City may start the new millennium the way it ended it - with construction

By Thaddeus J. Kraus Lowell Ledger Editor

For Lowell and most West Michigan communities, 1999 has been the year of construction.

More construction may shower Lowell's start to the new millennium, according to Lowell city manager Dave Pasquale.

The city of Lowell approved an ordinance adopting the plan amendments and a resolution authorizing a notice of intent to issue bonds. The Downtown Development Authority has proposed an interest to issue another TIFA bond issue to cover more improvements in the district. The original development and tax increment financing plan need amendments to reflect a greater debt obligation (not to exceed $3 million) and added projects.

The added improvements include extension of the Riverwalk to the Showboat Amphitheater, utility improvements, lighting/street improvements, parking lot improvements and sidewalk improvements as well as site improvements related to the renovation and expansion of the City Hall/police station, renovation and resale of buildings and other property improvements.

"Construction could begin next year," Pasquale explained. "That will depend on the time it takes to complete construction plans and the permit process."

Pitsch contracted for house demolition

The rental house at 213 N. Monroe is scheduled to be demolished before winter. The demolition is part of the City Hall renovation and police station expansion. The Lowell City Council awarded the bid on the demolition project to Pitsch Companies, Grand Rapids, in the amount of $5,200. The monies will be allocated from the building authority bond.

Public works director Dan DesJarden said the city had planned to demolish the house earlier, but the required check for contamination and asbestos took longer than originally thought.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING FOR IMPROVEMENTS TO BIG CROOKED LAKE

TAKE NOTICE that the Big Crooked Lake Improvement Board will hold a public hearing on the practicability of a four-year aquatic plant control project for Big Crooked Lake at the Grattan Township Hall located at 12050 Old Belding Road NE, Belding, Michigan on Wednesday, September 22, 1999 at 7 p.m.

Information regarding the cost of the proposed project is provided below:

BIG CROOKED LAKE PLANT CONTROL PROJECT - ANNUAL COST BREAKDOWN'S 2000 to 2003

Herbicide Treatments Mechanical Harvesting Administration/Inspections Contingency TOTAL

50 acres@ $310/acre $15,500/yr. 40 acres @ $200/acre $8,000/yr. $4,000/yr. $2,500/yr. $30,000/yr.

'Note that the amount of herbicide treatments and harvesting in any given year will be dependent on the type and location of aquatic plants and Department of Environmental Quality permit requirements.

The Special Assessment District for the Big Crooked Lake Project is proposed to include all lakefront parcels and backlots with deeded or dedicated lake access. Contiguous lots in common ownership are proposed to be assessed as a single parcel provided only one house exists on the parcel. The $30,000 annual cost of the project is proposed to be assessed equally against all parcels within the proposed Special Assessment District. Under this plan, the assessment per parcel would be approximately $250 per year for four years.

Based on input received at or prior to the public hearing, the Big Crooked Lake Improvement Board will make a decision on whether to proceed with the implementation of the project. Your input is important to the lake board. Please try to attend the public hearing.

This hearing is being held in accordance with provisions of Part 309, Inland Lake Improvements, of the Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Act, Public Act 451 of 1994, as amended.

nity that the church by virtue of all the different denominations and sect groups is a community that has not taken to heart its own teachings. O. how difficult forgiveness becomes for us as individuals and as Christian Communities. We find it very difficult to speak the truth to one another as brothers and sisters. Yet, the truth that comes in open and honest talk, recognizing each other as "members of one another," is crucial to the health of our community and to the Body of Christ (the Christian Church Universal). Members of each denomination are in reality members of the wider church that names the Name of Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior. Each ordained pastor is charged, it seems to me, to pastor the flock that makes up the Body of Christ. That to me means we are to nurture unity and cohesion in the Body of Christ. Even those differences that cause us to identify ourselves in denominations and sect groups lose importance when we take seriously the teaching of scripture that is represented in Paul's letter to Ephesians. Perhaps we, individually and the church as a whole, can experience the love of Christ that makes confession and forgiveness, healing and new life possible.

Most gracious God, we humans need one another. Our differences can become gifts, our openness can build bridges that heal, bringing the community together, affirmshow forth the Love of Christ Let it be so, O most gracious God. Amen!

Last week's "hangar flying" adventure took us in a floatplane to Sault St. Marie, Canada. We battled weather on the way up. So far we have ignored the fact our G.P.S. (Global Positioning System) was not working due to government tampering with the system's satellites. We simply followed I-75 while ducking just under the scud. As for the satellite tampering, I think it was some sort of conspiracy to keep me from gorging myself of freshly caught, cleaned and fried Canadian walleye. Some late night I'll have to call Art Bell about this conspiracy theory.

The plane is tied to the dock at a seaplane base in Sault St. Marie. We have our fishing licenses. We have fuel. We have sight, so the higher you are, the farther out you can receive customs' clearance. We have a weather report. The one trick I did have up my sleeve was the Sault St. Marie V.O.R. (Very high frequency Omnidirectional Radio beacon). This navigational aid would work perhaps half the way to our destination. As simply as I can put it, there is a receiver in the plane that tells you what compass bearing you are from the station. In this case we could ride the 49 degree radial out of the Sault until we lost the signal. Riding this radial would help me determine wind correction on my compass heading. Providing winds didn't change, I could maintain the same compass heading after losing the V.O.R. and stay on my established course (the line on the map to the "x" that is supposed to be where the outpost camp is). Not much, but better than nothing.

Away we went. I established our course on the proper radial, tweaked the D.G. (directional gyro) and listened to my partner as he counted down the guesstimated time to our first checkpoint. Gypsy moths are an infestation that originated in Asia, while tent caterpillars are a native species in North America. Tent caterpillars eventually become moths with reddish brown bodies and wingspans of up to two inches wide. They are popular meals for birds and bats, which helps somewhat to control their populations.

Whereas gypsy moths require the uses of special sprayings and/or insecticides, tent caterpillars can be dealt with more easily. Branches holding their tents can be trimmed, or the large silky structures themselves can be

In March of this year, the National Cable Television Coop and General Instruments struck a deal which is intended to make it easier for small market cable companies to compete with larger markets.

"It will enable the Lowell Cable Television Company and other small markets to remain competitive and offer programming that our customers are looking for and that is affordable," said Lowell Cable Television's marketing and programming manager Tom Richards.

With its current setup, Lowell Cable Television has the capacity to provide six additional channels. Through HITS, a digital transport system, each analogue will be able to provide up to 12 video program services. These services are delivered from cable networks through cable systems into a customer's home.

VERGENNES TOWNSHIP NOTICE

The Township Board has authorized 2 additional future dates for the Zoning Board of Appeals to hear requests for variances applying to Home Occupations and Home Based Businesses with no fee cost. The dates are October 6, 1999 and January 5, Home occupation is a business operated entirely within the home or in an accessory building by the home occupants and there is no outside physical evidence of a business being conducted there. Examples are office type of work, crafts, wood working, sewing, etc. Home based business is a business located at the occupants residence with the phone, bookkeeping and storage of vehicles or equipment but the actual business is done away from the home at other sites. There should also not be any physical evidence of a business being conducted at the residence. Examples are landscaping, work, heating and cooling installation, etc. Both home occupations and home based businesses require permits from the township.

A variance might be needed if one or more of the requirements cannot be met that are listed in the ordinance. Some examples of this type of variance would be a sign closer to the road than the ordinance allows, size of sign, or more than the allowed number of employees. Please call me for assistance if you need a permit application for a home business or need a variance application for a home business. Variance applications must be turned in at least 2 weeks before the meetings to insure publication and mailing

Amended height ordinance approved

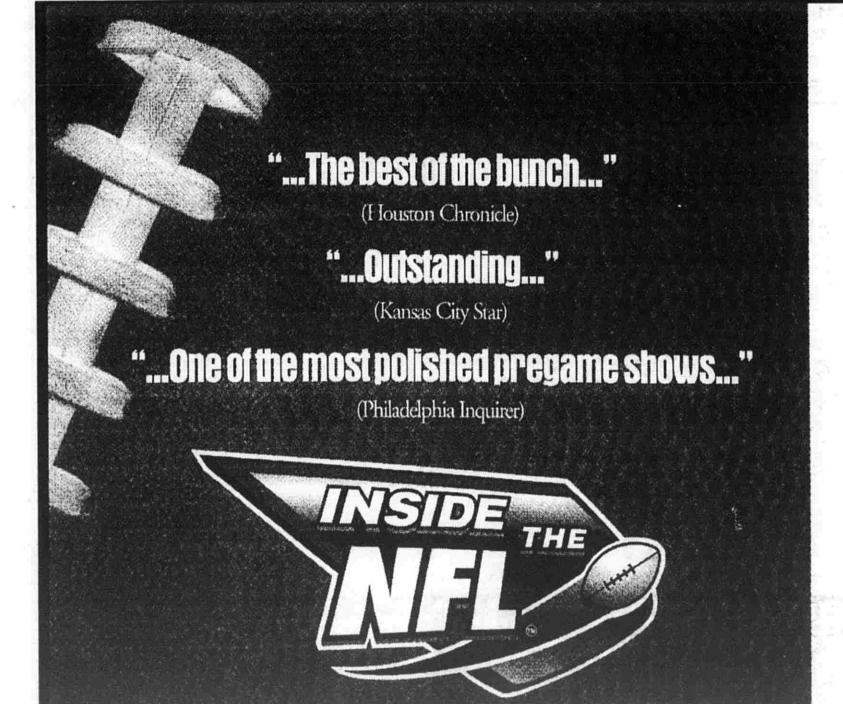

After months of studying the issue as to whether the height of a residential detached accessory building should be raised from 14 feet, the Lowell City Council, through a recommendation of the planning commission, amended the ordinance to read "no detached accessory building in a residential district shall exceed the height of the residence."

The long lasting interracial relationship of Karen Wilson and Bill Sims is the subject of filmmaker. Jennifer Fox's An American Love Story, airing Sunday through Thursday on PBS' American Playhouse (check local listings). Fox lived with the couple and their two daughters for a year and a half.

FOR THE WEEK OF SEPTEMBER 10 THRU SEPTEMBER 16

The issue was first examined in light of Robert Rittenger's request to build a 16 foot, four inch motor home port on his property at 745 Foreman.

Item #1, 136 S. CENTER - REZONING FROM R-2 RESIDEN-TIAL TO C-3 GENERAL BUSINESS - VENNEN CHRYSLER DODGE - RECOMMENDATION FROM THE PLANNING COMMISSION-PUBLIC HEARING. City Manager Pasquale noted Clark Galloway of Vennen Chrysler Dodge was present, to answer any questions regarding the proposed rezoning of 136 S. Center.

Pasquale stated the purpose of rezoning 136 S. Center (a vacant parcel currently owned by Ormand Lyons) is to allow expansion of Vennen Chrysler Dodge's parking. It was also IT WAS MOVED BY GREEN and seconded by BLOUGH mentioned Vennen is interested in the property to assist with future development of their facilities and would allow the property to be squared off.

At its July 26 meeting, the Planning Commission held a public hearing and unanimously recommended the rezoning of 136 S. Center from R-2 Residential to C-3 General Business. Planning Commission Chairman Daniel Brubaker said after reviewing, the Commission believed the property had limited value being zoned residential. He noted the majority of the public comments received were in favor of the rezoning.

Mayor Thompson questioned if additional letters or comments were provided. Pasquale responded a letter was received from Boyd and Marion Noviskey of 166 S. Pleasant Street stating their favor of the rezoning request.

A. Landscaping requirements in the Commercial and Industrial Districts - Public Hearing. In reviewing numerous site plans, the Planning Commission proposed the following zoning ordinance amendments in Sections 10.04, 12.04, 12A.04 and 13.04:

The front yard and the street side of a corner lot, except for Frank Schuller of the company said Sunset Waste was necessary entrance drives shall be landscaped. Such landscaping shall consist of a minimum of one (1) canopy tree and three (3) deciduous shrubs for each twenty (20) feet of lot width. Upon approval of the Planning Commission, the Originally, a variance had been requested and was denied because the request did not meet the criteria needed for granting such a petition.

> Councilmember Green stated last year, shortly after the contract was approved, the landfill used by Denny's Disposal had increased their dumping charges. He questioned if the current rate would change if this occurred again. Schuller responded the company would stand by the current rate throughout the contract year. Goodsell noted Sunset Waste owns their own landfills. Schuller added the landfills are operated as a separate entity. However, Sunset has the Councilmember Blough said the basis for the rate increase was because of a clause in the contract. He appreciated the statement made regarding the guaranteeing of price for the current contract. Blough asked if the clause would be removed from the contract for 1999/2000. Pasquale responded a clause could be added stating the rates would not change for one year. Blough believed the clauses were contradictory.

Mayor Thompson thought the contract would have to be assigned to Sunset Waste and then the re-negotiation clause could be removed.

Councilmember Myers asked if the contracts operate one year at a time. Pasquale responded yes.

Myers questioned if Goodsell or his father would have any financial interest in Sunset Waste or Allied Waste Industries. Goodsell responded no, they were not share holders. A salary would be drawn.

He stated this was not a situation where the rates were raised every year. He said unfortu nately Denny's has had to deal with escalating landfill costs.

> Councilmember Shores stated Denny's Disposal has done an excellent job and would be in favor of awarding the contract until October, 2000.

> IT WAS MOVED BY SHORES and seconded by GREEN to reassign the solid waste and recycling contract from Denny's Disposal, Inc. to Allied Waste Industries - Sunset Waste, expiring in October of 2000 and guaranteeing the same current price.

> Blough questioned the policy held by the City of awarding contracts to the lowest bidder. He did not have any negative comment about services received from Denny's Disposal, but felt the policy should be followed. Myers was also in agreement and believed the contract should be submitted for bids in October, when the current contract expires.

In considering the bid process, DesJarden said the award follows: should be given to the vendor who was responsive at bid opening. Thus, Thomet would be the only responsive bidder and awarded purchase.

DesJarden stated the other two dealerships did not include an itemized listing of what was included with their bids. He noted the specification list was reviewed with each dealership.

DesJarden said the department wishes to purchase a truck with a push button four wheel drive, instead of having this on the floor. This option would allow three employees to ride in the front, instead of two. He added the extended cab would also provide more room for employees and save much time. Kelly Baraka, the Class A state champion in the 200 meter, nearly dashed the hopes of the Red Arrow football faithful Friday night.

The Red Arrows needed all the strength and conditioning in their collective tank to slow down Baraka and stop Portage Northern 41-24.

"That's a much better team than what played West Ottawa last week," said Lowell football coach Noel Dean. "They have some talent and speed."

In his first three carries of the second half, Baraka covered 151 yards and scored two touchdowns, erasing Lowell's 14-10 halftime lead and giving the visiting Huskies a 24-14 advantage.

"Kelly has tremendous speed and he is exciting to watch and dangerous to have to defend," said Northern's coach Pete Schermerhorn. "He's a great kid and a tremendous athlete."

The sprinter's speed changed Lowell's offensive approach. After Baraka's touchdown runs of 73 and 72 vards, the Red Arrows put in two tight ends and ran the ball right at the Huskies.

That decision did two things: it brought strength and conditioning into play and it kept the ball out of the hands of Baraka.

Trailing 24-14, Lowell marched 86 yards in nine plays. Josh Brown scored on

Red Arrow soccer team shuts out Greenville, 2-0

By Thaddeus J. Kraus Lowell Ledger Editor

Two second half goals helped lift Lowell boys soccer team to its second win of the year in a 2-0 shutout over

Troy Gillan, off a second half centering pass, creased the Yellowjacket net, giving Lowell a 1-0 lead. The game's only other goal was posted by Red Arrow

"We didn't play as well as I would have liked. We were never able to sustain anything on a continued basis," said Lowell soccer coach Chris Barlow.

An improved Yellowjacket team may have had something to do with that. "Greenville was much improved. We were still able to control things, but not all together," Barlow

The Lowell coach said his club was slow in transition and did not utilize the outside as much as he likes.

"The boys were still able to put themselves in position to score but couldn't finish," Barlow explained.

Key defensive decisions helped the Red Arrow defense keep Greenville from getting too many good looks, however, the ones they got were still more than the coach

"Zach Stauffer (sweeper) and Jake Billingsley (goalie) picked up their game," Barlow said. "We need everybody to

Barlow has been pleased with the way stoppers' Craig Carpenter, Jon Tenwalde and Tom Hobbs have blended in and worked with Stauffer on defense.

Schermerhorn explained.

Dean was quick to credit his club's conditioning. "Chalk one up to weight training," he said.

Lowell used a balanced attack to rush for 370 yards. Palcowski picked up 135 yards on 11 carries and scored twice. Brown rushed for 88 yards and scored two touchdowns. He was four-of-nine for 45 yards passing with a touchdown.

Fredline's 18 leads Lowell past FHN, 55-29

By Thaddeus J. Kraus Lowell Ledger Editor

A season-opening victory was worthy of a little celebration.

The Red Arrow girls basketball team, which won just nine games over the last two seasons, gave notice in their 55-29 win over Forest Hills Northern that Lowell basketball may return to its winning ways of the late 80s and early 90s.

The final numbers proved Akers correct. The Red Arrows not only held the Huskies to just two field goals in the first quarter, but they held FHN to nine for the scored five.

The Red Arrows' first lead came on a Jody Seif steal and a bucket with 4:30 left to play in the first half. Seif, fouled on the play, netted the foul shot and then, moments later, scored after gathering an offensive rebound, giving Lowell a 17-12 advantage.

Why are the YMCA programs different? The major focus of our youth programs is on learning, growing and fun, rather than on winning. There are no tryouts or cuts. "Everyone feels like a winner" is the YMCA Sport Philosophy. Everyone must play at least one-half of the game. Teams are coached by caring Grades K-2 volunteer parents. The YMCA places emphasis on skill development and attitude. Good sportsmanship is developed by the utilization of competitive games and a strong values structure. These values along with effective volunteer coaching make the Y program stand out from all the others. All children will not win in sports; in fact only a few consistently win, but all children succeed or are winners, when success is seen as progress

The YMCA sponsor program helps to try to heighten community involvement as well as community awareness with the Lowell YMCA. The program enables an area business to "sponsor" a youth sports team (soccer, basketball, softball, baseball, T-ball). The sponsored team will have a single business logo which covers the entire back of every player's and coach's game shirt. The program is a very positive improvement for the YMCA and for the area businesses who supported it. Last year we had 54 youth sport teams sponsored. It is our hope that this year we can break that mark. If you or someone you know who has a business may be interested in sponsoring a team for any season this upcoming year, please call the YMCA office at 897-8445 (ask for Clay), or stop in at 323 W. Main.
