Sunday night's storm brought with it a tornado warning.

The city's outdoor weather warning siren system sounded at approximately midnight alerting its residents of the potential lifethreatening weather. In actuality, only 25 percent of the city heard the sithreat to property and lives. Through the trust fund, created with the help of the Grand Rapids Foundation, the Lowell Police Department received $9,925.

That was the balance needed to cover the cost of the $39,700 project. The city of Lowell, through the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), received a grant for $29,775. The total includes up to $4,000 toward public education.

The current outdoor weather warning system consists of one 5 horsepower siren located in the center of the city, on top of the Lowell Light and Power building The siren covers a 2,500 foot radius. With the upgrade of this siren, plus new sirens, the radius will increase to 10,000 feet. "To have a weather warning system for the west side is especially critical. Dense population concentrations are located there (Valley Vista Trailer Park, Valley Vista subdivision and parts of Schneider Manor).

placed at the corner of Ridgeview and Sibley on the west side of the city and at the corner of Avery and Division on the east side of town.

Valentine said he expects the new sirens to be in by the end of August. West Shore Services out of Muskegon has been contracted to do the work.

The Kent County Youth Fair was the recipient of a $40,000 challenge grant for renovation costs ($50,000) associated with the King Memorial Youth Center, formerly the King Memorial building.

The fair will receive awarded on Monday.

As previously announced, the community fund has committed to $100,000 a year for the next 30 years toward the maintenance and upkeep of a Lowell community pool.

Other grants include:

• $105,000 to Lowell Area Schools for technology hardware, software and training;

• $30,000 to the city of Lowell for restoring and stabilizing historic buildings in its downtown district;

• $27,700 to Lowell Area Schools for a new video projector to be installed in the Performing Arts Center for use by the community;

• $25,000 to Lowell Area

A mere 20 votes separated the three candidates vying for the two Lowell School Board seats.

"I think that tells us there were three good candidates to choose from," said Bert Bleke, Lowell Schools superintendent. "Competition like this is good for the community and great for the school district. The unfortunate thing is that only two of the candidates could win."

The election brought out 702 registered voters. Nancy Hopkins garnered 424 votes, the highest number of the three candidates.

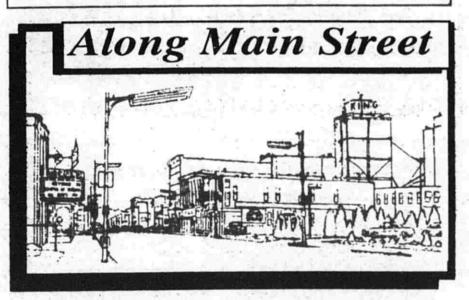

"Becoming a candidate and going through the election process was a worthwhile experience," Hopkins explained.

The election supported what Hopkins already believed were the district's strengths.

"It brought into focus what I thought - that Lowell was a quality school district, that it had strong leadership at the

Lowell Cable budget report conflicts with prior audit reports

By Thaddeus J. Kraus

Lowell Ledger Editor

Increasing labor and programming costs over the last few years, while revenues were held stagnant has left Lowell Cable Television in poor financial condition, according to a budget report presented to the Lowell City Council by Lowell Light & Power/Lowell Cable Television general manager Ron Holcomb.

The report left councilman and former Lowell Cable board member Chuck Myers startled.

"I am shocked to hear the condition of the cable television company," Myers said.

The shock in part may have transpired based on the past three (1996-98) audit reports which all showed a net income.

Holcomb explained that the true cost of operating Lowell Cable Television is not reflected in prior financial statements due primarily to the extensive labor subsidies provided by Lowell Light & Power.

"Properly applying labor costs to the activity, this budget reflects an end to the subsidization," Holcomb explained.

The general manager projects a loss of $127,500 this year (1999-2000).

The 1998-99 budget projected a loss of $27,000, Holcomb believes that will end up being $35-$40,000.

Lowell Cable's audit report over the last three years shows the net income ranging from $69,000 to $100,000.

Holcomb says there are three primary reasons for the City M-21 project continues under accelerated schedule

. The Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT) just entered the next stage of its M-21 project last Monday (June 14).

MDOT is rehabilitating 7.8 miles of M-21 from Grand River Drive to Valley Vista Road. Repairs during this next stage include milling and resurfacing, guardrail and culvert replacement. The work will occur on the two-lane section of M-21 between Ada and Lowell.

"This project is progressing very well and we're pleased with the accelerated pace the contractor has been able to maintain," said Karl Koivisto, manager of the Greenville Transportation Service Center. "The contractor will continue working at the accelerated schedule within the Lowell city limits even while working on this new area between Ada and Lowell."

During this stage of the project, M-21 between Ada and Lowell will be detoured. The detour route follows M-50 (Alden Nash Highway), I-96 and M-37 (East Beltline), Access will be maintained to residences and businesses with this

The Lowell Showboat Garden Club celebrates its 50th anniversary this year.

Flowery past leads Garden Club into the future

By Thaddeus J. Kraus Lowell Ledger Editor

The Lowell Showboat Garden Club has flowered into one of Lowell's oldest and more visible civic organizations Its plantings can be viewed at a number of different locations throughout the city of Lowell. It has been instrumental in securing a historical marker at the Graham Building, planting flowers at the Showboat, the Graham Building, and plants along Main Street, and providing trees for individual homes throughout the community.

The Lowell Showboat Garden Club was organized in 1949 as a federated club by an energetic member of the Garden Lore Club, Hulda Fineis.

Lowell's Clements a celebrated poet

Lowell Middle School eighth-grader Katherine Clements was one of 10 Michigan poets in the sixth-eighthgrade division who had her poetry selected for publication in the anthology A Celebration of Young Poets.

Each of the 30 students who were selected to have their poetry published received a $50 savings bond, a complimentary copy of the anthology and special recognition in the poetry anthology.

The publishing of high merit poems is intended to create a poetic record of fears. hopes and dreams of today's students.

"By giving students this opportunity, we hope it helps develop their creative writing skills," said Creative Communication assistant editor, Rachel Pieterick.

Less than 50 percent of the poems submitted are included in the anthology. "We have found that schools with excellent language art programs have a much higher percentage of their students' poetry accepted," said editor, Thomas Worthen.

WHEN IT'S ALL SAID AND DONE

I came across the follow ing paraphrase of Paul's definition of love in his first letter to the Corinthians. No one knows who authored it, but it seems to capture the essence of the greatest essay on love ever written.

If I have the language ever so perfectly and speak like a pundit, and have not the love that grips the heart. I am nothing. If I have decorations and diplomas and am proficient in up-to-date methods and have not the touch of books and publish articles that understanding love. 1 am nothing.

If I am able to worst my opponents in argument so as to make fools of them and have not the wooing note. I am nothing. If I have all faith and great ideals and magnificent plans and wonderful visions, and have not the love that sweats and bleeds and weeps and prays and pleads, I am nothing.

If I can heal all manner of sickness and disease, but wound hearts and hurt feelings for want of love that is kind, I am nothing. If I write set the world aflame and fail to transcribe the word of the cross into the language of love, I am nothing. Worse, I may be competent, busy, fussy, punctilious and well equipped, but like the church at Laodicea - nauseating to Christ.

I was channel surfing last night and suddenly my curiosity was arrested by the topic being discussed on "Politically Incorrect." What caught my attention was a comment made by the host regarding his perception of Christians in America which basically is that we are judgmental and hypocritical. Other guests in the "round table discussion" echoed the sentiments of the host.

Unfortunately, that is probably the opinion held by many people who look at Christians and see them failing to walk the walk and talk the talk. As I listened to the discussion. I had to admit that we have been guilty of precipitating that kind of perception by our failing to live out what Paul described for us in 1 Corinthians 13. When it is all said and done, it won't matter a whole lot about the size of our sanctuary or how many letters we have behind our name. What will matter is have we lived out - or as what heard someone say once -"flesh out" what it truly means o be a Christian?

You and I may be the only Bible that someone will ever read. What are they reading?

"Hulda instigated the start of the club," said Ruby Christiansen, one of the club's three remaining charter members along with Ona Fletcher and Gladys Thorne.

For some time, the club has planted petunias and tulips around the Graham Building and YMCA. When the city put the trees in tubs along Main Street, members planted and maintained flowers provided by the city.

Christiansen joined the club because "I wanted to learn how to put plantings around my house and in the back," she savs Every year since, petunias and other flowers have decoit's a nice grouping," Christiansen explains. The club's most lasting contribution to the community is the Adopt-a-Tree program conceived by Dr. Orval McKay. "Initially the tree program was for anyone who wanted a tree. The club concentrated on individual homes," said longtime club member, Bruce Walter. The individual lawn trees planted are mainly maple, ash. sunburst locust, flowering crab and linden.

Since then, the club has made a concerted decision to plant trees where they are more visible such as the Main Street corridors, the entrances to the Lowell A rea Arts Council, the fairgrounds, the Fallas house in Fallasburg Park, Lowell High School, Lowell Medical Center and the First United Methodist Church of Lowell.

The Adopt-a-Tree program has received financial support from the Look Memorial Fund with the cooperation of the city. The charge of the club has remained constant over the years: To promote a greater interest in gardening and increase beauty around homes and in the community

Thor, the Brown family's big old yellow Lab, has been the subject of this column many, many times over the nearly 10 years he's been around. With a little research I could dig Frisbee or a stick, he's ready to go it as best he can. up at least 50 "Thor" columns. He's slowed down lately, but for most of his life he was busy being a bad dog and generat- and his pal Tito up to my son's farm. Friday night Thor apparing lots of column material.

When he was a puppy and going through his chewing had to run an errand, didn't see Thor and backed over the old stage, I may as well have kept a family of beavers in the house. He chewed everything. Once he chewed a phone connection box off the wall. I scolded him and rubbed his nose in his handiwork. I discovered he was getting a little jolt from the carrier current in the phone wires when his wet nose made morning Casey took him to our regular vet. It was determined contact. I gave him a few jolts and he at least left our wiring that he had some internal damage and was sent back to the alone after that. Somebody at the Humane Society read that clinic for further examination. I was kept apprised by phone column and sent me a letter condemning me for my cruelty toward Thor and suggested I give him to someone who wouldn't mistreat him. I should have taken their advice.

Over the years Thor has jumped out of a car at 40 miles per hour. He was once hit by a car and briefly held the nickname, "Thud" because of the noise made in the collision. In one gulp he ate a two-month supply of steroids we had for surgery another dog's skin condition. He has been shot numerous times while on his habitual walkabouts. X-rays have revealed two pellets and a small caliber bullet lodged in him. A neighbor once blasted him with a paintball gun and he came home with a big red spot on his side.

The list goes on and on. Once when mowing out at the on Sunday offered the same report, stable but guarded. hangar, I had to make a run to town after gas. At our recent high school graduation ceremony, I had the opportunity to present a brief address. My comments centered on three points of advice: 1) Do the best you can; 2) Care about people; and 3) Have fun. Driving home from the graduation ceremony I could not help but reflect on how well our schools heeded this advice.

Do the best you can.

Our schools have adopted the simple concept of continuous improvement. Through an attitude of continually searching for ways to improve, combined with high standards for student achievement, it is my belief that the Lowell Area Schools are continually moving closer to the goal of becoming all that we can be.

Care about people.

This second piece of advice is a critical issue for each of us employed by our schools. In today's unsettled society, a safe and secure environment for all depends not merely on security

Thor has been gone nearly two days. I still well up with tears every time I think of him, which seems to be every few minutes. I've had a helluva time trying to hunt and peck this out through the tears. However, as painful as this is, I stick to something I wrote in a previous column, "If I could offer you only one piece of advice, dog ownership would be it." Over around an old leg injury. However, if I get out the ball, the the past 10 years there have been hundreds of times I wanted to kill Thor, but right now I'd give anything to have him back. Goodbye old buddy.

Gillespie receives special award from Milwaukee School of Engineering

Milwaukee School of Engineering (MSOE) honored Jane Gillespie, a teacher at Lowell High School, by awarding her MSOE's Very Influential Person award at the university's spring commencement May 22.

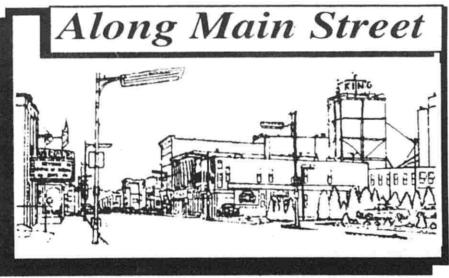

This award is given to high school or middle school teachers and other influential persons in recognition of their encouragement of students to further their education and to pursue their career goals. They are nominated by members of the current MSOE graduating class.

Gillespie was nominated by Rebecca Cattanach, who graduated with a bachelor's degree in technical communication. At the ceremony and in her letter of nomination, Cattanach spoke of the passion her former teacher brought to her job and how she has come to consider Gillespie "a friend as well as a mentor, challenger and good example.'

"Throughout high school, she saw the hidden talents of communication that I was so scared to share with the rest of the world. wrote Cattanach. "She was the first teacher to challenge my decision to become an engineer, and has been one of the few that has remained by my side, encouraging me, when I changed my major and decided to pursue a degree that fit my abilities."

Established in 1903, Milwaukee School of Engineering (MSOE) offers 14 applications-oriented undergraduate degrees in engineering, engineering technology, business technical communication, construction management and nursing. Graduate degrees are offered in architectural engineering, engineering, engineering management, environmental engineering, medical informatics and perfusion.

discrepancy: 1. The Lowell Cable Board hired a cable director; 2. Programming expense increases; and 3. Reallocation of labor cost.

"Labor and especially programming costs increased precipitously (e.g. ESPN is up 20 percent) over the last few years, while revenues held stagnant," Holcomb said. "Maintaining a competitive price is admirable but not at the expense of service quality and long-term fiscal health."

Myers told Holcomb that he would be against increased rates that threaten to abandon the basis from which the cable company was set up.

"I am confident any revenue requirements will yield a basic cable rate below any of its competitors." Holcomb said. "From a competitive position, a competitive rate that supports this valuable community service is achievable." Myers said he is against comparing Lowell Cable Television with "for profit organizations." "Lowell Cable was started on the basis of serving the Lowell community with cable services so that the community has ownership and in return receives better service, good selection and lower prices," Myers said.

Holcomb has also contracted ($3,000) with the accounting firm of Virchow Krause to provide a third-party evaluation of the revenue requirements for Lowell Cable Television. Lowell stung by Hornets in regional semifinal

By Thaddeus J. Kraus Lowell Ledger Editor

Only one team in the Division I high school baseball tournament will end its season with a win. For the rest of the field, a great season is closed out in defeat. Lowell's season came to a close in the opening round of the regional on Saturday at Memorial Field in Grand Ledge.

The Red Arrows (27-8) were shutout by the Hornets of Saline 14-0.

"I told the boys not to let this one bad game overshadow all the great things they've accomplished this year," Lowell varsity baseball coach Tim Antel said.

Saline took control of the game right from the start and never really gave Lowell a chance to get back into the contest. "We really never got anything going," Antel concurred. The closest thing to rallies the Red Arrows mounted came in the third and fourth innings.

With two out in the third, Keith Kemen lined Lowell's taken out. first hit of the game into left field. Dustin Gless then coaxed a two-out walk, putting runners on first and second. The Piazza and Ben Ichesco. inning ended when Kemen was thrown out at third base.

In the fourth inning, T.J. Thayer led off with a single to Antel said. center. A walk to Keith Valentine put Red Arrows on first and of the sixth inning. The Hornets scattered two hits between second with no outs. Then things fizzled. Steve VanLaan was called out for not keeping one foot in the batter's box after three errors, three walks and a hit batsman. "Unfortunately, we didn't play our A game today," Antel calling time; Thayer was then picked off second. The inning ended when Andy Graham grounded out to the shortstop.

explained. "These boys have left a legacy. It's something for Saline jumped on Lowell lefty Dustin Gless for three runs future teams to shoot for. We had a great following here today. in the first. The big hit was a two-out, two-run home run by The community has shown appreciation for this team's great season. I want to thank the parents and players for the great Mike Gall. sacrifice and commitment they made this year." The Hornets, after being retired in order in the second inning, touched up Gless for two runs in the third on a two-run home run by pitcher Jeremy Ortwine.

Minnema and Ervin race home ahead of their class

By Thaddeus J. Kraus Lowell Ledger Editor

Jim Minnema used the fifth annual Cherry Creek Classic as part of his training regiment for the half marathon in Ludington on Saturday (June 19).

Despite finishing the 3.1 mile course in a swift and winning time of 16:02. Minnema walked away feeling as if he had been tested.

"It's a pretty tough course. It has plenty of hills," Minnema said. "I wanted to finish under 16 minutes. But I'm happy with my time."

Minnema, 20, was one of 205 participants in the fifth annual Cherry Creek Classic 5K run/walk.

Leslie Ervin, an English student at Aquinas College, made the most of her first attempt in the Cherry Creek Classic. The

Grants making a difference for local restaurant owner

•••• Brickyards, however, are having a difficult time meeting the demands of the Historic District's brick renovation request.

By Thaddeus J. Kraus Lowell Ledger Editor

It is the most extensive restoration project being undertaken in the Lowell Historic District

Mike Larkin, owner of Larkin's Restaurant and "The Other Place" is repairing the columns on the side of the old theatre (now The Other Place) and the brick in front. He will also be restoring Larkin's windows back to their original look as well as removing the siding and repairing bricks on the upper half of the building.

The project will cost Larkin roughly $50,000. Through the Downtown Lowell Historic District grant program, the restaurant owner has been the recipient of $14,600 over a two-year period.

"The program seems to be working. It is helping businesses in the district fix up their buildings," Larkin explained.

Larkin received $4,000 in district grant money last year for work at The Other Place and another $2,930 this year to finish/continue that project. He was also the recipient of a grant for $7.670 to start restoration work on the Larkin's building, which will include bringing back the ornamental work around the windows that was chipped off many years ago.

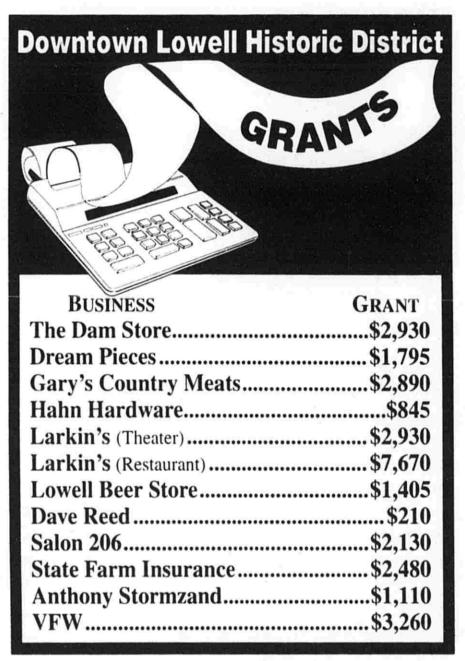

Larkin said the entire project will probably take three years. "The tough part has been finding the right people to get the job done," Larkin explained.

Architectural Building Restoration, Inc. has been contracted to do the work but, as one can imagine, demands for its service are at a premium right now.

"The work using last year's grant money was to be completed by July 1 I don't think that's going to happen,' Larkin said. "I'm probably going to need an extension.

Lowell Historic District commission study committee chairman Jim Doyle concurred that getting the work done has been a difficult task for a number of Lowell Historic District businesses.

Mark Batchelor, general manager of Architectural Building Restoration, Inc., said brickyards are experiencing a shortage of labor and materials.

PUBLIC NOTICE VERGENNES TOWNSHIP, KENT COUNTY, MICHIGAN PROPOSED ZONING AMENDMENTS TO

VERGENNES TOWNSHIP ZONING ORDINANCE

Tuesday, July 6, 1999 at 7:00 p.m., at the Vergennes Township Hall, located at 10381 Bailey Drive, Lowell, MI 49331 to consider three proposed amendments to Vergennes Township Zoning the Ordinance. The proposed amendments will:

- 1) Amend Section 201.305 (C), "R-1" Low Density Residential District, Special Exception Uses -- by adding "Licensed Day Care Facilities" as a new special exception use for the R-1 District [a new Section 201.305 (C) (6)] with regulations and standards for granting approval.
- 2) Amend Section 201.202 (Z), Definitions -Lot, front line - to add language to clarify the definition of the front lot line in the case of corner lots.

3) Amend Section 201.408 (B), Driveways -- by adding new language to provide for lots to meet the driveway setbacks for cul de sac and small frontage lots.

The complete text of the proposed ordinance amendments is on file in the offices of the Township Clerk at the PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that a public Vergennes Township Hall, 10381 Bailey hearing before the Vergennes Township Drive, Lowell, MI 49331; Phone: (616) Planning Commission will be held on 897-5651 [fax 897-5674]. Written and oral comments regarding the proposed amendments will be received until the conclusion of the public hearing. Written comments may be addressed to the Township Clerk, Chairperson or to the Planning Coordinator at the Township offices. Reasonable accommodations can be provided without charge, including auxiliary aids and services as necessary. If you require special needs, please contact the Township Clerk, at the township offices at least 48 hours before the hearing to arrange for the accommodation.

Date: June 16, 1999

Richard Gillett, Chairperson Vergennes Planning Commission work at Larkin's.

"Some, instead of waiting, put in the modular brick (eight inches in length) which is 1/4-inch smaller and throws off the spacing. It does not look as nice when finished," Batchelor said. "There's going to be a month's wait to get the brick I need for 'Larkin's. Brickyards are over capacity," Batchelor explains.

There are 54 buildings in the Lowell Historic District. The district committee was able to allocate $30,000 in grants, thanks to money it received from the Englehardt Lowell Community Fund.

"It is important to recognize the Lowell Area Community Fund in appreciation for the grants we've received from it," said Steve Doyle, chairman of the Lowell Historic District Commission.

This year, all 12 businesses which applied for historic district grants received monies. The total amount requested this year was $101,000 with 30 percent of that awarded by the district.

Other businesses receiving grants are: VFW, 307 E. Main, $3,260; The Dam Store, 115 W. Main, $2,930; Gary's Country Meats, 205 W. Main, $2,890; State Farm Insurance, 217 W, Main, $2,480; Salon 206, 206 E. Main, $2,130; Dream Pieces, 219 W. Main, $1,795; Lowell Beer Store, 213 E. Main, $1,405; Anthony Stormzand, 218 E. Main, $1,110; Hahn Hardware, 207 E. Main, $845; and Dave Reed, 101 W. Main, $210.

Lowell Heritage Celebration to display community's history

•••• Thus far, LAHA has collected well over 2,000 items and has gathered a large photo archive. Some of these historical items will be on display at the Showboat from 10 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. the day of the celebration.

By Thaddeus J. Kraus Lowell Ledger Editor

Lowell Area Historic Association (LAHA) has been collecting and preserving Lowell's history since 1989. The Lowell Heritage Celebration on Sat., June 26 at the Riverwalk Plaza will provide an opportunity for LAHA to present that history.

"LAHA has moved slowly, but has done things very well," said president Judy Straub. "Our collection policies and procedures are the standards of the museum industry. When we decide to accept a donation, it is done with the understanding we're willing to take care of the object forever." A strong point of emphasis behind LAHA has been to prevent history from escaping the Lowell area. Lowell was losing its artifacts of history. "Avery Norton's photo archives are in the Grand Rapids Museum," Straub explains. "LAHA had to provide a safe, adequate facility for storage and processing." The Graham Building at 325 W. Main became that accommodation. Much time has been spent to repair walls, put in new electric, air conditioning and heating to the upstairs, providing LAHA a safe facility for its historical artifacts.

Sundry Development has plans for 28th St.

By Jeffrey Redmond Contributing Writer

Another new development is being planned in Lowell Charter Township on 28th Street. The Ada based Sundry Development Corporation has asked the planning commission to rezone the Robert Boyd property from AG II to PUD in order to build 20 new homes between Montcalm and Pratt Lake roads.

The 20 newly created sites will be rezoned out of 98 acres total, and will each be from two to six acres in size. The new homes will be single- family dwellings and average $200,000 in price. An additional 29 acres of the land will be set aside and permanently rezoned as a wetlands and natural preserve. I will include a recreation area and hiking trail.

Sundry president Kevin Rude answered questions at an open public hearing at the township hall. Neighbors expressed their concerns about the new development project.

Dorothy Teasdale of Pratt Lake Road asked whether or not hunting would be banned in the new development. Rude answered that it would be. Another neighbor, Frank Leisure was concerned about the new residents wandering onto his property. Rude replied that he had no control over that. Jim Smith was concerned with limitations about hunting on his own property due to the "500 feet away from any dwelling law.

Commission chairman Richard Bryan explained the new Planning Urban Development (PUD) rezoning.

"It will prevent any further development or adding onto the sites," he said. Clerk Carol Wells further explained the rezoning as a way to conserve as much as possible. "It will preserve natural beauty of the land and develop it far better than merely carving it up," she said.

Rude explained that an existing wetlands, and ponds and creek system will be preserved with a concrete spillway to keep the water in check.

BOWNE TOWNSHIP ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS HEARING

Please be notified that the Bowne Township Zoning Board of Appeals will hold a public hearing on at the Historic Township Hall, 8240 Alden Nash, S.E. to consider First Baptist Church of Alto per Fred Moss's request for variance of Article 16.01 B.5 Signs & Billboards in order to place a lighted sign in a residential area on a timer at a location that can be better viewed.

> Sandra L. Kowalczyk Clerk

"We will not be cutting any more trees than we have to. Most of the site is a sand pit, and erosion will be prevented with proper designs and layouts," Rude said. Trustee Richard Huver said, "It is a good plan, and it will be a nice place to live in.'

But neighbor Wanda Elliott was concerned about further increases in property values and taxes. Bryan explained that the tax rate is now limited to the inflation rate or five percent whichever is lowest. Rude could not predict what increases in surrounding property value would occur from the new devel-

AG II zoning rules require four acres for each house site in a subdivided property. PUD requirements permit lots of less than four acres. Chairman Bryan affirmed that this will thus permit the 29-acre natural preserve to be permanently established

The new development will be called Natures Place, and construction of the new houses is planned for later this year.

FOOD TIPS AND GOOD READING FROM OUR RETIRING FOOD SERVICE SUPERVISOR, CAROLL HARPER

Books with food and nutrition messages for children include:

Mealtime, by Maureen Roffey

This picture book is appropriate for even the youngest preschooler.

Hand washing, setting the table, fruit and vegetable identification are presented with colorful, simple pictures.

> The Edible Pyramid: Good Eating Every Day, by Loreen Leedy

Children will enjoy the animal characters who manage and visit the restaurant. The book is a basic introduction to the Food Guide Pyramid, giving simple information about foods included in every group and the suggested daily servings for each.

Oliver's Vegetables, by Vivian French

Oliver goes to visit his grandfather, and the only vegetable he will eat is french fries. After he experiences Grandpa's garden, a whole new world of vegetables and tastes opens up to Oliver.

GREAT GRAPES!

Freeze a cluster of grapes (about 1 hr.) for a cool warm-weather treat!

KENT COUNTY ALTERNATIVE EDUCATION FIELD DAY AT LOWELL

Ten schools, with over 300 students, gathered at the Lowell High School football field on May 11th for the Kent County Field Day activities. The perfect Spring day provided a great setting for the many events, including running, long jump, football kick, softball throw, limbo and more. The day ended with a volleyball tournament between the schools. Beth Randolph, Unity High School paraprofessional, and Caroll Harper, Food Service Supervisor, coordinated and organized lunch for the crowd. The schools appreciated the Kent County Alternative Task Force organizing this year-end event.

CHARACTER COUNTS!

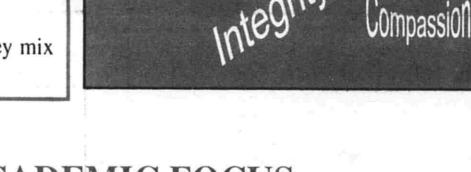

Remember to practice our school and community traits during the summer months:

Responsibility

BAKING BREAD

A great time together can be had by a parent and child when they mix and bake bread.

ACADEMIC FOCUS TECHNOLOGY EDUCATION

Technology classes involve solving problems. Our Middle School and High School provide instruction in the varied avenues of technology, as used in today's world. The Middle School emphasizes cooperative learning and problem-solving through their 16 modular learning areas. Each module focuses on a specific area of technology. Examples of these modules include aerospace, robotics, electronics, and engineering.

The students experience hands-on activities with a partner in each area for two weeks. This enables a very efficient use of equipment, as only one module is needed to teach a given subject, eliminating the need to purchase enough materials to teach the whole class at once.

In our high school drafting class, students explore engineering and technology. This year's projects have included building model bridges with roofs that open to expose structural details, house designing and commercial designing. Advanced drafting concepts were reinforced by solving descriptive geometry problems. Surveying was practiced on school grounds and an orienteering course was set up for other class members to develop their compass skills.

Community donations, such as steel tubing from Steelcase and maple plywood from Rudy Smith, have provided additional opportunities to construct projects to meet needs and solve problems in the materials processing classes. A steel gazebo was designed, erected and used as a backdrop for the Sweetheart Swirl and Prom parties.

Lowell Area Schools' Technology Department is very comprehensive and one that offers students wonderful opportunities for learning. The school is very proud to offer courses to our district students in this area.
