volunteer assistant junior varsity baseball coach, said accomplishing all tasks required a commitment to the program by the players. All the equipment needed to do the work was donated. Some players, coaches and parents will leave on Thursday for Gulf Shores, Alabama. Their spring break will be spent practicing and enjoying the warm weather and sites.

OTHER COMMUNITY RECREATION NEEDS

7. Would you support the Community Recreation Authority constructing and maintaining additional athletic fields for soccer, softball, football and baseball? Probably no Probably yes Don't know Definitely no

8. Would you support the Community Recreation Authority constructing and maintaining a 10-mile asphalt bike path?

Definitely yes Probably yes Probably no Definitely no Don't know

9. Would you support the Community Recreation Authority constructing and maintaining an indoor ice arena? Definitely yes Probably yes Probably no Definitely no Don't know

Again, this survey is to assist the Lowell area community in its coordinated long-term planning. In addition to the community recreation needs, there may be additional school facility needs because of the continued growing enrollment in our schools.

10. If we told you that three to five years from today, the growing student enrollment in Lowell's public schools may require building new school facilities, how would you then personally vote on a community pool bond issue and operating millage for the same Option A described above, which includes a basic swimming pool plus a second small warm water pool to better serve babies, toddlers and senior citizens?

Probably yes Definitely yes Probably no Definitely no Don't know

11. Similarly, if we told you that three to five years from today, the growing student enrollment in Lowell's public schools may require building new school facilities, how would you then personally vote on a community pool bond issue and operating millage for the same Option B described above, which includes a basic swimming pool plus second small warm water pool plus a community center?

Definitely yes Probably yes Probably no Definitely no Don't know

OPTIONS TO MANAGE GROWING STUDENT ENROLLMENT IN LOWELL'S PUBLIC SCHOOLS:

The continued growth in the Lowell area is reflected in the growing enrollment in Lowell Area Schools. The School Board is challenged with having enough space to accommodate this growing enrollment. A study committee has identified three ways to increase facility capacity in the Lowell Area School system. The School Board would like to know what you think of each of the following options.

Option A: Change the traditional school year calendar by using our existing school facilities more days per year and/or more hours per day. As one example of altering the school calendar, our students would go to school for three of four 12-week quarters. Students will still have the 182 days of school as they do now, but some students would be attending school during the traditional summer break weeks. This option will delay the need for construction of new school facilities.

Option B: Rather than change the current school calendar, add on to our existing schools with more classrooms and other space as needed

Option C: Neither change the school calendar nor increase the size of our existing schools by adding on to them, but rather build a new school.

1. How do you feel about Option A (change the school calendar) to accommodate more students?

4. Suppose that the Lowell area community approves a community swimming pool, raising your property taxes. Which of the above three school options do you like best to accommodate more students? Option A (change the school-calendar) Option B (add on to existing schools) Option C (build a new school) Don't know

5. Now, instead suppose that the Lowell area community does not approve a community swimming pool. Now, which of the above three school options do you like best to accommodate more students? _Option A (change the school calendar) _ Option B (add on to existing schools) Option C (build a new school) _____ D o n ' t

6. If you would be paying additional property taxes for a community pool, would that cause you to vote "no," where you may otherwise vote "yes," against any school bond issue for constructing school facilities (either adding on or building a new school) in the future?

Paying for a new pool would definitely cause me to vote "no" against any school bond issue for new school facilities

Paying for a new pool would probably cause me to vote "no" against any school bond issue for new school facilities

Paying for a new pool would not influence how I would vote on any school bond issue

LOWELL COMMUNITY SURVEY 1999

A community group has been studying the concept of a community pool for several years. In an effort to obtain input, it has composed a community survey. You are encouraged to complete the following survey. The results will be studied and used to determine the future of the community pool issue.

The deadline for returning the survey is Monday, April 26.

Completed surveys should be mailed to: COMMUNITY SURVEY 1999 Lowell Area Community Fund • 300 High St. • Lowell, MI 49331

LOWELL AREA'S COMMUNITY RECREATION

1. First, where is your residence? (please circle)

Lowell Charter Township City of Lowell Bowne Township Boston Township

Vergennes Township Campbell Township

Ada Township Cannon Township

Cascade Township Grattan Township

Keene Township

The City of Lowell, Lowell Township, Vergennes Township and Lowell Area Schools have worked together to study the community recreation and facility needs. After examining these needs, including family, young children, school age children, senior citizens and the general public, and reviewing other community recreation operations in Michigan, the following

A Community Recreation Authority would be created by legal contract involving the City of Lowell, Lowell Township, Vergennes Township and the Lowell Area School district. The purpose of this authority would be to run a comprehensive community recreation program. Without a Community Recreation Authority, it is not possible for any Lowell area municipality or the Lowell Area School district to finance operation and maintenance of recreational facilities such as a community swimming pool. The Community Recreation Authority is thus a vehicle for the larger Lowell area community to work together to create a common recreation program. In addition, the recreational authority and community swimming pool will receive financial help from the Lowell Area Community Fund (Englehardt money). Members of the Governing Board of this new Community Recreation Authority would be comprised of equal representation from the City of Lowell, Lowell Township and Vergennes Township.

2. Do you support creating this new Lowell Area Community Recreation Authority to manage and finance operations and maintenance of recreation facilities such as a community swimming pool and community athletic fields?

COMMUNITY SWIMMING POOL

The need for a Community Recreation Authority is best demonstrated with the operation of a community swimming pool. Again, after examining the needs of various members of our community and reviewing architect specifications and cost estimates and related financing, this committee of Lowell area citizens and municipal officials has studied several community swimming pool options. Several options have been eliminated, either due to cost or the pool configuration did not meet community needs. Options still being considered are:

Option A: Build a community swimming pool and recreation center at Lowell Middle School because of its central location and lowest possible cost of operation. There will actually be two swimming areas to serve all members of our Lowell area communities. One swimming area is an 8-lane pool, 25-yards long to serve open swim, swim instruction and exercise classes (for both the general public via the community recreation/education program and Lowell students as part of their physical education curriculum), and competitive swim meets for school teams and local club teams. The second swimming area is a smaller warmer water swimming pool to especially serve babies, toddlers and senior citizens. This Option A with two swimming areas would cost approximately $6.4 million to build and $3.50,000 to annually operate and maintain (mostly for staffing and utilities).

Option B: Add a community center to Option A that includes an 1,800-square foot community room for meetings and community learning classes. This community center will especially serve senior citizens. This Option B with two swimming areas plus a community center would cost approximately $6.9 million to build and $375,000 to annually operate and maintain.

The bond financing costs for the construction will be levied on all property owners in the entire Lowell Area School district. The operating and maintenance costs are financed by operating millages levied only on property owners in the City of Lowell, Lowell Township and Vergennes Township (the three municipalities who comprise the Community Recreation Authority). Additionally, fees will be slightly higher for nonschool sponsored events and programs of the swimming pool and community center for residents of Ada, Boston, Bowne, Campbell, Cannon, Cascade, Grattan or Keene townships.

The estimated additional yearly expense to Lowell area property owners for financing construction and annual operations for these two options is summarized below.

{Residents only of the City of Lowell, Lowell Township or Vergennes Township} Please review the following table summarizing the estimated additional average yearly expense to Lowell area property owners for these two community swimming pool options. This annual expense includes both the financing costs from a 30-year bond issue (levied on property owners in the entire Lowell Area School district) to construct a new community swimming pool facility plus the operating and maintenance costs from operating millages levied by the City of Lowell, Lowell Township and Vergennes Township upon their property owners

Residents only of the City of Lowell, Lowell Township or Vergennes Township	Option A: (swimming pools only)	Option B: (swimming pools plus community center)
Total estimated mills for both bond-financing and operating costs	1.03 mills	1.07 mills
Added cost to property owners:
for $50,000 home	$ 26	$ 27
for $100,000 home	$ 52	$ 54
for $200,000 home	$103	$107

{Residents only of Ada, Boston, Bowne, Campbell, Cannon, Cascade, Grattan or Keene Townships} Please review the following table summarizing the estimated additional average yearly expense to Lowell area property owners for these two community swimming pool options. This annual expense includes only the financing costs from a 30year bond issue (levied on property owners in the entire Lowell Area School district) to construct a new community swimming pool facility. The Community Recreation Authority is limited to the City of Lowell, Lowell Township and Vergennes Township, so therefore annual operating and maintenance costs are to be paid only by residents of those municipalities by operating millages levied upon their property.

Residents only of Ada, Boston, Bowne, Campbell, Cannon, Cascade, Grattan or Keene townships	Option A: (swimming pools only)	Option B: (swimming pools plus community center)
Total estimated mills for bond financing costs	0.36 mills	0.40 mills
Added cost to property owners:
for $50,000 home	$9	$10
for $100,000 home	$18	$20
for $200,000 home	$36	$40

Please Note: It is possible that the Recreation Authority could consist of the entire school district. If this occurs, the cost for the residents of the City of Lowell, Vergennes and Lowell townships would be slightly lower, and the cost for all other township residents in the school district would be slightly higher. 3.
